AWARD

1. Central Government, MOL, New Delhi, vide notification No. L-42012/226/2001-IR(CM-II) dated 2-8-02 has referred the following dispute for adjudication to this tribunal :—

Whether the action of the management of Indian Institute of Pulse Research, Kalyanpur Kanpur in terminating the employment of Smt. Nirmala w/o. Sri Ram Kishan working as Contract worker allegedly under direct supervision of management w.e.f. 26-8-98 is legal and justified? If not to what relief the worker is entitled?

2. Vide notification No. L-42012/225/2001-IR (CM-II) dated 2-8-02 following reference has been made to this tribunal for adjudication :—

Whether the action of the management of Indian Institute of Pulse Research, Kalyanpur Kanpur in terminating the service of Smt. Ram Devi w/o Sri Nankau working as Contract labour allegedly under direct supervision of management w.e.f. 26-8-98 is legal and justified? If not to what relief the worker is entitled to?

3. Vide notification No. L-42012/224/2001-IR (CM-II) dated 2-8-2002 following reference has been made to this tribunal for adjudication :—

Whether the action of the management of Indian Institute of Pulse Research, Kalyanpur Kanpur in terminating the employment of Smt. Kanchan w/o Sri Puttan working as Contract labour allegedly under direct supervision of management w.e.f. 26-8-98 is legal and justified? If not to what relief the worker is entitled to?

2. As common question of law and facts are involved in the above industrial dispute cases, therefore, vide order dated 25-05-04 passed in I.D. Case No. 60 of 2002 the above cases were consolidated and I.D. No.60 of 2002 was made the leading case.

3. Needless to mention that after 25-5-04 several dates were provided to the contesting parties for adducing their respective evidence claims and counter claims by the Tribunal, still no evidence has been lead by the workmen in support of his claim. Case was taken for hearing at Camp Court Lucknow on 30-7-07, the representative for the management stated before the tribunal that since no evidence is available on the record of the case from the side of the workmen therefore, the management is also not inclined to adduce any evidence in the case. Thus virtually there is no evidence worth the name from the side of the workman, therefore, the reference is bound to be answered against the workers holding them to be not entitled for any relief as claimed by them.

4. For the reasons discussed above, reference is decided in negative holding that the workers involved in the case are not entitled for any relief for want of proof.

AWARD

1. Central Government, Ministry of Labour, New Delhi, vide notification No. L-22012/382/99/IR(CM-II) dated 22/28-6-2000 has referred the following dispute for adjudication to this tribunal :—

“Whether the action of the management of Food
Corporation of India in not regularizing 88 workmen (list enclosed) and not giving other benefits is legal and justified? If not, to what relief the workmen are entitled?”

2. It is unnecessary to detail further facts of the case on merit as after exchange of pleadings between the parties the representative for the workmen and workmen stopped putting their appearance in the case after 12-2-04. Final notice was sent to the union raising the present dispute on 6-5-07, through registered post still none turned up in the case and it appears that neither the representative for the union nor the workmen are interested in prosecuting the instant case. Even there is no evidence from the side of the union in support of their claim. In the facts and circumstances of the case the reference is bound to be answered in negative for want of evidence. Accordingly it is held that the workmen involved in the present dispute are not entitled for any relief as claimed by the union as the claim has not been substantiated by cogent and reliable evidence.

3. For the reasons disclosed above, the reference is therefore answered against the union and in favour of the opposite party.

APPEARANCES

AWARD

1. Central Government, Ministry of Labour, New Delhi, vide notification No. L-42012/69/2002 IR(CM-II) dated 30-10-02 has referred the following dispute for adjudication to this tribunal :—

Kya Adhikshak, Puratatvavid, Bhartiya Puratatva Sarvekshan dwara Sri Suresh Kumar son of Govind Dass ko dinank 30-9-2000 se sewa se nishkasit karna nyayochit hai ? yadi nahi to sambandhit karmkar kis anutosh ka haqdar hai ?

2. The case in short as set up by the workman in his statement of claim is that he was appointed by the opposite party on 11-8-88 against regular and permanent post of mate but instead of performing the work of mate he was also utilised to work as Chowkidar. He was being paid his wages at Rs. 1200 per month. It has also been alleged by the workman that when he was being paid his wages at Rs. 1200 per month his other counter parts were being paid their wages at the rate of Rs. 80 per day that is Rs. 2400 per month. Workman raised his demand for payment of his wages at the same rate. Workman further pleads that from the date of his appointment he continuously worked under the management and thus has worked more than 240 days in each calendar year. His work and conduct remained satisfactory throughout his employment. Workman has also pleaded that his appointment was not for any fixed term nor he was appointed to work such which was likely to come to an end by efflux of time, still he was treated to a daily rated worker and he was being paid his wages at the end of the month through muster roll. His attendance was used to be marked in the muster roll. It has also been pleaded by the workman that junior to him were made regular and permanent employee by the opposite party. On being raised his voice to treat him as regular and permanent employee of the employer and to pay him regular pay his services were abruptly terminated by the opposite party w.e.f. 30-9-2000 without there being any justifiable reasons and also without there being any written orders in this regard which was never given to him despite raising demand. Workman has therefore claimed that his termination from the services w.e.f. 30-9-2000 amounts to retrenchment and also in violation of provisions of section 25-F of Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. On the basis of above it has been prayed by the workman that the action in terminating the services of the workman w.e.f. 30-9-2000 be held as illegal and unjustified and the workman be reinstated in service with full back wages, continuity of service and all consequential benefits.

3. The claim of the workman has been contested by the opposite party on variety of grounds, inter alia, that the workman has no cause of action to raise the present dispute; that at any rate the officers of the opposite parties are not liable to be impleaded as party to this dispute therefore, reference is against law; that the opposite party do not come within the term Industry and no dispute can be raised against them; that the opposite party is a part and parcel of a ministry of the Government of India; that the claim of the workman is not accepted to the opposite party; that the opposite party of and on engages casual labours available on the specific monument for casual works like cleaning the idols and statues or graves or cenotaph for a specific limited time and work on receipt of estimates received therefor from the Ministry. It has been denied by the opposite party that the work on monuments are of regular and permanent nature and on expiry of the work or exhaustion of the estimate or on the expiry of the time, the employment rather engagement of the worker automatically comes to an end; and this is neither removal nor dismissal nor retrenchment either in law or on fact; that the worker was not engaged or employed on 11-8-88 for permanent work; that no regular and permanent post is there in the department as claimed by the workman; that the workman was neither regular and permanent employee nor his services were terminated and that on the expiry of the term the engagement came to an end automatic and lastly it has also been pleaded by the opposite party engagement on casual work does not confer any right to such workers under the provisions of I.D. Act, 1947. In the end it has been prayed that the claim of the workman is misconceived and misplaced therefore the same is liable to be rejected.

4. After exchange of pleadings between the parties, the representative for the workman moved an application supported with affidavit summoning muster rolls. The tribunal vide order dated 26-6-07 passed at camp Lucknow directed the management to file muster rolls preceding two years of the date of termination of the services of the workman. The management in compliance of the aforesaid orders filed original muster rolls on 16-8-07 at camp Lucknow bearing numbers 21/1 to 21/33 which is on record. Thereafter the case was fixed for evidence of parties. It may be pointed out here that after 24-7-07, neither the workman nor his authorised representative turned up in the case. The case in hand was taken up for evidence of parties on 21-8-07, none was present from the side of the workman. Management representative alongwith witness were present before the tribunal. On being questioned from the authorised representative for the management to adduce evidence, he submitted before the tribunal that since the workman has not adduced any evidence in support of his claim, the management is not inclined to adduce their evidence in the case. Therefore the workman was debarred from evidence and the case was fixed on 22-8-07 for arguments, of the parties.

5. Arguments of the management were heard at length and the tribunal has also examined the records of the case carefully.

6. It has been argued by the authorised representative for the management that it has been claimed by him that his services were removed w.e.f. 30-9-2000, whereas the workman was never in the employment of the opposite party. The attention of the tribunal was also drawn towards the muster roll for the year 1999-2000. A perusal of the same would go to reveal that the workman was not in the employment of the opposite party in the month of September, 2000, therefore, question of his termination w.e.f. 30-9-2000 by the opposite party does not arise at all. Even otherwise it is for the workman according to settled legal position to establish the fact that he remained in continuous employment of the employer for not less than 240 days in a calendar year preceding 12 months of the date of alleged termination. Since the workman has not come in the witness box to establish the above fact, tribunal is not inclined to believe the claim of the workman. Even no reliance can be placed on the pleadings of a party unless the same is proved by cogent evidence. In the instant case as observed earlier there is no evidence worth the name to substantiate the claim of the workman, the workman therefore, cannot be held entitled for any relief as claimed by him.

7. For the reasons discussed above, it is held that the schedule of reference order is vague in as much as management has not removed the workman w.e.f. 30-9-2000 as claimed by the workman, therefore, the action of the management cannot be held either to be unjustified or illegal. As a result of it, it is held that the workman is held not entitled for any relief in pursuance to the present reference order and the reference is decided in negative being vague.

8. Reference is answered accordingly against the workman.

Congress, Ambedkar Ward,
Ballarpur, Taluka & Distt.

Versus

Respondent : The Sub Area Manager, Ballarpur
Sup Area of Western Coalfields Ltd.,
Post. Ballarpur, Distt. Chandrapur
(M.S.)

...Party No.2

[Dated : 23rd August, 2007]

The Central Government after satisfying the existence of disputes between The President, National Colliery Workers Congress, Party No. 1 and The Sub Area Manager, W.C.L., Ballarpur Area, Nagpur Party No. 2 referred the same for adjudication to this Tribunal vide its Letter No. L-22012/197/99/IR (CM-II) Dt. 31/08/1999 under clause (d) of sub-section (1) and sub-section (2A) of Section 10 of Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947) with the following schedule :-

(2). "Whether the action of the management i.e. Sub Area Manager, M/s. Western Coalfields Ltd., Ballarpur Colliery in terminating and not regularizing the services of Smt. Laxmi Salaiah and 7 others of Ballarpur Colliery is legal and justified? If not, to what relief is the workmen entitled?"

(3). List has been appended of the workman as follows:—

- (i). Smt. Laxmi Salaiah.
- (ii). Smt. Madanamma Balaiah.
- (iii). Smt. Addur Narsubai Narassaiah.
- (iv). Smt. Odemma Kistaiah.
- (v). Smt. Laxmi Mondaiah.
- (vi). Shri. Malaiah Laxman.
- (vii). Shri Addur Rangaiah.
- (viii). Shri Dasarapoo Rajanna.

(4). On behalf of the above 8 workmen, the petitioner union has contended that they are the members of it and the union has a right to ventilate their grievances before the Tribunal by representing them. It is contended by giving the similar list that the above 8 persons had raised the dispute before the ALC and the union has made a statement of demand before ALC on 19-01-1999 and 05-03-1999 of their demands and that statement of demand be treated as a statement of claim before the Tribunal. The above persons are doing performing the work of sweeper. Their attendance was checked and counter signed by the Welfare Officer of the management. Similarly the Doctor also used to sign the attendance of the above workmen. They are the workmen within the provision of I.D. Act. The objection raised by the management that they are the workers of contractor are false. It is deliberate attempt of the management to get away the above workers from their right of becoming a permanent. It has been prayed that they being the workmen of the Western Coalfields Ltd., they be reinstated and be regularized on job of permanent Sweepers with full back wages of Ballarpur Colliery of Western Coalfields Ltd.

(5). On behalf of the management the Sub Area Manager, Ballarpur Colliery, Shri J.P. Mishra filed a W.S. resisting the claim of the petitioners. It is contended that the list of the claimants is incomplete, vague and giving any specific identity of the persons. The Statement of Claim does not show the particulars of the claimants and in the absence of the such materials, the facts as well as the workmen could be identified. The date of termination, nature of work, place of work are not mentioned and therefore the entire claim is not maintainable. It is contended that there was no relationship as employer and workmen was existing between the petitioners and the management. They were never appointed or engaged by the management. Therefore they can not be either reinstated or regularized.

(6). It is contended that the reference is patently illegal as the appropriate government has gone into disputed question of fact which is beyond the scope and jurisdiction of the Tribunal. The union has claimed the regularization of the above 8 persons on the ground that they were engaged for execution of the work of prohibited category. The management for the disposal of garbage, dead animals and the wastage in the colonies, the contracts were awarded to a certain person at the approved rate of Rs. 20/- per 10 trips of each bullock cart. The work of transportation of garbage collected by the departmental sweepers is temporary contracts done once in every 3 months. The contract was guaranteed for transportation of garbage to Malliah Laxman and Addur Rangaiah for a specific period and for the specific amount. The claimants were engaged by the contractor from time to time for transportation. They have never performed the job of sweeper. They were neither recruited nor selected nor giving any were vocational training and they never included in the man power of the company. Thus according to the management the relationship as an employer and employee never existed between the petitioners and it. Since the amount involved in the contract was more than 50,000/-, the Auditors asked the management to call open tenders for removal of garbage. Accordingly from 1994 onwards the open tenders are called. It was open to any person to submit the tenders, however the petitioners did not submit any tender and therefore the management accepted the lowest rate and engaged the contractor from time to time for removing the garbage. It is also contended that the job of transportation of garbage collected by the departmental sweepers does not fall with in prohibited category. The management has never employed the petitioners. The job of removal of garbage is not of a permanent nature of job. No law or any rule prohibits the management from giving the contract for removing garbage collected by the departmental sweepers. The management is registered under the Contract Labour (regulation and abolition) Act. For the purpose of recruitment, the management had a certain policy of Category-IV. The vacancies are informed to the Employment Exchange who sponsors the name of legible candidates. After the interview and selection by the committee, orders in writing are issued. The petitioners were never engaged and they are not the employees of the management. Finally it has prayed to dismiss the claim of the petitioners.

(7). In order to prove the contention, the union has filed the affidavits of all eight persons and also filed Xerox copies of some documents and two registers alleged to have been returned by the management officials. Similarly the management has filed affidavit of its Personal Manager, Ballarpur Sub Area, Shri Sukhdeo Mahto S/o of Chandradeep Mahto. I would like to make it clear that neither the petitioners nor the Personal Manager are offered themselves for the cross examination. Therefore the no party had an opportunity to cross examine any of the witnesses of opposite party. Now the questions for my consideration are :—

(a). Whether the petitioners were engaged by the management and there is a relationship of workman and employer between them ?

(b). Whether they are the workman with in the meaning of I.D. Act or whether they are the employees of the contractor?

(8). At the outset I would like to mention that the petitioner/union have not filed a statement of Claim in a proper manner. It does not give full names, addresses and even the age of the persons to identify them as workers. I do agree that no form has been prescribed for filing the Statement of Claim or the Written Statement but as a rule of pleadings it is expected that there should be a specific claims mentioning the exact fact on the basis of which the claim is made. It should be specific either to admit or deny by the other party. Here the petitioner/union say that its demand before the ALC at the time of raising disputes should be treated as a Statement of Claim in response to the order of the Central Govt. under which the reference is sent to the tribunal. The notes of demand to A.L.C. can not be a statement of Claim and consequently the as stated by the management the Statement of Claim is very vague even to reply it.

(9). So far as merit is concern all petitioners i.e. 8 persons have filed their affidavits practically of the similar nature mentioning that they had worked from August, 1983 to 1994 without mentioning any specific date of appointment of each employee or the date of termination/ retrenchment. Similarly they are silent as to whether they were engaged on daily wages, on temporary basis or on the vacant post of any employee. whether they were working as a part time worker or a full time worker? Whether they were paid by the management and if paid whether it was in a monthly basis or on a daily basis? Their affidavits and their Statement of Claim are silent even about their exact pay and manner in which were getting. It is also not clear as to whether they were paid on the voucher or their pay scale was fixed.

(10). Undisputedly they were not appointed by giving a written order and nothing is brought on record by the petitioner whether they had applied consequently to any advertisement or their names were sponsored by the Employment Exchange or they were interviewed. Undisputedly their appointments were not made as per recruitment rules of the Western Coalfields Ltd. On behalf of the petitioners it is contended that they have filed their affidavits mentioning all the above things and they should be believed. I have already pointed out that none of the petitioners had offered for the cross examination and the affidavits are without cross examination which are on record. The same thing is about the affidavit of the Personal Manager of Ballarpur Collieries which is also without cross examination. As indicated above the affidavits of the petitioners are also a vague one and I do not think that they are of the worth of even admitting as evidence and relying on them.

(11). The union in the affidavits gave a list of work which they were allegedly asked to perform by the management but there is no evidence to support it and show that the petitioners were either appointed and were under the direct control and the supervision of the management. The petitioners have filed two registers and submitted that the management used to maintain their Muster Roll and its Officer like Social Welfare Officer and the Medical Officer used to counter sign it. The management has denied that the two registers filed by the petitioners were maintained by it or they are of the management. It is their case that the petitioners were engaged by the contractor for removing the garbage collected by their regular sweepers to the direct place at the rate of Rs. 20/- for ten trips of the bullock carts. The management used to call the tenders and give the contracts for three months for removal of garbage and some times was renewed from time to time. It has also produced the tenders for contracts.

(12). Even the affidavits of the petitioners indicate that they were doing the work of removing and transporting the garbage collected from the houses in a bullock carts. It means the bullock carts were being deployed for transporting the garbage. There is nothing even to indicate that the bullocks and the carts are owned by the management to engage the employees to maintain and work on it. If they were not owned by the management then they must have been brought by some of the other persons than the management and naturally the workers who are engaged to work for transporting the garbage by loading and unloading it will be the workers of the person who had owned the carts and bullocks for it. When the carts and bullocks are not belonging to the management, it is difficult to believe that the management would engage any workman for loading, unloading and removing the garbage.

(13). The petitioners union has filed two registers and submitted that at Ballarpur sub area the management used to maintain the muster roll and its officers were signing on it. It seems that they are having nomenclature as "sanitation Bullock carts attendance Report" one is from 1-4-90 to 13-3-1992 and another is not in a serial manner though it is bind register. In the beginning it is of 1988 and after some pages the 1985, 1986, 1989 is mentioned. The management has denied that they are of the W. C. L. The perusal of the registers indicates that they having signatures of the at some places of the medical officers but they are showing the trips of the carts because the payment was made on the basis of trips and the trip numbers might have been checked by medical officer. The names of 4 cart owner and some times 5 owners written. They are not disclosing the names of all 8 petitioners continuously. Only by checking it will not become attendance register. Neither they can be attendance register nor can be said of the management. They cannot be relied and acted upon.

(14). Now turning to other point as to whether the petitioners are the workman of the respondent and there exist a relationship as employee and employer? In my view the evidence as well as the circumstances is against the petitioners. The evidence as indicated above which consists of two registers called by the petitioners as Attendance Registers do not disclose even the names of all the petitioners regularly. Those registers are useful to show as how many trips of the bullock carts are made by each of the person. It does not show a regular attendance as well as the payment of wages on the basis of it. They support the contention of the management that these persons were paid on the basis of the trips of bullock carts in a day for removing garbages. It is the case of the management that there was a contract between four to five persons mentioned in the registers for removing the garbage and they were paid Rs. 20/- for ten trips. These registers are not maintained by the management but they must have written by the petitioners and after checking it the concern officer was calculating the amount payable to them. In any case they can not be called as a Muster Roll. On a contrary the submissions of the management are supported by their documents like tender issued by it inviting the contractors for putting the rates of removing the garbage and renewal of the contracts. In such circumstances it can hardly be said that the relationship as employer and employee exists between the management and the petitioners. Consequently the petitioners can not be said as a workman with in the meaning of section 2(s) of I. D. Act. Hence I hold that the petitioners are not entitled either for reinstatement or for the back wages or any other relief. Hence I answered the reference in negative.

"Whether the demand of the workman Shri Narender for reinstatement w.e.f. 3.11.2000 with full back wages by the management of Punjab and Sind Bank is just fair and legal. If not, what relief the workman is entitled to and from which date?"

The workman applicant has filed claim statement. In the claim statement it has been stated that the workman was assigned various duties from time to time by official of the bank and the workman carried out the said work diligently and to the best of his ability and gave no chance of complaint during his period of service.

That the workman while working on full time process was paid various amount ranging from Rs. 60/- to 75/- per day at the sweet will and fancy of the management which was even less than the minimum wages paid to a workman as per the law and far less paid to the bank employee placed in the similar category on regular basis.

That the workman has completed 240 days in a calendar year and became entitle for benefit under Section 25F and 25G of Industrial Dispute Act.

That there was no subordinate staff in the said branch and the workman was asked to do all type of duties for the smooth running of the branch which the workman performed satisfactorily to his seniors.

That the workman was assured at the time of engagement that he will be regularized in the bank service on completion of 240 days without break in calendar year accordingly the workman requested the management to regularize his services and provide all benefit as applicable to regular/permanent employee of the bank at par on which the management kept on assuring to give the same benefit as given to regular employees and instead of providing the same he was terminated without observing the due process of law as required in the instant case.

That the management terminated the services of the workman since 3-11-2000 without assigning any reason or cause and also failed to observe and follow the rule of law provided under the Industrial Dispute Act 1947 for termination and did not allow the workman to enter the premises of the bank on and from 3-11-2000 without giving any prior notice etc as per law.

That as the aforesaid termination was illegal, the workman served a legal notice through his advocate demanding reinstatement with full back wages and continuity of service, which was not replied by the management.

That the termination of service of the workman was illegal, the workman served a legal notice through his advocate demanding reinstatement with full back wages and continuity of service, which was not replied by the management.

That the termination of service of the workman was illegal, unlawful, arbitrary and unconstitutional and the same is also against the principle of natural justice amounting to unfair labour practice.

That the workman has filed a claimed petition before the Assistant Labour Commissioner, Curzon Road, New Delhi. The management submitted their reply. The copy of conciliation claim enclosed herewith as annexure-A.

That the workman also file a rejoinder and clarified all the points disputed by the management in there W.S. the copy of rejoinder is enclosed annexure-B.

That the workman submitted that he was never told by the management that he is the casual worker rather he was always told that he will be absorbed as regular employee, therefore he was employed by the management regularly without any interruption/break and demanded equal pay and benefit from time to time.

That the workman was paid the wages on vouchers from time to time and taken his signature for the said payment which was even less than the minimum wages as prescribed as per law. Some of the vouchers are still in custody of the bank which will be called on record of proceeding at the appropriate time and some of the vouchers will be produced during the proceeding.

That the workman since the date of termination is unemployed and could not get employment anywhere despite of his best effort.

That the above said Acts of management are illegal, invalid, unjustified, arbitray, unconstitutional and contrary to the term of provision of Industrial Dispute Act 1947 and other applicable law amounting unfair labour practice and exploitation.

That the management has not followed the procedure of last come first go and terminated the services of workman without due process of law.

That the management is guilty of not following the guidelines in regularizing the services of the workmen after completion of 240 days in a year, rather behaved adamant enough not to consider the long working experience of the workman and illegally terminated this services.

The Management has filed written statement. In the written statement it has been stated that the claimant was engaged by the management as part time casual worker and he was made payment accordingly.

That the claimant has not worked continuously for 240 days in consecutive year and therefore, not entitled to any relief.

That the claimant is trying to use back door entry method to get into the regular service of the bank in connivance with some staff member which is why he is claiming to hold in his possession copies of the bank records to which is not entitle to possess. The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India has strongly depreciate such practices for getting service in public sector and has rejected such claims in its various.

That the financial position of the bank is not very good and Government of India has banned any fresh recruitment. As such the management cannot give any benefit to the claimant even if he is entitled thereof which is otherwise is denied.

The claimant was not in employment of the Respondent Bank at any point of time most specifically since 1-4-1996. The claimant be put to strict proof thereof.

The claimant was engaged as casual worker by the management.

It is wrong and denied that claimant was working on full time and was paid at the rate stated in the claim at the sweet will and fancy of management. The complainant was never engaged full time and only as casual worker on some time occasions. He was paid according to the period/hours, he worked.

The management gave no assurance as stated in this para. The management did not terminate the service of the claimant without observing the process of law.

The workman cannot be allowed to produce the documents in bits and pieces as according to principle of natural justice the management has right to refute any document filed subsequent to filing of the claim. As such the claimant cannot be allowed to file any document after filing of the written statement.

The workman applicant has filed rejoinder. In the rejoinder he has reiterated the averments of his claim statement and has denied most of the paras of the written statement. The management has also denied most of the paras of the claim statement.

Evidence of the both the parties has been taken.

Heard argument from both the sides and perused the papers on the record.

From perusal of the pleadings of the parties the following issues arise for adjudication.

1. Whether the workman has performed 240 days duty as alleged?
2. Whether the workman is entitled to reinstatement?
3. To what amount of back wages the workman is entitled?
4. Relief if any?

ISSUE NO. 1

It was submitted from the side of the workman that he was engaged as temporary/daily wager and was paid various amounts ranging Rs. 60 to Rs. 75 per day by the management. He was not paid even minimum wages. He joined the services of the bank in the year 1996 and his services were terminated on 03-11-2000.

It was further submitted that the workman has completed 240 days in the year 1997, 1998, 1999 and 2000. The workman has filed vouchers regarding payment made to him. the management witness has admitted the photocopy of vouchers. MW1 has admitted as under in his cross-examination :

"Help to provide services of subordinate staff was provided by the Guru Nanak Public School and Gunman of the bank was also posted in the said extension counter. I do not know whether there was any agreement or understanding between the bank and school for providing such services."

"No person was called from employment exchange for subordinate staff for my branch by the bank. I do not know whether Zonal Manager has called the names from Employment Exchange for subordinate staff in the branch. There are written instructions to the Branch Managers not to employ any sub-staff. I do not know whether the other branches of the bank have employed any subordinate staff contrary to such instructions."

From perusal of the evidence of this witness it transpires that the services of subordinate staff were provided by Guru Nanak Public School. The management has not examined any witness to prove that Guru Nanak Public School provided the service of subordinate staff. No documents have been filed to show that any Peon of Guru Nanak Public School provided services of subordinate staff to the management.

MW1 has admitted that no Peon was posted in the Branch. Only a Gunman was posted and it has been also admitted that services of the workman were taken when no one was available.

This witness has further admitted as under :—

"During my tenure in the said branch there was no Peon posted in the branch and as I said the Gunman was posted as well the services was provided by School."

This witness indirectly admits that he has not made complaint against the workman as he was not an employee. The workman infact was not a regular employee of the management, so there is no question of writing CR.

The management has taken the plea that Guru Nanak Public School provided the subordinate staff Service. It was mandatory for the management to establish the plea. It is settled law that the burden to prove the plea is on that party who takes a particular plea. The management has not examined any witness to prove that the services of subordinate staff were taken from Guru Nanak Public School. This workman has filed vouchers of the relevant period which has been admitted by the management. It is also admitted that the branch was newly opened and there was no peon. Only a Gunman was posted. It is also admitted that there was staff of 5-6 persons. The services of the peon is necessary for discharging the bank duties. This workman has worked continuously from 1996 to 3-11-2000 as Peon of the bank. The management has failed to prove as to who was the Peon of that newly open branch in the year 1996 to 2000.

The workman has worked continuously as daily wager from 1996 to 3-11-2000 and he has performed 240 days during all these years. This issue is decided accordingly.

Issue No. 2.

It was submitted from the side of the bank that reinstatement is not the only relief in all the cases of illegal termination. Section 11 A of the ID Act, 1947 provides for payment of compensation also.

It was submitted from the side of the workman that compensation is payable in cases where an undertaken has become sick or it has been closed or it is in economic loss. It has not been established that the bank is in economic loss and it is a sick Industry.

My attention was drawn by the Ld. Counsel of the workman to 2000 LLR 523 State of UP and Rajender Singh. The Hon'ble Apex Court ordered for reinstatement with full back wages as the services of the daily wager cleaner who worked for 4 years was dispensed with without following the procedure for retrenchment. In the instant case also no retrenchment compensation has been paid. This case law squarely covers the instant case.

It has been held in 1978 Lab IC 1668 that in case service of a workman is terminated illegally the normal rule is to reinstate him with full back wages.

My attention was further drawn to AIR 2002 SC 1313. The Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that daily wager even if serving for a short period should be reinstated.

It was submitted from the side of the workman that in the instant case Sections 25 F, G of the ID Act are attracted

In Section 25 of the ID Act it has been provide that if a workman has performed 240 days work and if the work is of continuous and regular nature he should be given pay in lieu of notice and retrenchment compensation.

It has been held by the Hon'ble Apex Court that there is no cessation of service in case provisions of section 25 F are not complied. In the instant case no compensation has been paid to the workman.

In case a workman has worked for 240 days in a year and the work is of continuous and regular nature he should be paid retrenchment compensation. In case retrenchment compensation is not paid section 25 F of the ID Act is attracted. There is no cessation of his services. He is deemed continued in service in the eye of law. In case there is breach of Secion 25 F the service is continued and reinstatement follows as a natural consequence. It has nowhere been denied that the work is not of continuous nature.

ID Act, 1947 has been enacted to safeguard the interest of the workmen belonging to poor segment of society. It appears that legislature wanted that such workmen should not be harassed un-necessarily so section 25 F, U, T and Clause 10 of Vth Schedule have been enacted. The objects and reasons of ID Act, 1947 show that the respondent management should not be permitted to indulge in any unfair labour practice. The workmen should not be engaged for years and then they should be removed all of a sudden. There is provision of retrenchment compensation for his removal. Retrenchment compensation is for compensating him otherwise so that he can survive long interregnum of unemployment. In the instant case no retrenchment compensation has been paid.

The work of Peon is of continuous and regular nature.

It was submitted from the side of the management that the Hon'ble Apex Court in 2006 (4) Scale has put down a complete ban on regularization and reinstatement. The Hon'ble Apex Court has held that employment can only be made on the basis of procedure established in that behalf envisaged by the Constitution. Equality of opportunity is the hallmark and the Constitution enshrines affirmative action to ensure that unequals are not treated equals. So public employment should be in terms of constitutional scheme.

It was further submitted that the Constitution Bench Judgment has afforded a right according to which the Government is not precluded from making temporary appointments or engaging workers on daily wages.

The Hon'ble Apex Court has not declared the provisions of ID Act un-constitutional. The Government has got no license to make always appointment of daily wagers and to continue them for life time. Fixed term tenure appointments and temporary appointments cannot be the rule of public employment. At the time of making temporary appointments Articles 14, 16, 21, 23, 226 and 309 are infringed. There is no constitutional mandate that the Government is at liberty to go on giving fixed term appointments for the entire tenure of service of an employee.

No such Article of the Constitution has been pointed out under which the Government or Public Sector units can continue incessantly to give temporary and fixed term appointments again and again. Since fixed term appointments and temporary appointments are not governed by any constitutional scheme, such discrimination will amount to vicious discretion. The Government of Public Sector unit will go on resorting to the method of pick and choose policy and give temporary and ad hoc appointments to their favorites and thus the principles of equality enshrined in the constitution will be given a go bye. Such is not the intent of the Hon'ble Apex Court. However, in this judgment the provisions of the ID Act governing the services of the workman have not been declared un-constitutional. Reinstatement is the remedy provided in the ID Act for breach of several provisions enumerated therein or for breach of service rules provided in various labour welfare legislations.

Section 11A of the ID Act stipulates that in case the Tribunal is satisfied that the order of discharge or dismissal was not justified, it may, by its award, set aside the order of discharge or dismissal and direct reinstatement of the workman on such terms and conditions, if any, as it thinks fit or give such other relief to the workman including the award of any lesser punishment in lieu of discharge or dismissal as the circumstance of the case may require. According to this benign provision Tribunal has the authority to set aside the order of discharge or dismissal and reinstate the workman on the terms and conditions as it thinks fit.

The Hon'ble Apex Court in 2006 (4) Scale has not annulled section 11A of the ID Act and the legislature has authorized this Tribunal to set aside dismissal or discharge on its consideration and direct reinstatement. The judgment cited by the management is not applicable in the facts and circumstances of the case.

A three Judges Bench of the Hon'ble Apex Court has held in 1993 - II - LLJ that termination of services affects the livelihood of not only of the employee but also of the dependents. So in case of illegal termination of service the workman should be reinstated.

Reinstatement should not be misconceived as regularization. By the order of reinstatement the status quo ante of the workman is restored. He is given back wages in order to compensate him for his illegal dis-engagement. This is a special remedy provided in ID Act and it has not been annulled and set aside by any judgment of the Hon'ble Apex Court. The provisions of the ID Act are still constitutional and they are to be given effect too.

In case the workman is reinstated with back wages the respondents have every right, after payment of back wages and reinstatement, to retrench him validly following the principles of first come last go so that Section 25, G and H of the ID Act are not violated.

In view of the law cited above and the facts pertaining in this case, the workman is entitled to reinstatement. This issue is decided accordingly.

Issue No. 3

It was submitted by the management that payment of full back wages is not the natural consequence of the order of discharge or dismissal being set aside. It has been held in (2003) 6 SCC 141 that it is incumbent upon the labour court to decide the quantum of back wages.

It has been further held in this case that payment of back wages having discretionary element involved it is to be dealt with the facts and circumstances of the case. No definite formula can be evolved.

It has been further held in this case that payment of back wages in its entirety is the statutory sanction. In (2003) 4 SCC 27 the Hon'ble Apex Court held that in view of delay in raising the dispute and initiating the proceedings back wages need not be allowed. In the instant case there is no delay at least on the part of the workman in raising the dispute.

In 1978 Lab IC 1968 - three Judges Bench of the Hon'ble Apex Court held that payment of full back wages is the normal rule. In case services have been illegally terminated either by dismissal or discharge or retrenchment, in such circumstance the workman is entitled to full back wages except to the extent he was gainfully employed during the enforced idleness. In the instant case the workman was always ready to work but he was not permitted on account of invalid act of the employer.

In 2005 IV AD SC 39 - three Judges Bench of the Hon'ble Apex Court held that reinstatement with full back wages is justified. In this case the workman has performed more than 240 days work and he has been retrenched without payment of compensation and pay in lieu of notice.

It was submitted from the side of the management that reinstatement is not the only remedy. In such cases the workman may be given compensation. Section 11A of the ID Act, 1947 provides that in case of dismissal or discharge is found illegal reinstatement should be ordered. It has been held in a catena of cases by the Hon'ble Apex Court that reinstatement with full back wages is the normal rule. The statute provides for reinstatement. In certain exceptional cases where the undertaking has been closed down or it has become sick there may be order for payment of compensation.

In view of the facts and circumstances of the case the workman is entitled to 50% back wages as he is a manual worker and he must be doing some sort of work for his sustenance.

ISSUE No. 4

The workman is entitled to reinstatement with 50% back wages.

The reference is replied thus :—

The demand of the workman Shri Mansinder for reinstatement w.e.f. 3-11-2000 with full back wages by the management of Punjab and Sind Bank is just fair and legal. The management should reinstate the workman w.e.f. 3-11-2000 along with 50 per cent back wages within two months from the date of the publication of the award.

The award is given accordingly.

2. A charge sheet dated 1-3-1999 marked before this tribunal at Ex. M1 came to be issued against the first party workman in the following terms:

Charge Sheet

It is reported against you that you are alleged to have committed the following acts of misconduct and dereliction of duties while working as clerk in N.R. Mohalla branch by misusing the power for personal pecuniary gain.

Charge I:- You are alleged to have committed a fraud in collusion with an outsider in the SB account No. 68/802 of N. Krishna Singh (pensioner-deceased) by fraudulently misusing the funds in the said account by wrongful use of cheque No. 130587 drawn in favour of LIC, Mysore for Rs. 1,029/- on 31-03-1998 by forging the signature of Late Shri N. Krishna Singh. If the above charge is established it amounts to gross misconduct and you are liable to be punished under 19.5(d) of Bipartite settlement as amended from time to time.

Charge IV:- You are alleged to have made a remark/ note in the pension payment register, ledger folio Nos. 78,79 pertaining to Late N. In view of the forgoing you are hereby advised to submit your reply to the charge sheet within 15 days of receipt of this charge sheet. Please note that we will be proceeding further in the matter after the stipulated date without reference to you again in the matter."

3. The first party appears to have challenged the allegations made in the charge sheet resulting into the Domestic Enquiry being held against him and thereupon on the basis of the enquiry findings, his services came to be terminated by way of 'Discharge' by the impugned punishment order dated 11-01-2001.

4. The first party in his Claim Statement on merits (pleadings with regard to validity and fairness or otherwise of the enquiry proceedings are omitted there being separate finding on the said issue) while giving out the details of the allegations made against him in the charge sheet and earlier to that to the show cause noticed dated 24-08-1998 issued to him challenged the findings of the enquiry officer as perverse on the ground that the management except producing the letter dated 6-08-1998 given by him by way of confession, produced no other material by way of evidence in order to substantiate the charges of misconduct levelled against him. He contended that on 6-08-1998 he was summoned by the Assistant General Manager of the bank by name Shri N. Narasimhachar in order to enquire about the pension amounts credited to the Saving Bank account of one Shri N. Krishna Singh even after his death and fraudulent withdrawals made from the said account. When the first party denied of having credited any pension amount to the said account or withdrawn any amount from the said account, the Assistant General Manager asked him to give a letter of admission and as a Disciplinary Authority he would see that a lenient view is taken and no harm would be caused to him. This happened in the presence of Shri G.H. Hutchappa, Zonal Secretary of the State Bank of Mysore Employees Union and Shri A.P. Amba, Vice President of the said Union and it is understanding of assurance given by the Assistant General Manager he had given a letter as directed by him as otherwise he was threatened with dire consequences to follow. He contended that on the very evening of 6-08-1998 he was served with suspension order dated 5-08-1998. He contended that the above said Shri N. Krishna Singh had an SB account No. 68/802 with Mysore Branch of the bank reported to be dead on 10-11-1994 and the bank went on crediting monthly pension amount to his account even after his death. This went on until August, 1998. He stated that during the period in between November, 1994 till he became the pension clerk for the period from May 1996, the other officials of the bank were working as Ledger Clerk, Account and pension clerk as well as dealing with Saving Bank Accounts. He then gave the details as to how the Pension credit vouchers will be dealt with by the Pension Clerk. He contended that where the accounts are either dormant or inoperative, Rules of the bank require special care to be taken by the Accountant/Branch Manager in passing the cheques and in so far as inoperative accounts are concerned, it is the branch Manager who is authorized to pass the cheques. He contended that when the things, thus stood, he just continued to prepare the slips for pension amount in to the account of said Shri Krishna Singh from May, 1996 onwards as was being done by his Predecessors and amounts were credited into the account of the said Pensioner only after they were authorized by the Accountant/Branch Manager and that at no point of time they raised any objection or instructed him to obtain life certificate of the Pensioner. As far as withdrawals alleged in the charge sheet, the first party contended that admittedly on and after 10-11-1994 there had been no transaction made by the first party (it ought to have been Pensioner) therefore, it was an inoperative account on and after 1996 and any debit in the account thereafter could have been passed only by the Branch Manager; that the first party never made any entry in the SB Ledger as he did not work as a Clerk in the SB department. Therefore, if any wrong credit of pension was made in the account of the Pensioner and if any wrong withdrawal from the said account was made, then, the management should have held various persons/officials guilty for the acts prejudicial to the interest of the bank and not the first party alone. He was made to give the above said admission letter dated 06-08-1998 just to save the skin of the other officials. The first party also contended that there is no basis for the allegations made against him with regard to the fact that a 'remark note' in the pension payment register has been made to the effect that excess pension paid from 11-11-1994 to 31-01-1998 recovered balance Rs.92,560. He also contended that it was not his duty to obtain the life certificate of the Pensioner. Therefore, he contended that the charge of misconduct has not been proved against him during the course of enquiry and the findings of the enquiry officer suffered from perversity as there was no evidence sufficient brought on record to hold him guilty of the charges except his letter dated on 06-08-1998 which had been obtained from him under force and duress. He contended that the remittance of Rs. 92,295 also was made by him under the instructions of said Shri N. Narasimhachar under whose dictation he wrote the aforesaid admission letter. Therefore, according to him the findings suffered from perversity and the impugned punishment order passed against him was unjust and illegal under the facts and circumstances narrated by him above. He requested this court to pass an award setting aside the impugned punishment order with a direction to the management to reinstate him in service with all consequential benefits including back wages and continuity of service.

5. The management by its counter statement among other things contended that the enquiry held against the first party was in accordance with the principles of natural justice, findings of the enquiry officer were based upon sufficient and legal evidence and that order terminating the services of the first party by way of 'Discharge' was just and legal, further contended that the allegations that he was coerced or forced to give letter dated 06-08-1998 are false and incorrect. The management contended that the said Shri Narasimhachar never compelled the first party to give such a letter much less giving any assurance of taking lenient view against him. The management contended that infact the first party gave the said letter voluntarily with the fond hope that he may escape from the severe punishment. Therefore, the management contended that the findings of the enquiry officer were based upon sufficient and legal evidence also in the light of the very admission made by the first party by way of his aforesaid letter and in view of the fact he debited a sum of Rs.92,295 pilfered by him. The management contended that the impugned punishment order being challenged by the first party also came to be confirmed by the Appellate Authority. The management also contended that the punishment imposed upon the first party is proportionate to the gravity of the misconduct committed by him and requested this tribunal to reject the reference.

6. Keeping, in view the respective contentions of the parties with regard to the validity and fairness or otherwise of the enquiry proceedings, this tribunal on 26-06-2004 framed the following preliminary issue:

"Whether the Domestic Enquiry conducted against the first party by the second party is fair and proper?"

7. During the course of trial of the said issue, the management examined the enquiry officer and got marked 9 documents at Ex.M1 to M9. The first party by way of rebuttal examined himself as WW1 getting marked the document at Ex.W1 and in his cross examination one more document for the management was marked at Ex.M10.

8. After hearing the learned counsels for the respective parties, this tribunal by order dated 03-08-2006 answered the above said issue in favour of the management recording a finding that the enquiry conducted against the first party by the second party is fair and proper.

9. Learned counsel for the first party advanced his arguments orally and whereas, learned counsel for the management submitted his written arguments.

10. In his oral arguments, learned counsel for the party as against Charge No. 1 argued that the Ledger Sheet at Ex. BEX 1 shows that cheque is paid in favour of KEB but the enquiry officer has acted upon a letter by LIC Mysore marked at Ex. BEX. 5 though author of the said letter was not examined. He contended that the enquiry officer as well as the Disciplinary authority have attached much importance and taken into consideration the letter written by the first party at Ex. BEX-13 in taking the charges of misconduct as proved against the first party though the first party has contended that this was the letter obtained from him under duress and coercion and the assurance given by the Assistant General Manager that a lenient view will be taken if he admitted the guilt or otherwise he has to face dire consequences.

11. With regard to charge No.2 the learned counsel argued that the ledger sheet at BEX-1 shows that the cheque under reference is paid to KEB and whereas, as per the charge sheet the cheque has been issued in favour of Karnataka Contractor Sahakari Bank Ltd., Mysore and the first party did not make any entry in the ledger sheet. This contradiction has not been taken note of by the enquiry officer or by the disciplinary authority. Therefore, conclusion drawn by them holding the first party guilty of the charge is not established. He argued that the charge against the first party was that the defrauded the bank on 14-05-1998 by issuing one more cheque for Rs. 8,579 in favour of M/s. Vinayaka Enterprises forging the signature of deceased Shi Krishna Singh again not established as the above said cheque returned dishonoured on the ground that the signature of the person on account No. 68/802 differed. The Charge No.7 that the first party destroyed the bank records has also not been established there being no evidence produced during the course of enquiry either direct or circumstantial to hold the first party guilty of the said charge.

12. Whereas, learned counsel for the management supported the enquiry findings and repeated the oral and documentary evidence produced during the course of enquiry and the reasoning given by the enquiry officer in holding the workmen guilty of the charges. He also cited certain decisions with respect to the powers of this tribunal in interfering with the punishment imposed upon the delinquent concerned by the management whenever the Domestic Enquiry has been held to be fair and proper and the charges of misconduct have been proved in the light of the findings recorded by the enquiry officer.

13. After having gone through the records, more particularly, the findings of the enquiry officer with reference to the oral and documentary evidence produced in the course of enquiry and the facts undisputed that the first party gave a letter at Ex. BEX. 13 admitting the various allegations made in the charge sheet amounting to the misconducts and the fact that he deposited a sum of Rs.92,560/- into the account of the deceased pensioner on 29-07-1998 duly signed by himself with a remark on the voucher as 'Sundry' vide EX. BEX. -7, I find no substance in the arguments advanced for the first party.

14. Now, coming to the charge No. 1 the learned enquiry officer has taken into account the statement of management witness examined as BW1 and the document marked at Ex.BEX. 1 namely, ledger sheet of SB account No. 68/802 pertaining to the deceased pensioner showing the opening balance of Rs.92,560/-, the document at Ex.BEX. 3, the death certificate of the deceased pensioner to show that he died on 10-11-1994. BEX.2, showing that the pension was fixed to Smt. Anusuyabai wife of the deceased Pensioner w.e.f. 11-11-1994 was also taken into account. He then considered the documents at Ex. BEX.11, a cheque book requisition slip dated 18-06-1997 received by one Shri G.R. Nagaraju against his SB Account No.67/232 containing the cheque leaves from 130576 to 130600 issued on 18-06-1997, itself. He took into account the document at Ex.BEX 12 & the SB Ledger Sheet of SB Account No. 67/232 wherein, a remark was made to the effect that cheque book lost repeating the aforesaid cheque leaves numbers and this remark was made as on 24-10-1997. The inward clearing on 31-03-1998 which were produced and considered at BEX 6 disclosed that the aforesaid cheque was received on the above said date. The SB account Day Book-cum-Progressive Register confirmed the debit entry appearing in the Ledger Sheet of SB Account No. 68/802. The aforesaid document at BEX. 5, namely, the letter from the LIC confirming the proceeds of cheque No.130587 was received by them and credited to the account of Shri G.V. Swamy Naik said to be the co-brother of the first party. This is the same cheque consisting of the said cheque book issued in favour of said Nagaraju and there was a 'remark' in the bank recorded to the effect that the said cheque book was lost. Then, the next document which was considered by the enquiry officer was the letter of the first party under his own handwriting dated 06-08-1998 addressed to the AGM, Region-1, Mysore Zone wherein at Para 2 he admitted the fact that the above said cheque leaf was used for paying LIC premium of Rs.1029/- for his co-brother. Therefore, from the perusal of the aforesaid exhibits, it is crystal clear that cheque No. 130587 has been encashed on 31-03-1998 to the debit of SB account belonging to the deceased Pensioner who infact expired on 10-11-1994 itself. In the aforesaid letter the first party also admitted that he used one cheque leaf for paying LIC premium of Rs. 1209/- of his co-brother. In the result, the oral and documentary evidence produced during the course of enquiry leads to the conclusion that the first party came into possession of the aforesaid lost cheque book and by forging the signature of the deceased, misused the funds belonging to him as alleged in the charge sheet vide charge No.1.

15. The Second Charge against the first party was that he used another cheque No. 130538, the cheque leaf consisting of the above said cheque book issued in favour of Shri Nagaraju and thereafter was found missing. This is a cheque issued for a sum of Rs.90,000 in favour of KCSBL, Mysore on 07-04-1998 and the ledger sheet of the SB Account of the deceased at Ex.BEX. 1 disclosed that a debit entry of Rs.90,000 on the said date and that debit entry also has got a corresponding entry in BEX. 10, the SB day book cum progressive balance register relating to the SB account of the deceased Pensioner. This fact had been very much confirmed by the management witness BW1. This fact again was admitted by the first party in his letter at Ex. BEX.13. Moreover, the first party admittedly remitted a sum of Rs.92,250 to the account of the deceased pensioner on 29-07-1998 under the pay slip signed by him in his own hand writing. Therefore, all these facts would amply prove that the first party having used the aforesaid last cheque leaf, misused the same for a sum of Rs.90,000 which according to the first party was issued in favour of his friend for his benefit. Therefore, taking into consideration the letter at Ex.BEX.13, the fact of payment of the aforesaid huge amount of Rs.92,250 by the first party to the account of the deceased pensioner, it goes without saying that the first party misused his position as a Pension clerk and taking advantage of the cheque book leaves issued in favour of said Nagaraju, utilized the cheque leaf misappropriating a sum of Rs.90,000 by issuing the said cheque in the name of his so called friend. In the result, it cannot be said that there was no sufficient and legal evidence in order to establish the above said charge No.2 against the first party.

16. The charge that the first party also issued another cheque No. 130589 once again misusing the above said cheque book leaf in favour of M/s. Vinayaka Enterprises by forging the signature of the deceased Pensioner has also been proved during the course of enquiry and the aforesaid cheque has been produced as BR4 bearing the date as 14-05-1998. This was again a cheque issued by the first party while he was working as a Pension Clerk. The first party also admitted this fact in the aforesaid letter at Ex. BEX.13.

17. The fourth charge against the party was that he made a remark rather note in the Pension payment register ledger folio Nos. 78 & 79 pertaining to the deceased Pensioner to read as "Excess Pension paid from 11-11-1994 to 31-01-1998 recovered- balance Rs. 92,560" which remark was found factually incorrect vide Ex. BR6, the pension payment register folio of the deceased and the statement of BW1 and it was found these were the particulars rather the remarks made by the first party himself while he was working as a Clerk dealing with Pensions. The management witness has also given the evidence in this regard to the effect that excess pension paid from 11-11-1994 to 31-01-1998 amounting to Rs. 92,560 has been recovered as per the remark made by the first party. This fact was deposed by BW1 with reference to the ledger sheet at BEX 1, which did not show any debit entry in the ledger for the entry of the said excess amount said to have been paid to the deceased. Infact as could appear from the evidence and the facts brought on record there was no excess payment as such made in favour of the deceased Krishna singh as he was dead and gone long before such a remark was made in his Pension payment register. Therefore, question of making any recovery from the deceased never arose. Therefore, Charge No. 4 also stands proved against the first party.

18. As far as Charge Nos. 5&6 are concerned, the Disciplinary authority while passing the impugned punishment order recorded his findings that they are not established against the first party.

19. Now comes Charge No.7, where under it was alleged against the first party that he destroyed the bank records such as SB Ledger Sheet/ SB Progressive /Self balancing sheet, cheque book issue register etc., and the cheque book issued to Shri Nagaraju and paid cheque leaves to cover up his above acts of misappropriation of the funds. From the reading of the findings tendered by the enquiry officer with reference to the oral and documentary evidence produced during the course of enquiry it is not possible for this tribunal to draw a conclusion that this charge is established against the first party. There is no direct or circumstantial evidence to speak to the fact that he destroyed those records except his letter of admission at Ex. BEX. 13 suggesting that the destroyed certain records. This admission letter not being corroborated by any oral or documentary evidence cannot be taken into account.

20. In the result and for the reasons foregoing, the arguments advanced for the first party that enquiry findings suffered from perversity did not hold water as far as the charge Nos. 1 to 4 levelled against the first party. As could be read from the findings of the enquiry officer there was sufficient and legal evidence brought on record oral as well as documentary in order to substantiate the above said four charges leveled against him. Therefore, by no stretch of imagination it can be said that findings of the enquiry officer suffered from perversity.

21. Now coming to the question of quantum of the punishment. As could be read from the impugned punishment order as against Charge Nos. 1 to 4, the disciplinary authority imposed the punishment of discharging the first party from services of the bank with superannuation benefits without disqualification from future employment under Clause 19.6(b) of the Bipartite Settlement, 1966 as amended from time to time instead of 'dismissal' as proposed in the show cause notice issued to the first party on the basis of the enquiry findings. This punishment imposed upon the first party discharging him from services that too giving him superannuation benefits and not disqualifying him for any future employment, in my opinion, appears to be very proportionate and commensurate to the gravity of the misconduct committed by him. The Charges No. 1&2 are very grave in nature where under the first party misappropriated the funds belonging to the bank while working as a Pension Clerk. Therefore, it cannot be said that the punishment was disproportionate or excessive in nature keeping in view the gravity of the misconduct committed by him. Hence the punishment needs no interference at the hands of this tribunal and I pass the following award :

AWARD

This is a reference made by Central Government under Section 10 (1) (d) of Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 for adjudication. The reference is:

“Whether the management of M/s The Catholic Syrian Bank Ltd. is justified in (1) not taking special allowances for the purpose of fitment and (2) in altering the date of increment to the anniversary date of promotion, to the sub-staff on promotion to the clerical cadre? If not, to what relief the workmen are entitled to?”

2. The facts of the case in brief are as follows:-

According to the union of Catholic Syrian Bank Staff due to the unscientific and unfair method of fixing of pay of promotees, the staff is suffering financial loss. It is mainly due to two reasons. One, while staff of the subordinate cadre is promoted to the clerical cadre, for the purpose of fitment the special allowance received by them in subordinate cadre is not counted along with basic pay. Second, the date of increment is altered from the original date of entry into service to the date of promotion. Till 1986 the management used to take into account special allowance while fixing the pay in the promoted post. Thereafter without giving a notice under S-9 A of the Industrial Disputes Act the management unilaterally changed that policy in service conditions. The special allowance enjoyed by the staff is of permanent nature. Alteration of the date of increment is done in violation of principles of natural justice. Hence the management has to be directed to count special allowance for the purpose of fitment to the clerical cadre and not to alter the date of increment while promoting the sub-staff and disburse arrears of pay after setting right the anomaly.

3. According to the management there is no irregularity or impropriety or any unfair practice in the matter of fitment of the staff on promotion. No loss is caused to any of the employees because of fixation of pay. The special allowance is only an additional remuneration paid for performing certain duties which attract special allowance as per 1st Bipartite Settlement. A change was effected after 1986 as per circular No.221/83. However the policy as per circular was not opposed by the union till the present dispute was raised. The dispute is stale and cannot be entertained. Simply because a person is paid special allowance during leave period that does not make the special allowances a permanent one so far as that employee is concerned. No discriminatory method is adopted by the management in fixing pay of promotees. The attempt of the union is only to create discontentment among employees. The method adopted by the management is just, fair and reasonable and there is no violation of any principles of natural justice.

4. In the light of the above contentions the following points arise for consideration:

(1) Whether the special allowance is to be reckoned with basic pay for the purpose of fitment?

(2) What should be the date of increment after promotion?

The evidence consists of the oral testimony of WW1&2 and the documentary evidence of Exts. W1 to W8 on the side of the union and MW1 and Exts. M1 to 8 on the side of management.

5. Points No. (1) & (2):

The reference contains a genral dispute applicable to the employees of Catholic Syrian Bank as a whole. For the purpose of highlighting the issue the union has referred to the case of individual, who was affected by the changed policy adopted by management. The 1st Bipartite Settlement of 1966, chapter V deals with special allowance. Para 5.3 refers to categories of workmen in the subordinate cadre who are entitled to get special allowance. The duties enumerated in Part-II of Appendix 'B' of the 1st Bipartite Settlement are to be performed by the categories of workmen mentioned in Para 5.3 in order to get special allowance. Among the subordinate staff mentioned in para 5.3 include cash peons, watchmen, daftaries, drivers etc. It is mentioned in paragraph 5.6 that the special allowance prescribed above are intended to compensate a workmen for performing certain additional duties and functions requiring greater skill or responsibility, over and above the routine duties and functions of a workmen in the same cadre. In order to get special allowance such additional duties and functions should constitute the normal part of the duties and functions performed by a workmen. Special allowance is not to be paid for casual or occasional performance or discharge of such duties or functions. Para 5.9 says that if a workmen is employed permanently in a category which attract special allowance like head clerk or stenographer, he cannot be deprived of such special allowance by asking him to work as an ordinary clerk or asking him not to work as a head clerk or stenographer. Para 5.10 says that special allowance would continue to be drawn by a permanent incumbent while on leave. Para 5.12 says that banks will use in all their records, correspondence etc. the nomenclature used in Appendix 'B' for the appropriate duties. The above provisions go to show that all subordinate staff are not eligible to get special allowance, but only those categories mentioned in paragraph 5.3 and performing the duties mentioned in Part-II of Appendix 'B' of the Bipartite Settlement. For example, an ordinary peon is not entitled for special allowance, whereas a cash peon is entitled for special allowance.

6. The learned counsel for the management relied on the decision in Shiba Kumar Dutta v. Union of India (1997) 3 SCC 545 to contend that fitment of an employee to a particular scale is a policy decision of the government or management and courts are not supposed to interfere with it unless there is glaring discrimination among similarly situated persons. But, so far as the present case is concerned, the contention of the union is that the policy that was being followed by the management is to be continued and if different methods are adopted in the matter of fixing pay among persons of the same category it will lead to discontentment among the employees. Moreover the management is guided by a circular which will be referred later in the matter of fitment. The endeavour of this court is to see whether the fitment formula or policy that is adopted by the circular of the bank is violated or not. Therefore the decision sought by the learned counsel do not squarely apply to the case in dispute.

7. It was then pointed out by the learned counsel for the management that on the same set of facts a decision is rendered in O.P.15934/97 by Hon'ble High Court of Kerala. In that case a sub-staff was promoted to the clerical cadre. While fixing his pay in the promoted post special allowance was not counted. This was challenged by the employee. The Labour Court decided against him. The award was challenged before High Court. The Hon'ble High Court observed that the special allowance was not one attached to the post of workmen in that case, but he was merely asked to do certain duties which attracted special allowance for a temporary period. Special allowance of temporary nature, however long it is paid to a sub-staff, that will not ensure to benefit of the employee for the purpose of fitment. Where the duties which attract special allowance do not form part of normal duties attached to one's post, such person is not eligible to get special allowance counted for the purpose of fitment on promotion. The union does not dispute that there are categories which carry special allowances and others which do not carry special allowances. Keeping in view the judgement of the Hon'ble High Court of Kerala referred supra the case on hand has to be dealt with.

8. The grievance of the union is that though fitment policy is laid down by Circular No.221/83 dated 2-12-1983 the management is not following it uniformly in respect of staff. But they adopt the policy according to their whims and fancies and different yardsticks are applied to different staff. To highlight this aspect Ext. W1&2 are referred by the learned counsel for the union. Ext. W1 is the transfer certificate of one P.G. Jose dated 12-10-1990. He was a sub-staff (peon). His total emolument was Rs.2040 ps.44 as on 12-10-1990. Ext. W2 is an order of promotion to clerical post posting him at Madras office. The total emolument in the promoted post is Rs.1993 ps.33. Therefore it is contended that by virtue of promotion instead of getting more emoluments he is getting less pay. This, according to the union, happened due to irregular fixation of pay. The promotion policy and method of fitment followed by other banks are pointed out by the learned counsel. Ext. W3 is the settlement between management and union of Nedungadi Bank. Page 23 of the Settlement refers to fitment on promotion. Ext. W4 is similar Settlement in Federal Bank. Page 9, para 4.6 of the settlement refers to fitment of subordinate staff on promotion. Ext. W5 is an extract of the Bipartite Settlement of Corporation Bank. Paragraph 08 refers to fitment on promotion of subordinate staff to clerical cadre. So far as Exts. W3 to 5 are concerned, it is a promotion policy and fitment formula adopted by other banks cannot have any binding force or even persuasive so far as the management bank is concerned. Ext. W5 specifically refers to special allowance and says that it has to be counted for the purpose of fitment. Whatever that be, what is binding on the management and staff of Catholic Syrian Bank is Ext. W8 Circular (same as Ext. M2). Along with the circular, statements showing wage particulars of employees of Catholic Syrian Bank are also provided. They are together marked as Ext. W8. They were produced by the management at the request of union. Para 1 (a) of circular refers to fitment on promotion from subordinate cadre to clerical cadre. It reads:

“With effect from 23-11-83, on promotion from subordinate cadre to clerical cadre the basic pay in the clerical cadre of promotee will be notionally fixed in such a way that the salary drawn by him in subordinate cadre is not reduced. After fixing the basic pay as mentioned above the next increment in clerical scale will be added to the basic pay. The basic pay after adding the additional increment will be the basic pay of the promotee with effect from the date of his joining duty in clerical cadre.”

After sub-clause (b) ‘Salary’ of clerical staff as well as subordinate staff is defined as basic pay, dearness allowance and special allowance drawn on a permanent basis. Paragraph 1(a) of the circular clarifies that when a subordinate staff is promoted as clerk the basic pay in the clerical cadre will be fixed in such a way that he was getting in the subordinate cadre is not reduced. Thereafter one increment in the clerical scale will be added to such basic pay and that will be the basic pay in the promoted post with effect from the date of his joining duty in the clerical cadre. Going by the circular it is the duty of the management to see that while fixing the basic pay of the promotee his salary in no case falls below the salary that he was drawing prior to his promotion. ‘Salary’ is defined as aforementioned. According to the union a deviation is made by the management in the case of employee. Shri P.G. Jose. Exts. W1 & 2 are produced to show the irregularity. Ext. W1 is the pay that Shri P.G. Jose as sub-staff was drawing on 12-10-1990. He was promoted and relieved from duty as peon on 25-10-1990. He was asked to join duty as clerk in Madras Zonal Office on or before 31-10-1990. However his salary and allowances were fixed with effect from 11-7-1990 retrospectively. His increment in the subordinate cadre was due in August, 1990. At the time of relieving from the subordinate cadre his basic pay was Rs.1160/-. He was drawing special allowance of Rs.119/- as per Ext. W1. In the promoted post his basic pay in Rs.1225/-. He was not eligible to get special allowance in the promoted post. His total pay in the promoted post is Rs.1993 ps.33 as per Ext. W2. But his total pay as per Ext. W1 in the subordinate cadre was Rs.2040 ps.44. By giving retrospective promotion from 11-7-1990 his basic pay of July 1990 was taken into account for the purpose of fixation in the promoted post and that was Rs.1120 (Rs.40 is the increment). Going by the circular his salary in the promoted post is not supposed to be less than the salary that he was getting in the subordinate cadre. Assuming that the management was correct in taking basic pay in subordinate cadre as Rs.1120 even then his salary in the promoted post is less than his salary in the subordinate cadre. That means the salary as defined in the circular of 1983 (Ext. W8) of Shri P.G. Jose as sub-staff was :

Basis Pay	: Rs.1120.00
Spl. Allowance	: Rs. 119.00
D.A.	: Rs.547.88

Total	: Rs.1786.88
-------	--------------

The salary in the clerical cadre is:

Basis Pay	: Rs.1225.00
D.A.	: Rs.541.70

Total	: Rs.1766.70
-------	--------------

9. Retrospective promotion is something unusual.

A person, who was drawing basic pay of Rs.1160 at the time of relieving him from subordinate cadre and who was asked to join duty thereafter, is treated as an employee who was drawing basic pay of Rs.1120 for the purpose of fixing pay in the promoted post. This cannot be justified.

10. But the main dispute is regarding counting of special allowance for fitment in the promoted post. According to the management persons like P.G. Jose are not eligible to get special allowance counted for the purpose of fitment because Shri P.G. Jose was not discharging his duties in a category which attracted special allowance on a permanent basis. He was given certain duties which carry special allowance on a temporary basis and not on a permanent basis. I have already mentioned that all persons in the subordinate cadre do not get special allowance, but only those who are entrusted with special duties as enumerated in Part-II Appendix ‘B’ of the Bipartite Settlement on a permanent basis. Peon is not the category entitled for special allowance. Shri P.G. Jose was only an ordinary peon and not a cash peon who is eligible for special allowance. Therefore, if an ordinary peon is assigned the duty which attracts special allowance, that does not assume the character of permanency. It is a temporary duty and does not form part of normal duty of a peon. Hence the fact that he was given special allowance throughout his employment in the subordinate cadre, will not go to show that he was performing duties of a permanent nature carrying special allowance. Going by the circular, Ext. W8 such persons are not eligible to get special allowance counted for the purpose of fitment. However, so far as Shri P.G. Jose is concerned, the fixation of pay in the promoted post in any event cannot be justified. The question that is posed for adjudication is general and common in nature. The parties are bound by Ext. W8 circular. Ext. M3 to M8 are pay roll statements of officers and staff of management bank during the period July to December, 1990. The statement of wage particulars of employees of management is attached to Ext. W8 circular.

If that is perused it can be seen that the management is counting special allowance for the purpose of fitment in the promotion post. For example, in the case of Shri Davy John (Item No.5), he was peon and was promoted as clerk on 11-7-1990. His salary in the post of peon as on 10-7-1990 was :—

Basis Pay	: Rs.1325.00
Spl. Allowance	: Rs. 119.00
D.A.	: Rs.638.54
H.R.A.	: Rs. 115.52
Washing Allowance	: Rs. 25.00

Total : Rs.2223.06

His pay as on 11-7-1990 in the cadre of Clerk is :—

Basis Pay	: Rs.1600.00
Spl. Allowance	: Nil
D.A.	: Rs. 707.52
H.R.A.	: Rs. 192.00
Washing Allowance	: Nil
C.C.A.	: Rs. 104.00

Total : Rs.2603.52

The management, while fixing the salary in the promoted post of Davy John, had counted special allowance of Rs.119/-. Together with basic pay it comes to Rs.1444/-. Ext. W6 contains the revised scale as per Settlement. MW1 has stated that Catholic Syrian Bank is 'A' Class bank. So far as promotion post is concerned, between 'A' class and 'B' Class banks there appears to be only slight variation at the starting point of scale. A person who was drawing in the subordinate cadre basic pay of Rs. 1325 has a corresponding scale in the clerical post at Rs.1400 as per Ext. W6. If an increment is to be added to that basic pay as per Ext. M8 circular it would come to Rs.1500 only. But the basic pay fixed is Rs.1600/- so far as Shri Davy John is concerned. It means, while fixing the pay in clerical post special allowance was taken into consideration by the management. If that is counted basic pay and special allowance together comes to Rs. 1244 and the corresponding scale would be Rs. 1500 in the clerical post. If an increment of Rs. 100 is added it comes to Rs.1600. This is only one of the examples. Therefore it is rightly pointed out by the union that the management is not following the circular in a uniform manner. In brief, it has to be said that when a subordinate staff is promoted to the clerical post the management has to follow Ext. W8 circular by fixing the salary in such a way that it never falls below the salary that the employee was drawing in the subordinate cadre when he was relieved from that duty. Counting of special allowance if adopted by the bank it has to be applied uniformly to all persons who are working in the subordinate cadre and discharging duties of a permanent nature which attract special allowance.

11. So far as the date of increment in the promotion post is concerned, no written policy or rule is pointed out. Normally it should be the date of joining duty in the promoted post and not the date of original entry into service. As per Ext.W8 circular para-1(a), the basic pay of the promotee takes effect from the date of his joining duty in the clerical cadre. If that is so, the the increment date should be the date of joining duty in the promoted post.

12. In the result, an award is passed finding that the management is not justified in not strictly following Ext. W8 circular No. 221/83 and not taking into account special allowance of those subordinate staff who are discharging duties of a permanent nature, which is attached to their post and which attract special allowance for the purpose of fitment in the promoted post. However the date of increment in the promoted post is the date of joining duty in the promoted post, and not the date of original entry into service. The parties will suffer their respective cost. The award will take effect one month after its publication in the official Gazette.

AWARD

1. The Central Government by exercising the powers conferred by clause (d) of sub-section 2A of the Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 has referred this dispute vide order No. L-12012/32/92-IR(B-1) dated 10th September, 1997 for adjudication on the following Schedule.—

SCHEDULE

“Whether the action on the part of the management of State Bank of Mysore, Bangalore in imposing punishment of stoppage of five increments and denial of promotions to the workman Shri K. Balakrishna Prabhu, for alleged misconduct is justified? If not to what relief the workman is entitled to?”

2. A charge sheet dated 1-10-1975 came to be issued against the first party in the following terms :—

Charge sheet

“Your explanation dated 29-5-1975 in reply to our Bhadravati branch letter dated 20-5-1975 is considered unsatisfactory and therefore, not acceptable. You are hereby charged with gross misconduct under Clause 19.5(g) of the first Bipartite Settlement for willfully slowing down the work allotted to you on 31-3-1975 which has resulted in opening the Extension Counter at Mysore Iron and Steel Limited after one and a half hours delay and delayed closing of the day's transactions at the branch.

To enquire into the aforesaid charge against you, it is proposed to hold an enquiry. The enquiry will be held on 27-10-1975 at our Bhadravati branch premises at 11.00 AM. Shri M. Veerabhadraswamy Office Manager, Head Office, will be the enquiry officer to conduct the enquiry proceedings. You are advised to appear before him at the appointed time and place with documents and evidences, if any, in support of your defence.

During the course of enquiry you will be permitted to examine and cross examine any witnesses and produce other evidence in your defence. You are also permitted to be defended by such representatives as may be permissible under Clause 19.12(a) (i)(x) of the first Bipartite Settlement.

Should you fail to appear before the enquiry officer at the appointed date, time and place, the enquiry will be concluded ex parte.

Please acknowledge receipt”

3. The explanation submitted by the first party, it appears was not found favour with the management and therefore, it ordered a Domestic Enquiry into the matter and it is on the basis of the enquiry findings submitted by the enquiry officer holding him guilty of the charges, a penalty of stoppage of 5 increments and denial of promotions to the first party was imposed. His appeal against the impugned punishment order came to be rejected and thereupon it appears that the first party raised the dispute through the first party union, the Govt. refused to make the reference, the first party moved the Hon'ble High Court and on the directions given by the High Court, somewhere, in the year 1997 the matter came to be referred to this Tribunal by way of present reference.

4. The case of the first party workman espoused through the first party union, hereinafter, called the first party as made out in the claim statement in brief is that he raised the dispute through union before the Conciliation Officer and that ended in failure report followed by rejection by the Government in making reference to this tribunal. He contended that he was employed by the management bank

w.e.f. 20.06.1966 and as a Cashier vide appointment order dated 17.07.1972 and in August 1975 he was entrusted with the work of Head Cashier. He was served with three separate charge sheets dated 1.10.1975, 27.08.1976 and 12.12.1977 alleging certain misconducts which were denied by him and thereupon enquiry was conducted against him and the impugned punishment order dated 28.12.1979 was passed. He preferred an appeal against the impugned order and that came to be rejected by order dated 25.02.1980 without giving him any opportunity of hearing as required under the provisions of Bipartite Settlements. He contended that charges levelled against him were not proved there being absolutely no legal evidence on record to come to such a conclusion. Therefore, findings are perverse; without prejudice to the above contentions, the first party contended that the punishment of stoppage of five increments and denial of promotions to him is very severe, harsh and shockingly disproportionate to the gravity of the charges levelled against him. Therefore, the punishment order as well as the order of the Appellate Authority are not justified and are liable to be set aside; that on account of the abovesaid punishment order the increments due to him on 20.06.1980, 20.06.1981, 20.06.1982, 20.06.1983 and 20.06.1984, in all a sum of Rs.3 lakhs are denied to him apart from the opportunity of getting promotions. Moreover, he has got only about 3 years of service left and is going to retire in March 2003 by reaching the age of superannuation. Therefore, he requested this tribunal to set aside the impugned punishment order with a direction to the management to release the aforesaid withheld 5 increments and to consider his case for promotion.

5. The management by its Counter Statement in the first instance contended that the reference is liable to be dismissed first of all, on the ground that it is a belated and stale reference, a dispute being raised by the first party after an inordinate delay and that the espousal by the first party union is not competent. The management while giving out the facts of the case rather the facts giving rise to the charge sheet, contended that the first party wilfully delayed in opening the extension counter and was responsible for his act of wilful insubordination. His explanation was called for the charges of misconduct and it being not found satisfactory enquiry was conducted by giving him fair and proper opportunity in accordance with the principles of natural justice and on the basis of the enquiry findings holding him guilty of the charges, a lenient view was taken by imposing the punishment of withholding of the increments though he deserved a severe punishment of dismissal. Therefore, according to the management enquiry was fair and proper, findings of the enquiry officer suffered from no perversity and the impugned punishment order passed against him is legal and justified. The management therefore, requested this tribunal to reject the reference.

“Shri R. Narayan, learned counsel for respondent Bank contends that the order of penalty was passed on 28-12-1979. The reference to the tribunal was on 10.09.1997. Thus there is inordinate delay in raising the dispute. On account of this inordinate delay the dispute between the parties has become stale and on that ground the writ petition is liable to be rejected. The respondent-Bank in the counter statement before the tribunal specifically pleaded that there is inordinate delay in raising the dispute and therefore, the reference is liable to be rejected. Despite this plea the tribunal failed to frame an issue, provide an opportunity to the parties to explain the delay and failed to give a finding. This is a serious error committed by the tribunal and the same is contrary to the pleadings and issues involved in dispute. On this ground alone the impugned award is liable to be rejected. But this court cannot go into the question of unexplained delay and dismiss the writ petition. The matter requires to be remanded.

The material on record discloses that on 20.05.1975 the respondent-Bank issued a show cause notice, Petitioner submitted his reply to the show cause notice. Thereafter the respondent bank issued articles of charges on 01.10.1975. The tribunal without noticing the variance in the show-cause notice, the articles of charges and the evidence on record passed the impugned award. It is obligatory on the part of the tribunal consider the documentary evidence on record. The failure to consider the show cause notice dated 20.05.1975 and the reply submitted by the Petitioner is again an error committed by the Tribunal. On this ground also the impugned award is liable to be quashed.

7. After the remand, the parties have made appearance through counsels and at the matter was taken up for arguments on merits. Learned counsel for the first party filed his written arguments and whereas, learned counsel for the management submitted his oral arguments. Now, therefore, in the light of the findings recorded by this tribunal to the effect that the Domestic Enquiry held against the first party by the Second Party is fair and proper, the only two points fall consideration of this tribunal would be :—

(i) “Whether the findings of the Enquiry Officer suffered from any perversity” and if not,

(ii) “Whether the impugned punishment order was not proportionate are to the gravity of the misconduct alleged and proved against the first party.”

8. The learned counsel for the first party as noted above, submitted his written arguments giving out the facts as narrated in the claim statement and made a mention of the explanation given by the first party to the charge sheet issued to him. At Para 5, of the written statement he referred to the evidence let by the management as well as by the first party during the course of enquiry and contended that in the light of the evidence on record, the report of the enquiry officer was totally perverse and biased. He then referred to the evidence brought out during the course of enquiry and the allegations made in the charge sheet to point out that there was lot of variance in the allegations in the charge sheet and the evidence produced by the management in the statements of PW1 to PW3. He also contended that the first party produced two witnesses to counter the allegations in the charge sheet but they were not considered by the Enquiry Officer. He pointed out the discrepancies found in the evidence as to whether there was any practice of issuing any order regarding allotment of work at Extension Counter by any officer or not and whether any such office order was made by the branch manager or by any staff well within the time so as to enable the first party to attend the Extension Counter work well within time. He then referred to the observation made by the Hon'ble High Court in the aforesaid Writ Petition Order so as to look into the various allegations made in the show cause notice and the articles of charges and evidence produced during the course of enquiry. On the point of delay he contended that when the first party approached the Hon'ble High Court seeking reference of the dispute and contended that the dispute existed between the parties as the first party was still on the rolls of the management when he raised the dispute and took support of the decision reported in 2001 FJR Page 149. Therefore, he contended that there was no delay and even if it is there, the reference is not liable to be dismissed on the said count.

9. Whereas, the learned counsel for the management while supporting the findings of the Enquiry Officer, on the point of delay submitted that the dispute came to be raised by the first party after an inordinate delay of 18 years as impugned punishment order was passed in the year 1979 and whereas the reference on hand is made in the year 1997. He contended that absolutely no explanation was offered by the first party about the delay caused in raising the dispute. He took support of the following four decisions in support of his above said contention.

1. AIR 2001 SC 424

2. AIR 2000 839

3. 1993 II LLJ 676(SC)= AIR 1993 SC 2276

4. 2002 II LLJ 297(Kar)

On merits, he submitted that there was sufficient and legal evidence produced during the course of enquiry to prove the fact that the first party committed the misconduct as alleged in the charge sheet and therefore, even if there are certain minor discrepancies, the findings of the Enquiry Officer cannot be faulted with as standard of proof required was the prima facie evidence to find out the preponderance of probabilities. He submitted that there is absolutely nothing brought out in the cross examination of the management witnesses as to why their testimony should not be believed.

10. After having gone through the evidence produced during the course of enquiry, the findings of the Enquiry Officer and the other material brought on record I find no substance in the arguments advanced for the first party workman as far as proof of misconduct.

11. First, coming to the question of delay. Of course there has been no explanation offered by the first party for the delay of about 10 to 12 years passed in raising the dispute. The fact that he raised the dispute with the conciliation officer concerned resulting into the failure report and the refusal order by the Government to make reference to this tribunal however, is not disputed by the management. It is now on record that aggrieved by the Govt. order, the first party approached the Hon'ble High Court by way of Writ Petition in the year 1992 and his Lordship by order dated 4-06-1997 directed the Government to make the reference, as the result of which the reference is before this tribunal. Therefore, it appears that the first party approached the conciliation officer long before the year 1992. Neither the first party disclosed as to when actually the first party union approached the conciliation officer nor the management came out with the case as to when really the first party raised the dispute through union before the conciliation officer. Therefore, it is very difficult for this tribunal to come to a decision as to when actually the first party union approached the conciliation officer for raising the dispute so as to come to the conclusion that there was an inordinate delay caused by the first party in raising the dispute. Moreover, when the Hon'ble High Court entertained the writ petition filed by the first party and called upon the government to make reference of the dispute, presumably, knowing that the impugned punishment order pertained to the year 1975, this tribunal in my humble opinion cannot reject the reference on the ground of any delay. Moreover, it is now well settled principle of law that in the cases of delay, the relief to be given to the first party may be moulded according to the situation without rejecting the reference, itself.

12. Now, coming to the merits of the case. The management pressed into service the oral testimony of three witnesses PW1 to PW3 and four documents at Ex. P1 to P4. PW1, the then Head Cashier deposed to the effect that the head cashier normally deposes a cashier to go to the Extension Counter to attend to the cash transactions there and hand over the cash to the cashier detailed for the Extension Counter work at about 10.45 AM. He stated that the first party protested to him that he did not like to go to the Extension Counter demanding an office order to that effect, when normally there was no such practice of making an office order for such a purpose. PW2 who was acting as an Accountant deposed to the effect that he put an office order to the above effect and it was signed by Mr. Prabhu (the first party) at about 10.45 AM in the manager's chamber. PW3, the Officer Incharge of the extension counter deposed that customers were unhappy with the delay in opening of the extension counter and in order to pacify them he along with other staff issued withdrawal slips to them. It has also come in the evidence of the management that PW3 along with two clerks after having waited the first party to accompany them to the extension counter up till 11.30AM moved to the extension counter without him in a separate vehicle. PW2 stated that the entire team detailed for extension counter work returned to branch at 3.50 PM and whereas, the first party left the counter thereafter for taking Tiffin for about one hour and returned to the branch at 5PM when he was supposed to return back and report to the manager at about 3.45 PM. Therefore, according to the testimony of PW1 to PW3, the first party not only delayed for about a period of one hour or so in attending to extension counter work but also failed to close the business of the bank well within time and then to report back to the Manager within time as required. This evidence of PW1 to PW3 as argued for the management has not been shaken during the course of cross examination, much less, there being no suggestion made to these witnesses attributing any motive to them in giving false evidence against the first party. A perusal of the findings would disclose that the evidence of DW1 & 2 produced on behalf of the first party have been rejected by the Enquiry Officer by giving valid and sufficient reasonings. As could be read from the findings, the Enquiry Officer has discussed at length the oral as well as the documentary evidence brought on record and has assigned his valid and cogent reasonings in coming to the conclusion that the charges of misconduct levelled against the first party has been proved. Therefore, by no stretch of imagination it can be said that the enquiry findings suffered from any perversity.

13. Now, coming to the observation made by the Hon'ble High Court in the aforesaid writ petition order at para 5. It is to be noted that there is no show cause notice produced before this tribunal either by the management or by the first party. The management under the specific instructions given by this tribunal to produce such a show cause notice failed to produce the same on the ground that the said show cause notice was issued to the first party somewhere in the year 1975 and they are not in a position to trace out the copy of the said notice from their records. There appears some substance in the said explanation. The first party who wanted this tribunal to look into the said show cause notice while comparing with the articles of charge and the evidence, for the reasons best known to him did not produce the said show cause notice though it was supposed to be in his custody, it being issued to him by the management. Therefore, the court is not in a position to compare the allegations in the show cause notice with the allegations made in the charge sheet. As far as comparison with the articles of charge and the evidence is concerned, I do not find any discrepancy as such. The evidence produced in the enquiry is quite direct on the point of allegations made in the charge sheet. Therefore, viewed from any angle, findings of the Enquiry Officer by no stretch imagination can be said to be suffering from perversity.

14. Now, coming to the question of quantum of the punishment. Keeping in view, the nature of misconduct alleged against the first party, it cannot be said that it was so grave in nature inviting the penalty of stoppage of 5 increments plus denial of promotions. Therefore, in my opinion penalty imposed on the first party bordered on severity and it is in this view of the matter it is liable to be modified by limiting its period from the date of its imposition till the date the first party approached the Hon'ble High Court seeking the reference of the dispute. He shall be given the benefit of those 5 increments w.e.f. 1st July, 1992 onwards till he attained the age of superannuation (already attained the age of superannuation in the month March 2003). Hence the following award:-

AWARD

The impugned punishment order of stoppage of 5 increments and denial of promotions to the workman is hereby modified by limiting the above said punishment order from its date till June, 1992. The first party shall be given the benefit of those 5 increments w.e.f. 1-7-1992 till the date he attained the age of superannuation. Relief with regard to promotion survives no more, the first party being retired. No costs.

AWARD

Passed on 7th August, 2007

Central Govt. vide notification No.L-40012/210/96-IR (DU) dated 01-09-1998 has referred the following dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication:

“Whether the action of the management of Sr. Superintendent of Post Office, Jalandhar in terminating the services of Sh. Rakesh Kumar, Chowkidar is legal and justified? If not, to what relief the workman is entitled?”

2. Workman is his claim statement avered that he was lawfully appointed and working as chowkidar in the P&T Dispensary, P&T Colony Jalandhar which is an Industry under the I.D. Act. He joined the service w.e.f. 8.4.90 and his last salary drawn was Rs. 2115 and he was not issued any appointment order regarding term and condition of his appointment. He worked continuously upto 21-11-95 without any break with efficiency sincerity and dedication and his work and conduct was quite satisfactory. He proceeded on authorized three days leave from 18-11-95 to 20-11-95 with due permission from Dr. Ravinder Ahluwalia, CMO, Incharge, P&T Dispensary, Jalandhar. With a malafide intention and to victimize the workman Dr. Ravinder Ahluwalia, CMO on 21-11-95 took the keys of the dispensary and told the workman verbally that his services were no more required and he stand terminated and a new man Mr. Hardish Lal of Village Dakoha was appointed in his place. That no written order was passed indicated the reason for his termination and he was not allowed to explain his position as no charge sheet or show cause notice was given to him nor any enquiry was held against him. He was not given any legal benefits such as provident fund, bonus, casual leave, medical leave, earned leave and management exploited him which amounts to unfair labour practice. He was also not given the pay scale which are admissible to a regular chowkidar on the principle of equal pay for equal work. The termination of the workman is patently illegal, arbitrary, unconstitutional, as and in violation of Section 25-G and H of I.D. Act. He was also not paid any retrenchment compensation. At the time of termination his juniors were retained and new persons were appointed. He prayed for his reinstatement with all service benefits and back wages.

3. Management in written statement taken preliminary objection that P&T Deptt. is not an industry. The workman approached the CAT Chandigarh vide OA No. 1026/PB/97 which was dismissed on 4-11-97 and it is specifically pleaded before the CAT that he does not intend to pursue the remedy under the I.D. Act, therefore, the applicant is estopped from approaching this Tribunal for the same relief. The applicant was engaged on daily wage basis as an outsider after one Sh. Darshan Lal sweeper expired on 23-5-91 and the case of the wife of deceased had been sent for compassionate appointment, as no reply was received then to have make shift arrangement, the then Incharge, C.M.O., P&T Dispensary, Jalandhar, who had otherwise no jurisdiction to make such an appointment, appointed the claimant as Daily Wage Sweeper. Which does not create any legal right to the workman as he was appointed on stop gap arrangement and one Sh. Hardish Ram joined duty as Sweeper at P&T Dispensary, Jalandhar on 21-11-95 on his selection and thereafter one Surinder Pal E.D.Packer, Bhogpur was approved by DPC for appointment as Sweeper since 5-7-96 and workman is not entitled to any relief and his claim may be rejected.

4. Workman also filed replication reiterating the claim made in the claim statement.

5. In evidence workman filed his affidavit Ex. W1 and also appeared as WW1 in evidence. The management produced the affidavit of Nirmaljit Singh who also appeared as witness on behalf of the management as MW1.

6. Ld. Counsel for the workman Sh. O.P. Batra submitted in arguments that workman has worked continuously from 8-4-90 to 21-11-95 continuously with most efficiently, sincerely and dedication and his work and conduct was satisfactory and his services were terminated without following the mandatory provisions of Section 25FGH as new persons were appointed which is against the law. No enquiry, charge sheet, show cause notice was given and no retrenchment compensation or pay in lieu of one month notice was paid at the time of retrenchment. Therefore, the termination is illegal and the workman may be reinstated in service with full back wages.

7. Learned counsel for the management Shri G.S.Bal submitted that workman to prove his claim and reference in his favour. He has strongly contested on the point that workman filed earlier a petition before the Central Admn. Tribunal, Chandigarh and in strongly contested and that was dismissed. This fact is not disputed and the judgment is filed by the management and is on record. As per the judgment of the Hon'ble CAT, Chandigarh bench dated 4-11-1997 the Hon'ble CAT held "that it is not a case of the applicant that he was ever screened or conferred upon temporary status under any scheme. It is also clear that he was never made a temporary govt. employee, but was continuing on daily wage basis and was being paid a consolidated salary. The law on this aspect is settled that a daily wage employee does not have any right to hold the post. A person who is working on daily wages, his right to work comes to an end every evening. In the case of State of Himachal Pradesh Vs. Suresh Kumar JT 1996 (2) SC 455, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that appointment on daily wage basis is not appointment to a post according to the rules and a court can not give any direction to reengage such workers on any work, even against existing vacancies. Similarly, in the case of State of Orissa and another Vs. Dr. Piari Mohan Mishra 1995 (29) ATC 533, it has been held that prolonged continuous and adhoc service for howsoever long it may be, does not ripen into regular service. We have not been shown any law under which under law other than industrial law, a person become entitled to regularization merely on the basis of having continued working on daily wage basis. We thus find no merit in the OA. Even otherwise, his oral termination was in Nov. 1995. He has come to this Tribunal only in September 1997. He has not filed any application for condonation of delay. Pursuing his remedy before some other forum, if that forum does not have jurisdiction, may afford a person a good cause for claiming condonation, but till it is claimed, we have to consider the case under the law of limitation. The OA is filed beyond the period of limitation and is not maintainable. For the reasons discussed above, this OA is dismissed in limine."

8. Learned counsel for the management submitted that workman has sidetracked this issue and is totally silent and did not reply. After this judgment instead of taking recourse in the Hon'ble High Court or in the Hon'ble Supreme Court workman raised this industrial dispute. Therefore, the judgment of the CAT operate as res-judicata. Hence reference may be answered in favour of the management. He also referred to a judgment of Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High Court 1982(1) SLR page 663. He submitted that in view of the law referred above workman petitioner must distinctly elect his remedy. It is now authoritatively settled that he can not have both. He is to choose one or the other as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Premier Automobiles Vs. K.S. Wadke.

Again to this petitioner workman is not replying. The only contention of the workman is that as per para 3 of the written statement on merits, one way the management has admitted that "that claimant was appointed on daily wage basis vice Shri Darshan Lal above referred, on 11-11-1991 and he worked on daily wage basis up to 20-11-1995." He submitted that workman therefore, though has completed more than 240 days or that another person was kept in his place, provisions of Section 25 of I.D. Act applies and the judgment of the CAT does not operate as resjudicata. Hence workman should be reinstated. The management contentions are that only dispute remains whether judgment of the CAT wherein the petition was dismissed operate as resjudicata or not in view of the law referred by the management. He submitted that workman can not choose both remedies. He first choose to go to CAT and contested his claim on merits and he loose the case. Then the workman raised this reference and hence the judgment of the CAT operate resjudicata and hence reference may be answered in favour of the management and against the workman and action of the management of Sr. Superintendent of Post Offices, Jalandhar in terminating the services of Sh. Rakesh Kumar, Chowkidar is legal and justified and workman is not entitled to any relief.

9. In view of the submission of both the parties. Law referred by the management and also the judgment of the CAT filed, I have found that in this case there is only a short controversy between the parties that contention of the workman petitioner are that he field a petition in the CAT and that petition was dismissed. Although it is speaking order, it does not stop the workman to choose and take another legal recourse by raising industrial dispute and contest it before the Central Govt. Industrial Tribunal. On the other hand contention of the management are contrary. Their contention is that workman has two legal recourse in the beginning and he opted first by preferring filing of OA before the CAT and when he lost the case there he then filed by taking second legal recourse by raising the present industrial dispute in this Tribunal.

10. In view of the law referred by the management in 1982(1):SLR 663, Sukhi Ram Vs. State of Haryana a full bench judgment of Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High Court wherein it is held that when workman has two alternative remedy available to him, one in the civil court and other under the I.D. Act and he must distinctly elect his remedy, he can not have both. In view of the law referred above, I am of the considered view that the judgment of the CAT relied by the management dated 4th November, 1997 in which the parties were the same, it operates as resjudicata and workman is barred by filing and taking the second legal recourse when he has already availed before the CAT. Hence the reference is answered against the workman petitioner and in favour of the management holding that the action of the management of Sr. Superintendent of Post Offices, Jalandhar in terminating the services of Sh. Rakesh Kumar, Chowkidar is legal and justified and workman is not entitled to any relief. The reference is answered accordingly. Central Govt. be informed. File be consigned to record.

All the above industrial disputes are taken together opposite party are the same the nature of employment is the same. However, the workmen are different but issue involved is the same Sl. No. i.e. ID No. 9/03 is taken first for the discussing the fact of this case. Sri Murari Lal's case is that he was employed by the opposite party and was working for the more than six years i.e. Feb. 1996. It is alleged that the opposite party has not regularised the services of the workmen concerned, and demanded for regularization of his services but the opposite party refused the same. It is due to above reasons the opposite party terminated the services of the workmen w.e.f. 23-8-2000. Before the termination of services the opposite party did not comply the provisions of sections 25 f, G, H of the ID Act. 1947. It is alleged that the post are vacant in the cantonment Board and the Contonment Board has no legal right to fill up the vaccant post during the pendecy of the claim. It is also alleged that at the time of termination of service of workman juniors to him were retained. Workman has therefore prayed for reinstatement with all back wages and continuity of service.

Opposite party has denied the claim of the workman. It is submitted that opposite party is not doing any business or trade as alleged and is not industry as defined under I.D. Act. It is also submitted that statement of claim is vague baseless and incorrect. It is submitted that in emergent case to provide certain basic amenities sometime temporary casual labourers engaged as per Govt. norms and laid down procedure. The worker was never employed as permanent employee and also was never engaged against the permanent post. It is submitted that even the worker has failed to disclose the necessary orders as to when he was employed, what were the terms and conditions of appointment. It is further submitted that worker was engaged as casual labour on purely daily wages as per the norms of govt. and laid down procedure and any work may be taken, to carry on the public duties in emergent cases. There was no sanction post temporary or permanent. There is no question of maintaining any seniority list of casual labours. The worker was never interviewed for any permanent post.

It is submitted that question of any regularisation or giving permanent status to the workman does not arise and no case of any regularisation is pending. It is further submitted that worker was never employed as permanent workman and no vacancy was advertised. However, had any such advertisement issued for permanent post, the worker had all opportunities to appear and participate in the interview/selection. worker has no locus standi and no claim whatsoever. It is specifically denied that the opposite party has violated any provision of the I.D. Act. or any provision of Constitution of India. worker has examined himself on 26-10-2004.

By an amendment in written statement the opposite party has stated that worker did not work for period of 240 days in any calander year before his termination. It is further stated that worker did not work for 240 days in any year.

Opposite party has filed work sanction book and muster roll/pay roll alongwith application C-23.

Opposite party has examined Sri R.K Sharma.

Opposite party did not appear for arguments in spite of repeated opportunities, therefore heard the representative of workman alone.

In the cross examination Murari Lal, has stated that he was engaged on the post of labour but he was also deployed for gardening work.

Murari Lal has also admitted that he has no record for the days he has worked. When the worker attention was drawn to the muster roll, filed by the opposite party, worker stated that the record is incorrect.

On one other hand the witness of the opposite party Sri R.K. Sharma has stated that Murari Lal was not engaged against any permanent post, instead of was engaged as casual labour on daily wage basis. It is also stated that the worker Murari Lal was not interviewed for any permanent post.

Sri R.K Sharma has stated that according to the rules whenever Cantonment Board has to appoint any employee against the permanent vacancy, the advertisement of vacancies is notified and all persons are authorised to apply for the said vacancy if they are legible. He has also stated that opposite party has filed the muster roll which is according to the original record the same is correct, Sri R.K Sharma has also stated that worker has never worked 240 days in any calander year.

Sri R.K. Sharma is posted as Supervisor in the Cantonment Board of Meerut. During the course of examination he stated that it is incorrect to say that the worker has continuously worked. He has also stated that the workers are engaged according to the work provided they are available and willing to work.

Opposite party has filed the extract of work sanction book. There are following engagement orders for Murarilal S/o Narayan Das;

1. Printed no. 56 for 14 days w.e.f. 16-6-95 @ Rs. 35/- per day.

- 15A. Printed no. 28 for 10 days w.e.f. 1-4-98 @ Rs. 35/- per day.
16. Printed no. 1574 for 15 days w.e.f. 1-9-98 @ Rs. 54/- per day.
- 16A. Printed no. 1610 for 15 days w.e.f. 3-10-98 @ Rs. 54/- per day.
17. Printed no. 1592 w.e.f. 11-9-98 @ Rs. 54/- per day.
- 17A. Printed no. 2691 w.e.f. 23-7-99 to 27-7-99 @ Rs. 61/- per day.
18. Printed no. 2594 for 22 days w.e.f. 1-5-2000 to 31-5-2000 @ Rs. 65/- per day.
- 18A. Printed no. 2555 for 24 days w.e.f. 1-11-98 to 30-10-98 @ Rs. 65/- per day.
19. Printed no. 4102 for 7 days w.e.f. 24-7-2000 to 31-7-2000 @ Rs. 65/- per day.

20. Printed No. 4110 for 14 days w.e.f. 1-8-2000 to 31-8-2000 @ Rs. 65/- per day.

According to the muster roll produced by the opposite party Murarilal has worked for 25 days in July 95, 26 days in August 95, 25 days in Sept. 95, 26 days in April 98, 27 days in May 98, 12 days in June 98, 25 days in August 98, 26 days in Sept. 98, 25 days in Oct. 98, 5 days in July 99, 27 days in May 2000, 7 days 24-7-2000 to 31-7-2000, 23 days in August 2000.

The reference order is in respect of Murari Lal S/o Narendra whereas the details are shown above are in respect of Murarilal S/o Narayan Das. During cross examination of the worker Murarilal, representative of the opposite party who has cross examined the witness Murarilal S/o Narayan Das has not disputed with that the case is in respect of someone else. Murarilal examined in the court has stated his name as Murarilal S/o Narayan Das. Believing that Murarilal S/o Narayan Das is the person for whose benefit dispute has been referred and in view of the evidence on record I come to the conclusion that the worker has not completed 240 days preceding the date of his termination w.e.f. 26-8-2000. The photo copy of the muster roll and other documents produced by the opposite party can not be discarded as through these muster rolls the salary has been paid to Murarilal.

From entire evidence on record it is clearly made out that the worker was a casual labour on daily wage basis. The assertion of the worker that he was appointed against the permanent vacancy is totally false and can not be relied upon.

It is also noteworthy that this court has been referred the issue for adjudication "whether or not the action of the management of opposite party in terminating the services of Murari Lal S/o Narendra w.e.f. 23-8-2000 legal and justified? Whereas from the record it is clear that Murari Lal had worked upto 26-8-2000 and not upto 23-8-2000. Worker has been paid 23 days wages in August 2000. He last worked on 26-8-2000. The contention of the management is correct that the Cantonment Board in emergent cases has to provide certain basic amenities to the residence of cantt. area and temporary casual labour is engaged as per the Govt. norms. From the evidence it is clear that the worker was also engaged as casual labour by the Cantonment Board. The disengagement of the casual labour by the Executive Officer of Cantonment Board can not be termed as illegal or unjustified and accordingly I also come to the conclusion that Murari Lal is not entitled to any relief.

I.D. No. 10/2003

I.D. No. 11/2003

I.D. No. 12/2003

All the 3 cases are taken together as there pleadings are one and the same.

FACTS OF CASES :

Workmen's case in brief is that they were working as MALI for the last more than 6 year i.e. from Feb. 1996, but the opposite party did not regularise the services. It is alleged that opposite party sent the letter for interview for the same post, but the opposite party designated the workman a temporary or casual worker. Workmen have worked against the permanent & vacant post during the whole service period and these posts are still vacant. When the workmen demanded for regularization party not only refused but terminated them by order on 23-8-2000 in violation of provision of Section 25-F, G and H of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. It is also alleged that the opposite party has given jobs to others. It is also alleged that there is no seniority list maintained by the opposite party. It is also alleged that some workers have been regularized on 6-9-99 in its meeting he Cantonment Board adopted motion to regularize the workmen, yet nothing has been done in this regard on the other hand fresh hands has been employed keeping the workmen out of employment. Workmen have therefore prayed for reinstatement with back wages & continuity of service.

Opposite party has denied the claim of the worker. It is submitted that the opposite party is not doing any business or trade & is not an industry. Opposite party has denied the allegations of the workmen that the workmen were either appointed as a permanent worker or engaged against any permanent post. Workmen have even failed to disclose the necessary details/orders as to when they were employed, what, what were the terms and conditions of service. It is submitted that the workmen were engaged as casual labour on purely daily wage basis as per the norms of the Govt. and laid down procedure and any work may be taken to carry on the public duties in emergent cases. It is specifically denied that the workmen ever worked against any permanent post or was even engaged against permanent post. Question of any regularization or giving any permanent status to the workmen does not arise. No case of the workmen in respect of regularization is pending. The concerned workmen were never employed as a permanent workmen & no vacancy was advertised. However had any such advertisement been that the workmen had all opportunities to appeal and participate in the interview/selection. Worker in the case was engaged on non sanctioned post or temporary and casual basis. Question of any seniority or permanent status does not arise. The motion of the Cantonment Board dated 5-9-99 does not give any right to the workmen concerned and there was no suggestion of the Board. Moreover no vacancy can be filled up without the approval of higher authorities of the department.

It is submitted that the allegations are baseless, frivolous and fabricated. Lastly it is stated that the workmen did not work for a period of 240 days in the calendar year before the date of their termination and they did not work for the period of 240 days in any year.

Opposite party has filed the photo copies of sanction book, muster roll/pay roll with application C-20.

Workmen have examined himself and opposite party have examined Sri Raj Kumar Sharma.

Heard the representative of the workmen alone as the representative of opposite party or the opposite party itself did not appear to argue.

LD. No. 10/2003

I have perused the pleadings and evidence on record. The worker Gurmeet Singh has not disclosed the date of engagement in Feb. 1996. Worker has stated in the statement of claim that he was engaged as Mali and his services were terminated on 23-8-2000. Gurmeet Singh has stated in his examination in chief on 22-6-06 that he was admitted into employment in 1-3-96, further he has stated that he was employed as Beldar. Worker has also stated at the same time that he was kept as casual labour. He has also stated that he was not given any appointment letter. He has categorically stated that he was terminated on 23-8-2000 without any compensation.

Gurmeet Singh in his cross examination has stated that he has no record to prove that as how many days he worked during his period of engagement in Cantonment Board. He has admitted that his attendance used to be marked in the muster roll.

It is settled law that worker has to prove according to section 25B (2) of I.D. Act. that he worked 240 days preceeding his termination within one calendar year (12 calendar months).

The opposite party has filled the casual labour sanction extract. According to the said record following is the sanction in respect of labour engaged in Cantonment Board for misc. work.

1. Printed no. 91 for 23 days w.e.f. 1-3-96 to 30-3-96 @ Rs. 38.50/- per day.
2. Printed no. 98 for 25 days w.e.f. 1-4-96 to 30-4-96 @ Rs. 38.50/- per day.
3. Printed no. 1804 for 15 days w.e.f. 16-3-98 to 31-3-98 @ Rs. 52/- per day.
4. Printed no. 1825 for 15 days w.e.f. 1-4-97 to 15-4-98 @ Rs. 52/- per day.
5. Printed no. 1846 for 15 days w.e.f. 16-4-98 to 30-4-98 @ Rs. 52/- per day.

According to the muster roll available on the record following is attendance and pay position; disbursed to the worker Gurmeet Singh.

March 1996 23 days, April 1996 25 days, April 1998 26 days, May 1998 27 days, June 1998 11 days, July 1998 13 days, August 1998 25 days, Sept. 1998 26 days, Oct. 1998 25 days, March 1999 2 days, Oct. 1999 26 days, Nov. 1999 24 days, Dec. 1999 26 days, April 2000 8 days, May 2000 27 days, July 2000 7 days, August 2000 23 days.

Gurmeet Singh last worked on 29-8-2000 and not 23-8-2000 as stated by him.

This court has to see whether the worker immediately proceeding his termination 29-8-2000 whether he has worked 240 days. That is to say this court has to see the worker has worked from Sept. 1999 to August 2000 for 240 days.

From the records available it comes out as follows;

Month and Year	No. of days
Sept. 1999	Nil
Oct. 1999	26 days
Nov. 1999	24 days
Dec. 1999	26 days
Jan to March 1999	Nil
April 2000	8 days
May 2000	27 days
June 2000	Nil
July 2000	7 days
August 2000	23 days

Thus it is not proved that the worker has worked for 240 days within 12 calendar months immediately preceding the date of his termination i.e. 29-8-2000 and therefore the disengagement of the worker can not be held to be illegal or unjustified.

I.D. No. 11/2003

Ompal Singh has also not stated in his statement as to on what date of Feb. 1996 he was engaged as Mali by the Cantonment Board. This court has to adjudicate as to whether the termination of services of Ompal Singh S/o Lal Singh w.e.f. 28-8-2000 whether legal and justified.

I have perused the pleadings and the evidence on the record carefully. Ompal Singh has also stated that he was not given any appointment letter but has stated that he was terminated on 23-8-2000. Ompal Singh has stated that he was terminated on 23-8-2000. Ompal Singh has stated that he has not given any compensation before terminating his services. It is settled law that the burden on the worker to prove that he had continuously worked till the date of his termination as provided in Section 25B (2) of the I.D. Act. From the evidence on record it is proved that Ompal Singh was casual labour not appointed against any post as alleged in the statement of claim. Worker has examined himself and has not produced any document in support of his claim that he has worked continuously from Feb. 1996 to 23-8-2000. He has stated that the muster roll filled by the opposite party is incorrect and entire muster roll have not been filled by the opposite party. He has stated that he has not produced any documents to rebut the evidence filed by the opposite party.

Sri RK Sharma witness of the opposite party and who is the supervisor of the Cantonment board has stated that Ompal Singh was not engaged/appointed against any vacant post instead he was engaged as casual labour on daily wages basis. The fact finds its support from the documentary evidence on record. He has stated that document filed are correct and has also stated that worker has not worked for 240 days in any calendar year.

From the extract of sanction book on record it is made out that the worker's sanction was in respect of following period:

1. Printed no. 90 for 23 days w.e.f. 1-3-96 to 30-3-96 @ Rs. 38.50/- per day.
2. Printed no. 97 for 25 days w.e.f. 1-4-96 to 30-4-96 @ Rs. 38.50/- per day.
3. Printed no. 1806 for 15 days w.e.f. 16-3-98 to 31-3-98 @ Rs. 52/- per day.
4. Printed no. 1827 for 14 days w.e.f. 1-4-98 to 15-4-98 @ Rs. 52/- per day.
5. Printed no. 1848 for 15 days w.e.f. 16-4-98 to 30-4-98 @ Rs. 52/- per day.
6. Printed no. 1878 for 14 days w.e.f. 1-5-98 @ Rs. 52/- per day.
7. Printed no. 1899 for 14 days w.e.f. 16-5-98 to 30-5-98 @ Rs. 52/- per day.
8. Printed no. 1508 w.e.f. 1-6-98 to 15-6-98 @ Rs. 52/- per day.
9. Printed no. 1553 for 12 days w.e.f. 1-8-98 @ Rs. 54/- per day.
10. Printed no. 1571 w.e.f. 20-8-98 to 31-8-98 @ Rs. 54/- per day.
11. Printed no. 1585 for 15 days w.e.f. 1-9-98 @ Rs. 54/- per day.
12. Printed no. 2649 for 18 days w.e.f. 5-3-99 @ Rs. 54/- per day.
13. Printed no. 2664 for 3 days w.e.f. 13-3-99 to 16-3-99 @ Rs. 100/- per day.

14. Printed no. 1603 for 11 days w.e.f. 18-9-98 @ Rs. 54/- per day.

15. Printed no. 1621 for 15 days w.e.f. 3-10-98 @ Rs. 54/- per day.

16. Printed no. 1639 for 10 days w.e.f. 21-10-98 @ Rs. 54/- per day.

17. Printed no. 2588 for 27 days w.e.f. 1-5-2000 to 31-5-2000 @ Rs. 65/- per day.

17. A Printed no. 2500 for 8 days w.e.f. 21-4-2000 to 30-4-2000 @ Rs. 65/- per day.

18. Printed no. 2553 for 26 days w.e.f. 1-10-99 @ Rs. 65/- per day.

19. Printed no. 4106 for 7 days w.e.f. 24-7-2000 to 31-7-2000 @ Rs. 65/- per day.

20. Printed no. 4114 for 23 days w.e.f. 1-8-2000 to 31-8-2000 @ Rs. 65/- per day.

I have perused the muster roll according to which Ompal Singh last worked on 30-8-2000. He was paid for 23 days with 7 absentees. Therefore it is wrong to say that worker was terminated on 23-8-2000 or 28-8-2000. The court has to see whether worker had worked 240 days preceeding 30-8-2000 within 12 calendar months from Sept. 99 to August 2000. The figure comes out as under:

August 2000 23 days, July 2000 7 days, May 2000 27 days, April, 2000 8 days, June, Feb and March Nil, Dec. 1999 26 days, Nov. 1999 24 days Oct. 99 26 days Sept. 99 Nil.

Thus the worker has not completed 240 days as required under section 25B (2) of the I.D. Act, 1947.

I.D. No. 12/2003

Sri Umesh Kumar has also not stated in his statement as to on what date of Feb. 1996 he was engaged as Mali by the Cantonment board. This court has to adjudicate as to whether the termination of services of Umesh Kumar S/o Raghuvir singh w.e.f. 23-8-2000 whether legal and justified.

I have perused the pleadings and the evidence on the record carefully. Umesh Kumar has also stated that he was not given any appointment letter but has stated that he was terminated on 23-8-2000. Umesh Kumar has stated that he was terminated on 23-8-2000. Worker has stated that he was not given any compensation before terminating his services. It is settled law that the burden on the worker to prove that he had continuously worked till the date of his termination as provided in Section 25B (2) of the I.D. Act. From the evidence on record it is proved that Umesh Kumar was casual labour not appointed against any post as alleged in the statement of claim. Sri Umesh Kumar has alleged that he was appointed against the permanent post as Mali w.e.f. Feb. 1996 but has not stated the specific date on which was appointed. He has stated that his services were terminated w.e.f. 23-8-2000. He has admitted in his examination in chief that he was engaged as casual labour. He has also stated that Cantonment board has not produced all document. He has also stated that he has no record with him to show as to how many days he worked.

On the other hand Sri RK Sharma Supervisor of the Cantonment board has stated that worker has not continuously worked. He was engaged as exigency of work and when ever the labours were disengaged no notice was given to them. According to document he has stated that they are true copies of the original. He has stated that no person can be recruited without vacancy and notification in newspaper and selection/interview.

From the muster roll produced by the opposite party it is clear that worker Umesh Kumar was paid 23 days wages (Rs. 1495) and he last worked on 28-8-2000. It is therefore incorrect to say that worker was terminated on 23-8-2000.

The sanction in respect of engagement of labour has been filled by the opposite party which go to show the following:

1. Printed no. 1802 for 15 days w.e.f. 16-3-98 @ Rs. 52/- per day.

2. Printed no. 1823 for 14 days w.e.f. 1-4-98 to 15-4-98 @ Rs. 52/- per day.

3. Printed no. 1844 for 15 days w.e.f. 16-4-98 to 30-4-98 @ Rs. 52/- per day.

4. Printed no. 1873 w.e.f. 1-5-98 to 15-5-98 @ Rs. 52/- per day.

5. Printed no. 1894 for 14 days w.e.f. 16-5-98 to 30-5-98 @ Rs. 52/- per day.

5A. Printed no. 1505 for 14 days w.e.f. 1-6-98 to 17-6-98

6. Printed no. 1526 for 15 days w.e.f. 17-7-98 @ Rs. 54/- per day.

7. Printed no. 1540 for 15 days w.e.f. 1-8-98 @ Rs. 54/- per day.

8. Printed no. 1558 for 10 days w.e.f. 20-8-98 to 31-8-98 @ Rs. 54/- per day.

9. Printed no. 1577 for 15 days w.e.f. 1-9-98 @ Rs. 54/- per day.

10. Printed no. 1595 w.e.f. 18-7-98 @ Rs. 54/- per day.

11. Printed no. 2644 for 18 days w.e.f. 5-3-99 @ Rs. 54/- per day.

12. Printed no. 1613 for 15 days w.e.f. 3-10-98 @ Rs. 54/- per day.

13. Printed no. 1631 for 10 days w.e.f. 31-10-98 @ Rs. 54/- per day.

14. Printed no. 2526 for 15 days w.e.f. 6-9-99 @ Rs. 65/- per day.

15. Printed no. 2531 for 6 days w.e.f. 18-9-99 @ Rs. 65/- per day.

16. Printed no. 2543 for 9 days w.e.f. 1-10-99 @ Rs. 65/- per day.

17. Printed no. 2551 for 18 days w.e.f. 11-10-99 @ Rs. 65/- per day.

18. Printed no. 2556 for 24 days w.e.f. 1-11-99 @ Rs. 65/- per day.

19. Printed no. 2566 w.e.f. 1-12-99 to 31-12-99 @ Rs. 65/- per day.

20. Printed no. 2582 w.e.f. 21-4-2000 to 30-4-2000 @ Rs. 65/- per day.

21. Printed no. 2590 w.e.f. 1-5-2000 to 31-5-2000 @ Rs. 65 per day.

22. Printed no. 4105 for 7 days w.e.f. 24-7-2000 to 31-7-2000 @ Rs. 65 per day.

According to the muster roll filed by the opposite party worker Umesh Kumar has been paid for following days in the months shows below:

Year and month	No. of days
April 1998	26 days
May 1998	26 days
June 1998	14 days
July 1998	13 days
August 1998	25 days
Sept. 1998	26 days
Oct. 1998	25 days
March 1999	02 days
Sept. 1999	21 days
Oct. 1999	Nil
Nov. 1999	24 days
Dec. 1999	26 days
Jan. 2000 to March 2000	Nil
April 2000	07 days
May 2000	27 days
July 2000	07 days
August 2000	23 days

Thus I come to the conclusion that worker Umesh Kumar was daily rated casual labour employed by the Cantonment Board at intermittent period and has worked less than 150 days in preceeding the date of his termination within 12 calendar months.

I.D. No. 13/2003

I.D. No. 14/2003

I.D. No. 51/2003

All the 3 cases are taken together as their pleadings are one and the same.

Facts of the cases :

Workmen's case in brief is that they are working for more than 6 years i.e. from Feb. 1996, but the opposite party did not regularize the services. It is alleged that opposite party sent the letter for interview on the same post, but opposite party designated the workmen a temporary or casual worker. Workmen have worked against the permanent & vacant post during the whole service period and these posts are still vacant. When the workmen demanded for regularization opposite party not only refused but terminated them by order on 23-8-2000 in violation of provisions of section 25-F, G and H of the Industrial Disputes Act. 1947. It is also alleged that the opposite party has given jobs to others. It is also alleged that there is no seniority list maintained by the opposite party. It is also alleged that some workers have been regularized on 6-9-99 in its meeting he Cantonment Board adopted motion to regularize the workmen, yet nothing has been done in this regard on the other hand fresh hands has been employed keeping the workmen out of employment. Workmen have therefore prayed for reinstatement with back wages and continuity of service.

Opposite party has denied the claim of the worker It is submitted that the opposite party is not doing any business or trade and is not an Industry. Opposite party has denied the allegations of the workmen that the workmen were either appointed as a permanent worker or engaged against any permanent post. Workmen have even failed to disclose the necessary details/orders as to when they was employed, what were the terms and conditions of service. It is submitted that the workmen was engaged as casual labour on purely daily wage basis as per the norms of the Govt. and laid down procedure and any work may be taken to carry on the public duties in emergent cases. It is specifically denied that the workmen ever worked against any permanent post or was even engaged against permanent post. Question of any regularization or giving any permanent status to the workmen does not arise. No case of the workmen in respect of regularization is pending. The concerned workmen were never employed as a permanent workmen and no vacancy was advertised. However had any such advertisement been that the workmen had all opportunities to appeal and participate in the interview/selection. Worker in the case was engaged on non sanctioned post or temporary and casual basis. Question of any seniority or permanent status does not arise. The motion of the Cantonment Board dated 5-9-99 does not given any right to the workmen concerned and there was no suggestion of the Board. Moreover no vacancy can be filled up without the approval of higher authorities of the department.

It is submitted that the allegations are baseless frivolous and fabricated. Lastly it is stated that the workmen did not work for a period of 240 days in the calendar year before the date of their termination and they did not work for the period of 240 days in any year.

Opposite party has filed the photo copies of sanction book, muster rolls/pay roll with application C-20.

Workmen have examined him and opposite party have examined Sri Raj Kumar Sharma.

Heard the representative of the workmen alone as the representative of opposite party or the opposite party itself did not appear to argue.

The opposite party has filed extract of sanction book with printed serial number together with photo copies of muster roll in all the 3 cases mentioned above:

I have carefully perused the said documents and the position which emerges from perusal of those documents are summarised as below:

(1) The relevant extract of sanction book Arun Kumar Yadav are as follows: (I.D. No. 13/2003)

1803, 1824, 1845, 1874, 1895, 1506, 1534, 1543, 1561,

1580, 1598, 2663, 1616, 1634, 2538, 2556, 2578, 2586,

4103, 4111.

Similarly in ID No. 14/2003 in respect of Deepak Kumar the extract of sanction book which has printed folios have been filed by the opposite party. These are as under:

53, 61, 62, 65, 68, 76, 1527, 1544, 1562, 1581, 1599, 2645, 2665, 1617, 1635, 2532, 2553, 2578, 2586, 4101, 4109.

In respect of I.D. No. 51/2003 of Satyaveer Singh the opposite party has filed the extract of sanction book having following serial numbers.

87, 93, 1811, 1832, 1853, 1863, 1884, 1501, 1519, 1536, 1554, 1573, 2653, 2662, 1609, 1627, 2553, 2563, 2580, 2588

Similarly in all above 3 cases muster roll have been filed which show the details of working days and payment made to the workers. The chart is produced below :—

From the perusal of entire evidence on record it is evident that workers were casual daily rate workmen. They were not permanent workers nor they were engaged on any permanent post. Admittedly there is no appointment letter in respect of these workers. None of workers in their statement of claim has mentioned the exact date of his appointment nor they have stated as to what capacity they were appointed. Workers have not filled any record in respect of their working days in each of the calendar year. The witness of opposite party Sri RK Sharma has stated that in the event of emergent need to provide basic amenities, it is essential for the Board to engage the casual labourers. Accordingly casual labours are deployed as per rules. He has also stated that the workers were not engaged against any permanent vacancy or post. It is evident that the workers have not worked continuously in 12 calendar months. They have worked intermittently.

It has come in the evidence that Cantonment Board in case of any vacancy of permanent post, notifies the vacancy and all candidates who fulfil the criteria can apply for the said post. He has also stated that no one can be appointed without test/interview.

It is evident from the record that Beldar/Mazdoor/Safaiwala are engaged for road gang/demolisation purposes/desilting of drain/nalas etc.

In all the 3 cases above it is proved that workers were not terminated on 23-8-2000 instead Arun Kumar Yadav last worked on 28-8-2000, Deepak Kumar last worked on 26-8-2000 and Satyaveer Singh last worked on 28-8-2000. Therefore it can not be said that the management of Cantonment Board terminated the services of said employees on 23-8-2000.

So far as the question, whether the Cantonment Board is a industry or not. It is settled law by now thus Municipal Board, Nagar Nigam, PWD all are industry and Cantonment Board is no different than the said departments.

The passing of the resolution of the Chairman of the Board for regularising a particular worker has no meaning because the Chairman of the Cantonment Board is not proved to be appointing authority.

From the discussions above I come to the conclusion that the disengagement of casual labours of the above industrial disputes does not fall within ambit retrenchment and therefore there is no question of operation of section 25 G or H of the I.D. Act. In the circumstances the workmen are not required to be given any notice, notice pay or compensation. It is admitted fact that no seniority list is maintained in Cantonment Board therefore retaining of the juniors or seniors is not to be looked into as the workers of the dispute are not retrenched employees as they have not continuously worked 240 days preceeding the date of termination within 12 calendar months. Issues are therefore answered in favour of the management against the workers.

It is pertinent to mention here that representative of the opposite party did not turned up for argument only because the opposite party was to pay the adjournment cost to the worker. The workers have right to realise the adjournment cost in individual dispute cases. Award accordingly.

The Government of India, Ministry of Labour, New Delhi refer the following dispute for adjudication vide no. L-40012/222/2003-IR (DU) Dated 19-4-2004 to the presiding officer, CGIT-Cum-Labour Court, Lucknow:

“Whether the action of management of BSNL in terminating the services of Sri Dharmendra Kumar w.e.f. May 2002 is just fair and legal? If not to what relief the concerned workman is entitled?”

The worker Dharmendra Kumar filed the statement of claim alleging therein that he was Safaikarmchari in BSNL at the office of Divisional Engineer, Rishikesh, Dehradun w.e.f. July 1996 and was working to the entire satisfaction of the department. The services of Dharmendra Kumar were terminated w.e.f. May 2002 without any reason and without any notice and without complying the Section 25F of the I.D. Act, 1947. It is further submitted that Dharmendra Kumar was appointed in place of her mother Smt. Sudha Devi after her death. Opposite party filed the written statement stating therein that the opposite party did not engage Dharmendra Kumar for any work or post and therefore reference is bad in law. It is also submitted that the Dharmendra Kumar is not workman as defined in law. It is also submitted that there was no employer and employee relationship between Dharmendra Kumar and Dy. GM, Bharat Sanchar Nigam Ltd. Dehradun. It is also specifically denied that there is no date mentioned in the reference order and therefore the dispute can not be adjudicated. It is further submitted that in the office of opposite party there is only one post sanctioned in respect of Safaikarmchari and the father of Dharmendra Kumar Sri Prakash Chandra is posted for that work. It is further submitted that he (Sri Prakash Chandra) has been allotted a house in which Dharmendra Kumar is living with his father. In the circumstances when there is permanent Safaiwala against the sanctioned post therefore no question arises to appoint any other person as Safaiwala. As Dharmendra Kumar was not engaged a Safaiwala or for any job therefore there is no question of any termination. It is submitted that Dharmendra Kumar has concocted a false story. It is also pointed out that Dharmendra Kumar has not mentioned his date of appointment and he has not come with the clean hand and has tried to mislead the Court. Accordingly opposite party has requested that the reference be decided against the Dharmendra Kumar.

Dharmendar Kumar has filed the photo copy of rejoinder. Dharmendar Kumar in para 5 of rejoinder has stated that he was working on the post of Safaiwala w.e.f. 21-7-96 and has reiterated the facts that he was terminated in May 02 without any reason or notice by the oral orders of Sub Divisional Officer Sri Shoba Singh. It is further submitted that Prakash Chandra, Safaiwala was not able to manage the work at 3 places. It is alleged that Dharmendra Kumar was appointed in place of her mother Smt. Sudha Devi who was working as Safaikarmi since 1993 and when she died in 1996 Dharmendra Kumar was appointed in her place. It is alleged that the departmental employees and officers both had drawn the wages and Dharmendra Kumar has work under the direction of FD Loan Sarva Sri Dharmendra Sharma, Jaswant Singh, Rakesh Saini and Shobha Singh. Dharmendra Kumar also mentioned that he informed Doorsanchar Mantri Sri Ram Bilas Paswan and Manager Telecom, Dehradun but with no result.

Following documents have been filed by the Dharmendra Kumar along with his rejoinder:

1. Printed extract of Swamy's book page 91.
2. Photo copy of postal receipt.
3. Letter of Chandra Mohan Kala, Divisional President Dalit Seva Mandal address to Sri Ram Bilas Paswan, Doorsanchar Mantri, Govt. of India without any signature, paper no. 8/5 and 8/6.
4. Photo copy of letter of Dharmendra Kumar dt. 9-7-01.

Opposite party has filed the photo copy of the following documents:

1. Copy of office order dt. 30-3-85

2. Copy of office order dt. 22-6-88
3. Copy of office order dt. 12-2-99
4. Copy of office order dt. 20-9-2000
5. Copy of office order dated 19-4-2001

Sri Prakash Chandra has been examined on behalf of Dharmendra Kumar and Sri Jaswant Singh, Divisional Engineer has been examined on behalf of the opposite party.

Heard Sri RD Pandey who appeared on behalf of Dharmendra Kumar and Sri AK Gupta on behalf of the opposite party.

It is relevant to mention here that Dharmendra Kumar died on 2-10-2006.

It is also pertinent to mention here that rejoinder paper No. A1/8 has been filed by Sri Bachi Ram representative of Dharmendra Kumar on 15-2-05. It is relevant to point out that original rejoinder has not been filed and its place photo copy has filed. Original signatures are not available on rejoinder. First page of rejoinder is without any signature.

Sri Bachi Ram moved application D-18 on 29-11-2005 stating therein that due to accident, worker did not come for evidence due to serious injuries. It is also mention that accident took place on 3-10-2004. The said application accompanied by medical certificate paper No. D-18/2 which goes to show that Dharmendra Kumar was hospitalised in Himalyan Institute Hospital, Dehradun on 3.10.2004 and was there till 19-3-05.

Although Dharmendra Kumar stated that he was appointed in place of her mother Smt. Sudha Devi she was also safaikarmi but no appointment letter of Smt. Sudha Devi or Dharmendra Kumar has been filed by the worker or his representative. In case of any compassionate appointment the appointment orders are issued by the employer. There is heavy burden on worker to prove that her mother was in service and that he was appointed in her place. The father of Dharmendra Kumar, Sri Prakash Chandra has stated on oath that no appointment letter was given nor he was engaged on any scaled pay.

Sri Prakash Chandra has also stated that Dharmendra Kumar worked as Safaikarmi till 2001 and thereafter he was engaged to perform the duties of security guard in telephone department.

Sri Parkash Chandra has stated in his cross examination that he is Safaikarmi in the same exchange and his total salary is Rs. 5975. He has also admitted that there is only one post sanction in his exchange and he performed the duty of Safaiwala. On being question as to what is the covered area of the exchange where he worked he exhibited his ignorance.

In cross examination itself he has admitted that his son was not a regular employee.

Sri Jaswant Singh, Divisional Engineer, BSNL, Rishikesh, Dehradun has filed his affidavit in the Court. He has stated that in the office of Bharat Sanchar Nigam Ltd. Dehradun there is only one post sanctioned for Safaikarmi and on the said post the father of Dharmendra Kumar i.e. Prakash Chandra is not appointed. He has also stated that there is no question of appointing two Safaikarmi in place of one Sanctioned post. Sri Jaswant Singh has specifically denied that Smt. Sudha Devi was ever worked on any post in the office of opposite party and there is no question of appointing Dharmendra Kumar. He has further stated that Dharmendra Kumar has submitted imaginary false story and since Dharmendra Kumar was never engaged/appointed there is no question of his termination. During cross examination he has stated that he came to Rishikesh office in the August 1996 and while he was so working the father of Dharmendra Kumar was working there not Dharmendra Kumar. He has also denied that mother of Dharmendra Kumar ever worked in department.

It is significant to note here that Prakash Chandra himself has not stated in his evidence that his wife was working in the same office neither he has stated that son Dharmendra Kumar was appointed on the death of his mother.

In the circumstances it is false to say that Dharmendra Kumar was not appointed in Bharat Sanchar Nigam Ltd. It is also not proved that he was appointed on the place of his mother Smt. Sudha Devi.

Admittedly there is only one sanctioned post of Safaikarmi in Rishikesh in office of opposite party.

It appears that on 9-7-2001 Dharmendra Kumar moved an application to General Manager, Bharat Sanchar Nigam Ltd. Dehradun wherein he has stated that he was required to work as security guard and Safaikarmi at the salary of Rs.950 per month and he has been removed from Safai work to has refused to perform the duties of security guard therefore the letter dt. 9-7-01 is contrary to the interest of Dharmendra Kumar where he has himself admitted that he was removed from Safai work as he refused to work of security guard somewhere in before 9th July 2001.

Opposite party has filed the office order of the Director General Post and Telegraph No. 270/6/04-5 in dated 30-3-85 by which the engagement of fresh casual labourers have been stopped. The representative of the opposite party has accordingly argued that when Bharat Sanchar Nigam Ltd. was constituted, Telephone Department was under Post and Telegraph Director, New Delhi and there was no possibility of engaging casual labour in 1993 or 1996.

Opposite party has filed another circular No. 270/6/04-5 TL New Delhi dated 22 June 1988 of the Director Post and Telegraph which also bars the deployment/recruitment of casual labour even for the specific period. The said circular has been circulated amongst the General Managers.

Opposite party has filed another office memorandum of Telecom department issued by the Asstt. Director General (STN) dt. 12-2-99 regarding the withdrawal of powers of DOT officers to engage casual labourers or daily or monthly wages direct or through contractors as well as authority of Accounts officer for making payment to the labourers engaged or daily or monthly wages, either direct or through contractor with immediate effect.

Bharat Sanchar Nigam Ltd. on 19-4-2001 issued the following circular :

Sir,

I am directed to refer to this office letter of even number dt. 29-9-2000 on the above subject and to say that if there is still any casual labourers left out for regularisation due to any reasons, the same may please be referred to this office urgently (proforma I) for necessary action alonge with reasons of delay . A certificate as to correctness and finality of the information shall also be furnished. by the Internal Finance of Circle and the Chief General Manager both. The proposal furnished to this office without this certificate and without reasons for delay will not be considered.

It has been noticed in the post that complete information is not received from the circles and information in piecemeal is sent on one pretext or other. It may, therefore, be noted that this the final chance for the circles to send the information. No request in this respect will be entertained in future.

As you must be aware, there is a complete ban on engagement of casual labourers w.e.f. 22-6-88. Action must be taken against officers responsible for engaging casual labourers in defiance of bank orders. such directions have been issued earlier vide various letters from the Directorate. In particular letter no. 269-4/93-STN-II dated 17-12-93 and 269-4/93-STN-II (Pt.) dt. 12-2-99 (circulated vide letter no. 269-13/99-STN-II dated 12-2-99) may please be referred in this regard. A statement indicating total number of casual labourers engaged during the ban period, number of officers identified for the lapse and number of cases in which action has actually been taken should be furnished to this office in Proforma II. This statement should include all cases of casual labourers engaged during ban period irrespective of the fact whether they have been regularised or not .

The circles who have already sent left out cases should also send information afresh in the prescribed proforma. The above information should reach this office by 15-5-2001.

Your faithfully

Sd/-

(O.P. Mogha)

Asstt Director General (Pers.)

The representative of the opposite party has argued that there is no document produced on behalf of worker during his life time or after his death by his father to prove that Dharmendra Kumar was never engaged as casual worker on monthly wages basis. The burden lies upon the workmen to prove that he was engaged monthly salary of Rs. 950 per month as casual labour when it is admitted that the Dharmendra Kumar was not a regular employee of Bharat Sanchar Nigam Ltd. The burden lies on the worker to prove that he put continous service of 240 days preceeding his date of termination within 12 calander months.

The reperesentative of the worker has argued that the worker was not appointed as regular employee and there is no question of getting any appointment letter. He has stated that there is no reason to disbelieve the testimony of father of Dharmendra Kumar who has stated that Dharmendra Kumar worked as Safaikarmi till the year 2001 and in 2001 he was deployed to perform the duties of security guard where he worked for a few months. Sri RD Pandey has also argued that Dharmendra Kumar was not given scale wages but was only paid Rs. 950/-per month as he was not a regular staff.

The representative of the opposite party has relied upon (2006(108) FLR 213 Supreme Court between RM Yellatti vs Asstt. Executive Engineer wherein it has been held that the burden on the cailmant to show that he has completed 240 days of continuance service in a year.

Opposite party has also relied upon 2007(112) FLR 918 Supreme Court between Accounts Officer (A&I) APSRTC and others vs K.V. Ramana and others.

The later case law is not relevant to the fact of this case as this is the case of termination in violation of section 25-F of the ID Act.

It is settled law that the onus of prove lies on the worker who alleges to have worked for the particular period. There is no cogent evidence produced on behalf of Dharmendra Kumar that he was appointed on monthly paid casual basis in the year 1996 on the place of her mother. Even the father of the workmen has not proved the fact that Smt. Sudha Devi was his wife and she died in 1996 and on her death Dharmendra Kumar was appointed in her place. In the circumstances it is difficult to belive that Dharmendra Kumar was appointed on the death of her mother.

There is no question to disbelieve that testimony of Sri Jaswant Singh, Divisional Engineer, Bharat Sanchar Nigam Ltd. Rishikesh, Dehradun coupled with the documentary evidence that there was complete ban on engagement of casual labours.

In the circumstances I came to the conclusion that it is not proved that Dharmendra Kumar was terminated w.e.f. May 2002. It is also not proved that he was a Safaikarmi as the Dharmendra Kumar has alleged in his statement of claim. In the circumstances I also come to the conclusion that there is no relationship of employee and employer between Dharmendra Kumar and the opposite party. Issue is decided accordingly against the worker. Dharmendra Kumar is not entitled to any relief. Award passed accordingly.

AWARD

The Central Government, Ministry of Labour vide Order No. L-12012/87/2004-IR (B-I) dated 23-7-2004 has referred the dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication. The schedule mentioned dispute is as follows :—

“Whether the termination of Sri R. Krishnamoorthy by the management of City Union Bank, Kumbakonam is legal and justified? If not, to what relief the workman is entitled?”

2. After the receipt of the reference, it was taken on file as I.D. No. 396/2004 and notices were issued to both the parties and both the parties entered appearance through their advocates and filed there Claim Statement and Counter Statement respectively.

3. The allegations of the Petitioner in the Claim Statement are briefly as follows :

The Petitioner joined the services of the Respondent/Bank on 10-7-81 and he was employed as unpaid apprentice clerk at Erode branch and he had rendered two years of continuous service before availing leave on medical grounds. again, when the bank issued notification in the year 1987, he has submitted an application with certificate and the respondent also sent hall ticket asking the Petitioner to appear for an examination. But, he was not allowed to sit for examination without assigning any reason. Any how the Petitioner has rendered 240 days in a continuous period of 12 calendar months and 480 days in a continuous period of 24 calendar months and thus he deemed to have attained the permanent status under labour legislations. Therefore, the termination order issued by the Respondent/Management without complying with the provisions of Section 25F of the I.D. Act is not valid. While so, the Petitioner inadvertently raised the dispute before labour officer, Tanjore and subsequently, filed a claim statement before Labour Court, Cuddalore and therefore, the Labour Court has disposed of the matter that the court has no jurisdiction to entertain and adjudicate the matter. Thereafter, he raised the dispute before Assistant Labour Commissioner (Central) which ended in failure. The allegation of the Respondent/Management that the Petitioner was over aged and he was ineligible according to the qualification indicated in the notification and that a communication was sent cancelling the earlier communication are all false. The Respondent/Bank is bound to retain the records and produced the same before the Court and should not contend that they do not have records prior to ten years and this Tribunal has got ample power to draw an adverse inference against the Respondent/Bank. The Banking Regulation Act Section 2 clearly states that the said Act shall be in addition to and not in derogation of any other law. Under the provisions of Banking Companies Act (period of preservation of records) Rules 1985 the bank has to maintain records for a period of eight years and in case, a case is pending before the Court they have to maintain records irrespective of the period stipulated in rules. In this case, the dispute was raised in the year 1987 and therefore, the Respondent has to maintain all records. Hence, the Petitioner prays that an award may be passed to reinstate the Petitioner in service w.e.f. 12-3-1983 with all consequential benefits.

4. As against this, the Respondent in its Counter Statement contended that at the first instance, the Petitioner was never employed in any capacity at any point of time. The relationship of employer and workman never existed between this respondent and the Petitioner. The Petitioner cannot be construed as a workman nor the Respondent as his employer. The present reference itself is incompetent, bad and beyond the powers of Government. The Petitioner was never terminated as alleged by him. The Petitioner cannot invoke any of the provisions of I.D. Act much less Section 2A of the Act. Without prejudice to the above contention, the Petitioner was engaged as unpaid apprentice by an order dated 10-7-81 by the Respondent and he joined as unpaid apprentice as per the above said order. Having undergone the period of training for only 1½ months the Petitioner thereafter did not report for duty to the establishment and he did not communicate to the Respondent in any manner. Subsequently, in the year 1998 the Petitioner invoking provisions of Section 2A of I.D. Act filed a petition before Labour Officer, Thanjavur. Since the Labour Court, Thanjavur has no jurisdiction, the claim of the Petitioner was rejected. Thereafter, belatedly in respect of his alleged non-employment, the Petitioner raised a dispute before the Government of India stating falsely that he was employed in the Respondent/Bank and he was terminated as he has availed leave on the ground of sickness. No doubt, the Petitioner has applied for vacancy in the Respondent establishment in 1987, but he was not permitted to sit for examination on the ground that he was not eligible and his date of birth as per his application is 19.1.51 and for the post of Clerk, minimum qualification prescribed was graduation and the eligibility criteria was notified and the age of applicant was 26 years as on 1-1-98 and therefore, the letter permitting him to sit over the examination was cancelled by another communication dated 25-9-87. But such dispute is totally outside the purview of Section 2A. The Petitioner never rendered continuous service as alleged by him of 240 days in a period of 12 calendar months and 480 days in a period of 24 calendar months. The Petitioner was never employed much less employed in a permanent sanctioned post and he was never retrenched. The Petitioner has filed a suit before District Munsiff Court in O.S. No. 670/90 claiming Rs. 10,000-and also for a direction that Respondent/Bank should provide him with a post of clerk and the suit was dismissed. Since the Petitioner has elected his remedy elsewhere and as the suit was dismissed, the Petitioner has no locus standi to approach this Tribunal for any further relief. The dismissal of the said suit would operate as res judicata for any further action on the part of the Petitioner. Further the claim of the petitioner is stale and extraordinarily belated. The Petitioner was guilty of laches and delay. The Petitioner was also guilty of negligence and inaction. The Petitioner alleged that he was employed in the year 1981 and who having gone to civil court in the year 1990 did not approach the authorities under I.D. Act till 1998. Hence, for all these reasons, the Respondent prays that claim of the Petitioner is liable to be dismissed.

5. In these circumstances, the points for my consideration are :—

- (i) "Whether the termination of the Petitioner by the Respondent/Management is legal and justified?"
- (ii) "To what relief the Petitioner is entitled?"

Point No. 1 :—

6. The case of the Petitioner in this dispute is that the Petitioner is a workman and he was appointed by the Respondent/Management by its order dated 10-7-1981. Even though he was appointed as an unpaid apprentice clerk, he joined duty at Erode branch of Respondent/Bank on 10-7-81 and he has rendered about two years of continuous service from 10-7-81. While so, he was terminated on 12-3-83 without any assigning any reason by the Respondent/Bank. Even after his termination in the year 1987, as per notification of the Respondent/Bank, the Petitioner has submitted his application for the post of clerk and at the first instance, he was asked to appear for examination, but subsequently he was not allowed to sit for examination without assigning any reason. Since the termination is illegal and since the Respondent has not followed the mandatory provision of Section 25F of the I.D. Act, the order of termination passed by the Respondent/Bank is void ab initio and he is entitled to be reinstated in service.

7. On behalf of the Respondent it is contended that the Petitioner was never employed in any capacity at any point of time. There is no relationship of employer-employee between the Respondent and the Petitioner and he cannot be construed as a workman. The Petitioner was engaged himself as unpaid apprentice for a period of two months by an order dated 10-7-81. He joined as unpaid apprentice on 15-7-81 at Erode and within 1½ months he did not report for duty to the establishment and he did not continue in the post as apprentice and therefore, there is no question of appointment or termination by the Respondent/Bank and hence, the Petitioner is not entitled to any relief much less relief of reinstatement at this long lapse of time.

8. Since the Petitioner alleged that he is a workman under I.D. Act and he has served for more than 240 days in a continuous period of 12 calendar months and 480 days in a continuous period of 24 calendar months, the burden of proving this fact is upon the Petitioner. In order to establish this fact, the Petitioner has examined himself as WW1 and produced six documents and all the six documents are copy of his representation to the Respondent/Management by certificate of posting. As against this, on the side of the Respondent/Management, one Mr. S. Sridaran, deputy General Manager (Advances) of the Respondent/Management, who was working as Branch Manager in Erode branch during the year 1981, was examined as MW1 and on their side 17 documents were marked as Ex. M1 to M17. Ex. M1 is the copy of office order posting the Petitioner as unpaid apprentice dated 10-7-81. Ex. M2 is the copy of application for appointment of clerk dated 28-8-87 sent by the Petitioner. Ex. M3 is the copy of letter sent by the Petitioner requesting employment. Ex. M4 is the copy of call letter sent to the Petitioner for written test. Ex. M5 is the copy of notice issued by Petitioner's advocate. Ex. M6 is the copy of reply to the above notice sent by Respondent/Bank advocate. Ex. M7 is the copy of written statement of Petitioner Labour Office, Tanjore. Ex. M8 is the copy of Petitioner's claim in I.D. 22/2001. Ex. M9 is the copy of 2A petition filed by Petitioner before Assistant Labour Commissioner (Central). Ex. M10 is the copy of comments filed by Respondent before Assistant Labour Commissioner (Central). Ex. M11 is the copy of acquittance role register for July, 1981. Ex. M12 is the copy of notification dated 14-8-87. Ex. M13 is the copy of letter sent by Respondent/Bank rejecting the application of Petitioner. Ex. M14 is the copy of draft return letter. Ex. M15 is the copy of order in O.S. No. 670/90. Ex. M16 is the copy of reply filed by Respondent before Labour Authorities, Tanjore. Ex. M17 is the copy of written statement filed by Respondent in I.D. No. 22/20021.

9. Learned counsel for the Petitioner contended that the Petitioner is a workman and he was appointed by the Respondent by its order dated 10-7-91 under Ex. M1. Even though he was appointed as unpaid apprentice clerk and joined at Erode branch on 10-7-81 he was performing despatch work, work relating to savings bank account, clearing house work, accounting of stamp etc. by doing these work, he has worked in the Respondent/Management and he was allotted accommodation in the office at free of cost. Thus, the Petitioner has rendered two years of continuous service from 10-7-81 and all of a sudden, his services were terminated on 12-3-83 without assigning any reasons. Since he has worked for more than 240 days as per Tamil Nadu Industrial Establishment (Conferment of Permanent Status to Workmen) Act, 1981, the services of the Petitioner had to be regularised by the Respondent/Bank and the Respondent who is doing banking business without following the mandatory provisions of Section 25F of the I.D. Act has terminated the Petitioner without any notice or without giving any compensation and therefore, the order passed by the Respondent/Management is illegal, void ab initio. No doubt, the Petitioner has not produced any document to show that he has worked from 10-7-81 to 12-3-83 but, all the documents are with the Respondent/Management and the Petitioner is not in a position to produce the documents which are in the custody of the Respondent. Any how, the contention of the Respondent is that under Ex. M1 he was appointed as unpaid apprentice clerk for a period of two years from the date of joining and within a period of 1½ months, he has gone to his native place for treatment and never returned to work. If really, this contention is a true one, then the management has set up only defence of voluntary abandonment of service, but the voluntary abandonment has not been proved to the satisfaction of this Tribunal. The evidence of MW1 clearly says that the Petitioner has worked as a clerk. In his cross examination, he has stated that the Petitioner is qualified for the post of clerk. Therefore, the burden of proving the fact that the Petitioner has left the job within 1½ months is upon the Respondent, but this burden has not been discharged by the Respondent with any satisfactory evidence. Further the contention of the Respondent in the Counter Statement and the evidence given by MW1 in the witness box are contradictory. In para 6 of the Counter Statement, they alleged that the Petitioner did not report to the establishment after having undergone the period of training for only 1½ months. In other words, it is the contention of the Respondent that the Petitioner has voluntarily abandoned his service, but the Respondent/Bank has not let in any evidence to show that the Petitioner has worked only for 1½ months as a trainee and he left the post. Only the witness, who was examined on the side of the Respondent has clearly stated that 'he cannot say, when the Petitioner has left the service'. He has also admitted that he has not produced any document to show when the Petitioner has left the service. Even though the Petitioner has filed the petition for production of registers to show the period of his employment under the Respondent/Bank, they have not produced the same and I.A. No. 201/2006 was dismissed on the ground that documents must have been destroyed. Therefore, the Petitioner is not in a position to produce documents which were in the hands of Respondent/Management. Though the Respondent has contended that the Petitioner has worked only for 1½ months as apprentice and left the service, they have not produced any satisfactory evidence to prove this contention. Further, the MW1 has stated that after completion of training, he was working as probationer, therefore, the contention of abandonment of service as alleged by the Respondent/Management has not been established before this Court and it is the bounden duty of the Respondent/Management to prove that the workman has abandoned his service. Abandonment is a question of intention and such an intention cannot be attributed without adequate evidence. Under such circumstances, the Respondent has not established the fact that the Petitioner has abandoned his job, hence it should be presumed that the Petitioner has worked for more than the statutory period. Further, though the Respondent alleged that the Petitioner has abandoned his work, it is the case of Respondent that they have conducted any enquiry with regard to the abandonment of his service. But, on the other hand, the Petitioner by his letter dated 20-6-83 and 15-2-84 and other letters, copy of which are marked as Ex. W1 to W6, had requested for employment. Even after these letters, the Respondent/Management has not service has not taken action. Therefore, the plea of abandonment of service has not been proved and hence, the Petitioner is deemed to be in service from 12-3-83 as alleged by him.

10. But, on the other hand, learned counsel for the Respondent contended that from Ex. M1 it is clear that the Petitioner has engaged himself as unpaid apprentice for a period of two months. He joined as unpaid apprentice on 15-7-81 at Erode branch of Respondent/Bank and having undergone the period of training for 1½ months, the Petitioner did not report for job to the establishment and he did not communicate to the Respondent in any manner and in the year 1988, the Petitioner invoking provisions of Section 2A of I.D. Act had filed a petition before Labour officer, Tanjavur and it was also referred to Labour Court, Cuddalore, which was duly resisted by the Respondent/Management. Ultimately, the Labour Court, Cuddalore dismissed the claim of the Petitioner on the ground that they have no jurisdiction. In the mean time, the Petitioner has applied for the post of clerk in the year 1987 i.e. long after his voluntary cessation of Respondent/Management. But, the Petitioner was not permitted to sit for examination on the ground that he was over aged. Since the Petitioner's age was found as more than 31 years as on 1-1-88, the call letter issued by the Respondent/Bank was cancelled by another communication dated 25-9-87. Learned counsel for the Respondent contended that the Petitioner never rendered continuous service as alleged by him for more than 240 days in a continuous period of 12 calendar months and 480 days in a continuous period of 24 calendar months.

He has engaged himself as an unpaid apprentice only for a period of 1½ months and he cannot be deemed to be attained permanent status alleged by him. Any how, the question of permanency has to be decided by the appropriate authority under Tamil Nadu Industrial Establishment (Conferment of Permanent Status to Workmen) Act, 1981 and it cannot be adjudicated under Section 2A of the I.D. Act. In this case, the Petitioner was never employed as an employee under permanent sanctioned post and he was never retrenched and therefore, Respondent/Bank has not violated any of the provisions of Act much less Section 25F of the I.D. Act. It is further contention of the learned counsel for the Respondent that after the rejection of application given by the Petitioner, the Petitioner has issued an advocate notice dated 3-10-87 and he demanded that he should be either provided suitable post or payment of compensation of Rs. 10,000. But his claims were duly answered by Respondent and even the suit filed by the Petitioner before District Munsiff Court at Kumbakonam in O.S. No. 670/90 was also dismissed. Since the Petitioner has elected his remedy in civil court, the suit was dismissed. Hence, the Petitioner has no loco standi to approach this Tribunal for any relief. The dismissal of the suit would operate as res judicata for any further claim on the Petitioner. Learned counsel for the Respondent relied on the rulings reported in 2006 1 LLN 137 NATIONAL INSURANCE CO. LTD. VS. MASTAN AND ANOTHER which arise from Workmen Compensation Act. In that claimant has not chosen to withdraw his claim under Workmen's Compensation Act before it reached the point of judgement, with a view to approach the Motor Accidents Claims Tribunal. What he has done is to pursue his claim under Workmen's Compensation Act, till the award was passed and also to invoke a provision of Motor vehicles Act, he has not made applicable to claim under Workmen's Compensation Act. In that case, the Supreme Court has held that "the claimant/Respondent is not entitled to do so and the High Court was in error in holding that he is entitled to do so." Relying on this judgement, learned counsel for the Respondent argued that the doctrine of election is based on rule of estoppel and the principle that one cannot approbate and reprobate inheres in it. The doctrine of estoppel by election is one of the species of estoppel in pais (or equitable estoppel) which is a rule in equity. By that rule, a person may be precluded by his action or conduct or silence when it is his duty to speak from asserting a right which he otherwise would have had. In this case, when the Petitioner alleged to be a workman entitled to the benefits of Industrial laws, he has to approach the labour authorities even at the initial stage. Though he alleged that he has been terminated by the Respondent/Bank illegally, he has not taken the matter before labour authorities, on the other hand, he has chosen to civil remedy for compensation which was ultimately dismissed against him. Under such circumstances, he cannot again raise dispute under Industrial Disputes Act after a long lapse of time i.e. only after the alleged termination. Learned counsel for the Respondent further relied on the rulings reported in 2005 5 SCC 91 HARAYANA STATE CO-OP. LAND DEVELOPMENT BANK VS. NEELAM wherein the Supreme Court has held that "aim and object of Industrial disputes Act may be to impart social justice to the workman but the same by itself would not mean that irrespective of his conduct, a workman would automatically be entitled to relief. The procedural laws like estoppel, waiver and acquiescence are equally applicable to the industrial proceedings." In that case, the workman concerned has approached the labour Court after more than seven years and it was considered by labour Court and the Labour Court refused to grant any relief and it was upheld by the Supreme Court. In which the Supreme Court has held that "it is trite that Courts and Tribunals having plenary jurisdiction have discretionary power to grant an appropriate relief to parties. The aim and object of I.D. Act may be to impart social justice to the workman but the same by itself would not mean that irrespective of his conduct a workman automatically be entitled to relief. The procedural laws like estoppel, waiver and acquiescence are equally applicable to industrial proceedings. A person in certain situation may even be held to be bound by doctrine of acceptance sub silentio. The Respondent did not raise any industrial dispute questioning the termination of her service within a reasonable time. She even accepted an alternative employment and has been continuing therein from 10-8-88. In her application filed before Labour Court, while traversing the plea raised by the appellant that she is gainfully employed in HUDA w.e.f. 10-8-88 and her services had been regularised therein it was averred. Thus the conduct of the Respondent in approaching Labour Court after 7 years has been considered as a relevant factor for refusing to grant any relief to her. Therefore, such consideration cannot be said to be irrelevant one. Labour Court in the above mentioned situation cannot said to have exercised its discretionary jurisdiction injudiciously, arbitrarily and capriciously warranting interference at the hands of High Court under Article 226 of Constitution." Relying on this rulings, learned counsel for the Respondent contended that though the Petitioner alleged that he has been terminated illegally by the Respondent/Management during the year 1983, he has not approached the labour authorities within a reasonable time. On the other hand, he has approached the civil court for compensation in the year 1990. When his civil suit was dismissed by civil court, again he has approached the labour authorities after a long lapse of this long delay namely 15 years. Hence, the claim is liable to be dismissed.

11. I find much force in the contention of the learned counsel for the Respondent.

12. Learned counsel for the Respondent further contended that the claim the Petitioner is stale and extraordinarily belated and the Petitioner was guilty of laches and delay and he was also guilty of negligence and inaction. Then the learned counsel for the Respondent contended that though the Petitioner alleged that he has worked for more than 240 days, there is not even an iota of evidence to substantiate his contention and except his oral testimony, there is no document to show that he has worked for more than 240 days in a period of 12 calendar months and 480 days in a period of 24 calendar months. It is well settled by the Supreme Court and High Courts that the burden of proving the fact that the Petitioner is entitled to the benefits under Section 25F of I.D. Act is upon the Petitioner. But, in this case, since the Petitioner has not established this fact with any satisfactory evidence, the claim that he is entitled to the benefits under Section 25F is without any substance and the allegation that this Tribunal has to draw an adverse inference is also without any substance. He relied on the rulings reported in 2005 8 SCC 750 SURENDRANAGAR DISTRICT PANCHAYAT VS. DAHYABHAI AMARSINGH in which the Supreme Court has held that "in the absence of any regular employment of workman, employer is not expected to maintain seniority list of employees engaged on daily wages. As regards non-compliance with Section 25G & H suffice it to say that witness examined by the appellate has stated that no seniority list was maintained by the department of daily wages workmen. In the absence of regular employment of workmen, the appellant was not expected to maintain seniority list of employees engaged on daily wages and in the absence of any proof by Respondent regarding existence of seniority list and his so called seniority, no relief could be given to him for non-compliance with provisions of Act. The Courts could have drawn adverse inference against the appellant only when seniority list was proved to be in existence and then not produced before the Court. In order to entitle the Court to draw inference unfavourable to the party, the Court must be satisfied that evidence is in existence and could have been proved." In the same judgement, when the Supreme Court considered the applicability of Section 25F and 25B, it has held that "to claim protection under Section 25F — (i) there exists relationship of employer and employee; (ii) that he is a workman within the meaning of Section 2(s) of the I.D. Act and (iii) the establishment in which he is employed is an industry within the meaning of the Act and he must have put in not less than one year of continuous service as defined by Section 25B under the employer." and these conditions are cumulative and any of these conditions is missing, the provisions of Section 25F will not be attracted. Relying on this judgement, learned counsel for the Respondent contended that the Petitioner has not established that he is a workman under the Respondent/Management and he has worked for more than 240 days in a continuous period of 12 calendar months and under such circumstances, he cannot invoke the provisions of Section 25F of the Act and therefore, he is not entitled to any relief.

13. As I have already pointed out, I find much force in the contention of the Respondent. In this case, though the Petitioner alleged that he is a workman, he has not established this fact with any satisfactory evidence. Further, he has not established the fact that he had worked for more than 240 days in a continuous period of 12 calendar months and 480 days in a continuous period of 24 calendar months. Further, though he alleged that he has been terminated by the Respondent/Management during the year 1983, he has not stated any valid reason for not approaching the labour authorities within a reasonable time and he has also not stated any reason for electing civil forum for getting compensation and when his civil suit was dismissed by District Munsiff Court, he again approached the labour authorities after a long lapse of time and for this also, he has not given any valid explanation. Under such circumstances, since the inordinate delay was not satisfactorily explained by the Petitioner and merely making repeated representation to the employer will not be regarded as satisfactory explanation, I find no relief can be granted to the Petitioner. Therefore, I find this point against the Petitioner.

Point No. 2 :

The next point to be decided in this case is to what relief the Petitioner is entitled?

14. In view of my foregoing findings that the Petitioner has approached this forum with inordinate delay and the delay has not been explained satisfactorily, I find the Petitioner is not entitled to any relief. No Costs.

15. Thus, the reference is answered accordingly.

AWARD

1. The Central Government Ministry of Labour vide Order No. L-12012/65/2005-IR (B-I) dated 1-7-2005 has referred the dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication. The schedule mentioned order is as follows :—

“Whether the punishment of discharge from service imposed to Sri R. Balasubramanian by the management of State Bank of India, Madurai is legal and justified? If not, to what relief the workman is entitled?”

2. After the receipt of the reference, it was taken on file as I.D. No. 57/2005 and notices were issued to both the parties and both the parties entered appearance through their advocates and filed their Claim Statement and Counter Statement respectively.

3. The allegations of the Petitioner in the Claim Statement are briefly as follows :—

The Petitioner was appointed as clerk-cum-cashier-cum-typist on 6-6-91 at Sirupakkam branch of the Respondent/Bank in Villupuram district and he was confirmed in permanent service of the Respondent/Bank w.e.f. 6-12-91. While so, from the early months of 1994, his health condition started to deteriorate suddenly due to acute peptic ulcer, compounded by Hernia and spondylitis. As a result, he had to frequently go on leave on account of continued ill health and he requested the Respondent/Bank to consider his transfer to any of the branches in Madurai city where his parents are residing. Subsequently, he was transferred to Nilakottai branch which is 50 kms away from Madurai. The Petitioner joined Nilakottai branch in the fond hope that his health would improve and he could attend office and perform his duties without anymore problem. But here again due to severe spondylities which forced him to proceed on leave frequently. He requested for transfer to any one of the Madurai city branches on extreme ground of compassionate which did not evoke any positive response. Again, he requested the Respondent to transfer him temporarily to Madurai to enable him to undergo expert treatment. The Respondent considered the request of the petitioner and transferred him to zonal office for a temporary periods of three months in the year 1998. On the expiry of temporary transfer period, the Respondent/Bank did not accede to his request for transfer to Madurai on permanent basis and the petitioner rejoined at Nilakottai branch obeying the orders of Respondent/Bank. But even after that neck pain and severe low back pain on account of aggravated spondylities due to daily commutation by bus journey reaped in a fierce manner, hence again frequently he proceeded on leave. But to his shock, the Respondent/Bank ignoring his several requests for sanction of leave of his absence issued a notice for initiating disciplinary proceedings and after issuance of charge memo; he was not permitted by the Respondent/Bank to join work. After the enquiry proceedings, the Disciplinary Authority proposed to impose on him extreme punishment of discharge from service and after personal hearing, the Disciplinary Authority confirmed the proposed punishment on 16-9-02. Though he preferred an appeal, the Appellate Authority also confirmed the punishment imposed by the Disciplinary Authority by his order dated 19-11-2002. The entire proceedings initiated against him by the Respondent/Management suffers from lot of procedural infirmities and a serious violation of principles of natural justice. Charge sheet relates only to his absence and the charge is very vague. The 1st para speaks about unauthorised absence without obtaining prior sanction, but the latter part of the charge sheet speaks about absence without intimation. The action was initiated in terms of 521 of Sastry Award read with para 18.28 of Desai Award whereas the bank employees are governed by an new settlement dated 10-4-2002 for any disciplinary action. Therefore, the order based on irrelevant clause of cannot be treated as a legal one and hence it is to be declared as null and void. Any how, the punishment imposed by the Respondent/Management was totally disproportionate to the charge alleged against the Petitioner. Hence, for all these reasons, Petitioner prays that an award may be passed directing the Respondent to reinstate him into service with continuity of service, back wages and other attendant benefits.

4. But, as against this, the Respondent in its Counter Statement alleged that the Petitioner was unauthorisedly absent continuously for 286 days from Feb. 2002 to 14-12-2001 without prior sanction of leave nor did he apply for leave at any time thereby, he committed an act of misconduct of unauthorised absence. Therefore, the Respondent/Management issued a charge sheet dated 12-7-2001 and while submitting explanation, the Petitioner has accepted the charge levelled against him and he further stated that his absence was due to his ill health, however, it was not supported by any medical certificate. Since the explanation was not found to be satisfactory, the Disciplinary Authority initiated disciplinary proceedings. In the departmental proceedings held on 13-5-2002, the Petitioner categorically and unequivocally admitted the charge. He did not adduce any evidence or offer any reason for his absence. After the Enquiry Officer's report, he has not given any representation, even after the reminder was sent to him. Therefore, the Disciplinary Authority proposed the punishment and fixed the personal hearing and after hearing the Petitioner, the Disciplinary Authority imposed the punishment of discharge from service. Aggrieved by the order of Disciplinary Authority, the Petitioner preferred an appeal in which the Appellate Authority confirmed the punishment of discharge from service imposed by the Disciplinary Authority. The departmental proceedings were conducted in a fair and proper manner and there is no violation of principles of natural justice. Further, the Petitioner having participated in the departmental proceedings and making categorical admission of the charge levelled against him cannot make any grievance with respect to either enquiry or the punishment imposed. Even after the telegrams and letters sent to the Petitioner to report for duty, the Petitioner ignored the advice and neglected to report for duty deliberately. The ailment which the Petitioner alleged cannot be a reason for Petitioner's non-reply or his failure to report for duty. Once categorical admission of misconduct levelled against the Petitioner was made, the Petitioner cannot raise any objection to the conduct of enquiry. The Petitioner has not sent any application or medical certificate and it is false to allege that he has sent leave letters with medical certificate and it is false to allege that he has sent leave letters with medical certificate. Whatever provisions contained in Sastry Award and Desai Award with respect to conduct of disciplinary proceedings have been retained in the Bipartite settlement dated 10-4-2002. Hence, the conduct of disciplinary proceedings cannot be challenged by the Petitioner. Even on earlier occasion, the Petitioner's irregularity in and his long absence had been condoned by the Respondent by regularising the leave position of granting extra ordinary leave on loss of pay. Therefore, the Petitioner's absence was deliberate, intentional and indicated that he had no intention to rejoin the service, which is a gross misconduct and hence punishment cannot be construed to be disproportionate to the gravity of the misconduct. Therefore, the Respondent prays to dismiss the claim of the Petitioner.

5. As against this, the Petitioner again filed a rejoinder in which he has contended that the dates given in the counter is not correct. The charges levelled against the Petitioner is that he has unauthorisedly absent for duty for 286 days without obtaining any prior sanction of leave. But the Branch manager of the Respondent/Bank by a letter dated 6-1-2001 made it clear that the allegation made in charge sheet is not correct. The Petitioner sent his leave application and medical certificate for the days of absence upto 14-2-2001. The branch received those leave applications and medical certificates and the same was entered in leave register maintained by the branch and the Branch Manager recommended for extraordinary leave on loss of pay for those periods. Therefore, it cannot be said that the absence of Petitioner is not unauthorised and it is only absent without leave which comes only as minor misconduct. The Petitioner sent his leave letters with medical certificates then and there and the based on the same, the EOL on loss of pay was recommended by the Branch Manager which can be seen from the leave register maintained by the branch. Therefore, the whole order is illegal and against the law. The bank issued a circular dated 1-8-2002 whereby the Respondent/Management stated that settlement dated 10-4-2002 is in supersession of all the earlier provisions relating to Disciplinary action procedure for the workmen. Therefore, the action of the Respondent on the superseded non-existing procedure is illegal and liable to be set aside. The Disciplinary Authority of the Respondent/Management in the same Zonal Office at Madurai for similar and identical charges took a different view in respect of two employees namely S/Sri R. Ramesamy and M. Manoharan and imposed minor punishment of censure. On the other hand, the punishment of discharge was imposed on the Petitioner, which is totally discriminated and capital punishment was imposed on him and this Tribunal has got ample powers under Section 11A of the I.D. Act to interfere with the order of discharge when especially for similar and identical charges different lesser punishment of censure was imposed by the respondent. Therefore, he prays that an award may be passed in his favour.

6. Against this, the Respondent in its additional reply statement contended that no employee is entitled to any leave as a matter of right. Even under leave rules an employee is entitled to sick leave @ one month on half substantive pay for each year of service subject to a maximum of 12 months during his entire service. Similarly, an employee may be granted extraordinary leave on loss of pay only when no ordinary leave is applicable and such leave except in exceptional circumstances should not exceed three months on any occasion and 12 months for the entire period of service. But the Petitioner has never adhered to bank leave rules. In the year 1993-94 the Petitioner was absent for nearly 313 days besides exhausting all other kinds of leave. Again during the period from 1-1-96 to 28-7-97 the Petitioner was absent for nearly 162 days. It is the usual practice of the Petitioner to furnish leave application only after availing of leave. Therefore, the 162 was treated by the authorities as unauthorised absence and instructed for initiating disciplinary action. The Petitioner again from 18-1-2000 to 15-2-2000 was on leave for 29 days thereby he exhausted 29 days privilege leave. Thus, his leave record shows that he has availed nine months and thirteen days sick leave which would mean that he had overdrawn sick leave by one month. The Petitioner has not produced medical records like investigation records, prescriptions for medicines or x-ray or any other evidence to support his claim that he has been suffering from serious disease which prevented him from attending office. The Bipartite settlement dated 10-4-2002 is a codification or consolidation of the provisions of the awards as modified by settlements which govern disciplinary action procedure for workmen in the banks. The allegation of the Petitioner that his conduct is only minor misconduct is wrong and not tenable. Merely sending leave letters would not clothe the Petitioner with the right to get leave. No leave or extension of leave shall be deemed to have been granted unless and order to that effect is passed and communicated to the employee concerned. Further, the recommendation reportedly made by the Branch Manager for grant of extraordinary leave on loss of pay cannot be presumed to have been granted. Even the employee can avail maximum period of ELOP of 12 months during the period of service. Further, it is not the matter of right for an employee to avail such leave. Thus the Petitioner deliberately and wilfully abstained from attending the office. The Petitioner has categorically admitted the charges levelled against him at the enquiry proceedings and his request to stay at Madurai, in effect clearly shows his unwillingness to work in Respondent/Bank in any other area. The case relating to some of the employees by the Petitioner is quite different and distinguishable. Furthermore, disciplinary action alleged to have been taken place against the said employees after the period of three years from the date of punishment imposed on the Petitioner. The Petitioner cannot contend that he was discriminated in the matter of punishment. Hence, for all these reasons, the Respondent prays to dismiss the claim with costs.

7. In these circumstances, the points for my consideration are —

- (i) "Whether the punishment of discharge imposed on the Petitioner by the Respondent/Management is legal and justified?"
- (ii) "To what relief the Petitioner is entitled?"

Point No. 1 :

8. The case of the Petitioner in this dispute is that he was appointed as a clerk-cum-cashier-cum typist in the Respondent/Bank on 6-6-91 and was confirmed from 6-12-91. But from the beginning of 1994, his health condition was stated to be deteriorated due to acute peptic ulcer compounded by Hernia and Spondylitis because he had to commute from Nilakottai to Madurai and due to severe spondylitis, his ill health forced him to proceed on leave. During the year 2000 again, he was affected by spondylitis and he sent several leave applications requesting leave from 20-6-2000 to 19-7-2000 with medical certificate. Again for the period from 20-7-2000 to 19-8-2000, he sent leave application. Similarly he sent a telegram requesting leave for the period from 20-9-2000 to 19-10-2000. The Respondent/Management has received those applications and medical certificates and the same was entered into leave register maintained by the Branch Manager and the Branch Manager recommended these leave as Extraordinary leave on loss of pay. But all of a sudden, the Respondent/Bank Branch at Nilakottai sent a letter dated 6-1-2001 alleging that the Petitioner was not attending duties from 20-6-2000 and leave application was not submitted since 20-9-2000 and no medical certificate was produced since 20-8-2000 and subsequently, a charge sheet dated 12-7-2001 was issued to him alleging that he was absented for duty from February, 2000 to 14-2-2001 and the Petitioner further alleged that charge framed against him are vague and without any merits and the enquiry proceedings taken against him is also not bonafide and the punishment imposed on him is disproportionate to the misconduct alleged against him and on all these grounds, he attacks the order passed by the authorities and raised this dispute.

9. As against this, the Respondent contended that no employee is entitled to any leave as a matter of right. According to leave rules of the Respondent applicable to award staff, an employee is entitled to sick leave @ one month on half substantive pay for each year of service, subject to a maximum of 12 months during his entire service. But, in this case, from the records it is clear that the Petitioner has availed more than nine months and 13 days sick leave which would mean that he had overdrawn sick leave by one month (the Petitioner joined in the year 1991). Similarly, an employee may be granted EOL on loss of pay only when no ordinary leave is available. Further, such leave except in exceptional circumstances should not exceed three months on any occasion and 12 months for the entire period of service. Though the Petitioner joined the bank service in the year 1991, he never adhered to bank's leave rules in the year 1993-94. The Petitioner was absent for 313 days besides exhausting all other kinds of leave. Even while regularising the leave, the authorities concerned observed from the leave records of the Petitioner that "he is in the habit of availing leave frequently on flimsy medical grounds and submit leave applications along with medical certificates after availing of leave and he was granted leave without pay for the said period. During the period from 1-1-96 to 28-7-97 the Petitioner availed 162 days and he furnished leave application only after the leave. The above absence for 162 days was treated as unauthorised absence and disciplinary action was initiated against him. Again, from 18-1-2000 to 15-2-2000 he was on leave for 29 days, thereby he exhausted 29 days privilege leave. Therefore, he has exhausted all the leave and he had no leave at his credit and even after several reminders sent by the Respondent/Management, he has not joined duty. Further, the Petitioner has not produced any medical records like investigation reports, prescription for medicine or x-ray or any other evidence to support his claim that he had been suffering from serious disease which prevented him from attending the office. Therefore, he is a chronic absentee and deliberately and wilfully absented from duties and he has stated his illness as a cause only to wriggle out the situation and he has not interested in working under the Respondent/Bank.

10. In order to substantiate his contention, the Petitioner examined himself as WW1 and marked 20 documents as Ex. W1 to W20. Learned counsel for the Petitioner contended that it is false to allege that the Petitioner has not given any medical certificate or leave letter and every time, he has sent his leave letter along with medical certificate and the Branch Manager also recommended his leave EOL on loss of pay, therefore, it is false to allege that he was absented from duty without any leave. Frequent non-attendance of the Petitioner was only due to his ill health and consequent medical treatment. Therefore, the charge framed against the Petitioner that he was unauthorisedly absent for the period from February, 2000 to 14-2-2001 is not a valid reason. Learned counsel for the Petitioner further contended that no doubt, the Respondent/Bank has initiated disciplinary proceedings but the entire proceedings initiated against him by the Respondent/Bank suffers from lot of procedural infirmities and a serious violation of principles of natural justice which govern the conduct of departmental proceedings. As already stated, the 1st para of the charge speaks about unauthorised absence without obtaining prior sanction, when the Petitioner was seriously affected due to ill health, it is humanly impossible for anyone to obtain prior permission when he was laid up with severe indisposition, but in the later part, it was alleged as absence without intimation. In the enquiry, the Respondent has not established the fact that the Petitioner has failed to give intimation with regard to his absence. Even the documents produced in enquiry brought out contradiction in framing charges. It is established by the Petitioner that he has submitted his leave application with medical certificates which were ignored by the Respondent/Bank and therefore, framing of charge itself is not valid. Further, the action was initiated in terms of para 521 of Sastri Award read with para 18.28 of Desai Award, but the bank employees namely award staff are governed by new settlement dated 10-4-2002 for any disciplinary action and this has been very clearly spelt out by the Respondent/Bank itself by means of a circular dated 1-8-2002, copy of which is marked as Ex. W12. Therefore, the proposed punishment and final orders issued by Disciplinary Authority which were based on irrelevant clause of obsolete award cannot be treated as a legal one and hence the same has to be set aside as null and void. Learned counsel for the Petitioner further contended that even assuming for argument sake that the enquiry held by the Respondent/Bank is valid, the punishment imposed on the Petitioner is very heavy and it was totally disproportionate to the gravity of the charge alleged against the Petitioner. Had the bank sanctioned necessary leave for allowing him to take medical treatment and acceded to his request for transfer to the place where expert medical treatment is available, he would have definitely come out of his predicament and would have led a normal life rendering loyal service to the bank. But, on the other hand, his request for transfer to Madurai was refused and he was also not sanctioned leave for his medical treatment. Under such circumstances, the orders passed by the Respondent authorities suffers from infirmities, discrepancy and contradiction and it was also shockingly disproportionate and hence it is liable to be set aside.

11. But, as against this, learned counsel for the Respondent that no employee is entitled to any leave as a matter of right. In this case, the Petitioner has availed leave more than what he was entitled namely sick leave and EOL on loss of pay. Under such circumstances, no doubt, the Petitioner has applied for leave and the Branch Manager also recommended for EOL on loss of pay, but there was no leave at his credit and hence he was asked to join duty immediately and it was informed to the Petitioner by way of several reminders and even after that he has not joined duty. Further, the Respondent authorities sent registered notice to the Petitioner thereby informed him to join duty immediately. But, even after that the Petitioner has not joined duty and no explanation was given to the Respondent authorities and no medical certificates with records were submitted by the Petitioner. Though he alleged that he has sent application with medical certificate, no leave was sanctioned on that application and he was informed that he has no leave at his credit and asked him to join duty immediately. Under such circumstances, the Petitioner cannot blame the authorities for not sanctioning leave to him. Therefore, the recommendation reportedly made by Branch Manager for grant of EOL on loss of pay cannot be presumed to have been granted. Merely sending leave letters would not clothe the Petitioner with the right to get leave and no leave or extension of leave shall be deemed to have been granted unless an order to that effect is passed and communicated to the concerned employee. In this case, on each and every occasion, the Petitioner was informed that he has no leave at his credit and to join duty immediately, but without giving any reply to the said intimation and without giving any explanation for not attending the office, he has kept quite. Therefore, the absence of the Petitioner was deliberate and he wilfully abstained from attending the office. It is only roose to allege that he has been affected by spondylities and other ailments. Learned counsel for the Respondent further contended that charge sheet was issued to the Petitioner, but he has not given any explanation that his absence was due to his ill health but when the disciplinary proceedings were initiated against him, he has categorically admitted that the charge framed against him. Thus, the Petitioner's categorical admission will clearly establish that his absence was deliberate and he has wilfully abstained from doing work. Further, he did not adduce any evidence or any other reason for his absence nor produced any medical certificate before the Enquiry Officer, on the other hand, on the side of the Respondent/Management as many as eight documents were produced and he has also not objected for marking of those documents. From these documents, it is clearly established that Respondent/Bank had been directing the Petitioner to report for duty, but the said letters/telegrams did not evoke any response from the Petitioner. The departmental proceedings were conducted in a fair and proper manner and there is no violation of principles of natural justice. The Petitioner having participated in the departmental proceedings and made categorical admission of the charges levelled against him, cannot now make any grievance with regard to the enquiry or punishment imposed on him. Learned counsel for the Respondent further contended that though the Petitioner's advocate argued that the provisions contained in the charge sheet is an obsolete one and the punishment was imposed on the Petitioner on the wrong provision of departmental proceedings, the Petitioner has never objected to the proceedings taken against him as illegal. Further whatever provisions contained in Sastry Award and Desai Award with regard to conduct and disciplinary proceedings have been retain in Bipartite Settlement dated 10-4-2002. Further, Bipartite Settlement dated 10-4-2002 is a codification or consolidation of the provisions of the awards as modified by settlements which govern disciplinary action procedure for workmen in the bank and under such circumstances, it cannot be valid to contend that he has been imposed punishment on a wrong procedure. learned counsel for the

Respondent further relied on the rulings reported in AIR 1968 SC 266 CENTRAL BANK OF INDIA Vs. KARUNAMOY BANERJEE wherein the Supreme Court while considering the departmental proceedings has stated that "rules of natural justice will have to be observed, in the conduct of a domestic enquiry against a workman. If the allegations are denied by workman, the burden of proving the truth of those allegations will be on the management and the witness called by the management must be allowed to be cross examined by the workman and the latter must also be given an opportunity to examine himself and adduce any other evidence that he might choose in support of his plea. But if the workman admits his guilt to insist upon the management to let in evidence about the allegations will only be an empty formality. In such a case, it will be open to the management to examine the workman himself, even in the first instance, so as to enable him to offer any explanation for his conduct, or to place before the management any circumstances which will go to mitigate the gravity of offence." Again, the learned counsel for the Respondent relied on the rulings reported in AIR 1996 SC 484 B.C. CHATURVEDI Vs. UNION OF INDIA wherein the Supreme Court has held that "the High Court or Tribunal while exercising the power of judicial review, cannot normally substitute its own conclusion on penalty and impose some other penalty. If the punishment imposed by the Disciplinary Authority or the Appellate Authority shocks the conscience of the High Court/Tribunal, it would appropriately mould the relief." Relying on this decision, learned counsel for the Respondent contended that it cannot be held that the punishment of discharge imposed on the Petitioner who was deliberately and wilfully absented for duty will shock the conscience of the Tribunal. Then again, he relied on the rulings reported in 2005 II LLJ 507 BIKSHAPATI VIRAYYA Vs. UNION OF INDIA AND OTHERS, wherein the Andhra Pradesh High Court while considering the termination of service of an employee who was unauthorisedly absent for 172 days has held that "absence of 172 days from duty on number of occasions without sanction is inconsistent with the conduct expected of a public servant, a railway employee in this case, the misconduct is of sufficient gravity to warrant removal from service." Relying on all these decisions, the learned counsel for the Respondent argued that in this case, the Petitioner was absented for duty more than 296 days without sanctions, which is inconsistent with the conduct expected from a bank employee. Under such circumstances, it cannot be said that the punishment imposed on him is shockingly disproportionate to the misconduct alleged against him and he further argued that the Petitioner has admitted the charge framed against him and he has not produced any document to show that he was affected by illness. Therefore, this Tribunal need not set aside the punishment awarded by the Disciplinary Authority.

12. I find much force in the contention of the learned counsel for the Respondent. Because, though in this case, the Petitioner alleged that he suffered from serious illness, he has not given any explanation for his long absence, when he was asked to give explanation. Further, he has not produced any medical records to establish his claim before the Disciplinary Authority, on the other hand, he has admitted the charge framed against him namely unauthorised absence during the period from February, 2000 to 14-2-2001 and he has also not produced any document before Disciplinary Authority for his long absence. Under such circumstances, I am not inclined to accept the contention of the learned counsel for the Petitioner that the punishment imposed by the Respondent authorities are disproportionate to the misconduct alleged against him. As such, I find this point against the Petitioner.

Point No. 2 :

The next point to be decided in this case is to what relief the Petitioner is entitled?

13. In view of my foregoing findings, I find the Petitioner is not entitled to any relief. No Costs.

14. Thus, the reference is answered accordingly.

AWARD

The Central Government, Ministry of Labour, New Delhi, vide order No. L-41012/56/2005-IR (B-I) Dated 24-2-2006, in exercise of power conferred by clause (d) of sub-section (1) and sub-section (2A) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947) has referred the following dispute for adjudication to Presiding Officer Central Government Industrial Tribunal Cum Labour Court, Lucknow:

“क्या प्रबन्धन उत्तर रेलवे, लखनऊ द्वारा श्री नानमुन-पुत्र श्री घडकन केयर टेकर के आक्समिक श्रमिक के पद पर कार्य करते हुए दिनांक 15-12-1977 को 120 दिन पूरे कर लेने पर उसे उस तिथि से “सी.पी.सी. स्केल न देकर दिनांक 15-12-1979 से दिया जाना, व दिनांक 1-1-1986 से 22-6-1999 तक 12 घंटे कार्य करा कर (04 घंटे अधिक कार्य कराये जाने पर) उक्त अवधि का 04 घंटे का ओवर टाइम न देना उचित वैद्य है ? यदि नहीं तो कर्मकार किस राहत को पाने का अधिकारी है?”

Trade Union's case is that the worker Sri Nanmun was appointed as casual labour Under 1.0.W. (Loco) N.R. Lucknow on 15-07-76. The worker continuously work for 120 days till 15-12-77, but he was given CPC scale on 15-12-79. It is further alleged that the worker was engaged w.e.f 1-1-86 as care taker till 22-6-99 & was required to work 12 hours a day, but he was neither given any rest nor over time for 4 hours in violation of Railway Rules and Industrial Disputes Act. Worker has accordingly requested for CPC scale w.e.f 15-12-77 with all consequential benefits and overtime.

Written statement has been filed on behalf of opposition party by Asst. Divisional Engineer. Denying the claim of the trade union it is submitted that the workers have giving OPC scale from 12-12-77. So far as the claim about the overtime is concerned, the opposite party has submitted that according to Railway Rules & sub rules a care taker is required to work 72 hours a week, but during the said period the care taker is required to work intermittently therefore the workers is not entitled is overtime. It is also submitted that the demand of overtime is belated and cannot be adjudicated due to delay in raising the demand, as no record is available with the opposite party.

Trade Union has filed the affidavit of the workman, but has failed to produce him for cross examination.

Opposite party has filed the affidavit of A.D.E.M (HQ) Shri K.M. Chawbey, but the representation of the Trade Union has not cross examined him, though the opportunity of cross examination was available.

Following documents have been filed on behalf of Trade Union:—

1. Application of Sri. Nanmun dated 27-6-87
2. Application of Sri. Nanmun dated 20-7-88
3. Application of Sri. Nanmun (not dated)

Opposite party has filed photo stat copies of following documents.

1. True copy of Service Record of Nanmun.
2. House of employment described in the Railway Establishment Coad. (extract).

Heard representative of Opposite Party. Trade Union's representative did not appear for agreement nor it filed any written arguments carefully perused the evidence on record.

If the worker has not received the C.P.C pay scale w.e.f. 12-12-1977 he could have appeared for cross examination on his affidavit. Sri. K.M. Chawbey A.D.E.N

(HQ) at Charbagh, Northern Railway Lucknow has stated in affidavit that the opposite Party granted the CPC scale on 15-12-77 instead of 1-1-86. The representative of the opposite party has argued that infact Sri. Nanmun was granted CPC scale on 12-12-77 itself. On perusal of Service Record (copy) filed by the Opposite Party it is evident that on completion of 120 days continuous service of 120 days the worker has been given CPC scale w.e.f 15-12-1977.

Entry in Service Record to another as it bears the signature of कार्य निरीक्षक लोकोशाप, उ.रे. लखनऊ entries in service record also shows the dates, months and year when from time to time pay was raised. It also shows that of his the IV Pay Commission Report the worker's basic pay was fixed at Rs. 846 w.e.f 1-1-86.

It is therefore incorrect say that the workers has granted CPC scale on 15-12-79, it is due to this reason that the Trade Union did not produce the worker for his cross examination on his affidavit.

Therefore conclude that worker was granted CPC scale on completion of 120 days continuous service as Casual Labour, on 15-12-1977 worker has not appeared to challenge that he was not paid accordingly.

Now the next question is about the workers entitlement for 4 hours overtime w.e.f 1-1-86. Trade Union has admitted in statement of claim that Shri. Nanmun (Nanmoon) was a care taker.

Shri. K.M. Chowbey ADEN (HQ) N.R. Lucknow has stated in Para 3 of the affidavit as follows :

"Para 3. That as per Railway Rules the hours of employment scheduled for essential intermittent staff who are mentioned in the R.B. No L/73/HER/MA/9 pt. of 11-2-1974 and covered in the category of essential of intermittent services. The worker is one of the same category posted as care taker who absolute come in this category and the working hours of duty declared 72 hours in a week so that 12 hours duty of the workers is necessary to perform the duty. The worker is not entitled to overtime allowance as per Railway Rules. The claim of worker for overtime w.e.f. 1-1-86 to 22-6-99 is absolutely wrong baseless and without any substantial support of Rules. The hours of employment as described in the Railway Establishment code is announced here with as Annexure No 2."

Shri. K.M. Chowbey ADEN (HQ) has further stated in Para 4 as under:

"Para 4. The Railway Administration on the basis of prescribed Rules made the roster system for working of the employee of the Railway and the workers also covered under roster system of 12 hours duty with intermittent gap of the period of in action during the duty hours."

Rules/Regulation produced by the opposite party regarding hours of employment are as follows:-

"Hours of Employment" means the time during which an employee is at the disposal of the employer. It includes effective or continuous work and the periods of in action when the worker must be present on duty, although not exercising physical activities always. It does not, of course, include recognized intervals.

Classification

- (1) Intensive
- (2) Essentially intermittent
- (3) Excluded staff
- (4) Continuous

In the present case, the second category "Essentially Intermittent", is attracted. Regulation lays down as under:-

"(2) Essential Intermittent—The staff whose daily hours duty include periods of in action aggregating 6 hours or more concluding one such periods of not pass than one hour, two such periods of not less than half an hour during which although they are required to be on duty but not called upon to display either physical activity or sustained attention, are declared as essentially intermittent staff, such a waiting room bearers, sweepers, chestiest. The limitation of hours of work for such workers is 75 hours a week.

Fixed hours of duty-72 hours

They must have a minimum of 24 consecutive hours of rest in a week including full night.

Waiting room bearers, sweepers, chestiest etc who are declared as such, "C" class gateman, caretakers of rest houses & reservoirs, saloon attendants and banglow peons, are covered under this category of [R.B.No-/73 HER/MA/P PT of 11-2-74]

It is infact true that the care taker of the rest house etc have no full time work. The work of care taker is intermittent. He is required to work only when the guest arrives at the rest house & at the rest of time they remain idle, but at the same time their presence is a must. It is not the care of the Trade Union that he deprived of the weekly rest. Trade Union has alleged that he is nor given double rest. In the Trade Union's own document (paper No. 4/4) it is admitted that worker avails rest on Sundays.

Requirement of rules permits 24 hours rest in a week to care taker, including full night. This is absolutely no provision of double rest.

Sri. K.M. Chowbey has also stated in the affidavit in para 5 that the workman never for referred representation or application of overtime claim to the Railway Administration, worker or the Trade Union has not come forward to form that the representation for the overtime was ever sent to Railway Administration.

The document feed by the trade union can not be read in favour of the trade union/worker. The affidavit of the worker Governing less as he has not came forward for cross examination.

On the above discussion, came to the conclusion that worker was granted CPC scale on completion of 120 days continuous service w.e.f. 15-12-77 & not from 15-12-79 & the worker has no claim for overtime. Issue answered accordingly against one trade union in favour of the opposite party. Worker is not entitled to any relief.

AWARD

This is a reference made by Central Government under Section 10(1) (d) of Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 for adjudication. The reference is:

"whether the action of the management of Central Bank of India in terminating the service of Shri P.M. Abu by treating his absence from duty as voluntary cessation from service is justified, correct and lawful? If not, what relief is the disputant entitled to?"

2. The facts of the case in a nutshell are as follows:-
The workman, Shri P.M. Abu was a clerk in Central Bank of India, Ernakulam Branch. According to him, in 1994 he developed psychiatric disorder and hence was unable to attend duty. He was served with a notice of termination of service in his local address. However the management was bound to issue a notice before initiating an action as per Clause 17(a) of Bipartite Settlement. No such notice was given to the workman in his last known address. The workman therefore was not aware of any disciplinary action initiated by the management. The workman had applied for leave and had submitted medical certificate during the absence. But the management drew their own conclusion that the workman had no intention to join duty and thus terminated him from service. The termination is illegal. The workman is entitled to be reinstated.

3. According to the management the workman was unauthorisedly absent from 17-12-1994 for a continuous period of 90 days. The absence was without obtaining prior permission or sanction or with intimation. On previous occasions also he had remained absent in the same manner and he was warned and punished on several occasions. He was liable to be proceeded under Chapter XVI of the Bipartite Settlement. Hence notice was issued to him on 4-8-1995 and 10-8-1995 in his last known address asking him to report for duty within 30 days of the notice. There was no response from the workman. Hence a termination notice was issued to him on 9-1-1996. No Leave application or Medical Certificate was submitted by him for his absence. There were several complaints from the public against the workman for having borrowed money and not repaid the same. There was attachment order from court attaching his salary towards dues to cooperative society. He had not informed the change of address to the management. However, notices were sent in the permanent address as well as local address. They returned with an endorsement that there was no such addressee. The workman had deliberately evaded the notice. The plea of the workman that he was suffering from psychiatric disorder is not correct and is vehemently denied. Since proper notice was issued to the workman and waited for response and it is after the expiry of the period of notice that a letter of termination was issued to him, the action of the management is in order and in accordance with the Bipartite Settlement. The workman is not entitled for any relief.

4. In the light of the above contentions the only point that arises for consideration is:

"Is the termination illegal?"

The evidence consists of the oral testimony of WW1 & 2 and documentary evidence of Exts. W1 to 12 on the side of workman and MW1 and Exts. M1 to M17 on the side of management.

5. The Point :

It is an admitted fact that the workman, Shri P.M. Abu remained absent from 17-12-1994 onwards continuously. The reason for absence according to the workman is MDP Depression. A medical certificate is produced by the workman to prove the illness (Ext. W1) It was issued on 7-6-1999. The doctor was also examined as WW2. The doctor stated that he had treated the workman from October, 1994 to 1999. Ext. W1 certificate was issued on 7-6-1999 as requested by the patient. The doctor says that he had advised rest initially for a period of about 3 to 6 months. According to him the illness was under remission and he was fit to work after the initial period of rest. He further stated that it is not correct to say that the patient was not fit for work during the period 1994 to 1999 because in the beginning itself he had made improvements. For the period of absence neither a leave application nor a medical certificate was submitted. Ext. W1 certificate was issued in 1999 after he was removed from service. The absence was thus unauthorized. As per Clause 17(a) of 5th Bipartite Settlement dated 10-4-1989 when an employee absents himself from work for a period of 90 or more consecutive days without submitting leave application or when the management is reasonably satisfied that he has no intention of joining duty, a notice may be issued at his last known address calling upon him to report for duty within 30 days. If there is no response from the employee the management will be free to presume that the employee has voluntarily retired from bank's service on expiry of the period of notice. Clause 17(a) reads:—

"17. Voluntary Cessation of Employment by the Employees

The earlier provisions relating to the voluntary cessation of employment by the employee in the earlier settlements shall stand substituted by the following:—

- a) When an employee absent himself from work for a period of 90 or more consecutive days, without submitting any application for leave or for its extension or without any leave to his credit or beyond the period of leave sanctioned originally/subsequently or when there is a satisfactory evidence that he has taken up employment in India or when the management is reasonably satisfied that he has no intention of joining duties, the management may at any time thereafter give a notice to the employee at his last known address calling upon him to report for duty within 30 days of the date of the notice, stating inter alia the grounds for coming to the conclusion that the employee has no intention of joining duties and furnishing necessary evidence, where available. Unless the employee reports for duty within 30 days of the notice or given an explanation for his absence within the said period of 30 days satisfying the management that he has not taken up another employment or avocation and that he has no intention of not joining duties, the employee will be deemed to have voluntarily retired from the bank's service on the expiry of the said notice. In the event of the employee submitting a satisfactory reply, he shall be permitted to report for duty thereafter within 30 days from the date of the expiry of the aforesaid notice without prejudice to the bank's right to take any action under the law or rules of service."

6. The grievance of the workman is that no notice as per Clause 17(a) was served on him. Ext. M17 is the services record of the workman. The permanent as well as local address given by the workman is—

P. M. Aboo, House No. 11/422, Kalvathy, Cochin-1.

No change of address is seen given to the bank. Ext. M6 is copy of notice dated 4-8-1995 sent to the workman asking him to report for duty within 30 days. This notice is seen sent to Kalvathy address. However no postal receipt is produced to show that it was sent or cover is produced to show that it was served or returned. The 2nd notice was sent after six days on 10-8-1995. Ext. M7 is copy of the notice. This was sent to Kalvathy address as well as another address, i.e. Kottukulam, Cochin-2. According to the workman, the latter is the last address furnished to the bank. It is his wife's house. Ext. M2 is the cover in which notice dated 10-8-1995 was sent to Kottukulam address. However it returned to the sender without service with an endorsement that the 'addressee was absent'. A copy of the same notice was sent to Kalvathy address also. That to returned with an endorsement that there was 'no such addressee'. Ext. M8 is the returned cover. Thus the grievance of the workman, that notice was not sent to Kottukulam address, has no place in view of Ext. M2 cover. It is after the period of notice that the termination letter was sent on 9-1-1996. Ext. M9 is copy of the termination letter 9-1-1996. This was also sent to both addressees, Kottukulam and Kalvathy. Ext. M3 and M4 are the postal covers of the notice respectively. They also returned with the endorsement "unclaimed" and "no such addressee" respectively. Thus, proper notice under Clause 17(a) Bipartite Settlement was sent to the employee. His grievance that it was not sent to the last known address is without any basis. Moreover the service record of the employee (Ext. M17) does not show that he had intimated the change of address (Kottukulam address).

7. It was then argued by the learned counsel for the workman that it is not enough to serve a notice under Clause 17(a) of Bipartite Settlement and wait for the expiry of the period of notice to terminate the employee, but the management should be satisfied that the employee has either taken up another employment or he has no intention to join duty. According to the learned counsel there was no material before the management to draw a presumption that the employee had no intention to join duty. It is to be noted that the workman was subjected to disciplinary action for similar absence in the past and he was punished more than once. It is stated in the written statement as well as deposed by MW1 that the workman had availed leave on loss of pay to the extent of 822 days on previous occasion. After 17-12-1994 he neither applied for leave nor informed the bank as to why he was not reporting for duty. He was not heard of until he was terminated from service on 9-1-1996. Looking into the past conduct of the workman and in the absence of any response or explanation to the notice under Clause 17(a), the bank could have drawn no other conclusion than that the workman had no intention to join duty. The bank was not convinced of the alleged illness of the workman. As already mentioned, even the doctor (WW2) who had treated the workman and issued Ext. W1 Medical Certificate has not stated that he was unfit to work after six months of treatment under him. The treatment started in October, 1994. The notice was issued by the bank only in August, 1995. By that time, even according to WW2 doctor, his illness had subsided and he was fit to work. That being the state of affairs the bank was justified in drawing a conclusion that the employee had no intention to join duty. Ext. M9 termination order shows that he was allowed to collect his dues as per Rules and also prefer a claim for terminal benefits. The management thus proceeded in accordance with Clause 17 (a) of the Bipartite Settlement which permits the management to terminate his service. Therefore I find that the termination is legal. Whatever terminal benefits that the employee was entitled to get, was offered by the bank.

8. In the result, an award is passed finding that the action of the management of Central Bank of India in terminating the service of Shri P.M. Abu by treating his absence from duty as voluntary cessation from service is legal and justified and he is not entitled for any relief. No cost. The award will take effect one month after its publication in the Official Gazette.

AWARD

1. The Central Government by exercising the powers conferred by clause (d) of sub-section 2A of the Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 has referred this dispute vide Order No. L-12011/250/2002-IR(B-II) dated 11th October 2002 for adjudication on the following schedule :—

SCHEDULE

“Whether the management of Vijaya Bank is justified by removing Shri K. T. Kariappa, Peon, from the services of the bank w.e.f. 23-6-2001? If not, what relief the workman is entitled to and from which date.”

2. A charge sheet dated 16.08.2000 marked before this tribunal at Ex. M1 came to be issued to the first party workman in the following terms:—

Charge sheet:

“Whereas there are prima facie grounds to believe that you have committed acts of misconduct, the particulars of which are furnished as under :—

You were working as Peon at Bank's Bittangala branch from 20-11-1991 to 20-04-2000 and there afterwards at Bank's Virajpet branch from 24-04-2000 till the date of your suspension from the service of the Bank vide order dated 14-06-2000. It is reported that on 11-01-2000, two customers of Bank/s Bittangala branch viz. Shri T. P. Rama Kutty and Shri T. R. Vijaya hand handed over Rs.300 each to the JND Collector of the branch Shri T. A. Narayanan for deposit of the same in the Secured Loan accounts bearing No. 24/97 and 25/97 respectively, standing in their name. The JND Collector of the branch Shri Narayanan in turn had handed over the cash of Rs.600 to you with a request to credit Rs. 300 each to Secured loan accounts No. 24/07 and 25/97 standing in the names of the aforesaid borrowers. However, instead of depositing the cash of Rs.600 with the cashier of the branch, you prepared 2 counterfoils for Rs. 300 each on 11-01-2000 and handed over the counterfoils to the JND Collector Shri Narayanan, by duly putting the date seal of the branch and your initial on it. Further, it is observed that you have unauthorisedly made false ledger entries of Rs. 300 each in respect of the secured loan accounts No. SL 24/97 & 25/97 without cash remittance slip. It is also observed that these transactions were not recorded in any other relevant records of the branch such as cashier's scroll, officer's scroll, daybook etc. An investigation conducted into the matter revealed that in order to conceal the fraudulent acts committed, you had altered the ledger balance of the loan account bearing No. 31/97 from Rs. 6,045 to Rs. 6,645. Hence, balancing of Secured Loan accounts for the months of January and February, 2000 were tallied. It is observed from the records available at the branch that the counterfoils issued to the borrowers were prepared by you only and the relative credit entries in Secured Loan accounts No. 24/97 and 25/97 and also the alterations in the ledger balance of Secured Loan Account No. 31/97 were made by you only. Hence, it is evident that you have, misappropriated the amount of Rs. 600 handed over to you by the JND Collector of the branch Shri T. A. Narayanan, which he had collected from the customers of the branch. The aforesaid fraudulent acts on your part constitute gross misconduct under the, provisions of the Bipartite Settlement.”

The bank therefore, charges you as under:

“Your action of misappropriating a total sum of Rs.600 handed over to you by the JND Collector of the branch Shri T. A. Narayanan towards credit to the Secured Loan Accounts of two customers of Bittangala branch amounts to acts prejudicial to the interest of the bank, which constitutes gross misconduct under sub clause(j) of clause 19.5 of Chapter XIX of the Bipartite Settlement, 1965”

You are, therefore, required to submit your written statement of defence setting forth your defence, if, any, in triplicate to the undersigned within 7 days of receipt of this charge sheet and show cause as to why disciplinary action should not be taken against you, failing which, it will be deemed that you have no statement of defence to submit and the matter will be proceeded with accordingly."

3. The explanation offered by the first party since was not found favour with the Disciplinary Authority, a Domestic Enquiry was ordered against him and on the basis of the enquiry findings holding him guilty of the charges of misconduct leveled in the charge sheet, the disciplinary authority acted upon those findings and ultimately removed the first party from service by the impugned punishment order dated 23-06-2001.

4. The first party by way of his Claim Statement challenged the impugned punishment order as unjust and illegal, findings of the enquiry officer as suffering from perversity and the proceedings of the enquiry conducted against him as opposed to the principles of natural justice. He challenged the enquiry findings at Para 12 of the claim statement on the ground that the enquiry officer did not consider the material points and that the charges were not proved against him.

5. The management by its counter statement however, justified the impugned punishment order passed against him on the ground that charges of misconduct levelled against the first party have been proved during the course of enquiry by sufficient and legal evidence supported by cogent and valid reasonings given by the enquiry officer. The management contended that the enquiry was conducted in accordance with the principles of natural justice giving fair and reasonable opportunity to the first party to defend himself and that the first party in fact after having taken the assistance of DR, participated in the enquiry proceedings and cross examined almost all the four management witnesses through the assistance of his DR. He produced no oral or documentary evidence in support of his defence. Therefore, the management requested this tribunal to reject the reference.

6. Keeping in view the respective contentions of the parties with regard to the validity and fairness or otherwise of the enquiry proceedings, this tribunal on 05.04.2004 framed the following Preliminary issue:

"Whether the Domestic Enquiry conducted against the first party by the second party is fair and proper?"

7. During the course of trial of the said issue, the management examined the enquiry officer as MW1 and got marked the documents at EX.M1 to M17 including the enquiry proceedings and the enquiry report. The first party by way of rebuttal examined himself and after having heard the learned counsels for the parties this tribunal by order dated 7-8-2006 recorded a finding to the effect that the DE held against the first party by the second party is fair and proper. Thereupon, I have heard the learned counsels for the respective parties on merits of the case and posted the matter this day for award.

8. Learned counsel for the first party vehemently argued that the enquiry findings suffered from perversity for the reason that the two important documents namely, the counterfoils said to have been issued by the first party in favour of the customer concerned each for Rs.300/- were not the original documents but the Xerox copies of those documents produced during the course of enquiry and therefore, the enquiry officer could not have relied upon those documents particularly, when the first party has taken a contention that they do not bear his initials or were not issued under his hand writing. Moreover, those documents were not sent for expert's opinion to ascertain the fact that they were under the handwriting and signatures of the first party. He also contended that as per the very statement of MW4, initials found on EX.M4 & M5 were not accurately tallied or found to be matching with the admitted initials of the first party. Therefore, learned counsel submitted that neither the fact that the first party issued those counterfoils nor the fact that he made any fictitious entry or altered any such entry in the ledger book has been proved by the management and in the result, findings of the enquiry officer holding him guilty of the charges are not established. On the point of the quantum of the punishment, learned counsel submitted that even if, the charge of misconduct is taken proved against the first party, the punishment of removal from service imposed upon him was very extreme and disproportionate for the reason that the first party admittedly was working as a Peon and was not supposed either to receive the amounts from the customers much less from the Pigmy Agent from whom he said to have received the amount or was supposed to indulge in the records of the bank making the entries therein or passing any such counterfoils in favour of the customers. Therefore, the management considering the fact that the first party was just working as a Peon should not have held guilty of the charges of misconduct levelled against him and then should not have removed him from service.

9. Whereas, learned counsel for the management argued that the charges of misconduct levelled against the first party have been proved by sufficient and legal evidence in as much as the customer who paid the amount of Rs. 600/- into the hands of the Pigmy agent and the Pigmy Agent who in turn paid the amount into the hands of the first party were examined and the documents namely, the two counterfoils issued by the first party in favour of the customers were also produced during the course of enquiry in order to substantiate the fact that they were the counter foils under the handwriting of the first party though the initials put on those counterfoils might not have been tallied with the original initials of the first party as first party might have put those initials on EX.M4 & M5 in the manner not to tally with the originals. On the point of quantum of punishment learned counsel submitted that this being the case of misappropriation of the amount belonging to the customer as well as to the bank, the first party deserved no punishment lesser than the punishment of removal from service.

10. On going through the records, more particularly, in the findings of the enquiry officer and the evidence brought on record during the course of the enquiry, I find substance in the arguments advanced for the management to the extent that the charges of misconduct levelled against the first party by way of charge sheet on hand have been proved by sufficient and legal evidence. The management during the course of enquiry examined 4 witnesses as MW1 to MW4 and got marked in all 11 documents at EX.M1 to M11. MW1 is the then Manager of the branch in question deposed to the effect that one Mr. T.P. Ramana Kutty was the customer of the bank and he as well as his son had taken two secured loan of (Rs.12,500/- each for the purpose of running of the business and they are regularly remitting the installments through JND Collector till January 2000 i.e. till the date the branch officials collected the two counterfoils from him for the purpose of verification. MW2 was examined to speak to the fact that EX.MEX-6 was his written statement to the Investigation Officer made in the presence of the manager and he was aware of the charge sheeted employee's handwriting as he was making entries in the pass books and he confirmed that EX.M4 & 5 were written by the first party workman. One Mr. T.A. Narayanan who was undisputedly working as a JND Collector of the branch in question was examined on the point that he was collecting monthly installments of Rs. 300/- each towards SL 24/97 and 25/97 from the said Shri T.P. Ramana Kutty and his son who were contributing to their JND accounts as well daily and that on 11-01-2000 he collected Rs.600/- from the said two borrowers for credit to their SL Accounts. He stated that he had handed over the above said amount to the first party requesting him to credit Rs.300/- each to the aforesaid S. L. Accounts but he instead of remitting the amount to the cashier prepared the two counterfoils of Rs.300/- each by putting the date seal of the bank and initials on them and then handed over those counterfoils to him on 12.01.2000 misappropriating the above said cash amount given to him for the purpose of crediting to the bank. MW4 is no other than the said customer who happened to have handed over the above said amount of Rs. 600/- in to the hands of the said JND Collector requesting him to credit the said amount to the bank. Therefore, from the aforesaid evidence of MW1 to MW4 and the documents produced during the course of enquiry, the fact that the first party having received the said amount of Rs.600/- from the said Pigmy Collector did not remit the said amount into the aforesaid secured loan accounts of the customers and instead of doing so he himself passed the counterfoils in favour of the customers as if the amount, in question was credited to their accounts with the bank gets proved very much. The fact that this amount of Rs.600/- was not accounted with the bank and was not found mentioned in any of the account book of the bank to speak to the remittance of the said amount has never been disputed by the first party during the course of enquiry or by way of his claim statement before this tribunal. Infact, if his explanation to the charge sheet is looked into, he has not denied the allegations made therein to the effect that he passed those counterfoils in favour of the aforesaid customers to show that the amount was remitted with the bank but infact, the amount was not credited to the loan accounts of those customers. The most important witness examined on behalf of the management was the JND Collector himself who in no uncertain terms as noted above, deposed before the enquiry officer that he had collected the aforesaid amount of Rs.600/- from the customers to remit the same into the accounts of the said customers and he had handed over the said amount to the first party in turn to be remitted with the bank. This fact again has not been disputed by the first party during the course of cross examination of the said witness. The arguments advanced for the first party that EX.M4 & 5 (MEX.4&5) in the enquiry should have been sent to the expert's opinion and that the management should have produced the original documents does not deserve much consideration for the simple reason that those original counterfoils as could be read from the enquiry proceedings were got tallied with the Xerox copies of those documents given by the first party and his defence representative during the course of enquiry. There was no need for the enquiry officer to send those documents for expert's opinion as the management witness MW2 in very clear words had identified the handwriting of the first party with other records of the branch. As far as initials found on the aforesaid two documents are concerned, there appears force in the contention of the management that the first party did not put his original initials on those documents apprehending that he may be caught in future for issuing such forged counterfoils having received the amount in question and not remitting the same with the bank. The reasoning given by the enquiry officer in this context found on page 9 of the enquiry report to appreciate the fact of proof of the charges of misconduct levelled against the first party are as under:

"MW1 while identifying MEX.4&5 revealed that he had handed over Rs.600/- to Shri TA Narayanan, the JND Collector of the branch to be credited Rs.300/- each to his and his son's SL Accounts as usually done by him on earlier occasions also. MW2 also revealed that he had handed over the said amount to Charge Sheeted employee to remit the same to the cited loan accounts and the charge sheeted employee gave the receipts to him. MW2 further clarified during deposition that the two counter foils (receipts) were written by the charge sheeted employee as he could identify his handwriting as compared to the entries he(charge sheeted employee) made in pass books. Further, he has also revealed during enquiry that the SL accounts were tallied for January and February, 2000 as the balance in SL 31/97 was altered from Rs.6045 to

Rs. 6654 and further deposed that though he was not able to say precisely as to who had altered the balance in SL 31/97, it has nullified that effect of crediting Rs.300/- each to SL 24/97 and 25/97 without any actual credit slips. Even though MW4 has not directly revealed that the alteration in balance made in SL 31/97 by the charge sheeted employee, the circumstantial evidence leads to believe that the same was done by the charge sheeted employee to surface the fraudulent act (as evidenced above) done by him in SL 24/97 and 25/97 as no other motive behind the act was evidenced.

The contentions of the defence that the branch manager had ulterior motive to indict the charge sheeted employee has not been evidenced any time during the enquiry. Further, the evidence given by the branch official MW4 who is familiar with the handwriting of the charge sheeted employee is a valid evidence as he is competent enough to identify the handwriting of the charge sheeted employee and as such no handwriting expert's opinion is necessary in the instant case. The fact that Rs.600/- was handed over to the charge sheeted employee was admitted by MW2 during the course of enquiry and as such the contention of the defence that there was no eye witness is not tenable.

Keeping in view the above discussions, I hold the issue as Proved.

On analyzing every aspects of the matter and giving a thoughtful consideration to the oral as well as documentary evidences adduced before the enquiry and as discussed hereinbefore, I hold the charge framed against Shri KT Kariappa, Code No. 18978, Peon, Virajpet Branch vide charge sheet No. PER/IRD/CS/VIG/27/2000 dated 16-08-2000 as proved."

11. Therefore, in the light of the above, by no stretch of imagination it can be said that the findings of the enquiry officer suffered from any perversity. Those findings as noted above, have been supported by sufficient and legal evidence in turn with the valid and cogent reasonings of the enquiry officer in coming to the conclusion that the first party committed the misconduct as levelled in the charge sheet. In the result, it is to be held that charges of misconduct stand proved against the first party.

12. Now, coming to the quantum of the punishment. There appears substance in the arguments advanced for the first party that keeping in view the nature of the misconduct, the facts and circumstances giving rise to the misconduct being committed by the first party and the fact that the first party was just working as an ordinary Peon at the relevant point of time, extreme punishment of removing him from service appears to be shockingly disproportionate. That transaction of the first party receiving the amount from the hands of the Pigmy Collector who in turn received from the customers of the bank, in my opinion appears to be a transaction not conducted by the first party in the capacity of either a cash clerk or a clerk/ official dealing with the accounts and cash of the bank. First of all, in the first instance, the customers were not supposed to hand over the amount they were supposed to pay by way of instalment towards any loan they obtained from the bank into the hands of a Pigmy Collector. If at all, the Pigmy Collector even if was receiving the amount from the customers with a promise to credit the same with the bank, it was not proper for him to hand over any such amount into the hands of a Peon. He must have discharged his responsibility and obligation towards the customers by crediting the amount, with the concerned cash clerk of the bank. The manner in which the customers handed over the amount to the Pigmy Collector and the manner in which the Pigmy Collector in turn gave the amount to the first party in fact had given a room and scope to the first party rather tempted him to indulge in such a malpractice. Neither the Pigmy Collector was supposed to hand over the amount to the first party nor the first party supposed to have issued any counterfoil in favour of the customer. The management having allowed the first party to meddle with cash transactions of the bank also to be blamed to a great extent giving rise to the present charge sheet against the first party. Therefore, having regard to the fact that the first party was just working as a Peon, the nature of the misconduct committed by him and the fact that he did not commit the misconduct in question as a Cash Clerk or as an official dealing with the cash either to receive the amount from the customer or to disburse the amount to the customers and taking into account the fact that the first party committed the misconduct in question for the first time and so also not loosing sight of the fact of the meagre amount involved, it appears to me that punishment of removal from service imposed upon the first party was shockingly disproportionate and therefore, it deserves to be modified by this tribunal exercising the discretionary powers conferred on it under Section 11 A of the I.D. Act under the facts and circumstances of the case. Therefore, the court feels it fit in the interest of justice to punish the first party by withholding his four annual increments from the date of his reinstatement denying him back wages and continuity of service from the date of impugned punishment order till the date of his reinstatement. Hence the following award:

AWARD

The management is directed to reinstate the first party into its services without back wages from the date of impugned punishment order till the date of his reinstatement. He shall not be entitled the benefit of continuity of service for the aforesaid period. The management shall withhold his four annual increments to be accrued to him with cumulative effect from the date of reinstatement and onwards. No costs.

This Industrial Dispute Petition coming on before me for final hearing on 22-2-2007, upon perusing all the documents on record and upon hearing arguments of Sri K. Sudhakar Reddy, Advocate for the respondents. For the petitioner, Sri S. Bhagavanta Rao, Advocate filed Vakalat. Petitioner and his counsel were called absent, set-ex parte. As per Rule 24 of A. P., I. D., Rules, if without sufficient cause, the petitioner fails to attend or to be represented before this court, it should be considered as if the party had duly attended or had represented, and having stood over for consideration.

AWARD

1. This is a petition filed u/sec. 2-A (2) of I.D. Act, 1947 praying to direct the respondent to reinstate the petitioner into service with continuity and other attendant benefits including full back-wages order or orders as the court deems fit and proper in the interest of justice.

2. The petition affidavit allegations briefly are as follows :

That, the petitioner/applicant is appointed as an casual attendar in Respondent bank in first respondent on 2-1-1994, by the then bank manager called Srinivasa Murthy orally on a pay of Rs. 50 per day. The appointment of petitioner is completely oral.

3. That, the petitioner was terminated after working three months, thereupon my services continuously utilised till upto removal from service i.e., 31-12-2003.

4. That, the petitioner was not issued with any charge memo, charge sheet or anything. The termination is completely oral as it is not with stigma but a simplicitor.

5. That, the petitioner was not paid compensation u/sec. 25 (F) & (H) of I. D. Act and no wages is paid to the petitioner in lieu of notice and also one month wages in lieu of notice. The respondent totally contravened the provisions of Section 25 (F) of I. D. Act. and no enquiry is conducted into the case of the petitioner.

6. That, the respondent did not give service certificate to petitioner. The petitioner requested several times to issue such certificate and the respondent No. 1 threatened that, he will remain the petitioner.

7. The petitioner was provided Rs. 2000 per month. It is the last drawn wage of him.

8. That, the petitioner work is observed by a lot of customers who are ready to come and prove that the petitioner worked from 1994 and that to a regular man from 1-1-1998 to till upto removal.

9. That, there is an agreement and settlement u/sec. 12 (3) of I.D. Act regarding absorption of temporary candidates as the settlement is arrived between Management and employees union, the said settlement is binding on Respondent as the petitioner complied the settlement in Para No. 7 of settlement as the petitioner worked under respondent for more than 240 days in a calendar year, as the petitioner is a workman and respondent is an "INDUSTRY" Bank, which solves the problems of persons on interest as there is oral termination. Hence it is maintainable in the Court the petitioner's services are not approved and not recognised and the qualification is also not considered and the petitioner is a qualified candidate. Hence, the petitioner is entitled for reinstatement and other benefits.

10. That, the petitioner is fallen on roads with untold problems and sorrows after removal from service. The Respondent No. 1 adopted unfair labour practice against petitioner and thereby victimised the services of petitioner for eight years and that to regular from 1-1-1998 to till upto removal. Removal of Respondent No. 1 is illegal, arbitrary and against to the principles of natural justice. Therefore, prayed to direct the respondent to reinstate the petitioner into service with continuity and other attendant benefits including full back wages, order or orders as the court deems fit and proper in the interest of justice.

11. The averments of the counter filed by the respondents are that the petitioner was not appointed as a Casual Attender in the 1st Respondent Bank by the Bank Manager Srinivasa Murthy, muchless orally on pay of Rs. 50 per day, as alleged. The contentions of the petitioner are all mis-conceived. It is pertinent to submit that the petitioner already approached the Hon'ble High Court by filing W. P. No. 6931/2003 and the said Writ Petition is still pending before the Hon'ble High Court. Thus, the matter is sub judice. The petitioner has not approached this Court with clean hands. This I.D. is not maintainable and is liable to be dismissed by this court in limini for concealment of facts.

12 Further, in Para No. 2 of the petition it is stated by the petitioner that he was terminated from service after working for 3 months. In the same breath, it is again stated that he was removed from service on 31-12-2003. Thus the contents are quite contradictory to each other. Mere working of the petitioner for 3 months as alleged cannot give any automatic right to the petitioner for his reinstatement into service. Since he was never appointed the question of termination or removal from service cannot arise at all. There was no need for the respondents to issue any charge memo or charge sheet or attaching any stigma. So also, the question of paying compensation u/sec. 25 (F) & (H) of I. D. Act and payment of wages in lieu of notice etc. will not arise. The contentions of the petitioner are all mis-conceived. The contention of the petitioner at Para No. 5 is again mis-conceived. In the first instance at Para No. 3 he contended that no charge memo or charge sheet was issued and now he is agitating to decide the validity of the domestic enquiry as a preliminary issue. These contentions of the petitioner are again contradictory to each other and highly mis-conceived. The contention of the petitioner at Para No. 6 is an utter false. The contention of the petitioner at Para No. 7 that he was provided Rs. 2000 per month is again contradictory to Para No. 1 of the petition, wherein under, he agitated that he was paid Rs. 50 per day. Regarding Para No. 9, it is pertinent to submit that the procedure for an approach paper governs appointment of temporary sub-staff in the bank dated 16-8-1990 issued to all the public sector bank by the Government of India. In terms of the approach paper information as to the services rendered by the temporary sub-staff at various branches and offices of the bank was collected and a settlement was entered into with recognised All India Andhra Bank Award Employees' Union on 9-1-1995 U/Sec. 12 (3) of the Industrial Disputes Act as regard the modalities of their empanellement and absorption. As per the said settlement, Districtwise panel of temporary sub staff were prepared with a total of 1190 candidates and communicated to the respective zonal offices. The prime objective and intention of preparing and maintaining these panels is to regulate their engagement as temporary sub staff and for their eventual absorption, as and when permanent vacancies are identified. The settlement dated 9-1-1995 also provides for engaging the services of the empanelled candidates in the leave vacancies in their respective units, on rotation basis. Guidelines have been issued to controlling offices for strict compliance regarding appointment of temporary sub staff from the panels in the leave vacancies of regular sub staff from the panels in the leave vacancies of regular sub staff employees. Further, that the respondent's bank is following an established procedure for engaging temporary sub staff and their absorption in the service of the Bank, in terms of the settlement dt. 9-1-1995. This settlement restricts and prohibits un-authorized persons to enter into employment even on temporary basis. The temporary candidates engaged by the bank from 1982 to 1989 who have responded to the press notification of the bank, dt. 28-10-1991, 31-10-1991 and circular, at 18-10-1991 and who have put in a minimum service of 90 days during the above period and whose names were cleared by the Directorate General of Employment and Training, Government of India, New Delhi, under the Approach Paper alone were eligible for the benefits under the settlement dt. 9-1-1995 and such temporary sub staff alone were empanelled. The petitioner is not on the approved panels of the temporary sub staff prepared in terms of the settlement dt. 9-1-1995. He did not submit any application or representation to the respondents Bank in terms of settlement dt. 9-1-1995 for his empanelment, at any time in the past. He also did not raise any dispute nor made any claim for his empanelment.

13. It is pertinent to submit that the petitioner is not on the approved panels of temporary sub staff prepared in terms of the settlement dt. 9-1-1995. He might have worked as a casual labourer for some periods in the past. He also did not raise any dispute nor made any claim for his empanelment. On the other hand as per the records as available with the bank, the petitioner is a matriculate i.e., he passed SSC Examination in October, 1992. As per the norms of the bank the maximum educational qualification prescribed for the post of sub ordinate staff is 8th fail. Thus, the petitioner is over qualified for the post. It is further respectfully submitted that the petitioner's name is sponsored by the District Industries Centre, Adilabad, for sanction of loan under Prime Minister's Rojgar Yojana for running a Kirana and General Stores at Bhathupally village in Adilabad District. The application was forwarded to the Kagaznager branch of the respondent bank for sanction of the eligible loan under the said scheme. The Kagaznager branch of the respondent bank sanctioned him the loan in December, 1999 which duly availed by the petitioner. Thus as per the record of the bank he is running a Kirana Shop at Bhathupally village in Adilabad district. Thus, the averment of the petitioner that he has been continuously working in the service of the respondent bank is nothing but is falsehood.

14. The service if any put in by the petitioner in the past as a casual labour doesn't confer any right on him for seeking his absorption in the service of the bank. The claim of the petitioner is vexatious and speculative and he cannot invoke the jurisdiction of this court U/Sec. 2-A (2) of I.D. Act. Therefore, the I.D. is devoid of any merits and is liable to be dismissed by this Court with costs in the interest of justice.

15. Heard arguments on Respondent side, for the petitioner side under Rule 24 of A.P., I.D. Rules followed.

16. On behalf of the Respondent side MW1 examined no documents marked, no further evidence, respondent side closed. Petitioner side heard arguments U/O. 17, Rule-3, r/w. 24 A.P. I.D. Rules.

17. Before going to the merits of the case I would like to submit how the case was delayed. The petition was filed on 17-1-2005 and it was numbered on 13-7-2005. The counter was filed on 10-12-2005 by Respondent No. 1, memo filed by Respondent No. 2 adopting the counter of Respondent No. 1. Since from the beginning the petitioner did not turned up to the Court. On 11-12-2006 the petitioner and his counsel called absent, no representation, the petitioner not turned up to the court since the year 2005.

18. As per the petition allegations, the petitioner was appointed as a Casual Attendar in Respondent Bank on 2-1-1994 orally on pay of Rs. 50 per day. The appointment of the petitioner is completely oral. The petitioner was terminated after working 3 months there upon his services continuously utilised till upto removal from service i.e., 31-12-2003. The respondent did not issued any charge memo or charge sheet to the petitioner and the termination is completely oral, it is not with stigma but simplicitor. The petitioner was not paid compensation under Section 25 (F) & (H) of I.D. Act and no wages paid to the petitioner in lieu notice and also one month wage in lieu of notice. The respondent totally contravened the provisions of Section. 25 (F) of I.D. Act and no enquiry is conducted into the case of the petitioner. The petitioner did not give service certificate to the petitioner though he requested several times. The respondent also threatened. The petitioner was provided Rs. 2000 per month, it is the last drawn wage of his. The petitioner's work was utilised by lot of customers who are ready to give and prove that the petitioner worked from 1994 and that to a regular man from 1-1-1998 to till upto removal.

19. There is an agreement and settlement under section 12 (3) of I.D. Act in regard to the absorption of temporary candidates as the settlement is arrived between the Management and employees Union. The settlement is binding on the respondent. The petitioner worked for more than 240 days in calendar year. The respondent Bank is an Industry. The petitioner is entitled for reinstatement and other benefits. Hence, he prays the court may be directed to reinstate the petitioner with all benefits, in the interest of justice.

20. For this, the respondent counsels argument was that the petitioner filed the petition in this court against the respondent Bank for regularisation and reinstatement of the petitioner. The petitioner was not appointed orally on 2-1-1994 and he was worked 3 months and he was terminated. The petitioner did not continuously worked from service upto 31-12-2003 before removal. The petitioner was not appointed as regular, so there is no question of issuing of the charge sheet. The petitioner was not appointed as regular and his name was not on the rolls, hence there is no question of compensation U/Sec. 25 (F) & (H) of I.D. Act. The petitioner never asked the respondent for the service certificates for them that there is no threaten to the petitioner. There is a variation in the petitioner pleadings as in the first para petitioner stated per day Rs. 50 and again the para No. 7 last drawn wage is Rs. 2000 per month. The pleadings pleaded by the petitioner is false as the petitioner worked from 1-1-1994 to 1-1-1998. The agreement and settlement pleaded by the petitioner is not applicable to the petitioner. The petitioner is not entitled for reinstatement as there is no violation of principles of natural justice. Hence the petition may be dismissed.

21. From the respondent counsel' argument the sum and substance, the pleadings of the petitioner is that he was appointed in the Respondent Bank orally on daily wage Rs. 50 per day as his services was illegally terminated and for his entire period no wages was paid to him. Further, no notice was given, retrenchment compensation have been paid to the petitioner. The termination of his service orally is illegal in the eye of Law. On the other hand, the stand of the respondent in his written Statement the petitioner was not orally engaged as daily wage worker in the Bank. Further, the case of the respondent is that the representation of the petitioner was rejected and he was dis-engaged as there is no existence of work. The respondents argument was that the petitioner was never appointed, hence there was no occasion to pay him the wages for the period he alleged to have worked in the Respondent Bank or the retrenchment compensation.

22. On appreciation of the material placed before it I came to the conclusion that the relationship of employee and employer did not exists between the petitioner and the respondent Bank as the petitioner was never orally appointed. The procedure to recruit by the respondent have been elaborately detailed given from the evidence of respondent in this court as he is examined as MW. 1. It is observed that although the petitioner claims to have been orally appointed by the respondent Bank but there is no proof, no documents is filed how and what type of appointment he was appointed by the respondent Bank. In this case, mentioned above the workman concerned never adduced any evidence to support his claim that he was orally appointed and he was continuously worked in the respondent Bank. In my opinion, it was incumbent on the workman concerned to atleast aduce his oral evidence and to state on oath that he is orally appointed and continuously worked in the respondent Bank. But the petitioner failed to attend the court and enter in to give evidence in the court.

23. The initial burden of proof was on the petitioner workman to show that he had completed 240 days of service in a calendar year. Though the petitioner filed the claim statement but he did not chooses to get in to witness box and give his evidence but he failed to do so at the same time the non examination of the petitioner has not given an opportunity to cross-examine the respondent side to disprove his case. Mere filing of an affidavit and that cannot be regarded as sufficient evidence for any court to come to the conclusion that the petitioner had in fact worked for 240 days in a year. No proof of receipt of salary or wages or attendance register or any other material record to show that he worked 240 days or so far of record of oral appointment engagement for this period was not produced and failed to produce by the petitioner. The burden of proof was on the petitioner workman when he does not appear and adduce any evidence what soever in support of his pleadings when he complied with the requirement of Section 25 (B) of the I.D. Act. In my view, the fact that the initial burden of establish the factum to his continuous work for 240 days in a year is not the petitioner but he failed to do so. It is not a case where the petitioner has completed 240 days of service during the period of 12 months preceding for his oral removal has contemplated under Section (F) read with Section 25 (B) of I. D. Act.

24. The petitioner did not file any documents, of payment register, muster roll, P. F. Register. It is well established that the pleadings have to be specific, the plea in the present case is that the petitioner was orally appointed and worked and he is removed orally. The petitioner was not on the approved panels of the temporary staff prepared in terms of the settlement. As per the norms of the Bank the maximum educational qualification prescribed for the post of supporting staff is 8th class fail but the petitioner is over qualified.

25. The next argument of the respondent counsel was that the petitioner name is sponsored by the District Industries Centre, Adilabad for sanction of loan under Prime Minister Rojgar Yojana for running of Kirana and General Store at Bathupally village in Adilabad District. The application was forwarded to the Kagaznagar Branch of the respondent Bank for sanction of the eligible loan under the said scheme. The Khagaznagar Branch of the respondent Bank sanctioned him a loan in December, 1990 which was duly availed by the petitioner. Thus, as per the records of the Bank he runs a Kirana Shop at Bathupally village of Adilabad District. So the averment of the petitioner that he has been continuously worked in the service of the respondent Bank is nothing but falsehood. The claim of the petitioner is vexatious and speculative and he cannot invoke the jurisdiction of this Court U/Sec. 2-A (2) of the I.D. Act.

26. From the evidence of the respondent side examined witness the Manager of the Andhra Bank as MW.1, from the evidence of the respondent also clearly indicate that the petitioner had not orally appointed and he has not worked 240 days working days in a year and therefore the question of payment of any retrenchment compensation under Sec. 25-F of the I.D. Act not arises. Further, respondent counsel submitted that there is no material on record to show that the petitioner was orally appointed and orally removed.

27. In view of the above reasons I do not find it properly proved, the petitioner's pleadings without proving in to the Court. Therefore, in view of the above facts and circumstances of the case on hand I see every force in the contentions raised by the respondent in this case. From the aforesaid reasons and in the facts and circumstances of the case and also in view of my above discussion with regard to the various aspects of the case the petitioner cannot be said to have been retrenched from his service and hence Section 25-F of the I.D. Act is not attracted. The petitioner's prayer for declaration that the oral termination of his services is illegal and void on ground of violation of the provisions of the Section 25-F of the Act cannot therefore be granted. I am of the clear view that the petitioner had failed to make out any case in his favour and that therefore there is no need for any interference with his prayer in this petition, hence the petition fails and the same is liable to be dismissed for want of merits.

28. In the result, I am of the view, this petition is without merits and is dismissed. But each party bear their own costs.

Dictated to the Stenographer, transcribed by him and corrected and pronounced by me in this open court on this 23rd day of February, 2007.

AWARD

By Order No. L-11012/27/2003-IR(C-I) dated 18-08-2003 the Central Government in exercise of its powers under Section 10(1)(d) and (2A) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 referred the following dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication :

"Whether the action of the Management of Vayudoot Ltd. (presently merged with Indian Airlines Ltd.) in removing Mr. P. Duryodhan, Loader from its service w.e.f. 04-12-1998 is justified ? If not whether Mr. P. Duryodhan is entitled for reinstatement in the services of Indian Airlines Ltd. (SHOD), with back wages or for any other relief ?"

2. Present reference has been made at the instance of the concerned workman P. Duryodhan. The case of the workman is that he was appointed as a Loader on 1-4-1984 and in due course he was regularised to the said post. He was served with a chargesheet dated 17-10-1996. By representation dated 18-11-1996 he denied the allegations levelled against him and prayed that an open enquiry be held in the matter. By another representation dated 20-1-1997 he prayed for opportunities to engage a legal practitioner in the enquiry to defend his case and also to submit provisional written statement of defence against the chargesheet. Management, however, did not allow him such opportunities and fixed date of enquiry. It is the case of the workman that the evidence adduced during the enquiry does not substantiate the charges levelled against him, but the Enquiry Officer submitted the enquiry report holding him guilty. Though a criminal case is pending in the Court of Sub-Divisional Judicial Magistrate Barrackpore, North 24 Parganas on the self same facts and circumstances, the management initiated the enquiry without awaiting the result of that criminal case. It is further case is that the Enquiry Officer's finding is of two and half lines and he has not assigned any reason for such finding. The workman has challenged the enquiry report on the grounds that (a) two and half lines findings of the Enquiry Officer in this case is not a finding at all; (b) the Enquiry Officer did not assign any reason for arriving at his findings; (c) no reason has been shown as to why the contentions of the workmen were not accepted and (d) no reason has been shown as to why the documents produced by the management in the enquiry were indispensable. It is also stated that Enquiry Officer violated the principles of natural justice. It is the further case of the workman that the appellate authority also failed and neglected to consider his appeal and rejected the same. The workman thereafter moved the Hon'ble Calcutta High Court and the Hon'ble High Court opined that the workman should approach this Tribunal and he accordingly moved the conciliation officer and on the failure of such conciliation the present reference is made for adjudication to this Tribunal. It is prayed that the management be directed to reinstate the workman in service after withdrawal of his removal order.

3. The management of Indian Airlines, hereinafter to be referred as the management in its written statement has stated that the present reference is based on misconceived interpretation and erroneous understanding of the provisions of law and is a product of misapplication of the relevant materials. The present dispute is also stated to be ill conceived and not maintainable as an industrial dispute as it has not been sponsored by any union representing the employees of Indian Airlines. It is stated that the workman was appointed as a Loader w.e.f. 1-12-1986 and confirmed in service w.e.f. 1-12-1987. But, by reason of his habitual unauthorised absenteeism a punishment of stoppage of annual increment for one year was earlier inflicted upon the workman after holding a disciplinary proceedings. He again started absenting unauthorisedly from 7th August, 1993. Another chargesheet dated 19-11-1993 was issued against the workman on certain allegations, but he did not give any reply. On 29th August, 1996 the workman was placed under suspension. It is stated by the management that during the period of his absence the workman was arrested by the Airport Police Station, Kolkata on 6th October, 1994 and he remained in Police custody for about two months and concealed this fact from Vayudoot Ltd.. The workman was accordingly issued with a chargesheet dated 17/18th October, 1996 for various misconduct. The charges were under four major heads. The workman instead of giving reply to the said charge sheet by his letter dated 18th November, 1996 requested for assistance of legal practitioner to defend his case. As the management found the reply of the workman unsatisfactory, they decided to hold a department enquiry into the charges levelled against him and the workman was informed of the same. He was also informed that he was permitted to take the assistance of a friend and that it was not permissible to allow delinquent to defend his case through the assistance of a legal practitioner under the disciplinary rules of Vayudoot Ltd. The enquiry was accordingly conducted on several dates. The workman concerned participated in the said enquiry and he was afforded all opportunity to defend his case. It is stated that in the said enquiry the principles of natural justice were fully adhered to. In the enquiry report dated 8th May, 1998 the Enquiry Officer held the workman concerned guilty of the charges levelled against him and a copy of the said enquiry report was forwarded to him for his comment. The workman, however, did not submit any comment on the said report. The disciplinary authority thereafter issued a show-cause notice proposing the punishment of removal from service. The workman gave a reply to the said show-cause notice praying for exonerating him from all the charges levelled against him. Disciplinary authority, however, confirmed the proposed punishment. It is accordingly stated that the order of removal from service against the workman was passed after holding a proper and bonafide enquiry in which the workman was afforded reasonable opportunity to defend himself. It is prayed that the punishment of removal from service as imposed against the workman be held to be valid. However, in the alternative, it is also prayed that in the event the domestic enquiry is found to be invalid by the Tribunal, the employers be given a chance to lead fresh and/or additional evidence to justify the action of punishment inflicted on the workman before this Tribunal.

4. In view of the settled principle of law, as the correctness, legality or validity of the enquiry was challenged on behalf of the workman, which was defended by the management. It was decided to have a preliminary hearing on the point of validity of the enquiry and after hearing the parties this Tribunal vide order dated 13th December, 2006 held the domestic enquiry as conducted in the present case to be valid. The Tribunal thereafter fixed the case for hearing the parties on the adequacy or otherwise of the punishment as imposed in the matter and the parties were accordingly heard on the basis of the materials available on record.

5. It is evident that for inflicting the punishment the management has to comply with the requirements of the relevant standing orders which generally provide that while deciding as to what punishment should be awarded to the concerned employee. The management has to take into account the gravity of the misconduct, the previous record of the employee, if any or any other aggravating circumstance that may exist. If the order of dismissal or discharge is passed on the charges which have been proved in the domestic enquiry are sufficiently grave to award the punishment of dismissal or discharge, the fact that the past record of the workman was clean will be of no consequence. The law before insertion of Section 11A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 was that the award of punishment under the Standing Orders was a matter for the management to decide and if there was any justification for the punishment imposed, the Tribunal could not interfere as it was not required to consider the propriety or adequacy of punishment or whether it was excessive or too severe. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in a recent decision viz. Hombegowda Educational Trust & Anr. V. State of Karnataka & Ors., 2006 S.C.C. (L&S) 133 has held that discretionary jurisdiction to interfere with the quantum of punishment can only be exercised when the interalia it is found that no reasonable person could inflict such a punishment or when relevant facts which would have a direct bearing on the question has not been taken into consideration. The management has also placed reliance on number of case laws viz. C.L. Subramaniam v. The Controller of Customs, Cochin, AIR 1972 SC 2178, Mahindra & Mahindra Ltd. V N. B. Naravade etc., 2005 LAB. I.C. 1333 (SC), V. Ramayana v. A.P. SRTC & Ors., 2005 S.C.C. (L & S) 69, Bharat Heavy Electricals Ltd., v. M. Chandrasekhar Reddy & Ors., 2005 S.C.C. (L & S) 282, Divisional Controller N.E.K.R.T.C. v. H. Amaresh, 2006 S.C.C. (L&S) 1290 and J. K. Synthetics Ltd. v. K.P. Agarwal & Anr., (2007) 2 S.C.C. 433 wherein the above proposition of law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court have been reiterated.

6. On the perusal of the facts relating to this case wherein the concerned workman has been charged by the management vide Ext. M-1, it is evident that he was charged on four counts. First charge was that he did not attend office since 7th August, 1993 without information and during this unauthorised absence from duties he was arrested by the Airport Police on 6th October, 1994 and remained in police custody for about two months. He also had concealed this fact from the management and it was a clear breach of law, rules, regulations and orders applicable to the establishment and it was found to be an act subversive of discipline and good behaviour. Secondly, he was charged with corruption for having taken a sum of Rs. 15000 from Tarak Biswas an outsider on the pretext of providing him job and he had also told him that the said amount was given to one Indranil Ghosh, Traffic Assistant for arranging a employment and Shri Ghosh was threatened in presence of the concerned workman for returning the money to Shri Chandan Biswas in this regard. This act of the workman for taking bribes or illegal gratification also found to be an act of subversive of discipline and good behaviour on his part to the reputation of the Company. A written complaint was made by the said Shri Indranil Ghosh to the Officer-in-charge of Barasat P.S., Airport P.S. and Lake Town P.S. and also to the Manager Vayudoot Ltd. Third charge against him was also to have taken a sum of Rs. 14000/on six instances from one Sanjib Poddar on the pretext for providing employment in Vayudoot, out of which he had returned only Rs. 1000. This charge for taking bribe etc. also was found to be there. Lastly, he was also found absent unauthorisedly from 7th August, 1993 till 28th August, 1996 for such a long time. These aforesaid charges levelled against him vide Ext. M-1 were enquired by the Enquiry Officer during the course of a domestic enquiry which has been held to be legal and valid with compliance to the principles of natural justice in this regard as full and proper opportunity is found to have given to the workman who had been given opportunity to cross-examine the number of witnesses so examined on behalf of the management and he was also allowed to produce evidence in his defence which he had given in writing before the Enquiry Officer who had considered the same in order to arrive at the conclusion regarding the proof of the charges so levelled against him in this regard before submitting his report Ext. M-5. There is no denial of the fact about his arrest made by the Police and the fact that he had been kept in custody for more than two months in this connection. There is nothing to show that he had given its information as required under the rules and regulations to show his bonafide in this regard. It is also evident that the statement of the witnesses was recorded in his presence. The statement given by the witness, P.K. Sengupta, Deputy Manager, Administration came to prove the facts regarding his unauthorised absence. Besides him the witness, Sanjib Poddar who had been promised by the workman to give job and he had paid him Rs. 14000 has also been examined in this connection and full opportunity was given to the workman to cross-examine them regarding the above facts mentioned in the chargesheet. The other witness, Indranil Ghosh also was examined and cross-examined by the workman in this connection to support the charges framed against the workman concerned. On the basis of the above evidence the Enquiry Officer arrived at the conclusion that the charges framed against the workman were found to be proved. The workman had also submitted his written statement of defence in this regard before the disciplinary authority and the appellate authority who had considered the aforesaid facts and the gravity of the charges so framed against him. In view of that the charges framed against him are found to be quite grave and clearly amounted to a misconduct as it is so provided in the Standing Orders.

7. Accepting bribe or illegal gratification is admittedly a criminal offence and accepting the same by an industrial worker would also constitute a misconduct. In industrial law an act of theft, fraud and dishonesty apart from being exposed to the penal liability under criminal law have also been treated as acts of misconduct justifying dismissal as it has been so held by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in J.K. Cotton Spinning & Weaving Co. Ltd. v. Its workman (1965-II-LLJ 153 SC) and Bangalore Woollen, Cotton & Silk Mills Ltd. v. B. Dasappa (1962-II-LLJ 39 SC). It cannot be said to be a casual or minor act but the charges for which the workman has been found to be involved are of grave nature. One of the basic requirement of what an employer would expect to be satisfied from an employee is loyalty towards him. In other words, the employee is expected to promote the employer's interest in connection with which he has been employed and necessary implication of which must be that the workman undertake to serve his master with good faith and fidelity. Acts of making defamatory and false statements against the employer and suppressing facts from the employer would apart from being subversive of discipline, also constitute misconduct of disloyalty to the employer as the offence consists wilful harm to the employer. In this case it is evident that the workman is found to have committed act of subversive of discipline being in custody for about two months and also being absent from his duties for more than three years unauthorisedly. Apart from that he was also found to have indulged in corruption by taking money from outsiders to provide them employment and thus guilty for accepting illegal gratification etc. Thus, it clearly amounts to misconduct for which the punishment of dismissal is the only proper punishment which could be imposed upon him for such act done by him under the Standing Orders viz. Service Rules of Vayudoot Ltd., Ext. M-6. The relevant Service Rules also interalia provide specifically about the misconduct and punishment to be imposed in such matters which is as under :

"16 MISCONDUCT"

Without prejudice to the generality of the term "misconduct" the following acts of omission and commission shall be treated as misconduct and will make the concerned employee liable for disciplinary action.

1. Theft, fraud or dishonesty in connection with the business or property entrusted to the Company or of another employees within the premises of the 'Company'.
2. Taking or giving bribes or illegal gratification.

.....

5. Acting in a manner prejudicial to the interest of the Company.
7. Habitual late or irregular attendance.
8. Wilful damage to work in process or any property of the Company.
16. Commission of any act which amounts to a criminal offence involving moral turpitude.
19. Commission of any act subversive of discipline or of good behaviour.
28. Failure to report to the Competent Authority the fact of the arrest by the police or the Conviction by a Court of Law for any criminal offence involving moral turpitude or conviction by a court of law....
51. Quarrelling within or outside the premises of the establishment.
58. Wilful neglect of work.
59. Absence without permission for more than 8 consecutive days.

21 PENALTIES

The following penalties may be imposed on the employee, as hereinafter Provided, for misconduct committed by him or for any other good and Sufficient reasons :

(i). Minor Penalties

.....

(ii). Major Penalties

(a).(b).

(c) Removal from service.

(d) Dismissal with or without retirement benefits in part or full."

8. On behalf of the workman it is only prayed that a lenient view may be taken in the manner and a lesser punishment instead of removal from service may be inflicted. However, looking after the facts of the case and the evidence on record it is evident that no such leniency is called for in this case.

9. In view of the above the order of removal from service passed by the management against the concerned workman appears to be fully justified and proper and it needs no interference. The concerned workman, accordingly, is not entitled to any relief.

This Industrial dispute coming up for final hearing on Monday, the 9th day of July, 2007, upon hearing the arguments of Thiru K.V. Ananthakrishnan, Advocate appearing for the Petitioner and Thiru S. Ravindran, Advocate appearing for

M/s. T. S. Gopalan & Co. for the Management and upon perusing the all other connected material papers on record and this dispute having stood over till this day for consideration this Tribunal made the following :

AWARD

The Govt. of India have referred the following issue for adjudication by this Tribunal :

"Whether the management at State Bank of India is justified in dismissing Shri K. Ibrahim with effect from 14-3-1990 ? If not, to what relief is the workman entitled to ?"

2. The averments of the Claim Statement filed by the Claimant are as follows :

The claimant Thiru K. Ibrahim was appointed as a Messenger in the Respondent bank in the year 1971. Due to his sheer sincerity and discharge of his duties diligently to the utmost satisfaction of his superiors in the test conducted for promotion he was selected and promoted to the post of cashier in the year 1982 and was posted in the Guindy Branch. The claimant was confirmed in the said post as a permanent employee. The claimant has put in 19 years of unblemished record of service without any lapse or irregularities with the respondent bank. The respondent among other places is having an extension counter at Hindustan Teleprinters, Guindy at Officer's Training School (OTS) at St. Thomas Mount. From the Guindy Branch one officer, one clerk, one cashier and one sub staff used to be deputed in rotation to work at the extension counter on alternate days and the working hours is between 11.00 A.M. to 2.30 P.M. The claimant was deputed as Cashier to the extension counter and was discharging his duties.

3. While so, the claimant was shocked to receive a Suspension order dt. 19-3-88 from the Disciplinary authority (Dty. General Manager) that the claimant was placed under Suspension pending enquiry into certain alleged acts of misconduct reported to have been committed by him by misappropriating the moneys paid by few individuals for effecting mail transfer, while the claimant was working as a Cashier at the Officers Training School extension counter attached to Guindy Branch. This was followed by a charge sheet dt 9-4-1988. The claimant by his reply dt. 16-3-88 denied all the charges levelled against him and stated that on perusal all the charges levelled against him and stated that on perusal of the relative challans it is found that the challans did not bear his initials and he was not aware how the alleged instances quoted in the Chargesheet has happened. The Respondent gave another charge sheet dt. 14-5-88 alleging misappropriation of an amount paid by one of the constituents. The claimant submitted his explanation dt. 23-5-88 reiterating the earlier stand and totally denied all the charges of acts of omissions and is appropriation alleged against him. The respondent appointed Mr. W.S. Jayapal as the enquiry officer to conduct the domestic enquiry. The claimant on the first sitting of the domestic enquiry conducted on 22-8-88 represented to the enquiry officer that the charges being of grievous and complicated nature, based on the report of the handwriting expert, the claimant being a sub staff promotee was not in a position to effectively defend the charges levelled against him. Therefore, the claimant sought permission to have lawyer to defend him in the enquiry proceedings. The enquiry officer refused him request and insisted the claimant to appear in the enquiry proceedings. Therefore, the claimant was left with no other alternative except to attend the enquiry, undefended and virtually remained a silent spectator without participating in the enquiry or cross-examining the witnesses. After, having conducted a farce enquiry, the enquiry officer found the claimant guilty of all the charges levelled against him.

4. Against the findings of the enquiry officer, the claimant gave a Written submission dt. 8-9-1989. The disciplinary authority by his letter dt. 2-12-88 concurred with the findings of the enquiry officer and proposed the punishment of dismissal without notice and at the claimant's request gave a personnel hearing on 22-1-90. The claimant gave a written submission reiterating his earlier stand denying all the charges levelled against him. The disciplinary authority by an order dt. 14-1-90 dismissed the claimant from service. Against the order of dismissal the claimant preferred an appeal on 2-5-90 to the appellate authority. The appellate authority by an order dt. 26-9-90 concurred with the findings of the disciplinary authority and dismissed the claimant's appeal. Against the said order, the claimant has raised the present industrial dispute and the same has been referred to this Tribunal for adjudication. At the time of dismissal the claimant was drawing a salary of Rs. 2700. The claimant is challenging the order of dismissal dt. 14-3-90 and confirmed by the appellate authority on 26-9-90 for the following among other grounds : (a) The domestic enquiry conducted does not prove the guilty of the claimant since the evidence recorded and exhibits marked do not prove the charges levelled against the claimant. (b) The domestic enquiry was conducted against all the principles of natural justice and vitiated and therefore liable to be set aside. (c) The authorities failed to consider the practice in vogue at the extension counter of the Officers Training School of the respondent that the working hours at the Officers Training School is 11.00 A.M. to 2.30 P.M. The Cashier viz. the delinquent employee used to avail a 10 minutes for his lunch in between 1.30 p.m. to 2.30 p.m. During the said period the counter was left in the custody of Mr. J. Damodaran the then officer-in-charge of the extension counter. Even during the time when the claimant attend his nature call the counter used to be under the control of the said officer. (d) The claimant was several times requested and used by other staff of the branch and sometimes by higher officials to go to the military canteen stores to get the articles available at reduced prices, using claimants familiarity with them and his knowledge of speaking Hindi on all such occasions the counter was operated by the Officer-in-charge. So also, on such occasions, payments were made by Officer-in-charge. Subsequently with the information furnished by Officer-in-charge the scroll would be filled up by the claimant. Therefore, the claimant denies that he at any point of time received the amounts from the person as alleged in the Chargesheet and misappropriated the same, after intentionally omitting to put through the transaction in the cash scroll of the bank. (e) Since the chargesheet issued by the Respondent pre-determined the guilty of the claimant it exposes the punitive mind of the respondent and is a basic defect. Therefore, the chargesheet is vitiated and void as held in AIR 1954 Bom 35 and 1969 LIC 735. (f) The respondent having failed to keep an open mind against the charges levelled, the fundamental principles of natural justice is violated as held in 1974 2 SLR 466. (g) The chargesheet dt. 9-4-88 to 14-5-88 issued to the claimant did not reveal and disclose the materials on which the respondent proposed to rely in the domestic enquiry nor did they contain list of documents relied upon and witnesses proposed to be examined. In the absence of these, the claimant was not able to defend himself and prove his innocence. This is against the principles of natural justice as reported in 1960 II LLJ 228; 1970 II LLJ 1 (SC). (h) The appellate authority who received the claimant's appeal in his office on 4/5th May, 1990 should have disposed of the appeal within 60 days from the date of receipt of appeal which is mandatory as per para 19.14 of the First Bipartite Settlement and should have also given a personnel hearing within 30 days. The appellate authority passed the order after 120 days. Hence the order of dismissal is invalid and is to be set aside and statement has to be ordered. (i) The signature of the claimant alone was sent to the handwriting expert for examination. Since various officers and other staff were present in the counter to discharge the duties in the absence of the claimant at the relevant time, all the signatures must have been sent to the handwriting expert. Having failed to do so, the respondent was pre-determined the issue and hence the entire enquiry proceedings is vitiated and the report of the handwriting expert cannot be proper without the comparison of the other signatures. PEX 2 to PEX 6 do not tally with the initials appearing in PEX 7 to PEX 20. (j) The disciplinary authority's failure to furnish evidence on which the charges were based, documents relied upon and witnesses to be examined amounted to non-compliance not only to the mandatory provisions of the bipartite settlement but also the fundamental principles of natural justice as reported in 1968 I LLJ 106; 1963 I LLJ 708, AIR 1975 AP 794; (1970) 21 FLR 127; 1969 SCR 479; 1970 II LLJ 1 (SC). (k) None of the witnesses viz Jayaraman (PW. 21) V. Toppo (PW. 4) Mohanan PiHai (PW. 3) and C.J. Daniel (PW. 7) who deposed at the enquiry stated that they gave the money only to the claimant but only identified the counterfoil. In the absence of any positive evidence the conclusion of the enquiry officer is biased and vitiated. Since the delinquent employee was known to almost all the officials at OTS, it is easy to identify the delinquent. (l) The refusal by the enquiry officer to grant permission to engage a lawyer to defend himself as per the first Bipartite Settlement under para 19.12 (a)(ii) deprived the claimant of a fair opportunity to defend himself as the claimant was unable to understand the highly technical and complicated report/evidence of the handwriting expert engaged by the respondent and also to cross examine him. The denial vitiates the entire enquiry proceedings as reported in 1972 I LLJ 465; 1968 2 ALL ER

595; 1984 I LLJ 471; 1983 I LLJ 1 (SC); 1984 II LLJ 121 (Bomb). The refusal was arbitrary and capricious exercise of discretion as reported in 1963 II LLJ 296 (SC). (m) Both the disciplinary authority and the appellate authority, did not take into consideration the past unblemished record of service of 19 years of the claimant. This fact is evident from the absence of any reference to the past record in their respective orders. The Sastry Award in para 521 (10)(c) read with Desai Award in para 18; 28 laid down that in awarding punishment by way of disciplinary action, the authority concerned shall take into consideration the gravity, the previous records if any, of the employee and any other aggravating or extenuating circumstances that may exist. Under the award, consideration of past record is a mandatory obligation cast on the respondent as reported in 1954 I LLJ 281. If the mandatory provision is not followed then the order of dismissal is liable to be set aside as per decisions reported in AIR 1954 Mad 51; 1973 II LLJ 58; 1958 KR 358. The punishment was thus imposed at their pleasure and hence it is abnoxious to natural justice.

5. The claimant denied all the charges and the charges are not proved at the domestic enquiry conducted for the said purpose, apart from the fact that the enquiry is vitiated by illegality and hit by principles of natural justice. The claimant reserve his rights to file additional claim statement if necessary. It is therefore prayed that this tribunal may be pleased to pass an award setting aside the dismissal order dt. 14-3-1990 and reinstate the claimant with full backwages with attendant benefits and render justice.

6. The averments of the Counter statement filed by the Respondant are as follows :

In order to appreciate the issue which would arise for consideration in the dispute, it is necessary to set out how a cashier functions in a Branch. The job of a cashier, among other duties, is to receive cash which is tendered along with remittance challan, affix 'Cash received' stamp, initial the challan and return the counterfoil of the challan duly signed to the person who tenders the cash and the remittance challan. As soon as cash is received, he has to make an entry in the Cashier's Scroll for the day serially numbered, mentioning the name of the remitter and the amount remitted. He is also required to mention the Serial No. in the challan so that at the end of the day, he will properly account for all the remittances recorded in the scroll. The Cashier is seated inside the wire meshed cabin and no one can enter the Cashier's cabin.

7. The Guindy branch of the Respondent Bank opened an Extension counter in the Defence Officers' Training School at St. Thomas Mount. The said Extension counter was used to work on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays between 12 Noon and 2 P.M. The staff from the Guindy branch were used to be deputed to the Extension counter for attending to the transactions. When once the transactions were over, the staff used to return to the Branch and account for the transaction of the day. The petitioner was working as a Cashier in the Guindy Branch of the Respondent bank and he also used to go to the Extension counter at the Defence Officers Training School at St. Thomas Mount.

8. On 26-10-1987 one R. Jayaraman remitted a sum of Rs. 3000 at the Officers Training School Extension Counter for the credit of his Savings Bank Account at the Respondent's Branch at Kovilpatti. When the said Jayaraman visited Kovilpatti, he came to know that the amount had not been credited as the same was not received at the Kovilpatti branch. The said Jayaraman made a complaint to the Respondent. There were similar complaints about certain other remittances made at the Officers Training School Extension Counter. When these complaints were looked into, it was found that the counterfoils of the relevant remittance challans were initialled by the petitioner and he was the cashier in the Officers Training School Extension Counter on the relevant dates when the remittances in question were made.

9. On 9-4-1988 a Charge sheet was issued to the petitioner charging him with the misconduct that in respect of four transactions between 26-10-87 and 3-2-88 though the petitioner had received the cash and acknowledged it in the counterfoil of the remittance challan, he intentionally omitted to put the transactions through the Cash scroll, failed to account for the same in the books of accounts of the branch and misappropriated the amount. Subsequently it also came to the knowledge of the respondent that on 4-11-87 when the petitioner was working as Cashier in the Officers Training School Extension Counter, St. Thomas Mount, he had received a sum of Rs. 1800 from one Shubakaran along with the relative voucher for effecting a mail transfer and for which he had issued the counterfoil but he intentionally omitted to put the transaction through the cash scroll for the day and failed to account for the sum of Rs. 1800 in the books of accounts of the Bank and misappropriated the amount. This charge was framed by the Charge sheet dated 14-5-88. For the two charge sheets, the petitioner gave his explanation of 16-4-88 and 23-5-1988.

10. It is submitted that in respect of the 5 transactions covered by the two charge sheets dt. 9-4-88 and 14-5-88, on 17-5-88 the Respondent referred the disputed documents along with the specimen handwriting of the petitioner to the Director, State Forensic Science Department Madras. On 1-6-88 the State Forensic Science Department gave its report opining that the Cashier's Scroll was in the handwriting of the petitioner and that the initials in the vouchers were also that of the petitioner.

11. The Petitioner was asked to appear for a domestic enquiry and it was held on 22-8-88, 29-8-88 and 12-9-88. In the enquiry, M. Kasi, Scientific Assistant, Forensic Science Department was examined. Apart from the handwriting Expert, Thiru Jayaraman, U. Thoppu, Mohanan Pillai C.J.R. Paul, other witnesses who were connected with the transactions were examined. The Enquiry Officer gave his findings on 16-11-1989 holding that the petitioner guilty of the charges. The report of the enquiry officer was received on 20-11-89. On 3-10-89 the petitioner was furnished with a copy of the findings of the Enquiry Officer, a punishment of dismissal was proposed and he was asked to appear for personal hearing on 19-12-89.

The personal hearing took place on 22-1-80 when the petitioner said that he would make his representation in writing. After considering all the relevant papers, on 14-3-90, the Disciplinary Authority passed orders dismissing the petitioner from service. Against the order of dismissal dated 14-3-90, the petitioner preferred an appeal dated 2-5-90 to the General Manager for operations. The petitioner was given a personal hearing in the appeal. On 26-9-90, the appeal preferred by the petitioner was dismissed and the order of dismissal was confirmed.

12. It is submitted that the petitioner had acquiesced to the order of dismissal and only in the later part of the year 1991 he raised a dispute. The dispute was taken up for conciliation and of failure of conciliation, the present order of reference has been made. The averments in paras 3 to 5 of the Claim statement are all matters of record and therefore do not require to be controverted.

13. With regard to para. 6 of the Claim statement, it is submitted that it is not the practice of the Respondent bank to permit the charge sheeted employees to engage a Lawyer in the domestic enquiry. Similarly, the Bank does not appoint a legally trained person as a presenting Officer. Hence the petitioner was not entitled to bring a lawyer to defend him in the enquiry. However, the charge sheeted employee was entitled to be defended by a co-employee or by a representative of a registered trade union. The petitioner, for reasons best known to him, defended himself and did not avail the services of either a union representative nor a co-employee. As regards para 8 of the claim statement, it is submitted that none of the grounds urged by him calls for interference of the order of dismissal by this Forum. With regard to para 8(a), it is submitted that the material placed before the Enquiry Officer has clearly established the misconduct. The Respondent denies the allegation that the enquiry was vitiated of that there was any violation of principles of natural justice.

14. With regard to grounds (c) and (d) in para 8 of the claim statement. It is submitted that it was the petitioner who acted as a Cashier at the Officers Training School Extension Counter on 26-10-1987, 4-11-87, 11-11-87, 3-2-88 and 5-3-88 and he signed the relevant counterfoils for the non-accounted remittances, that it was he who maintained the scroll on the relevant dates and as such he was liable to account for the same. The allegations made by the petitioner would not absolve him of his liability or exonerate him in his complicity with the transactions.

15. The respondent denies the allegation in paras 8 (e) and (f) of the claim statement that the Chargesheet was issued with a predetermined about the guilt of the petitioner. With regard to the ground in para 8 (g) of the claim statement, the Respondent submits that the petitioner was given due opportunity to vindicate his stand and defend the charges. With regard to the ground in para 8 (h) of the claim statement, it is submitted that time limit for the disposal of the appeal was only directory and not mandatory. The alleged grievance of the petitioner would not vitiate the order of dismissal.

16. With regard to ground 8 (i) of the claim statement, it is submitted that as the petitioner was the cashier must have initialled the counterfoils, when the petitioner disputed the initials and the writing on the scroll, the only question was whether the writings on the instrument were that of the petitioner and therefore the disputed documents with the admitted specimen of the petitioner's handwriting were referred to the Handwriting Expert. Therefore the submission of the petitioner that the writings of other persons could have also been referred for comparison cannot be accepted.

17. With regard to the ground in para 8 (k), the examination of the witnesses was primarily to prove the counterfoil and their testimony was entitled to due credence. They had also identified the petitioner as the one having received the remittances.

18. With regard to ground in para 8 (l) of the claim statement, it is submitted that denial of assistance of a lawyer would not invalidate the enquiry. With regard to ground in para 8(m) of the claim statement, it is submitted that having regard to the gravity of the charges proved, little would turn on the past record of service. The past record will have relevance only when the charges proved by themselves would not merit the extreme punishment. In the instant case, the punishment of dismissal cannot be said to be disproportionate to the charges proved. It is not correct to state that the Punishing Authority did not take into consideration the past record of service of the petitioner.

19. It is submitted that the conduct of the petitioner has impaired the confidence of the respondent to repose on the petitioner. The petitioner should not be granted any relief much less the relief of reinstatement. It is therefore prayed that this Tribunal may be pleased to pass an award upholding the dismissal of the petitioner and rejecting his claim.

20. On the side of petitioner, Exhibits W1 to W83 were marked. On the side of Respondent/Management, Exs. M1 and M2 were marked. No oral evidence was adduced on both sides.

21. The point that arised for consideration is "Whether the management of State Bank of India is justified in dismissing Shri K. Abraham with effect from 14-3-90? If not, to what relief is the workman entitled to?"

22. At the outset, it is to be mentioned that this Tribunal on the Preliminary issue whether the Domestic Enquiry was fair and proper, has held on 17-3-97 that the Enquiry findings were vitiated, since the findings of the enquiry were given in an 'ex parte' enquiry. As against the preliminary order passed by this Tribunal on 17-3-97 in I.D. No. 77/92, the Respondent/Company has filed W.P. No. 15285/97 before the Hon'ble High Court, Madras and Hon'ble High Court dismissed the Writ petition on 4-12-2003 and confirmed the preliminary order passed by this Tribunal. The Respondent/Company filed Writ appeal No. 1508/2004 before the Hon'ble High Court and the Hon'ble

High Court on 10-4-2007 has allowed the Writ appeal and not accepted the reasonings that weighed the Industrial Tribunal as well as the orders passed in W.P. No. 15285/97 dt. 4-12-2003 and set aside the same with a direction to this Tribunal to complete the proceedings in I.D. No. 77/92 and passed orders in accordance with law within a period of 3 months from the date of receipt of the copy of the order after affording opportunity to both parties. The order of the Hon'ble High Court passed in Writ Appeal No. 1508/2004 dt. 10-4-2007 was received by this Tribunal on 27-4-2007.

23. On behalf of the petitioner, a Memo was filed before this Tribunal on 21-5-2007 inter alia stating that the Central Government amended the Industrial Dispute act and constituted Central Government Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court, Chennai to decide all the disputes relating to the Central Government organisation, including banks and all the cases were transferred to Central Government Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court, Chennai and the Respondent/State Bank of India, being a Statutory Body and Central Government organisation, now the jurisdiction vest with the Central Government Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court, Chennai, and a request was made to pass suitable orders in respect of the jurisdiction relating to the respondent/Company.

24. At this juncture, it is relevant to point out that the Hon'ble High Court in ROC No. 1360/2000-G3 dated 17-8-2000 has directed this Tribunal to transfer the cases relating to the Central Government references for which no hearing was held so far. (As per list furnished by the Government of India) now pending on the side of this Tribunal to the newly formed Central Government Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court at Chennai-6.

25. On 21-5-2007, this Tribunal directed the parties to address arguments relating to the jurisdiction issue along with the main case, as one of the issues raised in the dispute and posted the matter on 31-5-2007. On 31-5-2007, the parties have not addressed the arguments on the jurisdiction aspect since it was brought to their Counsel's notice about the High Court's ROC No. 1360/2000-G3 dt. 17-8-2000 wherein this Tribunal was directed to transfer Central Government reference cases for which no hearing was held so far to the newly formed Central Government Industrial Tribunal, Chennai-6.

26. POINT : The learned counsel for the Petitioner submits that the Petitioner Claimant was appointed in the Respondent/Bank in 1971 as a Messenger and that he was promoted as Cashier in 1982 and was posted in the Guindy Branch and that the Respondent/State Bank of India is having an extension counter at Hindustan Teleprinters, Guindy and Officers Training School at St. Thomas Mount and from the Guindy Branch, One Officer, one Clerk, one Cashier and one Sub-staff normally used to be deputed in rotation to work at the Extension Counter on alternate days, the working hours being between 11.00 A.M. to 2.30 P.M. and the Petitioner/Claimant was deputed as Cashier to the Extension Counter and was performing his duties & that the petitioner/claimant received the suspension order dt. 19-3-88 from the Deputy General Manager of the bank (Disciplinary authority) stating that the petitioner was placed under suspension pending enquiry into certain alleged acts of misconduct in misappropriating the moneys paid by some individuals for effecting the mail transfer and that the petitioner was given the Chargesheet Ex. W73 dt. 9-4-88 and that the petitioner gave a reply Ex. W74 dt. 16-4-88 denying the charges made against him and that Ex. 75 dt. 14-5-88 another Chargesheet was given to the petitioner alleging misappropriation of an amount paid by one of the constituents and the petitioner furnished his explanation dt. 23-5-88 reiterating the earlier stand and denying all the charges pertaining to acts of omissions and misappropriations and domestic enquiry was held by the bank and the petitioner sought permission to have the assistance of a lawyer to defend him in the enquiry proceedings, which was refused by the Enquiry Officer and the Petitioner did not participate in the enquiry or cross-examined the witnesses and the Enquiry Officer found the petitioner guilty of all the charges and the Disciplinary authority concurred with the findings of the Enquiry Officer and the order of the Appellate Authority is Ex. W83 dt. 26-9-90 and that the domestic enquiry does not prove the charges levelled against the petitioner and the domestic enquiry was conducted against the principles of natural justice and that the signature of the petitioner alone was said to the Handwriting expert for examination and other officers and staff who were present in the counter to discharge the duties in the absence of petitioner at the relevant time, their signatures were not sent to the Handwriting expert and this failure has vitiated the Enquiry proceedings in entirety and therefore the Handwriting expert report is not proper without comparing the signature of other staff members and the witnesses Thiru Jayaraman, Thiru Toppo, Thiru Mogan Pillai, C.J. Daniel, have only identified the counterfoil and that the Appellate authority did not take into consideration the past record of 19 years of unblemished service of the petitioner and that the Appellate authority has passed order after 120 days, and that the Appellate authority has not disposed of the appeal within 60 days from the date of receipt of appeal which is mandatory as per the First Bipartite Settlement and that the Appellate authority should have also given personal hearing within 30 days and the failure to observe the requirement of Bipartite Settlement has made order of dismissal as invalid and that the reinstatement of the petitioner must be ordered.

27. The Learned Counsel for the Respondent/Bank urges that the Petitioner/Claimant was working as Cashier in the Guindy Branch of the Respondent/Bank and the Claimant also used to attend the Extension Counter at the Officers Training School at St. Thomas Mount and that Thiru R. Jayaraman on 26-10-87 remitted an amount of Rs. 3,000 at the Officers Training School Extension Counter for the credit of his S.B. Account at Respondent/Bank's branch at Kovilpatti and that the constituent Mr. R. Jayaraman made a complaint to the Respondent/Bank that he came to know that the amount of Rs. 3,000 was not credited at the Kovilpatti Branch of the Respondent/Bank as the same was not received and there were also other complaints regarding certain other remittances made at the OTS Extension Counter and on looking into the complaints, it came to light that the counterfoils of the relevant remittance challans were initialled by the Claimant/Petitioner and he was the Cashier in the OTS Extension Counter on the particulars dates when the remittances were made and therefore on 9-4-88 a chargesheet was issued to the claimant alleging misconduct in regard to the four transactions between 26-10-87 and 3-2-88 and the claimant though he received the cash and acknowledged the same in the Counterfoil of the remittance challan, he omitted to enter the transactions through the cash scroll, resulting in his failure to account for the same, in the books of the accounts of the Respondent/Bank and misappropriated the amount and again on 4-11-87 when the claimant/petitioner was serving as Cashier in the OTS Extension Counter at St. Thomas Mount, he was in receipt of Rs. 1,800. from Mr. Shubakaran along with the corresponding voucher for effecting a mail transfer and for which the counterfoil was issued by the Petitioner/Claimant, but he intentionally omitted to enter the said transaction in the cash scroll for the day resulting in his failure to account for Rs. 1,800 in the accounts book of the Respondent/Bank and misappropriated the same and for the two chargesheets 9-4-88 and 14-5-88 the petitioner furnished his explanation on 16-4-88 and 23-5-88 and that the Respondent/Bank sent to the disputed documents along with the specimen Handwriting of the Claimant/Petitioner to the State Forensic Department and the Forensic Department submitted his report opining that the Cashier Scroll was in handwriting of the Claimant/Petitioner and that the initials in the vouchers were also that of the Claimant/Petitioner and that in the domestic enquiry conducted, witnesses connected with the transaction and the Scientific assistant of Forensic State Department were examined and the Enquiry Officer submitted his finding on 16-9-89 and against the orders of dismissal dt. 14-3-90, the petitioner filed an appeal and the same was dismissed on 26-9-90 and that the order of dismissal was confirmed and that the petitioner was not entitled to have an assistance of a lawyer to defend him in the enquiry and that the delinquent employee was to be defended by a co-employee or by a representative of a registered Trade Union and that the petitioner defended himself and did not utilise the services of a co-employee or a Union representative and that the Petitioner/Claimant signed the relevant counterfoils for the non-accounted remittances and that the petitioner only maintained the scroll and the relevant dates and he acted as cashier at the OTS Extension Counter on 26-10-87, 4-11-87, 11-11-87, 3-2-88 and 5-3-88 respectively and that the time limit prescribed for the disposal of the appeal is only ierectory and not mandatory and that the past record will have relevance only when the charges proved would not require the extreme punishment and the punishment of dismissal of the Petitioner/Claimant cannot be said to be disproportionate to the charges proved and that the conduct of the petitioner has impaired the confident of the respondent and hence pray for upholding the order of dismissal of the petitioner and consequently to reject the claim of the petitioner.

28. In Writ Appeal No. 1508/04, the Hon'ble High Court on 10-4-07 has observed in Para 16 & 17 as follows :

"It is true that P.W. 1 is an expert and he was examined in the presence of the second respondent. In other words, during the entire chief examination, the workman was very well present. In order to get clarification/details from any one, including a lawyer, the Enquiry Officer granted sufficient time and adjourned the enquiry. However, admittedly, even after providing sufficient time, the second respondent did not examine P.W. 1. In the earlier part of our order, we referred to the fact that the workman was permitted to have the assistance of any member of office bearer or a registered Trade Union. The fact remains, he failed to utilise the same. In these circumstances and in view of the factual details and also of the fact he was granted adequate time to get assistance from any one, including his lawyer with regard to the evidence of P.W.1 we are unable to accept the conclusion arrived at by the Tribunal as well as the learned single Judge." It is relevant to point out that out of 14 sittings, he participated in seven sittings. Even in the 14th sitting, the workman has admitted that he had gone through the proceedings recorded on 8-10-1988, 17-10-1988, 31-10-1988, 7-11-1988, 16-11-1988 and 23-03-1989. It is also available from the enquiry proceedings that the Enquiry Officer has informed the Second Respondent that if he so desires, he can very well bring his own handwriting expert as a defence witness. On going through the materials available in the enquiry proceedings and in view of the fact that the workman is not entitled assistance of a lawyer of his choice and also of the fact that in the enquiry he was afforded sufficient time to go through the evidence, particularly the evidence of P.W.1, we are unable to agree with the conclusion of the Tribunal as well as the learned single Judge. On the other hand, we are of the view that in spite of affording sufficient opportunity, the second respondent failed to utilise the same.

Further the Hon'ble High Court in Writ Appeal No. 1508/04 has inter alia held that "There is no specific provision either in the Bye-laws, Circular, Guidelines enabling the Workman to have the legal assistance and having participated on several sittings, the workman abandoned the enquiry after certain stage, and copies of documents were also either supplied or allowed to perused by the workman and already adequate opportunity was given to him, and that it is an exceptional case and the Management/Bank is justified and in approaching this Court even against the order passed in a preliminary issue etc."

29. From the Hon'ble High Court's order passed in Writ Appeal No. 1508/2004 dt. 10-4-2007, it is evident that the Petitioner/Claimant was given the opportunity to have the assistance from anyone and he was also given the sufficient time to go through the evidence of P.W. 1 and the same was not availed of.

30. Ex. W-1 dt. 1-6-1988 is the report of the Tamil Nadu Forensic Science Laboratory. In Ex. W-1 Report, it is clearly mentioned that the person who wrote the Red enclosed initials, writings and signatures stamped and marked S. 1 to S. 80 also wrote the red enclosed writings and initials similarly stamped and marked Q. 1 to Q. 6. In Ex. W-1 report of the Forensic Science Laboratory, in the reasoning sheet it is mentioned that "S. 1 to S. 80 also wrote the writings and initials marked Q. 1 to Q. 6 and that both the standard questioned writings, initials and signatures have been freely and speedily written and agree cumulatively in the handwriting characteristics on an interse comparison and the characteristic agreements include among other things the following :

1. The manner of terminating the initials, letters 'y', 'd', 'h', 'r' and figures '0', '4'.
2. The skill of writing.
3. The alignment between the letters in the initials and in the words 'Three', 'Thousand'.
4. The location and manner of making 'T', crossing.
5. The connection between the letters in the initials; in the word 'only' and figures '2' and '6'.
6. In the detailed designs, such as the begining and formation of loops and curves in the letters 'J', 'E', 'M', 'h', 'r', 'e', 'd' and figures '2', '8', '3', '4'.

31. According to the Learned Counsel for the Petitioner, in Ex. W1 Forensic Science Laboratory Report dt. 1-6-88 Thiru K. Ramachandran, Asst. Chemical Examiner to Government and Assistant Director Forensic Science Department, Madras-4 and Thiru M. Kasi, Scientific Assistant Gr. I have signed and only Thiru M. Kasi, Scientific Assistant Gr. I was alone examined and the other individual Thiru K. Ramachandran Asstt. Chemical Examiner was not examined in the domestic enquiry and that the Ex. W1 Forensic Science Laboratory report of the Expert dt. 1-6-88 is at best only recommendatory in nature and it should not be relied upon and the said report can only be used for a supportive evidence and the said report is not a conclusive one. In support of his contentions, the Learned Counsel for the petitioner relied on AIR 1973 Supreme Court 2200 between Ram Narain Vs. State of Uttar Pradesh, wherein it is held that :—

"The opinion of a handwriting expert given in evidence is no less fallible than any other expert opinion. But such opinion is worthy of acceptance if there is internal or external evidence relating to the writing in question supporting the expert's view. The question in each case falls for determination on the Court's appreciation of evidence. AIR 1967 SC 1326 Followed".

32. Thiru M. Kasi, Scientific Assistant Gr. I was examined as P.W. 1 in the domestic enquiry and that he has stated before the Enquiry Officer that the questioned documents are marked as Q1 to Q6 and admittedly genuine signature, initials, and writings are marked S1 to S80 and to a query whether the Forensic Science report was based on the original counterfoils marked as P.Ex. 2 to P.Ex. 40. The answer of the P.W. 1 M. Kasi was yes. As a matter of fact, PW1 Thiru

M. Kasi, Scientific Asstt. Gr. I was not cross-examined by the Petitioner/Claimant on 12-9-88.

33. On 19-9-1988 in the fourth Sitting of the Domestic Enquiry the Petitioner/Claimant has stated that he is unable to cross-examine Mr. M. Kasi, P.W.1. Scientific Assistant, Gr. I of the Forensic Science Department. In the Fifth sitting of the Domestic enquiry dt. 26-9-88, the Petitioner/Claimant requested permission to engage a lawyer to complete the enquiry and the enquiry officer has stated that permission to engage a lawyer was refused and that the Claimant was advised several time and that he was directed to participate in the enquiry without a lawyer and the Petitioner was permitted to engage anyone of the union representatives as his defence and that the enquiry was adjourned to 3-10-88. In the Sixth sitting of the Domestic enquiry on 3-10-88, the Petitioner/Claimant was not present and hence the enquiry as adjourned to 17-10-88 and that the petitioner was advised by a letter dt. 3-10-88 to appear for the enquiry. For the seventh sitting on 17-10-88, the Petitioner/Claimant did not turn up, though he acknowledge the receipt of the letter dt. 3-10-88 and that the enquiry proceeded further and Thiru S. Jayaraman was examined as P.W. 2. P.W. 2 Thiru S. Jayaraman in the Domestic enquiry has stated that he used to send money to the Kovilpatti State Bank and that on 26-10-87, he remitted Rs. 3,000 in the OTS Extension Counter and that he will identify the individual if that person is shown to him and that person who acted as Cashier on that day alone has given the receipt and that on enquiry at Kovilpatti Branch of the bank that he has not received the money he wrote a letter to the Guindy Branch Manager of the Bank and like him Thiru (1) C.J. Paul, (2) Mohanan Pillai (3) Subkaran (4) Toppo who remitted money complained that money was not received at the respective place of destination and they got back the money through the bank.

34. Ex. W.2 to W. 6 are the Counterfoils of the Challans dt. 28-10-1987, 3-2-88, 5-2-88, 4-11-87 and 11-11-87 respectively. As far as the present case is concerned, this Tribunal is of the considered view that inspite of sufficient opportunity given to the petitioner/claimant in the domestic enquiry to cross-examine P. W. 1 Thiru M. Kasi, Scientific Assistant Gr. I the same was not made use of by the Petitioner/Claimant and as such, the Ex. W.1 Forensic Science Laboratory Expert report dt. 1-6-88 is an unassailable one. Moreover, the non-examination of Thiru K. Ramakrishnan Assistant Chemical Examiner to Government, who signed in the Ex. W. 1 report is not fatal to the case on hand.

35. It is represented on behalf of the Petitioner/Claimant that in Ex. W. 2 to W. 6 Counterfoils viz. Q. 1 to Q. 6 only initials are seen and they are not the signatures of the petitioner/claimant as Cashier. At this juncture, it is to be pointed out that admittedly genuine signatures, initials and writings were marked as S. 1 to S. 80 and the questioned documents were marked as Q. 1 to Q. 6 as spoken to by P.W. 1 Mr. M. Kasi, Scientific Asst. Gr. I. When Ex. W.1 Forensic Science Laboratory Expert report dt. 1-6-88 speaks of the person who wrote the Red enclosed initials, writings and signatures stamped and marked S1 to S80 also wrote the Red enclosed writings and initials similarly stamped and marked Q. 1 to A6, it is futile to contend otherwise, when that too

P.W. 1 Mr. M. Kasi, Scientific Asstt. Grade I was not cross-examined by the Petitioner/Claimant and therefore, the contention of the Petitioner/Claimant in this regard is not accepted by this Tribunal.

36. Ex. W.73 is the Chargesheet dt. 9-4-88 given to the Petitioner/Claimant alleging acts of misappropriation, involving the Respondent/Bank in serious loss, which are pre judicial to the interest of the bank. In Ex. W.73 dt. 9-4-88 the allegations made against the Petitioner/Claimant are :—

- (1) That on 26-10-1987, he received a sum of Rs. 3,000 on behalf of the bank from Shri R. Jayaraman Defence Personnel, attached to Officers' Training School, along with the relative voucher, for effecting a Mail Transfer to Kovilpatti Branch of the bank, for credit of his Savings Bank Account No. 46/8973 and issued the counterfoil immediately and intentionally omitted to put this transaction through his Cash Scroll on that day and thus failed to account for the sum of Rs. 3,000 to the Bank and misappropriated the same.
- (2) On 11-11-1987, that he received a sum of Rs. 700 on behalf of the bank from Sub U Toppo, APTC, Officers Training School, Madras-37, along with the relative voucher for affecting a mail transfer to Jehangirabad branch and issued the Counterfoil immediately and intentionally omitted to put the transaction through his Cash Scroll on that day and thus failed to account for the sum of Rs. 700 to the bank and misappropriated the amount.
- (3) On 3-2-88, that he received a sum of Rs. 500 on behalf of the bank from Sri B. Mohanapillai, Ground Superintendent, Esstt. Section, Officers Training School, Madars-37 along with the relative voucher for effecting a Mail transfer to the Bank's Quilan Branch and issued the Counterfoil immediately and intentionally omitted to put this transaction through his Cash Scroll on that day and thus failed to account for the sum of Rs. 500/- to the bank and misappropriated the amount.
- (4) That on 5-2-88, he received a sum of Rs. 400/- on behalf of the bank, along with relative voucher from Sri C.J. Paul, G.D.Goy, Officers Training School, Madras -37 for effecting a mail transfer to the bank's Tiruchur branch and issued the Counterfoil immediately and he intentionally omitted to put the transaction through his cash scroll on that day and thus failed to account for the sum of Rs. 400 to the bank and misappropriated the amount.

In the Explanation Ex.W74 dt.16-4-1988 the Petitioner/Claimant has interalia stated that when he perused the relative challan, he found that they did not bear his initials and that he was not aware as to how the incidents cited had happened. It is significant to point out that Ex. W-74 explanation dt. 16-4-1988, submitted by the Petitioner/Claimant he has stated that he was appointed as a Messenger in the year 1971 and he appeared for the Promotional test in 1982 and came out successful and then he was posted as a cashier at Guindy Branch where he was discharging his duties diligently and sincerely, Ex. W-75 is the charge sheet dt. 14-5-88 issued by the Respondent/Bank to the petitioner/Claimant alleging that on 4-11-1987 while the petitioner was working as Cashier at OTS Extension Counter of the Respondent/Bank attached to Guindy Branch, he received a sum of Rs.1,800 on behalf of the Bank from Sri Shubkaran, G. D. Goy, OTA, Madars-37, along with the relative voucher for affecting a mail transfer and issued the Counterfoil immediately and that he intentionally omitted to put the transaction through his Cash Scroll on that day and thus failed to Account for the sum of Rs. 1,800 to the bank and misappropriated the same etc.

37. Ex. M.1 Xerox copy of complaint from Mr. Jayaram which was recived by the Respondent/bank, Guindy branch on 21-12-1987. In the said letter of complaint, the constituent of the bank Thiru Jayaraman has stated that he remitted Rs. 3,000 in SBI, Guindy OTS Extension Counter Branch on 26-10-1987 and that the same was not received at the Kovilpatti Branch of the respondent bank and requested the Branch Manager, to look into the matter. Ex.M.2 is the suspense account Debit Voucher for Rs. 1800 dt. 20-5-1988. By Ex. M2, the Respondent/Bank has refunded the sum of Rs. 1800, which sum which was earlier remitted by Shubkaran. Ex. W66 is the letter dt. 9-5-88 of Shubkaran addressed to the Respondent/Bank, Guindy branch OTA Extension Counter, Madras-37 wherein it is stated that he deposited a sum of Rs. 1800 on 4--11-87 for sending a mail transfer to SBI, Dantel to credit in his Account No. 20248 and on enquiry, he was informed that the M.T. for Rs. 1800 was not yet received by the bankers and the amount was not credited by the bankers in his account and requested for the amount to be paid to him at the earliest. In Ex. W66 Xerox copy of complaint of Mr. Shubkaran dt. 9-5-88, it is seen that there is an endorsement that 'no entry in OTS Scroll for Rs. 1800'. Ex. W65 is the Xerox copy of Respondent bank's Guindy branch Debit OTS Cash balance account dt. 26-10-87 for Rs. 50000 only. Ex. W53 is the complaint dt. 21-3-88 received from Sub U. W63 is the Banker's cheque dt. 21-4-88 issued in favour of U. Toppo for Rs. 700; Ex. W64 is the Banker's cheque issued by the Respondent/Bank in favour of Mr. Shubkaran for Rs. 1800 dt. 20-5-88.

38. Ex. W52 is the letter of Mr. C.J. Paul dated 11-3-88 addressd to the Guindy branch of the Respondent/

Bank, wherein it is mentioned that a sum of Rs. 400 remitted on 5-2-1988 by Mail Transfer through OTS Extension Counter to Tiruchur branch for credit of S.B. Account No. 038/8677 has not reached the constituent's mother Mrs. C.C. Tl andamma. Ex. W50 is the banker's cheque dt. 14-3-1988 in favour of Mr. C.J. Paul, for Rs. 400 issued by the Respondent/Bank. Ex. W51 is the letter of Mr. B. 39. The learned counsel for the Petitioner submits that enquiry report is a document and that the Enquiry Officer in his report should indicate the conclusions exactly and also to spell out the reasons for coming to the said conclusion and in support of his contentions placed reliance on the decision 1964 S.C.R. p. 506 between Khardah Co. Ltd. Vs. Their Workmen, wherein it is held as follows :

"It is the duty of the Enquiry Officer in an industrial enquiry to record clearly and precisely his conclusions and to indicate briefly the reasons therefor so that the Industrial Tribunal can judge whether they are basically erroneous or perverse."

40. The learned counsel for the Petitioner drew the attention of this Tribunal to the decision 1969 I S.C.R. 735 Central Bank of India Ltd., New Delhi Vs. Shri Prakash Chand Jain, wherein it is observed as follows :

"A domestic tribunal though not bound by the technical rules about evidence contained in the Indian Evidence Act cannot ignore substantive rules which would form part of principles of natural justice. The principle that a fact sought to be proved must be supported by statements made in the presence of the person against whom the enquiry is held and that statements made behind the back of the person charged are not to be treated as substantive evidence, is one of such basic principles which a domestic tribunal cannot disregard. The previous statement of a witness is not substantive evidence unless affirmed as truthful by the witness when actually examined in the presence of the workman charged. A finding by the domestic tribunal based not on substantive evidence but on hearsay, is perverse, because hearsay is not legal evidence. (743 C-E; 745 G-H)".

41. The learned counsel for the Respondent/Bank urges that in Domestic enquiry, the nature of evidence required is one of preponderance of probabilities and in support of his contention, reliance was placed on the decision (2005) 3 SCC 241 @ 253, Cholan Roadways Ltd. Versus G. Thunanasambandam, wherein it is held as follows :

"It is now well settled that a quasi-judicial authority must pose unto itself a correct question so as to arrive at a correct finding of fact. A wrong question posed leads to a wrong answer. In this case, furthermore, the misdirection in law committed by the Industrial Tribunal was apparent insofar as it did not apply the principle of res ipsa loquitur which was relevant for the purpose of this case and, thus, failed to take into consideration a relevant factor and furthermore took into consideration an irrelevant fact not germane for determining the issue, namely, that the passengers of the bus were mandatorily required to be examined. The Industrial Tribunal further failed to apply the correct standard of proof in relation to a domestic enquiry, which is 'preponderance of probability' and applied the standard of proof required for a criminal trial. A case for judicial review was, thus clearly made-out."

42. In the case on hand, the constituent Mr. Shubkaran was not examined as witness in the domestic enquiry. According to the learned counsel for the Respondent/Bank, the bank need not examine its customer to prove the charges and cited the decision (2000) (2) LLJ p. 1373 State Bank of India and Tarun Kumar Banerjee and Others, wherein it is observed as follows :

"The circumstances like non-examination of a customer of the Bank or non-production of an alleged confessional statement, on which the Tribunal placed reliance were irrelevant, the Supreme Court added."

43. It is represented on behalf of the Respondent/Bank that the burden of proof rests on the Petitioner/delinquent based on the explanation/stand taken by him and in this regard the Respondent/Bank relied on the decision AIR 1997 (SC) 2274 Orissa Mining Corporation and another Vs. Ananda Chandra Prusty, wherein it is held as follows :

"In a disciplinary or a departmental inquiry, the question of burden of proof depends upon the nature of charges and the nature of explanation put forward by the delinquent officer. In this sense, the learned counsel for the appellant may be justified in complaining that the standard of proof stipulated by the High Court in this case sounds inappropriate to a disciplinary inquiry. At the same time we must say that certain observations made by the inquiry officer in his report do lend themselves to the criticism offered by the High Court.

“On a consideration of the totality of the facts and circumstances of the case including the nature of charges we are not inclined to interfere in the matter. The position with respect to burden of proof is as clarified by us hereinabove viz., that there is no such thing as an absolute burden of proof, always lying upon the department in a disciplinary inquiry. The burden of proof depends upon the nature of explanation and the nature of charges. In a given case the burden may be shifted to the delinquent officer, depending upon his explanation. For example take the first charge in this case. The charge was that he made certain false notings on account of which loans were disbursed to certain ineligible persons. The respondent's case was that those notings were based upon certain documents produced and certain records maintained by other employees in the office. In such a situation it is for the respondent to establish his case. The department is not expected to examine those other employees in the office to show that their acts or records could not have formed the basis of wrong notings made by the respondent.”

44. The Learned Counsel for the Respondent/Bank invited the attention of this Tribunal to the decision 2005 (3) SCC p. 254, Divisional Controller, KSRTC (NWKRTC) Vs. A.T. Mañe, wherein it is observed as follows :

“Labour Law — Penalty/Punishment — Misappropriation of funds by delinquent employee — Punishment that may be awarded — Factors to be considered — Loss of confidence as the primary factor and not the amount of money misappropriated — Scope of Judicial review — Sympathy or generosity as a factor — Impermissibility — Held, when an employee is found guilty of misappropriating a Corporation's funds, there is nothing wrong in the Corporation losing confidence or faith in such an employee and awarding punishment of dismissal — In such cases there is no place for generosity or misplaced sympathy on the part of the judicial forums and interfering therefor with the quantum of punishment — Service Law — Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 — S. 11.”

45. The Learned Counsel for the Respondent/Bank submits that the petitioner/claimant as Cashier was holding the position of Trust where honesty and integrity are the elementary requirements of functioning and in as much as the petitioner/employee has committed serious misconduct he should be dealt with firmly and sympathy should not be shown to him. In support of his aforesaid contention, the learned Respondent/Bank's Counsel relied on 2007 LLR p. 1 State Bank of India and others Vs. Ramesh Dinkar Punde, wherein it is held as follows :

“Dismissal — From service after holding enquiry — Respondent, a bank — Officer, was a party to the fraud — He has failed to apply the material information to protect the interests of the bank — Respondent challenged his dismissal by filing a Writ Petition — On a reappraisal of the evidence. The High Court set aside the orders of the Disciplinary authority and the appellate authority — SLP filed by the bank — Accepted by the Apex Court — It was impermissible for the High Court to re-appreciate the evidence considered by the Enquiry Officer, disciplinary authority and the appellate authority — The findings of the High Court ran to the teeth of the evidence on record — Officer of the bank holding position of trust deserved no leniency in punishment — Active connivance of the respondent was clear in the issue of term deposit receipts to individuals against funds received from Trust and in providing overdraft facilities to the individuals — Not only on law but on facts also the High Court erred by interfering with the dismissal of the respondent from service — State Bank of India Officers Service Rules, Rule 32(4).”

46. The Learned Counsel for the Respondent/Bank cited the decision 1999 (2) LLJ p. 194, Management of Catholic Syrian Bank Ltd. and Industrial Tribunal, Madras-104 and another, wherein it is held as follows :

“Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 — Sec. 11-A Powers of Industrial Tribunal to interfere with quantum of punishment — Clerk in Bank dismissed from service on proved misconduct of crediting his account with money that should have been credited to account customer and withdrawing such money and utilising for himself — Industrial Tribunal directing reinstatement of employee with continuity in service and 50% of back wages because punishment was harsh and disproportionate to gravity of proved misconduct-finding that employee committed fraud on customer was established in Domestic Enquiry and same was not questioned before Industrial Tribunal—Confidence of customer is permanent for success of Banking business—Continuing in employment a person who committed fraud on customers would be prejudicial to interest of bank—Industrial Tribunal is Judicial Forum who records conclusions based on findings and available relevant materials—Discretion vested in Tribunal to interfere with quantum of Punishment should be properly exercised by discharging its functions judicially—Discretionary power does not mean Licence to direct reinstatement even where it is not warranted and to set aside order of Dismissal when records do not warrant such setting aside of Order of Dismissal—Industrial Tribunal cannot interfere with quantum of punishment if proved misconduct is grave in nature warranting dismissal from service discretionary powers to interfere with quantum of punishment can be exercised only when it is established that proved charges and penalty imposed are not proportionate to each other after considering all aspects—Failure to consider past conduct by itself is not sufficient to hold order of Dismissal as not warranted where proved misconduct is grave—employee cannot claim right to commit fraud during course of employment—Employee should maintain such ethical standards embodied in Rules and Regulations—Ethical standards cannot be abandoned on plea that Justice should be rendered with mere employee should maintain minimum standard of integrity—Award of reinstatement and back wages to workman who did not maintain minimum standard of integrity would amount to rewarding fraudulent and dishonest conduct and would be knocking at integrity and honesty of majority of workmen—Order of dismissal cannot be invalidated on ground of sympathy where such sympathy would be misplaced because of proved grave misconduct of fraud committed by employee”.

47. The Respondent's Counsel placed reliance on the decision 2004 (2) LLJ 423, Francis Vincent Neelankovil, Trichur and Industrial Tribunal, Madras and another, wherein it is observed as follows :

“The High Court observed the appellant's misconduct could not be treated as a case of mere temporary misappropriation. He firstly made a false document and on that basis made a false representation to the bank's customer, cheated him, and in the process made unlawful gain of Rs. 500 (to) himself and on the top of it had falsely claimed that he had returned the money even before the enquiry began.

The Tribunal's award was a unique piece of thinking the High Court said, and was rightly interfered with by the single judge.

In conclusion the High Court said here the appellant was working as a bank clerk holding a position of 'trust' he not only abused that position but went on to drive nails to his coffin by making one false representation after another.”

48. The Counsel for the Respondent/Bank relied on the decision 2000(2) LLJ p. 1395 Janatha Bazaar South Central Co-operative Wholesale Stores Ltd. & Others. and Secretary, Sahakari Nourara Sangha & Others, wherein it is held as follows:

“The Supreme Court observed that the finding of the Labour Court, confirmed by the Single and the Division Bench, was that the charges against the four workmen (employees) for breach of trust and misappropriation of funds entrusted to them had been established. After giving the said finding, the Labour Court (as well as the High Court) materially erred in (a) setting aside the order of the (appellant) Management which removed them from service and in (b) directing their reinstatement with 25% back wages. Once act of misappropriation was proved, there was no question of showing uncalled for sympathy to the workmen or of considering their past (unblemished) record.”

49. The Learned Counsel for the Respondent/Bank cited the decision (2003) 3 Supreme Court Cases 605, Regional Manager U.P. SRTC, Etawah, and others, Vs. Hoti Lal and Another, wherein it is observed as follows :

“Service Law—Misconduct—Penalty/Punishment—Scope of judicial review—Test of proportionality—Held, is very limited and restricted to exceptional cases—The Court must give reasons for holding the punishment to be not commensurate with the charges—A mere Statement that the punishment was disproportionate, would not suffice—Not only the amount involved, but the mental setup, the type of duty and similar relevant circumstances have to be taken into consideration to decide, the proportionality of the punishment—If the charged employee holds a position of trust where honesty and integrity are inbuilt requirements of functioning, held, the matter should be dealt with iron hands and not leniently—Hence, termination of the service of a bus conductor for carrying ticketless passengers in the SRTC bus, upheld—That such misconduct had caused to the State only a loss of Rs. 16, inconsequential.”

50. The Respondent/Bank's Counsel drew the attention of this Tribunal to the decision (2006) 1 Supreme Court Cases 63 Karnataka Bank Ltd. Vs. A.L. Mohan Rao, wherein it is held as follows:

“Labour Law — Penalty/Punishment — Proportionality—Scope of judicial review—Sympathy as a factor—Fictitious loan—Respondent charged with gross misconduct of colluding with a Branch Manager in grant of—In enquiry, respondent admitting that he did all the acts necessary for grant of said loan, knowing that he had no authority to do any of the acts, and being dismissed on being found guilty—Labour Court/Tribunal dismissing claim of respondent—However, Single Judge of High Court allowing Writ Petition and ordering reinstatement even though it found that misconduct proved on sympathetic grounds—Impremissibility—Held, a gross misconduct of this nature does merit dismissal—It cannot be seen what other type of misconduct would merit dismissal—It is not for courts to interfere in cases of gross misconduct of this nature with decision of disciplinary authority, on any mistaken notion of sympathy, so long as inquiry has been fair and proper, and misconduct proved—In such matters it is for disciplinary authority to decide what is the fit punishment.”

51. It is to be pointed out that to judge the validity of any administrative order or Statutory discretion, or the Wednesbury Test is to be applied to find out if the decision was illegal or suffered from procedural improprieties or was one which no sensible decision-maker could, on the material before him and within the frame work of the law have arrived at and that the court could consider whether the relevant matters were not taken into account or whether irrelevant matters had been taken into account or whether the action was not bonafide, besides considering whether the decision was absurd or perverse and the Court would not however, go into correctness of the decision made by the administrator among the various options open to him nor could the Court substitute its decision to that of the administrator.

52. At this juncture, it is quite apt to cite the decision 1996 ILLJ p. 1231 @ p. 1235 between B.C. Chaturvedi and Union of India & Ors. wherein it is observed as follows :

“Judicial review is not an appeal from a decision but a review of the manner in which the decision is made. Power of Judicial review is meant to ensure that the individual receives fair treatment and not to ensure that the conclusion which the authority reaches is necessarily correct in the eye of the Court. When an enquiry is conducted on charges of a misconduct by a public servant, the Court/ Tribunal is concerned to determine whether the enquiry was held by a competent officer or whether rules of natural justice are complied with. Whether the findings or conclusions are based on some evidence, the authority entrusted, with the power to hold enquiry has jurisdiction, power and authority to reach a finding of fact or conclusion. But that finding must be based on some evidence. Neither the technical rules of Evidence Act nor of proof of fact of evidence as defined therein, apply to disciplinary proceeding. Then the authority accepts that evidence and conclusion receives support therefrom the disciplinary authority is entitled to hold that the delinquent officer is guilty of the charge. The Court/ Tribunal in its power of judicial review does not act as appellate authority to reappraise the evidence and to arrive at its own independent findings on the evidence. The Court/Tribunal may interfere where the authority hold the proceedings against the delinquent officer in a manner inconsistent with the rules of natural justice or in violation of statutory rules prescribing the mode of enquiry where the conclusion or binding reached by the disciplinary authority is based on no evidence. If the conclusion or finding be such as no reasonable person would have ever reached, the Court/Tribunal may interfere with the conclusion of the finding and mould the relief so as to make it appropriate to the fact of each case”.

53. Admittedly, the disciplinary authority is the sole judge of facts. Where appeal is presented, the appellate authority has co-extensive power, to reappraise the evidence or the quantum of punishment. In the disciplinary inquiry the strict proof of legal evidence are not relevant and adequacy of evidence of reliability of evidence, can not be permitted to be raised before the Tribunal, in the considered opinion of this Tribunal.

54. In 1964 11 LLJ p.150 @ 154 State of Andhra Pradesh and others and Shri Rama Rao (S), it is held as follows:

“There is no warrant for the view expressed by the High Court that in considering whether a public officer is guilty of the misconduct charged against him, the rule followed in criminal trials that an offence is not established unless proved by evidence beyond reasonable doubt to the satisfaction of the Court, must be applied, and if that rule be not applied, the High Court in a petition under Art. 226 of the Constitution is competent to declare the order of the authorities holding a departmental enquiry invalid. The High Court is not constituted in a proceeding under Art. 226 of the Constitution a Court of appeal over the decision of the authorities holding a departmental enquiry against a public servant it is concerned to determine whether the enquiry is held by an authority competent in that behalf, and according to the procedure prescribed in that behalf, and whether the rules of natural justice are not violated. Where there is some evidence, which the authority entrusted with the duty to hold the enquiry has accepted and which evidence may reasonably support the conclusion that the delinquent officer is guilty of the charge, it is not the function of the High Court in a petition for a writ under Art. 226 to review the evidence and to arrive at an independent finding on the evidence. The High Court may undoubtedly interfere where the departmental authorities have held the proceedings against the delinquent in a manner inconsistent with the rules of natural justice or in violation of the Statutory rules prescribed the mode of enquiry or where the authorities have disabled themselves from reaching a fair decision by some considerations extraneous to the evidence and the merits of the case or by allowing themselves to be influenced by irrelevant considerations or where the conclusion on the very face of it is so wholly arbitrary and capricious that no reasonable person could ever have arrived at that conclusion, or on similar grounds. But the departmental authorities are, if the enquiry is otherwise properly held, the sole judges of facts and if there be some legal evidence on which their findings can be based, the adequacy or reliability of that evidence is not a matter which can be permitted to be canvassed before the High Court in a proceeding for a writ under Art. 226 of the Constitution”.

55. As a matter of fact, it is a well settled principle that even though judicial review of administrative action should remain flexible and its dimensions is not closed, yet it must be borne in mind that the Judicial Review is directed is not against the decision, but is confined to the examination of the decision-making process, of course, irrationality and perversity recognised grounds of judicial review, in the considered opinion of this Tribunal.

56. It cannot be again said that the opinion of a handwriting expert is not conclusive, still it cannot be brushed aside so lightly. The Tribunal can form its opinion in respect of the disputed handwriting either on the opinion of handwriting expert or on the opinion of the person acquainted with the handwriting. For confirming an opinion, the opinion of an individual specially skilled to identify the hand writing may be obtained, opinion of a specially skilled individual having scientific knowledge could be accepted.

In general, an expert may give evidence in chief as to the grounds on which he has reached his opinion and it may be said that without the grounds, the opinion is valueless (Phipson, 12th Ed. SS 1207 & 1266).

57. When the handwriting expert given his opinion the Court must see for itself and with the assistance of expert come to his own conclusion whether the two writings are of the same person as per decision AIR 1984 NOC 77 All. Ramprasad Vs. Shyamlal.

58. Generally, the characteristics of handwriting of an individual should have been taken into consideration and such characteristics cannot be determined with the aid of admitted signatures.

59. It is significant to point out that Lord Halton in Chief Constable of the North Wales Police Vs. Evans, 1982 (3) ALL.ER has observed as follows :

"The purpose of Judicial Review is to ensure that the individual receives fair treatment, and not to ensure that the authority, after according to fair treatment, reaches, on a matter which it is authorised by law to decide for itself, a conclusion which is correct in the eyes of the Court."

In Govt. of Tamil Nadu and another Vs. A. Rajapandian 1995(1) LLJ P.953 @954, it is held that "Administrative Tribunal cannot reappraise the findings recorded before the Inquiry Authority and reach different conclusions of its own evaluation of evidence. The administrative Tribunal does not sit as Appellate authority over the findings of Inquiry Authority."

60. In 1972 1 LLJ p.1 @ p. 6 between Union of India and Sardar Bahdur, Wherein it is observed that

"A disciplinary proceedings is not a criminal trial. The standard of proof required is that of preponderance of probability and not proof beyond reasonable doubt. If the inference that Nandakumar was a person likely to have official dealings, with the respondent was one which reasonable person would draw from the proved facts of the cases, the High Court cannot sit as a Court of Appeal over a decision based on it. Where there are some relevant materials which the authority has accepted and which materials may reasonably support the conclusions that the officer is guilty, it is not the function of the High Court, exercising its jurisdiction under Article 226 to review the materials and to arrive at an independent finding on the materials. If the enquiry has been properly held the question of adequacy or reliability of evidence cannot be canvassed before the High Court".

61. It is to be borne in mind that the principles of natural justice do not supplant the law but supplement it. As a matter of fact, the authority must act in good faith and not arbitrarily but reasonably as per decision AIR 1979 SC 1302 Mahabir Prasad V. State.

At this Juncture, this Tribunal opines that no one is bound to attend an enquiry against himself and therefore, an employer cannot compel an employee to attend an enquiry and if an employee does not attend the enquiry, then it can be held Exparte.

62. It cannot be again said that no rigid procedure is prescribed to conduct an enquiry. Yet some minimum standards of procedure which are recorded as rules of Natural Justice has to be followed as per decision 1968 11 LLJ p.94 between Palani (k) Vs. S. F. Vellore Electricity System.

63. In order to come to a conclusion in regard to whom the legal burden rests in addition to substantive law, the pleading of the parties along with the documents that are produced and the admission if any pertaining to such documents will have to be taken into account as per decision AIR 1976 Del. 70/M/s. Surajbhan Kailash Chand V. Hari Shanker Vashist.

64. Each circumstances relied upon by the prosecution must be established by cogent, reliable and succinct evidence, the circumstances must be of an incriminating character. All the proved circumstances should provide a complete chain, no link of which should be missing and they must unequivocally point to the guilt of the delinquent and exclude any hypothesis consistent with his innocence as per decision (1980) 1 SCC 530 Pahalye Morya Valvi Vs. State of Maharashtra.

65. It is well established principle that when the opposite party declines to avail himself of the opportunity to put his essential and material case in cross-examination, it must follow that he believes that the testimony given could not be disputed at all and this is the rule of Essential Justice.

66. As a matter of fact, in domestic enquiry, guilt need not be established beyond reasonable doubt, proof or his conduct may be sufficient as per decision J.D. Jain Vs. State Bank of India 1982 LLR p.8(9) Sc.

67. It is relevant to point out that in the definition of 'dishonestly' the intention to cause wrongful gain or loss is an essential ingredient. Under Sec. 23 of I.P.C. an individual is said to gain wrongfully, when he retains wrongfully. To do any act 'dishonestly' is a grave misconduct on the part of an employee holding responsible position. The term 'misconduct' is an act which is inconsistent with the fulfilment of express or implied conditions of service, in the considered opinion of this Tribunal.

68. The term wrongful gain is the gain by unlawful means of property to which the person gaining is not legally entitled.

69. The 'wrongful loss' is the loss by unlawful means of property to which the person losing is legally entitled. As a matter of fact, a misconduct affects morality under which it includes dishonesty, theft, or fraud, disloyalty, damage to property or reputation of the Employer/Company, in the considered opinion of this Tribunal.

70. For committing any fraudulent act one has to be dishonest but for being dishonest, there may not be any need to become a fraud. Acts of dishonesty or fraud constitute misconduct of grave nature.

71. According to the learned Counsel for the petitioner the Petitioner/Claimant was on duty at the relevant point of time but that will not make the Petitioner/Claimant liable for the charges levelled against him and that none of the witnesses have identified the petitioner/claimant, in the domestic enquiry.

72. It is represented on behalf of the petitioner, claimant that P.W. 2 Thiru R. Jayaram in the domestic enquiry has stated that he remitted the money to the person who acted as Cashier on that day and that the said person gave him the receipt. As a matter of fact, P.W. 2 Thiru R. Jayaram has stated that he will identify the person if he is shown to him. P.W. 2 Thiru R. Jayaram in the domestic enquiry has also stated that he remitted Rs.3,000 on 26-10-87 at the OTS Extension counter for which he was given the receipt. It is to be pointed out that the sum of Rs.3,000 remitted by P.W. 2 Thiru R. Jayaram was not given credit to his account at the Kovilpatti branch and when he enquired about the same at the Kovilpatti Bank branch he came to know about the same.

73. P.W. 6 Thiru J. Damodaran, officer of the bank, before the Enquiry Officer in the domestic enquiry has stated that the petitioner/claimant was deputed to the OTS Extension Counter to work as Cashier and he has identified the signature on the reverse of debit vouchers on account of OTS Cash balance account of Guindy Branch to that of Thiru K. Ibrahim, Cashier. P.W. 6 Thiru J. Damodaran, officer of the bank has stated that the letter dt.9-5-88 was signed by Thiru Shubkaran and that he remitted Rs. 1,800/-and in the Counterfoil the date is mentioned as 4-11-87 and that the letter dt.11-3-88 was signed by Thiru C. J. Paul and in the Counterfoil dt. 5-2-88 the applicant's name is Thiru C.J.Paul and that the Counterfoil contains the cash receipts stamped of OTS Extension Counter, signature of the Cashier Thiru K. Ibrahim and that the individuals Thiru Shubkaran and C.J.Paul wrote letters to the bank since the money remitted by them were not properly accounted for.

74. It is the case of the Petitioner/Claimant that he used to take Lunch between 1.30 P.M. and 2.00 P.M. and during that time Thiru J. Damodaran (Official) used to take care of his counter which will be opened and that the Claimant will handover the keys of his counter to Thiru J. Damodaran before going for lunch every time, and that after lunch the Claimant/Petitioner used to carry on his work at the Counter without taking over. P.W.6 Thiru J. Damodaran has stated in his evidence before the Enquiry Officer in the domestic enquiry, the Cashier Thiru K. Ibrahim, the Petitioner/Claimant will go for his lunch and carry on his work from where he left and the contention of the claimant that his counter is manned by him is absolutely baseless and normally at 1.30 P.M. the Counter used to be crowded with the OTA cadres and all the Official Incharge and Clerk used to be busy in getting the Vouchers posted and passed and making it ready for eventual payment by the Cashier.

75. In short, the case of the Petitioner/Claimant that the Cash Counter will be manned by Thiru J. Damodaran during lunch break, in the absence of the petitioner/claimant is rebutted by P.W. 6 Thiru J. Damodaran. At this juncture, it is pertinent to point out that in Ex. W.74 dt.16-4-88 Explanation submitted by the Petitioner/Claimant he has not mentioned anything about P.W.6 Thiru J. Damodaran but only inter alia mentioned that he perused the relative challan and found that they did not bear his initials and that he was not aware as to how the incidents cited had happened.

76. On behalf of the petitioner, it is contended that the Respondent/bank should have compared the signatures of Thiru J. Damodaran and others and the non-comparison of the Signatures of Thiru J. Damodaran and others has resulted in denial of justice to the petitioner. As a matter of fact, it is not the case of the Petitioner/Claimant that Thiru J. Damodaran, P.W.6 has misappropriated the amounts in question or not accounted for the said sums. From a perusal of the Ex.W.76 Enquiry Proceedings relating to the Petitioner/Claimant, in the enquiry held on 22-8-88 it transpires that the petitioner/claimant has given a reply before the Enquiry Officer Thiru W.S. Jayapaul that he is going to represent his case by a representative from State Bank of India Staff Union and as the time was insufficient to arrange for his representation he could not do so. In the Second sitting on 29-8-88, the Petitioner/Claimant has informed the Enquiry Officer Thiru W.S. Jayapaul that so far he was not favoured with the copies of documents or the list of witnesses from the prosecution side and therefore once again made a request of furnish the copies so as to enable him to arrange and prepare his defence and the Enquiry Officer has advised Presenting Officer Tr. S. Sethumadhavan to provide the copies of the documents to the petitioner/claimant and that the Presenting Officer was also to open the case simultaneously. The Petitioner/Claimant has prayed for adjoining the enquiry on the ground that he received the documents now only and at the request of the Petitioner, the enquiry was adjourned. In the third Sittings on 12-9-88, the Petitioner/Claimant stated before the Enquiry Officer that union defence representative was not available at present to defend his case and the Claimant/Petitioner prayed for permission to arrange a lawyer instead of union representative and for that the Enquiry Officer informed the petitioner that in the domestic enquiry permission could not be granted for engaging a lawyer as Defence representative and thereafter the petitioner informed the Enquiry Officer that he will carry on with the case. P.W.1 Thiru M. Kassi, Scientific Asstt. Gr. I on 19-9-88, Fourth sitting was not cross-examined by the claimant/petitioner Thiru K. Ibrahim because of his inability and that the enquiry was adjourned to 26-9-88. Even on 26-9-88, the petitioner prayed for a permission to engage a lawyer to complete the enquiry and the Enquiry Officer informed the petitioner that permission to engage a lawyer was refused and the petitioner was advised several times in this regard and adjourn the enquiry on 3-10-88. On the Sixth sitting on 3-10-1988 the petitioner/claimant did not present himself for enquiry and enquiry was adjourned to 17-10-88. On 17-10-88 for the Seventh sitting, the petitioner did not turn up and the Presenting Officer Thiru Sethumadhavan was advised to proceed further in this case by the Enquiry Officer and that Thiru R. Jayaram was examined on that date.

77. P.W. 4 Thiru U. Toppo was examined on 7-11-88, in the Ninth sitting of the domestic enquiry. For the Ninth sitting on 7-11-88, the petitioner/claimant Thiru K. Ibrahim did not turn up. P.W. 4 Thiru U. Toppo has stated before the Enquiry Officer that his staff has written the letter and he has signed the same and that he remitted Rs. 700/- on 11-11-87 in OTA Extension Counter and Rs. 700/- remitted was for mail transfer to family favouring Tmt. Philomena, S.B. A/c.No.48/72 State Bank of India, Jhangirabad, Bhopal and he got the Counterfoil from the Cashier duly signed and stamped and he have the amount to the Cashier in the Counter and obtained the receipt for Rs. 700/- and when his family asked the Respondent/Bank at Jhangirabad, about the remittance of Rs. 700/- made by him, they replied that no remittance was received and then he write a letter and asked his friend to give it to the bank because at that time he was in Gwalior and that bank required him to produce the counterfoil which he did and the bank gave him a cheque for Rs. 700/- and he received amount through OTA on 22-4-88. For the 10th sitting on 14-11-88 in the domestic enquiry the Petitioner/Claimant Thiru K. Ibrahim did not turn up. Thiru S. Chandrasekaran, Cash Officer was examined as P.W.5 on 14-11-1983. In the 11th sitting, on 6-2-89 when P.W.6 Thiru J. Damodaran, Officer of the bank was examined, the claimant/petitioner Thiru K. Ibrahim attended the enquiry. When the petitioner Thiru. K. Ibrahim was asked by the Enquiry Officer whether he wished to cross-examine P.W.6 Thiru J. Demodaran, and he replied 'No' Sir and said that one key was always available with the Postmaster OTS during the tenure of PW 6 J. Damodaran and the stamps used in OTS counter was kept in the OTS counter itself and Thiru J. Demodaran used to take care of Cash Counter, during his lunch breaks and this was denied as baseless by P.W.6 Thiru J. Demodaran stating that normally at 1.30 P.M. the counter used to be crowded with OTA cadres and all the officials incharge and clerk used to be busy in getting vouchers posted and passed and making it ready for eventual payment by the Cashier. In the 12th sitting on 20-3-1989 Domestic enquiry Thiru K. Ibrahim, the petitioner did not turn up and P.W.7 Thiru C. J. Paul was examined. P.W.7 Thiru C.J. Paul has stated before the Enquiry Officer that he remitted Rs.400/- on 5-2-88 by Mail transfer for credit of his mother's Account No.38/8677 at Tiruchur and his mother's name is Smt. Thandamma and he remitted the said amount in OTA Extension Counter on 5-2-88 and receipts for Rs.400/- was issued to him by the bank and since he get a letter from the mother's stating that the money did not reach at Tiruchur he gave a letter to the bank and after 2 days he got the refund of Rs: 200/- at Officers Training Academy. In the 13th sitting on 22-6-89, Thiru K. Ibrahim petitioner was present and informed the Enquiry Officer that he has no proposal to produce any witnesses on his behalf nor he would like to be examined himself as a witness and the Enquiry Officer proposed to conclude the enquiry after giving another final chance to the petitioner/Claimant Thiru K. Ibrahim to defend himself and decide to conduct the next sitting on 26-5-89 at 10.30 A.M. at Guindy branch. In the 14th sitting on 26-6-89, the petitioner/claimant Thiru K. Ibrahim was present. The Petitioner/Claimant informed the Enquiry Officer that since he was unable to explain and defend himself, once again requested permission to fix a lawyer's defence and the Enquiry Officer informed the petitioner Thiru K. Ibrahim that he was already advised in the domestic enquiry permission could not be granted for engaging a lawyer as his defence representative and thereupon the petitioner/claimant informed the Enquiry Officer that if it was so he was helpless and he has nothing to say etc. A perusal of Ex. W76 Enquiry proceedings normally show that the Petitioner/Claimant was given due and adequate opportunity in the domestic enquiry, in the considered opinion of this Tribunal. Except Thiru Shubkaran all other constituents were examined as witnesses in the domestic enquiry and the Respondent/Bank has paid back the money to the constituents. In short, the witnesses P.W.1 to P.W.7 examined in the domestic Enquiry before the Enquiry Officer were not cross-examined by the petitioner/claimant. Moreover, the Hon'ble High Court in its order dt. 10-4-2007 in W.A.No. 1508/04 has observed inter alia that the petitioner/claimant having participated on several sittings, he abandons the enquiry after certain stage and copies of documents were also either supplied or allowed to be perused by the workman and already adequate opportunity was given to him. Therefore, it is not correct to state that documents were marked hurriedly in the domestic enquiry, in the considered opinion of this Tribunal.

78. Ex. W. 77 is the findings of the Enquiry Officer, in Ex. W77 findings of the Enquiry Officer, the Enquiry Officer for charge No.1 has observed that the petitioner/claimant was on duty on 26-10-87 as evidenced by receipts for payments scroll dt. 26-10-87 and that the counterfoil P. Ex.2 bears the cash received stamp duly signed by the delinquent employee and the signature on the counterfoil Ex.P.2 compares well with those in the leave letters of the employee submitted to the Branch Manager, Guindy Branch (Ex.P.21- Ex.P.26) and this was confirmed by the Scientific Asst. of the office of the Director, Tamil Nadu Forensic Science Laboratory and the amount of Rs. 3,000/- so received as per counterfoil was not accounted for in the receipts scroll dt. 26-10-87 and from the facts and evidence adduced and based on the above observations, the petitioner was found guilty of the charge No.1. In respect of charge No. 2, the Enquiry Officer has observed inter alia that the Petitioner Thiru K. Ibrahim was on duty on 11-11-87 as evidenced by Receipts/Challan Scroll dt. 11-11-87 and the Cash Counterfoils Ex. P. 6 bears the cash received Stamp and it is signed by the delinquent employee and the signature on the counterfoil Ex. P.6 compares well with those in the leave letters of the employee submitted by the Manager, Guindy branch Ex. P. 21- Ex. P. 26 is confirmed by the Scientific Assistant O/of the Director of Tamil Nadu Forensic Science Laboratory Dept. and the amount of Rs. 700/- so received as per Counterfoil has not been accounted for in the receipts Scroll dt. 11-11-87 and from the facts and evidences adduced and based on observations, the petitioner/claimant was found guilty of the Charge No. 2. In respect of Charge No. 3 the enquiry officer has observed that the Petitioner Thiru K. Ibrahim was on duty on 3-2-88 as evidenced by Receipt/Payment Scroll dt. 3-2-88 and the cash counterfoil P. Ex. 3 bears the cash received stamp and it is signed by the delinquent employee and the signature and the counterfoil P. Ex. 3 compares well with those in the leave letters of the employee submitted to the Branch Manager, Guindy Branch, P. Ex. 21 to P. Ex. 26 and this has been confirmed by the Scientific Assistant O/of the Director, Tamilnadu Forensic Science Laboratory, Chennai-4 (P. Ex. 1) and a sum of Rs. 500/- so received as per the counterfoil has not been accounted for in the receipts scroll dt. 3-2-88 and came to the conclusion that the petitioner Thiru K. Ibrahim was found guilty of Charge No. 3.

79. In regard to Charge No. 4, the Enquiry Officer has observed that the petitioner Thiru K. Ibrahim was on duty on 5-2-1988 as evidenced by Receipts/payment scroll dt. 5-2-88 and the cash counterfoil P. Ex. 4 bears the cash received stamp and it is signed by the delinquent employee and the signature on the counterfoil (P.Ex.4) compares well with those in the leave letters of the employee submitted to the Branch Manager, Guindy branch (P. Ex.21 to P.Ex.26) and this has been confirmed by the Scientific Asst. Office of the Director, Tamilnadu Forensic Science Laboratory, Madras-4 (P.Ex.1) and the amount of Rs. 400/- so recieved as per counterfoil has not been accounted for in the receipts scroll dt.5-2-1988 and Thiru K. Ibrahim, the petitioner was found guilty of the charge No. 4. In respect of charged No.5 the Enquiry Officer has observed that the petitioner Thiru K. Ibrahim was on duty on 4-11-87 as evidenced by the Receipts/ Payments Scroll dt. 4-11-87 (p. Ex.54) and the cash counterfoil P Ex. 5 bears the cash received stamp and is signed by the delinquent employee and the signature on the counterfoil P Ex. 5 compares well with those in the leave letters of the employee submitted to the Banch Manager, Guindy Branch, (P. Ex.21 to P. Ex.26) and the signatures have been identified by Thiru J. Damodaran P.W.6 and confirmed by the Scientific Asst. Office of the Director, Tamilnadu Forensic Science Laboratory, Madras-4 (P. Ex. 1) and the amount of Rs. 1,800 so received, as shown in the counterfoil P. Ex. 5 has not been accounted for in the receipts scroll dt. 4-11-87 (P. Ex. 54) and the petitioner Thiru K. Ibrahim was found guilty of the Charge No. 5.

80. According to the learned Counsel for the petitioner/Claimant that the enquiry officer in his findings Ex.W. 77 has not taken into account the relevant point and he had not discussed the evidence tendered by witnesses in the domestic enquiry and therefore his findings are perverse. In Ex.W. 77 findings of the Enquiry Officer, the enquiry officer has analysed the charge and has given his observations and come to the conclusion on the basis of the facts and evidences adduced and found the petitioner/ Claimant guilty of the charges. In Ex. W. 77 findings of the Enquiry Officer, the Enquiry Officer has not discussed about the evidences tendered by the witnesses. In the domestic enquiry the Enquiry Officer in the enquiry findings Ex.W.77 has mentioned that the defence arguments are 'NIL'. Merely because, the Enquiry Officer has not mentioned about the evidence tendered witnesses in the domestic enquiry it cannot be said that the domestic enquiry findings are vitiated and perverse, in the considered opinion of this Tribunal. Admittedly, the Enquiry Officer is not like a trained Judicial Officer to write a reasoned findings/elaborate Judgement. The Enquiry Officer in his findings, after analysing the charges has come to the conclusion that there are relevant evidence to prove the charges levelled against the Petitioner/Claimant. A perusal of the Cashier's Receipt Scroll copies indicate that the various amounts received as per the counterfoils were not accounts for in the said scroll on the relevant dates and therefore this piece of evidence is crucial to prove the charges levelled against the Claimant/Petitioner couples with other cumulative facts and attended circumstances of the case. In the instant case, the enquiry conducted against the Petitioner/Claimant is fair and proper, in the considered opinion of this Tribunal. As a matter of fact, it is significant to point out in regard to Charge No.5 that the petitioner/claimant has intentionally omitted to put the transaction of Rs.1,800/- in the Cash scroll which received on 4-11-87 and failed to account for the same, the Petitioner/Claimant has not submitted his explanation at all and the non-submission of the explanation in regard to charge No. 5, is a circumstances which clearly go against the petitioner/claimant.

81. The fact that the petitioner/claimant acted as cashier on 26-10-87, 11-11-87, 3-2-88, 5-3-88 and 4-11-87 is not disputed. The Claimant's stand in the explanation Ex. W 74 dt. 16-4-88 is only to the effect that he perused the relevant challans and found that they did not bear his initials and he was not aware as to how the incidents cited had happened. In the explanation dt. 16-4-88 Ex. W. 74, the petitioner/claimant has not stated that he had not received the cash remittances in question. In Ex. W. 74 Explanation dt. 16-4-88, of the Petitioner/Claimant, there is no whisper as to how he failed to make relevant entries for the said remittances in the receipt scroll maintained by him as Cashier. After all, standard of proof required in a Disciplinary proceeding is that of preponderance probability and not proof beyond reasonable doubt, in the considered opinion of this Tribunal. At any rate, the findings of the Enquiry Officer Ex.W.77 are not arbitrary and they are not perverse also, in the considered opinion of this Tribunal. In the case on hand, there exists reasonable basis for the disciplinary authority to proceed against the petitioner/claimant and after due enquiry, the enquiry officer come to the conclusion that the petitioner/claimant was found guilty of the charges Nos. 1 to 5. Moreover, from the perusal of the Finding of the Enquiry Officer Ex.W.77 it transpires that the Enquiry Officer has summoned up the matter and also mentioned the contention of the petitioner/claimant that frauds in question could have been perpetrated by other persons in the office/building viz. Thiru C.J. Damodaran, Officer, State Bank of India or the Post Master which was reiterated in his written defence brief and this was held to be not corroborated by any witness/evidence on his behalf etc. In short, the Enquiry Officer in his findings Ex. W. 77 has come to the conclusion that there is a clear documentary evidence/records establishing the truth of the fact to prove the charges levelled against the Petitioner/Claimant and found him guilty of all the five charges. As far as the present case is concerned, the Enquiry Officer has taken into consideration all the proved circumstances which provided a complete chain, no link of which is missing and they clearly point out to the guilt of the petitioner/claimant in the considered opinion of this Tribunal.

82. According to the Learned Counsel for the petitioner/claimant the observations of the Enquiry Officer in his Enquiry findings Ex. 77 to the effect that the signatures on the Counterfoils compares well with those in the leave letters are not correct, because the counterfoils contains only the initials and not the signatures. The five counterfoils are marked as Exts. W.2 to W.6 and they have been marked as Q.1 to Q.6 in Ex. W.1 report of the Forensic Science Laboratory dt. 1-6-88 Exs. W.7 to W.20 are pay in slip of the State Bank of India, Guindy OTS Extension Counter branch wherein the admitted signatures of the petitioner/claimant are seen. In Exs. W.21 to W. 47, the full signatures of the petitioner/claimant are seen and these signature are seen in Q.1 to Q.6 in short form and therefore, the observations of the Enquiry Officer in Ex. W. 77 Enquiry finding that the signatures on the counterfoils compares well with those in the leave letters of the petitioner/claimant can not be found fault with in the considered opinion of the Tribunal. Moreover, in Ex. W.1 Forensic Science Laboratory report dt. 1-6-88, it is clearly mentioned that the persons who wrote the Red enclosed initials, writings and signatures stamped and marked S.1 to S. 80 also wrote the read enclosed writings and initials similarly stamped and marked Q.1 to Q.6 and in the reasoning sheet annexed to Ex. W.1 report it is specifically mentioned that both the standard and questioned writing, initials and signatures were freely and speedily written and agree cumulatively in the handwriting characteristics on a inter se comparison etc. When P.W.1 Thiru M. Kasi, Scientific Assistant Gr.1 was not cross examined by the Petitioner/Claimant in the domestic enquiry, then Ex. W.1 report cannot be disputed and Ex. W.1 report cannot be brushed aside lightly.

83. The learned counsel for the petitioner/claimant contends that no witness examined in the domestic enquiry had identified the Petitioner/Claimant as Cashier on the relevant dates when the remittances in question were made. Admittedly, the Petitioner/Claimant has not cross-examined P.W.1 Thiru M. Kasi, Scientific Asst. Gr. 1 in the domestic enquiry. On 17-10-88 for the 7th sitting the petitioner/claimant has turn up and the enquiry proceeded further and P.W.2 Thiru R. Jayaram was examined. For the 9th sitting on 7-11-88 the petitioner/claimant has not turned up and P.W.4 Thiru U. Toppo was examined. For the 10th sitting on 14-11-88 the petitioner/claimant has not turned up and P.W.5 Thiru S. Chandrasekaran Cash Officer was examined. In the 12th sitting on 20-3-89 in the domestic enquiry the petitioner has not turned up and Thiru. C.J. Paul was examined as P.W.7. In the 8th sitting on 21-10-88 in the domestic enquiry the Petitioner/Claimant has not turned up and Thiru B. Mohanan Pillai was examined as P.W.3. From the above, it is candidly clear that when the constituents of the bank were examined as witnesses on the relevant dates, the petitioner/claimant has chosen to absent himself by not appearing in the domestic enquiry. Therefore, the contention of the petitioner's side, the constituents/witnesses have not identified the petitioner/claimant is not accepted by this Tribunal.

84. When the Petitioner/Claimant has acted as Cashier on the relevant dates when the constituents made the remittances, then it is for the petitioner/claimant to prove the fact which is particularly within his knowledge and equity fair play and justice also demand that he must prove the same and he can not plead ignorance as to how the incidents cited by the Respondent bank had happened especially when the burden of proof in the given case has shifted on the delinquent, based upon the explanation given by him and the nature of charges levelled.

85. It is significant to point out that in 2005 (2) LLJ P.6 Varadarajan K. S. and Deputy Commissioner of Labour [A.A. under S. 41 (2) of T.N. Shops & Establishments Act, 1947], Madras and another, it is observed that :

"It must be understood that the appellate authority is the Deputy Labour Commissioner and he is not expected to write an elaborate and as good a judgement as a regular Civil Court would do. He is only an executive authority and we can not expect the executive authority to write as good a judgement as a trained judicial officer. Moreover this court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India can not reappreciate the evidence nor can it go into the question of evidence in support of the charges this court can not interfere."

86. The learned counsel for the Petitioner urges that the appellate authority has not disposed of the appeal filed by the petitioner within a period of 60 days as required and without applying his mind the appellate authority has confirmed the findings of the Enquiry Officer and that the appellate authority has not evaluated evidence and that the order of the appellate authority is a non-speaking one. Ex. W. 81 is the Appeal dt. 2-5-1990 filed by the Petitioner/Claimant against the order of dismissal. Ex. W. 79 is dismissal order dt. 14-3-90 passed by the Disciplinary authority, Deputy General Manager of the Bank. Ex. W. 83 dt. 2-6-1990 is the order passed by the Appellate authority, General Manager, Operations of the Respondent/bank.

87. According to the Learned Counsel for the petitioner, as per Bipartite Settlement para 19.14 in cases where hearings are not required an appeal shall be disposed of within 2 months from the date of receipt thereof and in cases where hearings are required to be given and are requested for such hearings shall commence within one month from the date of receipt of the appeal and shall be disposed of within one month from the date of conclusion of such hearings, and the period within which an appeal can be preferred shall be 45 days from the date on which the original order has been communicated in writing to the employee concerned and as far as the present case is concerned, the appeal has been preferred by the Claimant/Petitioner Ex. W.80 dated 2-5-90 was disposed of by the Appellate Authority as per Ex. W. 83 dt. 26-9-90 after a period of 4 months and 24 days and therefore the bank has violated the Bipartite Settlement para 19.14 in and by which they should have disposed of the appeal within a period of 2 months from the date of receipt of appeal.

88. The Learned Counsel for the Respondent/Bank submits that the words that an appeal shall be disposed of within 2 months from the date of receipt thereof as mentioned in para 19.14 of the Bipartite Settlement is only directory in nature and the same is not mandatory and in support of his contentions he relied on the Judgement in Civil Appeal No. 2534/2007 Management, Pandiyan Roadways Cor. Ltd. Vs. N. Balakrishnan, wherein it is observed that :

"Furthermore, even if the statute specifies a time for publication of the same by itself could not have been held to be mandatory. Such a provision would be directory in nature it is a well-settled principle of law that where a statutory functionary is asked to perform a statutory duty within the time prescribed therefore, the same would be directory and not mandatory".

89. The Learned Counsel for the Respondent/Bank contends that the provision in a statute which is procedural nature although employs the word 'shall' may not be held to be mandatory if no prejudice is caused to a party and in the instant case the word 'shall' in the Bipartite Settlement is only a procedural provision, which is not of a mandatory character and the ultimate test should be viz. the test of fair hearing as it usually called and in the instant case, no prejudice has been caused to the appellant/claimant.

90. At this juncture, it is relevant to point out that generally although the word 'shall' is considered to be imperative in nature but it has to be interpreted as directory if the situation or context otherwise demands, in the considered opinion of this Tribunal. It is significant to point out that para 19.14 of the Bipartite Settlement, nowhere provides for the consequences if the appeal is not disposed of within a period of 2 months from the date of its receipt.

91. A procedural rule ordinarily should be construed as mandatory as per decision AIR 2003 Kant. 417, 422 A.V. Purushittam Vs. N.K. Nagraj.

92. Whenever a statute declares that a thing shall be done, the natural and proper meaning is that a peremptory mandate is enjoined. But where the thing has reference to (i) the time or formality of completing any public act, not being a step in a litigation or accusation or (ii) the time or formality of creating an executed contract whereof the benefit has been or but for their own act might be, received by individual of Private Companies or Private Corporations, the enactment will generally be regarded as merely directory unless there be words making the thing done void if not done in accordance with the prescribed requirements (Stroud 6th Edn), 2000.

93. The word 'shall' is in the context only directory and not mandatory and the non-compliance with the directions would not render a promotion or a transfer otherwise regularly and validly made any way ineffective or inoperative as per decision AIR 1958 Kerala 85, 87, C.P. Mary Vs. State of Travancore, Cochin.

94. As far as the present case is concerned, even though the Bipartite Settlement para 19.14 speaks of "An appeal shall be disposed of within 2 months from the date of receipt thereof".

The word 'shall' is to be construed only as directory and not mandatory, in the considered opinion of this Tribunal. Further more, since the appeal in the instant case has been disposed of after a period of 4 months and 24 days it will not lead to the conclusion that the Order of Appellate Authority Ex. W. 83 dt. 26-9-1990 is a nullity one. In short, by disposing of the appeal on 26-9-1990, no prejudice has been caused to the petitioner/claimant, in the considered opinion of this Tribunal.

95. The Learned Counsel for the Respondent/ Bank submits that this Tribunal is not expected to sit as a Appellate Court on the enquiry report and in support of his contentions, he relied on the decision 2007 (2) LLJ 295@ 299 Ananda Kathirone and Another and Presiding officer, Principal Labour Court, Chennai and another, wherein it is held that :

"The common thread running through the decision of the Apex Court is that the Courts should not interfere with the administrative matters unless it was illogical or suffers from procedural impropriety. The scope of judicial review either by the Labour Court or by the High Court or by the Supreme Court is clarified by the Supreme Court. The scope of judicial review is limited is defined and decision making process and not the decision. There is no scope for interference in the order of the disciplinary authority basing on the report of the enquiry officer unless the order of the disciplinary authority is based on no evidence, error of law and not error of fact and such error is appeared on the face of the record. It is not for the Court to construe itself as an Appellate Court over the orders of the disciplinary authority to resolve the action qualitatively different from ordinary civil dispute and re-adjudicate upon the question of fact decided by the authorities."

96. The Learned Counsel for the Respondent/Bank cited the decision 1994 Suppl. (2) SCC 468 @ 470, 471, State Bank of India, Bhopal Vs. S. S. Koshal, wherein, it is observed as follows :-

"Now coming to the third ground on which the High Court has allowed the writ petition, the relevant rule (Rule) 51(2) reads as follows:

"An appeal shall be preferred within 45 days from date of receipt of the order appealed against. The appeal shall be addressed to the appellate authority and submitted to the authority whose order is appealed against. The employee may, if he so desires, submit an advance copy to the appellate authority. The authority whose order is appealed against shall forward the appeal together with its comments and records of the case to the appellate authority shall consider whether the findings are justified and /or whether the penalty is excessive or inadequate. Authority may pass an order confirming, enhancing, reducing or setting aside the penalty or remitting the case to the authority or which imposed the penalty or to any other authority with such directions as it deems fit in the circumstances of the case."

"The High Court has taken the view that the rule required the appellate authority to pass a speaking order even if it is an order of affirmance. For the purpose of this case, we shall assume the said view to be the correct one. Even so we are not satisfied that the appellate order is not a speaking order. We have already extracted the appellate order in full herein before, which shows that it considered at length the facts of the case including the fact that the appellate authority (sic disciplinary authority) had differed from the findings of the Enquiry Officer in respect of the two charges. The appellate authority then says that it considered the relevant grounds of appeal and after considering the facts of the case came to the conclusion that there was no substance in the appeal. In view of the fact that it was an order of affirmance, we are of the opinion that it was not obligatory on the part of the appellate authority to say more than this as the order as it is shows application of mind. The order cannot be characterised as a non-speaking order."

97. A persaul of Ex. W.83 order of Appellate authority dtd. 26-9-90, shows the application of mind by the Appellate authority and the appellate authority has observed that even though reasonable opportunity was given to the petitioner, he failed to enlist the assistance of an member of a registered union of Bank employees and his inability to cross-examine the prosecution witnesses was, therefore, of his own creation etc. and that the other points raised by him in the appeal are irrelevant to the issue. As a matter of fact, the appellate authority has come to the conclusion that there is no justifiable ground to interfere with the decision of the disciplinary authority in dismissing the petitioner from the bank service and hence rejected the appeal dtd. 2-5-1990. As a matter of fact, the Ex. W.83 order of the Appellate authority dtd. 26-9-90 is a Speaking order and it cannot be described as a non-speaking one by any stretch of imagination in the considered opinion of this Tribunal. Moreover, in an order of affirmance, it is not obligatory on the part of the Appellate authority to say more than what is stated in the said order.

98. From the facts and attendant circumstances of the present case, this Tribunal opines that the petitioner/claimant has driver the nails to his downfall by not cross-examining the prosecution witnesses when the burden of proof has shifted on him based upon the explanation furnished by him and the charges levelled against him.

99. This Tribunal opines that as per Bipartite Settlement para 19.14 it is proper for the Respondent/Bank to pass orders in appeal matters within the stipulated period, so that the spirit of the said settlement does not get defeated.

100. In 2007, II LLJ p.856 Shiras Golden Restaurant And Commercial shop & Fact. Est. Union and others, it is observed as follows:-

"Practice and Procedure-Assistance of Lawyer sought by workman to held them in enquiry proceedings. If employer be not represented by legally tained person, workman would not have right to take assistance of the lawyer. Further, charges in this case not complicated involving voluminous records-Held in such circumstances assistance of lawyer not required- No violation of natural justice due to rejection of plea of workmen."

101. The term Misconduct is of two words. 'Mis' means badly and 'conduct' means behaviour. As a matter of fact, 'Misconduct' is a relative term. In stroud's Judicial Dictionary, the term 'Misconduct' means arising from ill-motive. The term 'misconduct' literally means Conduct amiss, to mismanage, wrong or improper conduct, bad behaviour, unlawful behaviour or conduct. The synonyms are -Misbehaviour, misdemeanour, mismanagement, misded, delinquency, offence. It implies a wrong intention. Misconduct is doing something or omitting to do something which is wrong to do or omit. Whereas the person who is guilty of the act or omission knows that the act which he is doing, or that which he is omitting to do, is a wrong thing to do or omit it therefore, follows that the misconduct may or may not be wilful [Lewis v. G.W.Railway Co. (1877) 3 OBD 195].

102. It is to be pointed out that Misconduct arises if a person does what he should not have done and does not do what he should have done or any unbusiness like conduct, including negligence or want of necessary care. (P.N.Railway Co. V. Mooligi Sinai Co. AIR 1930 Calcutta 815).

103. At this juncture, it is pertinent to point out that acts of dishonesty/ or Graud certainly constitute misconduct of serious nature which not only attract dismissal but much else as their legal consequences as per decision 1963 ILLJ p.250 Workmen of Dema Dim Tea Estate V. Dema Dim Tea Estate.

104. Moreover, the quantum of amount as misappropriated by an employee is irrelevant, when there is fiduciary relationship between the employer and Employee. Any dishonest conduct on the part of an employee in relation to the business of his employer is a serious misconduct, in the considered opinion of this tribunal.

105. It can not be gain said that the petitioner/claimant was employed in the Respondent/Bank as cashier, where the confidence of the constituents is a vital one for the success of the business of the Respondent/Bank, in the considered opinion of this Tribunal.

106. In 1999 ILLJ 194 Management of catholic Syrian Bank Ltd., and Industrial Tribunal, Madras-104, & Another, it is interalia held that the Industrial Tribunal can not interfere with quantum of punishment if proved misconduct is grave in nature warranting dismissal from service. Thus, having regard to the facts and circumstances of the present case and in the light of the discussions made above and on examination and consideration of available materials on record, this Tribunal comes to the conclusion that the Respondent/Bank is justified in dismissing to petitioner Thiru K. Ibrahim with effect from 14-3-90 and the point is answered accordingly.

In the result, an award is passed holding that the Respondent/Bank is justified in dismissing the petitioner Thiru K. Ibrahim with effect from 14-3-1990. There shall be no order as to costs.

Dictated to Shorthand Writer and transcribed by her and corrected by me and pronounced in Open Tribunal on this 19th day of July, 2007.

AWARD

This is a reference made by the Government of India, Ministry of Labour by its order No.L-22012/386/2002-IR(CM-II) dated 4-7-2003 in exercise of powers conferred by clause (d) of sub-section (1) and sub-section (2A) of section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 with the following schedule.

SCHEDULE

“Whether the action of the General Manager, M/s. Singareni Collieries Company Ltd., Bellampalli Division in reducing all the increments of Sh. Gummala Chilakaiah, Coal Cutter, Shantikhani, Bellampalli Division is justified or not? If not, to what relief he is entitled?”

This reference was registered as Industrial Dispute No.70/2003 and notices were issued to the parties.

2. The petitioner Shri K. Rajaiah, Vice President, Singareni Coal Mines Labour Union filed his claim statement on behalf of the worker Sri Gummula Chilakaiah, Coal cutter, Shantikhani Mine, Bellampalli area, alleging that the Respondent company has issued a charge sheet against the said workman G. Chilakaiah alleging that he refused to drill 12 test holes at 1 R/36 LS at Belt Dip of Salarjung Seam Shanti Khani Mine in first shift on 27-1-1999. further, the Respondent has punished him with reduction of all increments he earned earlier and reverting to lower stage on the ground that he is responsible for cause of strike for nine shifts. It is further submitted that during the enquiry the statement of Under Manager Sri H. Poornachander, Sri Ch. Veera Raju, Head Overman and Chinthala Luxmaiah, Sr. Mining Sirdar were recorded and that they stated that said the workman went down the mine after discussion with the Under Manager prior to 9 AM and that Ch. Veera Raju, Head Overman has called back the coal cutter from the mine at 9AM, as such the instigation of strick by coil cutters does not arise. It is further submitted that the workman went into the mine at 8.45 AM and he does not know about the alleged instigation of stricke by the coal cutters. Therefore the punishment imposed by the Respondent is illegal and unjustified.

3. The Respondent filed counter alleging that Sri. G. Chilakaiah instigated the illegal strick due to which there was a loss of production of about Rs.98,100/-. The domestic enquiry was conducted giving a fair opportunity to G. Chilakaiah and the charges were proved. The Respondent has taken a lenient view. It is further submitted that on 27-1-1999 during the first shift the Under Manager Sri H. Poornachander got a report from Sri Ch. Veeraraju, Head Overman, that the coal cutters are refusing to drill 12' test hole in 1 R of 36 LS at Belt-dip District of Salaranganj Seam and Sri H. Poornachander and Sri Ch. Krupakar, Under Manager went to the distribution point and enquired the workers for not going down the mine. The said workman Sri G. Chilakaiah, coal cutter told that they will not put test hole in a district and the Under Manager persuaded them but no avail. The workers refused to do the job and the discussions were held upto 9.15 AM. At that point of the time the coal cutters decided to go down the mine but , refused to put test holes and the coal fillers demanded for payment of fall back wages to resume work and the same was rejected by the management and the delay had occurred due to non-assumption of the work by the coal cutters . It is further submitted that the coal cutters and coal fillers were adamant, the Respondent declared lockout as the strick was illegal and the lockout was in consequence of demand of fall back wages by coal fillers. The said Sri G. Chilakaiah was chargesheeted for willful in-subordination or disobedience and going on strike without giving prior notice contravening Mines Act and Rules and Regulations. The enquiry officer submitted report stating that the charges against him were proved. It is further submitted that the enquiry officer has given ample opportunity to the delinquent workman during enquiry. It is further submitted that coal cutters were called back from the mine only after the lockout notice was displayed because of the refusal of the work by the workers.

4. The Petitioner also filed a rejoinder reiterating the pleas taken in his petition and denied the allegations made by the Respondent and pleaded that the delinquent workman did not participate or instigated his Company-workers to go on illegal strike.

5. The domestic enquiry conducted by the Respondent management was found to be valid vide pronouncing orders on 29-12-2004.

6. Arguments heard by both sides under Sec. 11 A.

7. The learned counsel for the petitioner contended that the statements of the witnesses Sri Poornachander Rao, Under Manager and Sri Ch. Veera Raju, Head Overman that the coal cutters remained on the surface till 9.15 AM is contradictory to the statement of Mining Sirdar Sri Chintala Laxman, who stated that after pasting the lock-out notice he went under ground on the instructions of Sri Ch. Veera Raju at 9 AM and called back the workers to surface. As such the presence of the delinquent workman at the relevant time at about 9AM is ruled out.

8. On the other hand it is contended by the learned counsel for the Respondent that the enquiry officer analyzed the evidence adduced by the Respondent management and also considered the statement of the delinquent workman the enquiry and came to the conclusion that the charges are proved. Further contended that there were discussions between Sri Poomachander Rao and the delinquent workman at about 9.15 AM and that delinquent workman bluntly refused to put test holes. The Respondent constrained to declare lock-out by putting the notice and thereafter Sri Ch. Veera Raju gone down the mine and called back the workers. Further contended that the punishment is in consonance with the gravity of the charges.

9. On perusing the material on record i.e; enquiry conducted by the enquiry officer, it is found that the management has examined the witnesses and the delinquent workman was given an opportunity to cross examine them and the delinquent workman also examined himself as witnesses. The evidence of Sri Poornachander Rao and Sri Ch. Veera Raju discloses that the delinquent workman refused to put the required 12' test holes resulting the coal fillers demanding fall back wages and declaration of lock-out by the management. The enquiry officer has come to the conclusion that the delinquent workman has disobeyed the instructions of superiors and instigated for illegal strike resulting loss to the management.

10. The enquiry officer has given reasons for his conclusions and appreciated the evidence on record. This tribunal is not an appellate authority to interfere with the enquiry when the enquiry officer has given cogent reasons for his conclusions. The Appellate Authority also has rejected the appeal filed by the delinquent workman. I do not see any sufficient grounds to interfere with the enquiry officer.

11. The contention of the learned counsel for the delinquent workman that the punishment imposed to the delinquent workman is shocking and not in consonance with the gravity of charges and further contended that the delinquent workman was singled out for punishment and Co-workers who were said to be participated in the illegal strike were not chargesheeted and no action was taken against them.

12. It has to be seen whether the punishment is appropriate to the charges or shocking to the gravity of the charges. It is not in dispute that the Co-workers and the delinquent workman who are said to have been participated in the illegal strike were not charge sheeted and no action was taken. It appears that delinquent workman alone was singled out and he was charge sheeted leaving others. The punishment imposed is appears to be more severe. The punishment imposed to the delinquent workman is reverting him to the lower stage by canceling all the increments earned by him with cumulative effect w.e.f. 1-12-1999 is severe in nature to the gravity of the charges. On considering the material on record I hold that the punishment imposed against the delinquent workman is reduced by imposing stoppage of three annual increments with cumulative effect.

13. Therefore, I hold that the punishment imposed by the Respondent management is modified by reducing the punishment to the stoppage of three annual increments with cumulative effect.

Award passed accordingly. Transmit.

Party No. 2

AWARD

[Dated : 30th August, 2007]

The Central Government after satisfying the existence of disputes between Shri Prakash Shantaram Pahurkar, Party No. 1 and The Chief Inspector of Works, Central Railway, Murtizapur, Maharashtra, Party No. 2 referred the same for adjudication to this Tribunal vide its Letter No. L-41012/102/1993/IR (B-I) Dt. 28-3-1995 under clause (d) of sub-section (1) and sub-section (2A) of Section 10 of Industrial Dispute Act, 1947 (14 of 1947) with the following schedule :—

(2) "Whether the action of the management for not issuing notice to Shri Prakash Santaram Pahurkar, workman to report for duty in Central Rly. Bhusawal, is proper and justified? Can it be treated as Retrenchment and violation of Section 25-F of the I.D. Act, 1947? If not what relief the workman is entitled to?"

(3) Petitioner approached this tribunal with the contentions that he was working with the recognized and subsidized consumer society's canteen at Badnera since January, 1980 to 1-3-1989. Then considering his career and performance of duties, he was employed as casual labour under the Inspector of Works, Central Railway, Bhusawal Division at Murtizapur from 20-6-1989 continuously on open line. From 20-06-1989 to 29-11-1989 he worked for more than 120 days as a Casual Labour and has become legible or status of permanent temporary employee. On 07-11-89 letter no (NG) 11/80/CL/25 dated 20-10-80. He was legible for being brought on monthly rates casually labours. As such he was entitled for the benefits of permanent casual labour under the Railway Establishment Code. In a decasualization Scheme dt. 26-11-1989 he was discharged and was asked to report to X.E.N. Central Railway, Manmad. There were others 59 employees also were discharged. All the 60 employees were asked to report at Manmad but when he along with other employees went to join at Manmad, they all were sent back informing that there was no vacancy to absorb them. Then they contacted the Assistant Engineer, Central Railway, Akola but they were not allowed to resume the duties at Manmad. Letter on all the 60 employees were reemployed. The Petitioner requested the Assistant Engineer (E), Akola, however he kept mum and did not allow him to join. He also made further attempt through the union because in the mean time the remaining 59 workers were reemployed but, in spite of his request, under a false pretext the management did not allow him to join the duties. He was not served with the notice about the availability of the work at Manmad. Thus according to the petitioner he has been retrenched by the respondent though he was entitled for regularization without following the procedure of retrenchment, which according to him is illegal and he is entitled for the reinstatement as well as regularization. Finally he has prayed to direct the Respondent/department to allow him to resume his duties along with continuity in service with a full back wages.

(4). The management appeared and resisted the claim by filing his Written Statement. The respondent denied that the applicant has completed 120 days and he had obtained a permanent status. On the contrary he has voluntarily abandoned the services and thus he is not entitled for any regularization. It has denied that he was engaged as casual labour considering his earlier service or his performance during his service with the Consumer Society's Canteen is as he was not working with Railways. It has denied that the service of the applicant with the Consumer Society's Canteen is under Inspector of Works of Railways. It has also denied that it is a wing or branch of Railway Organization. A person employed by Co-Operative Consumer Society can not be treated under the control and in service of Railways. The petitioner was never employed by the Railway Administration. Similarly it has denied that the petitioner has completed continuous work for 120 days. He was absent and was on unauthorized leave for 29 and 1/2 days during the period from 20-06-1989 to 29-11-1989. Excluding the unauthorized absence he worked only for 104 days. He being surplus casual worker was discharged from 30-11-89 on completion of the work along with other 59 surplus casual labours as provided in the rules. As the work was not available at Manmad, the all the employees were asked to report on work of the bridge work at Bargaon. Accordingly all the other 59 workers reported at Bargaon but the applicant did not turn and join the duties. As he has not completed 120 days continuous service he has not achieved a status of permanent temporary employee of the Railways. At the material time there was instruction to engage the casual workers the management reemployed 59 workers. All the 60 persons were asked to go to Bargaon for bridge work. On 01-04-1990 accordingly all the 59 workers except the petitioner joined the work. They were reemployed since the petitioner did not attend the work. There after he was continuously absent from the work. The other 59 employees were continued. As the petitioner did not attend he could be sent for Medical Examination. Since the petitioner himself abandoned the service he is neither entitled for the benefits under Section 25-F of I.D. Act. Therefore there is no question of compliance of the provisions of retrenchment. The management has finally prayed to answer the claim in negative.

(5). In order to prove the respective contentions, the petitioner examined himself and respondent examined Mr. Khandare S.M., Junior Engineer Gr. 1.

(6). At the outset it can be said that the contentions of the petitioner regarding the earlier service from January, 1980 to 01-3-1989 has no relevance because it was not at all a service under Railway/respondent. It seems that the father of the petitioner was working in the Consumer society's Canteen and he might have engaged in the Canteen but even by stretch of imagination can not be in the service of Railways even through it might be recognized and subsidize. Even the petitioner is claiming 120 days excluding the period of service in the canteen. The submissions of the petitioner in this respect can not be accepted.

(7). Main grievance of the petitioner is that the management did not issue any notice to him asking to report for duty in Central Railway, Bhusawal. According to him it was obligatory on the management to issue a notice or at least display on the Notice Board mentioning where the work was available and to remain present. Since the management did not issue such notice and did not allow him to join the work in spite of his written request dated 6-01-1990, 07-01-1990 and 17-01-1990, is amounting to retrenchment for which the compliance of Section 25-F of I.D. Act was necessary. Similarly the engagement of his juniors is also a breach of mandatory provisions of I.D. Act. While according to the management he has never acquired the status of permanent casual labour as he had not completed 120 days continuous service. Therefore the question is whether the petitioner had worked continuously for more than 120 days during the period from 20-06-1989 to 29-11-1989

(8). In fact the submissions of the petitioner are vague and not disclosing the exact time when notice was necessary. He has simply mentioned at the time of calling for duty in Central Railway. He has not disclosed the place where he could not join due to the non receipt of notice. The management after completion of work at Murtizapur, asked all the 60 casual labours to attend the work firstly on a bridge at Manmad. Later on as the work was not available at Manmad, they were directed to report at Borgaon where the work was available. Accordingly all the 59 casual labours reported on the work at Borgaon and they were engaged or given reemployment. The management was ready to provide the work to the petitioner also but according to it the petitioner did not attend and he voluntarily abandoned the work. His name was struck off from the Master Roll after 3 days of his absence. The management has denied that the petitioner had gone either to Manmad or to Borgaon. As he was absent he could be confirmed though his juniors who joined the work at Borgaon were later on made permanent. Thus the submissions of the petitioner are vague enough as to when he was expecting a notice. Whether it was regarding to attend the work at Manmad or at Borgaon? The petitioner is claiming that he had gone to Manmad along with other 59 casual labours, but the Engineer sent them back. If he had really gone to Manmad, it means he had a notice of availability of work at Manmad. So far as the availability of work at Borgaon is concerned, all the casual labours were informed at Manmad and they all except the petitioner joined the duty at Borgaon. If he had gone to Manmad, he must have a notice regarding the availability of the work at Borgaon along with the other 59 workers. This indicates that the petitioner had not gone to attend the work at Manmad through he had a notice. It also prove that the management had given the notice of the availability of the work at Borgaon. As per rules the notice is expected to be displayed on Notice Board and even oral notice can not be ruled out. When all were informed at Manmad to join at Borgaon it was oral notice to all. It is not to be said that there was no notice at all. It is not at all necessary to serve each member with a written notice obtaining the receipt thereof.

(9). The management has denied that the petitioner has gone to Manmad. The evidence of Khandare supports it. Similarly one casual labour from the 59 workers namely Bhimrao Shivram has filed his affidavit disclosing the petitioner was not with them either at Manmad or at Borgaon as he not come at all. It seems that the petitioner taking advantage of returning all 59 workers due to non availability of the work is making false statement that he had gone to Manmad. There is ample evidence to prove that he had not gone either to Manmad or to Borgaon through the management has displayed the notice about the availability of the work at Manmad as well as at Borgaon.

(10). Now let us turn to the another aspect of the case regarding 120 days continuous working of the petitioner. He claims to have worked for more than 120 days between the period from 20-06-1989 to 29-11-1989 and he achieved the status of permanent temporary employee, while the management is denying it. According to it he was absent for 29 and ½ days unauthorizedly during the above period which amounts to break and can not be excluded while considering the continuous service. While according to the petitioner his absence was authorized. It means there are no disputes regarding the facts that the petitioner worked between the period 20-06-1989 to 29-11-1989.

(11). There are disputes regarding the actual date when he was discharged but even the Statement of Claim is not clear enough to disclose the exact date on which he was discharged. It makes no difference for counting the days. Similarly there is nothing on record to show that the petitioner was on authorized leave. Beside this the management has produced a statement showing the attendance of the petitioner in each month and on calculation according to the management he was absent for 29 and ½ days which was unauthorized absence. As indicated above the petitioner no doubt petitioner has denied it. But there is nothing on record to indicate that he was present on all the days i.e. 130 days and absence if any was authorized. The management has filed a copy of a circular of Govt. of India, Ministry of Railways (Rail Mantralaya). Railway Board, dt. 08-06-1981. On page No. 06 at a caption-C, the break in service is described. This indicates that for the purpose of the counting of 120 days continuous employment the absence of workman under Medical treatment in connection with the injuries sustained on duty covered by the provisions under the Workman's Compensation Act and authorized absence not exceeding 20 days including 3 days unauthorized absence for personal reason will not be considered. It means even the authorized absence for more than 20 days can not be considered and only 3 days unauthorized absence with in those 20 days only can be ignored. Here the petitioner was absent for 29 and ½ days and therefore it will amounting to a break without even considering aspect of permanency on completion of 120 days. However it is clear that there is no evidence to show that he was taking any treatment that too for the injuries sustained while on duty.

(12). It is pertinent to note that the applicant through he had approached to the CGIT had filed a Original Application bearing no. 111/1995 before the Central Administrative Tribunal at Mumbai with the prayer of reinstatement and that was dismissed by the Hon'ble CAT. The applicant filed a Review Petition again before the Hon'ble CAT and that was also dismissed. Again the management has filed at Annexure-8, a copy of order of the Original Application No. 664/1999 which show that he had again approached to CAT with the same prayer and the Hon'ble CAT had rejected the prayer of the petitioner on merit. The Hon'ble CAT had also concluded that the petitioner can not claim that he has completed 120 days. The petitioner while approaching before the Hon'ble CAT had suppressed the pendency of the reference before CGIT and he suppressed though he has amended the Statement of Claim after considerable delay when the final arguments were heard. He was allowed to amend but the amended Statement of Claim is also silent about the orders of the Hon'ble CAT.

(13). The counsel for the petitioner had submitted that he has made representation on 06-01-1990, 07-01-1990 and 17-01-1990 requesting the management to allow him to join the work but as he was absent for continuous 3 days, his name was struck off from the Muster and he was not allowed to join. According to the counsel for the petitioner there is no rule to struck off the name after 3 days and therefore according to him there was no reason for not allowing to join the service. Here is question whether the petitioner has completed 120 days continuous service as a Casual Labour for obtaining a status of permanent Casual Labour. Undisputedly previously he was Casual Labour on daily wages. No doubt there is no rule prescribing the particular number of days of absence but it can not be at the sweet-will of the Casual Labour to attend the work on the days after remaining unauthorized absence. In such circumstances it can not be said that the management has wrongly removed his name when he was absent from the work particularly when he was directed to attend. Therefore the defence of the management that he abandoned the work voluntarily appears to be proper. It does not amount either to the termination or to the retrenchment. Therefore in my humble view he can not claim on the basis of his attendance which is less than 120 days, a permanency in the service and the benefits of Section 25-F of I.D. Act. In the result the reference deserved to be rejected. According I pass the negative Award.

AWARD

This is a reference made by Central Government under Section 10 (1) (d) of Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 for adjudication. The reference is :

"Whether the action of the management of the Federal Bank Ltd. with headquarters at Alwaye Kerala in dismissing Shri George Thomas, Ex-Clerk-Typist of the Koodal Branch vide order No. PIR/M3/P/2266/AW-276/R.242/2002 dated 9-3-2002 is justified? If not, to what relief Shri George Thomas is entitled?"

2. The facts of the case in brief are as follows:—

The workman, Shri George Thomas was a Typist-Clerk in Federal Bank. Two charge-sheets were issued to him on the allegation of unauthorized absence without intimation, borrowing money from customers of the bank, persuading customers and well-wishers to stand guaranty for him and his family members for availing loans and issuing cheques to several persons without maintaining sufficient balance in the account of the workman. A domestic enquiry was conducted and he was found guilty of all the charges and was dismissed from service. The workman challenged the findings and punishment. According to him he was not given sufficient opportunity to defend. He was not given notice of enquiry. The enquiry was held ex parte. The findings are perverse.

3. According to the management, notice of enquiry was given to the workman. He was afforded sufficient opportunity to participate in the enquiry. But he remained absent. Copy of proceeding of enquiry held on 9-11-2001 was forwarded to him by the Enquiry Officer. He was offered a chance to cross-examine the management witnesses. That was also not availed by the workman. Again the Enquiry Officer sent a copy of Enquiry Report to the workman. On the basis of the materials collected by the Enquiry Officer he came to the conclusion that the workman was guilty of the charges. The Disciplinary Authority, analyzing the evidence and the report, concurred with the finding of Enquiry Officer. The workman was given opportunity for personal hearing and thereafter imposed punishment of dismissal. No illegality is committed either by Enquiry Officer or by the Disciplinary Authority. The workman remained absent unauthorisedly without intimation from 3-4-2001 to 12-4-2001 and again from 17-4-2001 to 7-8-2001. He borrowed money from customers and well-wishers and persuaded customers and other to stand guarantee for him and his family members for loan purpose. He also issued cheques without keeping sufficient balance in the account. The past record of the workman is bad. For similar misconduct disciplinary action was initiated twice and punishment of reduction of basic pay by two stages and stoppage of increment for six months were imposed on him. Still he made no improvements. He has violated Leave Rules as well as provisions of Bipartite Settlement. His conduct is prejudicial to the interest of the bank and effect the reputation of the bank. The findings are based on materials and the punishment is in proportion to the charges. Therefore no interference in the findings or punishment is called for.

4. Since the validity of enquiry is challenged by the workman that issue was heard as a preliminary issue and an order was passed on 17-8-2007 finding that the enquiry is valid. What remains to be considered are :—

- (1) Whether the findings of Enquiry Officer are sustainable ?
- (2) Whether the punishment is proper ?

The evidence consists of the oral testimony of MW1 and documentary evidence of Ext. M1 on the side of management and WW1 and Exts. W1 to W14 on the side of the workman.

5. Point No. (1):

There are two charges. The 1st charge is Ext. ME-4 dated 7-8-2001 and the 2nd charge is Ext. ME-7 dated 1-11-2001. As per the 1st charge the allegation is that the workman remained absent continuously without applying for leave and without intimation from 3-4-2001 to 12-4-2001 and again from 17-4-2001 to 7-8-2001. As per the 2nd charge the allegations are that he borrowed money from customers and well wishers. He persuaded customers and well-wishers to stand guaranty for him and his family members. He took possession of a cheque book clandestinely from the bank and issue cheques to creditors without keeping sufficient balance in his account.

6. So far as the 1st charge is concerned it is contended by the learned counsel for the workman that intimation was given to the bank regarding the absence. Therefore, according to him, if at all the absence is treated as unauthorized it is only a minor misconduct. There is no quarrel that unauthorized absence with intimation is only a minor misconduct and unauthorized absence without intimation, is gross misconduct falling within clause 7(a) and 5(p) respectively of the 7th Supplementary Bipartite Settlement dated 10-4-2002 (Ref. page 567 'Bipartite Settlement' by H.P.J. Kapoor, 12th Edition). Therefore the pertinent question is whether intimation was given or not. According to the workman the reason for his long absence is his illness. The workman (WW1) says that in 1986 he had met with an accident and fractured his leg. A metal rod was implanted in his leg. There was metallic infection. Hence he was unable to attend duty from 17-4-2001 onwards. The absence prior to that is, from 3-4-2001 to 12-4-2001, for 10 days. He had worked thereafter last on 16-4-2001. According to the management the intimation about his absence from 3-4-2001 to 12-4-2001 alone was given as revealed by Ext. ME-11 to 16 & 18. ME-11 is a leave application in the prescribed format dated 16-4-2001. The leave applied was for 10 days from 3-4-2001 to 12-4-2001. Thereafter, he joined duty. Again from 17-4-2001 he was absent. Ext. ME-12 is a covering letter forwarding Ext. ME-11 application to the Asstt. General Manager. Ext. ME-13 is Fitness Certificate from St. John's Hospital, Pathanapuram stating that he was fit for resuming duty from 13-4-2001. Ext. ME-14 is a medical certificate dated 3-4-2001 advising 10 days' rest from 3-4-2001 onwards. Ext. ME-15 is an intimation letter dated 17-4-2001 regarding absence. Ext. ME-16 is another medical certificate dated 17-4-2001 stating that the workman requires further treatment. Ext. ME-18 dated 14-7-2001 is a letter of intimation to the bank stating that the workman had not fully recovered from his illness and the doctor had advised him rest for 3 more weeks as per medical certificate dated 12-6-2001 and hence he was unable to report for duty. The management however does not admit receipt of medical certificate dated 12-6-2001. Ext. W-12 produced by the workman before this Court is a copy of that medical certificate dated 12-6-2001. Ext. W-12 (a) is postal receipt of having sent Ext. W-12 medical certificate to the bank. Hence the bank cannot say know that they did not receive medical certificate dated 12-6-2001. As per that medical certificate the workman was advised rest for 3 weeks from 11-6-2001. Ext. W-13(a) is a letter of intimation dated 28-7-2001 sent to the bank stating that though he was fit for reporting for duty due to some personal matters he wanted leave for another six months. Ext. W-13(d) is the postal receipt of having sent Ext. ME-13(a) to the bank. Ext. W-13(b) is another similar letter dated 25-1-2002 stating that it was in continuation of his letter dated 28-7-2001 that he was writing for extension of leave for another 3 months from 25-1-2002 onwards. Thus it can be seen from Exts. W-12, 12(a), 13(a) and 13 (d) that the workman had intimated the bank that he would be absent. However he had not applied for leave except for the period from 3-4-2001 to 12-4-2001. Therefore the absence at any rate from 17-4-2001 to 7-8-2001 is clearly unauthorized.

absence as found by the Enquiry Officer. But the finding that it was without intimation to the bank is not correct. To that extent the finding of the Enquiry Officer has to be modified. A mere unauthorized absence is only a minor misconduct as already mentioned.

7. The other charges against the workman are borrowing money from customers and others, persuading customers and well-wishers to stand guaranty for him and issuing cheques without keeping sufficient balance in his account.

8. As per the charge the workman had borrowed Rs.50,000/- from Smt. Kunjamma Thomas of Pathanapuram and Rs.10,000/- from Shri K. P. Paulose, a retired Sub-Inspector of Police, Pathanapuram. A loan was taken by Shri Ramakrishnan, Chevayur, Calicut pledging 400 units of UTI-64. The loan amount was repaid. But the UTI units were not returned. Shri C. Abraham of Punalur was persuaded to stand as a guarantor for workman. So also, Fr. O. Thomas of Pathanamthitta stood as surety for a loan of Rs. One lakh availed by the workman from bank and salary of Fr. Thomas, who was a High School Teacher, was deducted towards repayment of the loan amount. It was contended by the learned counsel for the workman that none of these persons, except one (Shri K. P. Paulose, a retired Sub-Inspector) are customers of the bank. The amount borrowed from him was only Rs. 10,000/-. Therefore, according to him, the conduct of the workman in borrowing money has neither affected the reputation of the bank nor is it prejudicial to the interest of the bank. It is to be noted that Bank's Bulletin No.27/97, Part IV dated 2-7-1997, prohibits borrowing money from customers Enquiry Report refers to the Bulletin (Pg.3). Even if the workman had borrowed money only from one customer, that was enough violation of the instructions of the bank and hence misconduct. Shri Paulose was examined as MW2. He supported the charge of having borrowed money from him and received a cheque which was dishonoured. Another creditor, Smt. Kunjamma Thomas, was also examined as MW3. She too stated that the workman had borrowed Rs.50,000/- from her and issued a cheque which was dishonoured. Regarding guarantors the Branch Manager of the Bank (MW1) had given evidence before Enquiry Officer that the workman had requested Shri M.C. Abraham to stand as a guarantor, Fr.O. Thomas too stood as guarantor. MW1 also stated that the UTI units pledged by Shri Ramakrishnan for taking a loan from the bank was not returned after repayment of the loan. Besides, documents produced before the Enquiry Officer also support the case of the management. On the basis of the oral and documentary evidence the Enquiry Officer found that the allegation, of borrowing and securing guarantors for loans availed by workman and his family members, is true. The workman had also issued cheques to the creditors. The cheque book facility was withdrawn by the bank from the workman due to his indiscriminate borrowing. It was hereafter that the workman had clandestinely took a cheque book from the bank and issued cheques to borrowers. Ext. ME-9 is copy of a blank cheque signed by the workman.

He is not able to explain how he came in possession of the cheque leaf. The cheques when presented by the creditors were dishonoured. It may be true that out of the creditors there is only one customer of the bank. But that will not lighten the gravity of the misconduct. Indiscriminate borrowing by an employee of the bank is bound to tell upon the credibility of the bank. Persuading people by a bank employee to stand as surety and default on his part to repay the loan, affects the reputation of the bank and consequently it is prejudicial to the interest of the bank.

9. The workman does not have a past good record. he was in the habit of indiscriminate borrowing, absenteeism and incurring debts beyond his means of repayment. Ext. ME-31 and 32 are records of disciplinary proceedings on two previous occasions for similar misconduct of absenteeism and borrowing. The punishments imposed are reduction of basic pay by two stages and stoppage of increment for six months. However, there appears to be no ray of improvement in the conduct of the workman. Repetition of the same misconduct unmindful of the consequences, has led him to the present disciplinary action. The bank cannot tolerate such persons. He has dug his own grave and has to beat his own breast. In the circumstances the employer cannot be expected to clamp a lesser punishment than what is ordered and the same is in no way harsh or hard.

10. As per the charge, the misconduct of remaining absent without intimation continuously for a period exceeding 30 days, falls under Clause 5 (p) of 7th Supplementary Bipartite Settlement, doing an act prejudicial to the interest of the bank under Clause 5 (j), absence without leave under Clause 7 (a) and incurring debts to an extent considered by the management as excessive under Clause 7 (l). The first two are gross misconduct and the last two are minor misconduct. I have already found that the unauthorised absence is with intimation and therefore it is only a minor misconduct. However, borrowing money from customers and others is an act which is prejudicial to the interest of the bank and it is a major misconduct. Unauthorised absence is also a minor misconduct. These are the charges that are proved. For the gross misconduct of doing an act prejudicial to the interest of the bank, major punishment of dismissal was ordered by the disciplinary authority and for reasons stated above it calls for no interference.

11. In the light of the reasons stated above, an award is passed finding that the action of the management of Federal Bank in dismissing Shri George Thomas from service is legal and justified and he is not entitled for any relief. The parties will suffer their respective costs. The award will take effect one month after its publication in the Official Gazette.

After having received the Order No. L-22012/14/95-IR (C-II) dated 14-07-1995 of the aforesaid reference from the Govt. of India, Ministry of Labour, New Delhi for adjudication of the dispute, a reference Case No. 37 of 1995 was registered on 1-08-96 and accordingly an order to that effect was passed to issue notices to the through the registered post to the parties concerned directing them to appear in the court on the date fixed and file their written statement along with the relevant documents and a list of witnesses in support of their claims. AWARD

By order No.L-32011/7/2004-IR-(B-II) dated 21-06-2004 the Central Government in exercise of its powers under Section 10(1)(d) and (2A) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 referred the following dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication:

“(1). Demand No.c : Whether the action of the management of Calcutta Dock Labour Board in not effecting the revised VDA payments to its workmen/

Employees w.e.f. 1-8-2002 is legal and justified? If not legal and justified. Whether the workmen are entitled for arrears along with interest or not?

(2) Demand No. d : Whether the action of the Calcutta Dock Labour Board management in stopping the LTC facility since year 2000 is legal and justified? Whether stoppage of LTC facility amounts to violation of Section 9A of the I.D. Act, or not? so, what relief the workmen/employees are entitled to?

(3) Demand No. e : Whether the action of the management of Calcutta Dock Labour Board in stopping the basic medical facilities like reimbursement of Bills for medicines purchases from out side and treatment got out side since 1999 is legal and justified ? Whether such action by the DIB amount to violation of Art. 21 of the Constitution i.e. right to life of its workmen /employees ? If so what relief the workmen /employees are entitled to?

(4) Demand No. f : Whether the action of the management of Calcutta Dock Labour Board in stopping the retirement benefits (like gratuity/pension) of its workmen /employees who have retired from services since 1-8-2002 is legal and justified ? Whether such stoppage amounts to violation of Art. 21 of the Constitution i.e. right to life? Whether the retired workmen/employees are entitled for their terminal benefits/monthly pension etc. along with interest or not?”

2. When the case was called out on 31-7-2007 none appears on behalf of the workmen although the management was represented by its officer. It appears from record that three unions are involved in the present reference, but only one union, namely, Calcutta Dock Labour Board Workers' Committee filed its statement of claims on 19-08-2004. Surprisingly enough this union too preferred not to appear and contest the matter thereafter inspite of service of notice from time to time. The other unions never entered appearance nor took any step in the matter inspite of service of several notices upon them from time to time. The management was all along present and ready to contest the reference. It was, however, stated by the management in the circumstance that since the workmen are not coming forward to substantiate their claims, they have nothing to answer and it has prayed for disposal of the matter by passing appropriate orders.

3. In the circumstances as stated above it is clear that the workmen are not longer interested to proceed with the present reference and no useful purpose will be served by keeping the matter pending further. This Tribunal accordingly has no other alternative but to dispose of the matter by passing a “No Dispute” Award.

4. A “No Dispute” Award is accordingly passed and the reference is disposed of.

AWARD

By Order No. L-12012/109/2000-IR-(B-II) dated 29-09-2000 the Central Government in exercise of its powers under Section 10(1)(d) and (2A) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 referred the following dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication:

“Whether the action of the United Bank of India in terminating Shri Hriday Narayan Routh and Shri Surendra Routh from the services of the Bank w.e.f. 13-1-1999 and 01-01-2000 respectively is legal and justified? If not to what relief are the workmen entitled?”

“Whether their demand for reinstatement in service and regularization is justified? If so, from what date?”

2. The present reference has been made at the instance of United Bank of India Shramik Karamchhari Samity, hereinafter to be referred as the union. The case of the union in short is that though these two concerned person have rendered considerable period of uninterrupted service with the United Bank of India, hereafter to be referred as the Bank, they have not been conferred the permanent status and they have been discriminated in public employment. The union described these two concerned workman as “badli” and alleged that the action of the Bank in not conferring them permanent status amounts to committing unfair labour practice as per clause 10 of the 5th Schedule under Section 2 (ra) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. Shri Hriday narayan Routh and Shri Surendra Routh were dismissed from service as Sweeper of Calcutta Branch against posting of Sahadur Ram Routh and Ashoke Hela, though Shri Hridaynarayan Routh and Shri Surendra Routh had been working since 02-07-1983 and 18-08-1986 respectively. Said Shri Sahadur Routh was a badli Sweeper in the Shyambazar Branch of the Bank for a short period of time totalling two months and they he was posted as part-time Sweeper in that branch on 23-03-1982 whereas said Shri Askoke Hela was shifted from West Bengal Region-I to Calcutta (Central) Region and then to Calcutta-I Region allowing him the advantages of absorption in more number of branches. The action of the management firstly in denying regularization/permanent absorption of the concerned two workman and secondly in terminating their services during pendency of the conciliation proceeding are stated to be illegal, malafide, opposed to all norms and procedural and other natural justice. Such action of the management is also stated to be discriminatory and violative of the guarantees under Articles 13 (3), 14, 19(1)(g), 21, 39(d) and 300A of the Constitution of India. It is further stated that the policy of the Bank circulated under circular dated 21-11-1988 is oppressive and harsh which purports to classify the persons similarly circumstanced in a dissimilar way is unreasonable, unjust, unfair and above all opposed to public policy and as such the Bank is forbidden to rely on any such administrative policy. It is also stated that the concerned workmen have acquired valuable right of absorption in terms of a verdict of the Hon'ble Supreme Court and such a right cannot be taken away in the name of administrative guidelines. According to the union the concerned workman are entitled to be reinstated in service from a date just after completion of 240 days continuous work and also to get all the benefits attached to the posts held by them had they been granted permanent absorption and had there been no termination of their services. It is, therefore, prayed that an Award be passed answering the first question as mentioned in the reference in the negative and in favour of the workman and also directing that the concerned workmen are entitled to be reinstated in service on regularization from a date adjacent to the date of completion of 240 days continuous work.

3. The Bank has filed a written statement denying the claims and contentions raised on behalf of the workmen. It has challenged the order of reference and stated it to be without jurisdiction and nullity. It is also stated that the reference is based on misconceived interpretation and erroneous understanding of the provision of the law and is a product of misapplication of the relevant material and capricious. Bank has also stated that the dispute is ill-conceived and not maintainable as an industrial dispute. It is stated that the reference is incompetent and void ab initio on the face of it as because the workmen concerned are still being engaged intermittently as a Sweepers in the absence of regular Sweeper. It is also stated that in the reference it has been specified that the management of the Bank has terminated the service of the workmen concerned although the facts remain that they are being still engaged intermittently as Badli Sweepers in the Bank.

Regarding the merit, it is the case of the Bank that it has framed policy for recruitment and posting of part-time/full-time Sweepers in the Bank and the vacancy of part-time/full-time Sweeper is filled up as per Bank's existing policy guidelines enumerated vide Circular No. PA(AS)/82/O & U-125/88 dated 21-11-1988. For filling up the vacancy of a full-time Sweeper, the Bank gives preference to the senior-most part-time Sweeper of the station who is in receipt of at least 1/3rd of the pay and allowances of a subordinate staff and the policy stipulates that the part-time Sweepers drawing lump sum remuneration are not eligible for consideration to the post of full-time Sweeper. For the purpose of selection of Sweepers eligible for drawing higher remuneration from amongst the Sweepers drawing lower remuneration, i.e. 1/3rd of the pay and allowances of a subordinate staff, the letters of request are invited from such eligible part-time Sweepers through the branches and consideration for posting as Sweepers for higher remuneration is made on the basis of seniority in service. The concerned workmen were empanelled as Badli Sweepers, but Shri Ashok Kumar Hela and Shri Sahadur Ram Routh were appointed as permanent part-time Sweepers. As per Circular dated 21-11-1988 referred to above for filling up the vacancy of full-time Sweeper preference would be given to the senior-most part-time Sweeper of the station who is in receipt of at least 1/3rd of the pay and allowances of the subordinate staff. Since Shri Ashok Kumar Hela and Shri Sahadur Ram Routh were permanent part-time Sweepers and they fulfilled the requirement of the scheme, i.e., Circular dated 21-11-1988, they were given the appointment to the post of Sweepers which became vacant due to death of two permanent Sweepers. On the other hand, since the concerned workmen were merely Badli Sweepers, there was no question of considering them for being appointed against the permanent posts of Sweepers. It is stated that the concerned workmen were employed as Badli Sweepers and as such they have no right to be employed. It is categorically denied that the concerned workmen and Shri Ashok Kumar Hela and Shri Sahadur Ram Routh were similarly circumstanced. It is reiterated that the concerned workmen have not been terminated and they are being still engaged as badli sweepers intermittently as and when situation warrants. The Bank has denied that the concerned workmen have completed 240 days work in a calendar year. It is further stated that even if it is assumed for argument sake that the workmen concerned have worked for 240 days in a calendar year, that itself does not give any right to them for absorption and/or regularization in the services of the Bank. It is thus stated the workmen concerned are not entitled to any relief.

4. A rejoinder is also filed on behalf of the workmen in this case denying the contentions of the management and reiterating the case of the workmen as stated in the written statement.

5. The two concerned workmen have been examined on behalf of the workmen in this case. Bank, however, has chosen not to examine any witness in this case. WW-1, Surendra Routh has stated that he was appointed as Sweeper and used to work in the Calcutta Branch of the Bank from 18-08-1986. First he said that he was appointed temporarily and then said he was appointed as a badli, but he was called for performing duties from time to time in absence of Sweepers. He clearly said that he used to work sometimes for 2 days in a month, sometimes 10 days in a month and during some months he did not get any work at all. He made representation for making his job permanent, but it was not accepted. He stated that Hriday Narayan Routh was working with him and he was senior to him. According to him Hriday Narayan was appointed in place of Hari Kishan Routh and he was appointed in place of one Shaikh Nanka who had died. He also stated that Sahadur Ram Routh was appointed in place of S. K. Nanka and Ashoke Hela in place of Hari Kishan Routh. When fresh persons were appointed on permanent basis ignoring their cause, they approached the union and the union raised the industrial dispute. He has prayed for making him and the other concerned workmen permanent. In cross-examination the witness stated that he worked for the last time in the Bank on 21st July 2001 and he had been working all along in the same manner. He admitted that he has not been terminated from service.

WW-2, Hriday Narayan Routh is the other concerned workmen. he has stated in his evidence that he joined the service of the Bank at its Calcutta Branch in July, 1983 as Badli Sweeper. Whenever somebody proceeded on leave he was called upon to work from time to time and in this way he continued to work till 1992. 1993 he was absorbed in the permanent full time Sweeper post when the permanent incumbent died. In January, 2001 he was removed but he did not receive any notice of retrenchment of compensation for the same. During this period he had also worked with the Bank on temporary appointment for 15 to 20 days. He has prayed for his absorption against permanent post and also back wages. In cross-examination the witness has stated that he did not receive any appointment letter either for appointment as Badli Sweeper or at the time of engagement in place of permanent Sweeper. According to him when he was first engaged his age was 19 years. He has also stated that he approached the union which took up his cause. According to him his last work in the Bank was for the period from 1st December, 2001 to 20th December, 2001 which was against leave vacancy.

6. On behalf of the workmen served documents have been exhibited. Ext. W-1 is the letter of union dated 15-12-1998 addressed to the ALC(C), Kolkata. Exts. W-2 to W-2/3 are the proceedings of the joint discussions held in conciliation proceeding. Ext. W-7 is the circular of the management dated 21-11-1988 regarding policy for recruitment and posting of part-time/full-time Sweepers in the Bank. Ext. W-12 is the released order dated 11-1-1999 in respect of Sahadur Ram Routh. Ext. W-13 is the letter of appointment dated 28-12-1998 of Sahadur Ram Routh. Ext. W-14 is the release order dated 31-12-1999 in respect of Ashoke Kumar Hela. Ext. W-15 are the pay sheets and vouchers. Ext. W-16 is a letter dated 10-05-1977 to Ashoke Kumar Hela by the Bank. Ext. W-17 is a letter dated 29-07-1994 of Surendra Routh to the DGM of the Bank. Ext. W-18 is a circular of the Bank dated 22-2-1990. Ext. W-24 is a letter dated 22-9-1993 of the Deputy Regional Manager (Admn.) of the Bank to the Chief Officer.

7. On the other hand Bank has exhibited only two documents. Ext. M-1 a circular of the Bank dated 21-11-1988 which is already marked Ext. W-7. Ext. M-2 is a letter dated 19-8-2000 of the Bank addressed to the Section Officer (IR) Ministry of Finance, Government of India.

8. On the perusal of the aforesaid facts and circumstances relating to the claim preferred by the workmen concerned challenging their termination of services and also seeking relief for regularisation after reinstatement in service, it is evident that both the workmen concerned admittedly had been employed with the Bank as Badli Sweepers and they had rendered their services as such from time to time. As per their case they have acquired valuable right of their absorption and the Bank the action of the Bank in not conferring permanent status to the said workmen amounts to committing unfair labour practice. It has also been submitted on their behalf that by denying regularisation/permanent absorption to them the Bank also got their services terminated during the pendency of the conciliation proceeding and in this connection it is also submitted that the Bank made discrimination by regularisation services of other two persons viz. Sahadur Ram Routh and Ashoke Hela.

9. Management, however, has denied it to be as such and stated that these workmen being badli workers employed by the Bank have got no legal right to be so absorbed as they used to get work only in the absence of regular employees. They did not have any guaranteed right of employment in this connection. The management has also placed reliance on exiting policy guidelines of the Bank, i.e. Circular dated 21st November, 1988, Ext. M-1 (W-7) referred to above by both the parties which governs filling up of the vacancy of full-time Sweeper by giving preference to the senior-most part-time Sweeper of the station. This policy does not apply to the concerned workmen being badli workers and part-time Sweepers drawing lump sum remuneration are also not entitled for the post of full-time Sweeper. Reliance has been placed to the decision of the Hon'able Supreme Court in AIR 1986 SC 1514 (Prakash Cotton Mills Pvt. Ltd. v. Rashtriya Mills Mazdoor Sangh) to show that badli workers are not entitled to any guaranteed right of employment. Badli workmen are really casual employees without any right to be employed. Reliance is also placed on the recent decision of the Constitution Bench of the Hon'able Supreme Court in Secretary State of Karnataka & Ors. V. Umadevi (3) & Ors., (2006) 4 SCC 1 to say that on a survey of the judgements of the Hon'able Supreme Court on the point, the predominant view is seen to be that appointment made without following the due process or the rule for appointment did not confer any right on the appointees and that the court cannot direct their absorption or regularisation or re-engagement or making them permanent. Those decisions which run counter to the principles settled in this decision, or in which directions running counter to what has been held herein have been given, will stand denuded of their status as precedents.

10. Considering the respective claims and contentions of the parties as such, it is evident that the workmen concerned admittedly being badli workers are employed with the Bank are really casual employees without having been so appointed for any regular post and as the nature of their job itself go to show that they have been appointed from time to time in the absence of regular Sweeper. It has also come in evidence that the services of the workmen concerned have never been terminated and they are still being employed from time to time as and when there is such vacancy arising out as such in the Bank in the absence of the regular Sweeper. This fact has also been admitted by the workmen Surendra Routh himself while giving his testimony before this Tribunal that he has not been terminated from service. So is the statement given by the other workmen. Hriday Narayan Routh that he had worked in the Bank from 1st December, 2001 to 20th December, 2001 in the leave vacancy. In view of the aforesaid fact and position of these two workmen against whom no termination order has ever been passed and they are still being given chance to work from time to time, the question of terminating their services does not arise so as to consider their claim in light of their submissions in this regard. The management in paragraph 3 of its written statement has also clarified this aspect of the matter by saying that both these workmen concerned unlike the facts mentioned in the schedule of reference showing their termination of services from 13th January, 1999 and 1st January, 2000 are still being engaged intermittently as badli Sweepers and as such in view of that the question of termination of their services does not arise so as to grant any relief on this count as per schedule of reference.

11. So far as the other relief claimed by the workmen concerned for regularization by giving them permanent status as they have acquired right of absorption, it is evident that both the sides have referred to the guidelines laid down by the Bank circulated under Circular dated 21-11-1988, Ext. M-1 (W-7) in this regard. The workmen has tried to challenge the said circular and the policy of the Bank by submitting that it is oppressive and discriminatory as they have already completed 240 days continuous work with the Bank and as such are liable to be absorbed. Since the matter regarding promotion and absorption is governed by the policy of the Bank which is a statutory body, the matter has to be viewed in light of that and the Bank has to comply with the guidelines already framed by it and the matter regarding policy so framed is a matter within the competence of the concerned statutory body and it cannot be laid down by the Courts so as to confer any right of absorption of appointment to the workman who will get his rights whatsoever available to him as per guidelines which is within the exclusive domain of the concerned authority in this regard. So far as the question of giving this relief for regularization to the concerned workmen is concerned, as per the aforesaid guidelines and circular, Ext. M-1 issued by the Bank, it is evident that the management has submitted that there has been no such violation made by it to confer the right of absorption or regularization to the other two workmen, namely, Ashoke Hela and Sahadur Ram Routh in case they really so eligible under it. But, since the concerned workmen do not fulfill the criteria laid down therein such benefit was not extended to them. Realising this aspect of the matter it was submitted on behalf of the workmen in paragraph 9 of the written statement that the policy was no framed by the management under this circular is discriminatory and it causes prejudice to the right of the workmen concerned who have put in number of years' service and so they have challenged the policy of the Bank as well in this regard.

12. On the perusal of this circular dated 21st November, 1988, Ext W-7 M-1 it is evident that the Bank has laid down the policy for recruitment and posting of part-time/full-time Sweepers in the Bank which in so many works has mentioned the details of the procedure therein. In paragraph 5 of this circular the procedure for filling up the vacancy of full-time Sweepers is also given. As per paragraph 3 of the the said circular it has been clearly provided that a pannel is to be prepared and maintained station-wise for the existing badli Sweepers by the respective Regional Offices. It is also provided that for filling up the vacancies of part time-Sweepers in branches/offices within the jurisdiction of the Regional Office the cases of the existing badli Sweepers will be considered. This itself goes to show that the claim of the badli Sweepers is to be considered from the existing pannel for appointing them as part-time Sweepers first. For filling up the vacancy of the full-time Sweepers, however, as per paragraph 5 of the senior-most part-time Sweepers of the station who is in receipt of at least 1/3rd of pay preference will be given to him.

13. Since both these workmen were never allowed to work as part-time Sweeper and they were admittedly being the badli Sweepers they could not have been considered for any such promotion or for absorption as per aforesaid circular Ext. W-7=M-1 in this regard. Their case is also not at par with the other two part-time Sweepers, namely, Ashoke Hela and Sahadur Ram Routh as it has come in the evidence that both of them were permanent part-time Sweepers, unlike these two concerned workmen who admittedly had been working as badli Sweepers. There is no question of considering them to be appointed against the permanent post of Sweepers like Ashoke Hella and Sahadur Ram Routh who fulfilled the requirement of the scheme, Ext. W-7 = M-1 as two permanent posts became vacant due to death of permanent Sweepers and the question of any unfair labour practice in the above circumstance or making any discrimination by the management for them does not arise. Since both these workmen concerned are still being engaged as badli Sweepers intermittently subject to requirement, the question of their services being terminated did not arise in the past not it has been done so by the management in the above circumstance and their right is admittedly so governed by this circular, Ext. W-7 = M-1 and their names being mentioned in the panel of badli workers and according to it as such they can very well get a chance in future to be appointed as part-time Sweeper or full-time Sweeper as the case may be as and when an occasion so arises about the concerned workmen in this regard.

14. In view of the above, there is no question of termination of services of Shri Hriday Narayan Routh and Shri Surendra Routh from the service of the Bank as it is so mentioned in the schedule of reference and claimed by the workmen concerned about it as they are still being intermittently engaged by the Bank as badli Sweepers from time to time. The demand of the concerned workmen for their reinstatement in service and regularisation as such is not justified and so the workmen accordingly are not entitled to any relief in this case as per schedule of reference in the aforesaid facts and circumstances.

For the Management Shri R. C. Atri

AWARD

Passed on 17-8-2007

Central Government vide notification No. L-42012/48/90-IR (DU) dated 3-12-90 has referred the following dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication :

"Whether the action of the management of B.B.M.B. represented through the Chief Engineer, Bhakra Dam, Nangal Township in continuing wages to Shri Ujjagar Singh S/o. Shri Tulsu Ram, Daily rated Lineman/Wireman during the period 1-2-84 to 31-12-84 at par with the regular/work charged employees of the same trade is justified? If not, to what relief the workman concerned is entitled to?"

2. Brief facts of the case are that workman filed his claim wherein he claimed that he was employed on daily wages as Lineman/Wireman w.e.f. 1-2-1984 till 31-12-1984 in the electrical division of the respondent. In the reply of the respondent that the management illegally terminated his service and his reference is pending adjudication before this tribunal in reference No. 91/87, that the workman filed an application U/S 33C (2) of the I.D. Act, 1947 and the same was registered in this court as LCA No. 211/86 titled Ujjagar Singh Vs. Bhakra Dam claiming wages at par with the regular/work charged employees employed in the category of Lineman/Wireman.

3. That the main contention of the management that 'equal pay for equal work' can not be claimed and can not be decided U/S 33C(2) of the ID Act, 1947 being execution proceedings, which pre-supposes an exiting right. The Hon'ble Labour Court vide its order dated 28-3-89 dismissed the application as the same is not maintainable. Further the Hon'ble Court has held that the claim of the workman can be determined under Section 10 of the I.D. Act, 1947 in a regular reference. The management has no reason as to why they should not pay him the wages at par with the regular Lineman/Wireman, when he had been working with the regular/work charged employees and had been handling the same job. That the J.E., SDO, the Executive Engineer and that of Superintending Engineer and Chief Engineer are the same and the workcharged/regular employees, under whom they had been jointly working. That the workman also governed by the same Certified Standing Orders which are applicable to the work charged employees. He should be paid according to that.

4. Management filed written statement raising preliminary objection that there is no dispute between the parties. On merits, the management submitted that Ujjagar Singh worked as daily wagger in electrical division in different categories skilled mazdoor, Lineman and Wireman. Since the valuation of the duties and responsibilities of the daily rated employees are not similar to that those held by the work charged/regular employees. Moreover the degree in performance of job of both posts i.e. daily rated employees and regular employees is different to each other. In these circumstances no equation can be done in the matter of wages in respect of daily rated employee, regular and work charged employee. Moreover as per the law laid down in AIR 1989(SC), two posts which are equal or should carry equal pay depends upon several factors. it does not just depend upon either nature of work of volume of work done. Primarily it required among other evaluation of duties and responsibilities of the respective post. The quantities of work may be the same but quality may be different and these important factors required for claiming equal wages and cannot be determined by the averments of interested parties. Workman only worked on daily wages in 1984 in different capacities i.e. skilled mazdoors/lineman and wireman against some specified jobs. The wages of daily rated workmen are being paid in accordance with the wages fixed by Punjab Government in BBMB from time to time.

5. Workman filed rejoinder reiterating the claim made in claim statement.

6. To prove their rival contentions, the workman filed his affidavit and management filed the affidavit of one ER Krishan Kant, SDO. Both these witnesses were cross-examined by rival counsel for the parties.

7. Arguments were heard Learned AR for the workman Shri R. K. Singh submitted that workman is claiming equal pay on the principle of equal work only for a short period when during the period-1-2-1984 to 31-12-1984 i.e. for 11 months as paid to the regular work charged employees and his claim is justified. He claimed that workman should be paid accordingly.

8. On the other hand learned Law Officer of the management Shri Tara Singh submitted that contention of the AR of the workman Shri R.K. Singh is not correct. He referred to the judgement 2005 Lab.I.C. page 4322 State of Punjab Vs. Charanjit Singh. He submit that as per above judgement, the principle has no mechanical application in every case. Party who claim benefits of said principle must make necessary averments and prove that all things are equal. He submitted that in view of the above judgement daily wage cannot claim treatment as equal at par with persons with regular service holding the similar post. The responsibilities and duties of daily rated workman are not at par with the work charged/regular workman. The daily rated workmen cannot be treated as on a par with person in regular service. Daily rated workers are not required to possess the qualifications prescribed for regular workers nor do they have to fulfill the requirement relating to age at the time of recruitment. They are not selected in the manner in which regular employees are selected. In other words the requirements for selection are not as rigorous. He also submitted that there are also other provisions relating to regular service such as the liability of a member of the service to be transferred and his being subject to the disciplinary jurisdiction of the authorities as prescribed which the daily rated workman are not subjected to. They can not therefore, be equated with regular workman for the purposes for their wages nor can they claim the minimum of the regular pay scale of the regularly employed. He also relied and referred the judgment in the case of Government of West Bengal Vs. Tarun K. Roy 2004(1) SCC 347 a three judges bench of the Hon'able Supreme Court which considered the doctrine of equal pay for equal work in the following terms:

"Equal pay for equal work"

Article 14 read with article 39(d) of the Constitution of India envisages the doctrine of equal pay to equal work. The said doctrine, however, does not contemplate that only because the nature of work is same, irrespective of an educational qualification or irrespective of their source of recruitment or other relevant consideration, the said doctrine would be automatically applied. The holder of a higher educational qualification can be treated as a separate class. Such classification, it is trite is reasonable. Employees performing the similar job but having different educational qualification can, thus be treated differently."

9. He submitted that in view of judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court and law laid down workman has no where proved as claiming that he fulfills all the above conditions. He simply pleaded that as he worked the similar work as work charged employee or regular employee he did the work should be given regular pay for 11 months. He cannot be given equal pay at par with regular employees and reference may be answered in favour of the management and against the workman as workman is not entitled for any relief.

10. In view of the above submissions and law relied by the management. I agree with the contention of the learned counsel for the management. Relying on the above law referred above. I hold that workman failed to prove that workman is entitled for equal pay at par with regular work charged employees or regular employees. Therefore, the reference is answered in favour of the management and against the workman. Central Government be informed. File be consigned to record.

APPEARANCES

Shri G. S. Ogale,

Advocate for First Party.
Advocate for Second Party

AWARD

Dated : 27-8-2007

1. Statement of claim is filed by an employee Sanjay Rajaram Jamble (second party). It is contended that he was appointed as Laboratory Assistant in NARI/ Syndromic Approach Project on cConsolidated salary of Rs. 4050 p.m. on temporary basis, subject to terms and conditions mentioned in her appointment order. It is contended that on 28-6-2002 her services were dispensed with and termination letter was issued to her. It is further contended that statutory notice of one month was not given to her. It is contended that one month salary was not paid to her at the time of issuing termination letter. According to an employee—Sanjay Rajaram Jamble, his services were illegally terminated without following due process of law. It is further contended that Syndromic Approach Project was not completed and was closed for want of funds and he is entitled to continue his employment till the project would over. It is contended that the nature of the work carried out by him, is permanently available with the management i.e. first party Research Institute. It is also contended that Research Institute published advertisements in various newspapers for recruitment and employment is available with the Research Institute. So, he has prayed for relief of reinstatement on the original post with continuity of service and full back wages.

2. National Aids Research Institute is employer (first party). Written statement is filed at Exh. C-9 by the Research Institute. It is mainly contended that Research Institute is not Industry. It is further contended that research activities are conducted in order to control deadly disease of aids. It is also contended that Research Institute provides treatment to unfortunate victims of HIV. It is contended that the entire research work is owned by Government of India. It is also contended that short duration projects are carried out and are funded by agencies or sponsors. It is further contended that Syndromic Approach was one of such project. It is also contended that once research activities of the project are over, agencies do not provide funds. It is further contended that activities carried out by various projects are not core activities, but those are extra mural activities.

3. It is further contended that employee—Sanjay Jamble was appointed on temporary basis for temporary period in Syndromic Approach Project on consolidated salary. It is further contended that the employment of an employee automatically comes to an end once activities of Syndromic Approach Project are over and funding agencies stop giving funds for such activities. It is denied that the services of an employee—Sanjay Jamble were terminated without following due process of law. It is contended that he is not entitled either for notice of one month or for wages of one month. It is contended that appointment of an employee—Sanjay Jamble is not covered U/s 2(oo)(bb) of Industrial Disputes Act. It is also contended that the employment of an employee is co-terminus with that of project and such employment cannot be continued once project is over. It is further contended that Sanjay Jamble is project based worker and he is not entitled for further employment once the project is over. It is also contended that he is at liberty to apply for fresh appointment in another project, if the nature of the work which he carried, is available in such another project. So, Research Institute has prayed to reject the claim of an employee—Sanjay Jamble.

4. After considering rival contentions of both sides, I have framed following issues at Exh. O-7.

ISSUES:

1. Whether the first party is an Industry?
2. Whether the termination of the services of the second party is legal and just?
3. Whether the second party is entitled for the relief of reinstatement with continuity of service and full back wages?
4. What order?
5. My findings on the above issues for the reason stated below, are as under :

FINDINGS:

1. Affirmative.
2. Affirmative.
3. Negative.
4. As per Final order.

REASONS

ISSUE NO. 1 :

6. Admittedly National Aids Research Institute (NARI) is working under I.C.M.R., Ministry of Labour and Family Welfare, Government of India. This Research Institute works on the basis of 'No profit No loss' principle. Research activities are conducted in NARI to control deadly disease of aids. Institute also provides treatment to unfortunate victims of HIV. Short term projects are undertaken for such research work by the Institute. Those are funded by different funding agencies which are sponsors. Once research activities are over, sponsors or funding agencies stop to provide funds for such project. Once objects pertaining to research activities carried out in a project are achieved, no funds are provided to such project by sponsors.

7. In order to decide as to whether the first party is an industry or not, Bangalore Water Supply and Sewerage Board case is the landmark judgment. Their Lordships have made following observations in the said case law.

"Research involves collaboration between employer and employee where employer is the institution and employees are the scientists, para-scientists and other personnel and scientific research is the service. Discoveries of such research are valuable contribution to the wealth of the nation and such discoveries may be sold for a heavy price in an industrial or other markets. Technology has to be paid for and technological inventions and innovation may be patented and sold. In our scientific and technological age nothing has more cash value as intangible goods and invaluable services than discoveries. Research benefits industry. Even though a research institute may be a separate entity disconnected from the many industries which founded the institute itself, it can be regarded as an organisation, propelled by systematic activity, modelled on co-operation between employer and employee and calculated to throw up discoveries and inventions and useful solution which benefit to individual industries and the nation in terms of goods and services and wealth. Thus the research institute run without profit-motive, are also the industries."

After considering research activities of the institute as revealed from pleadings of both parties as well as documentary evidence on record and in view of ratio laid down in Bangalore Water Supply and Sewerage Board case, I am of the opinion that first party research institute is an industry as per Section 2(j) of I.D. Act, 1947. So, I answer Issue No. 1 in the affirmative.

ISSUE NOS. 2 TO 4 :

8. Both parties have adduced oral evidence. Both parties have also filed documentary evidence. After carefully considering the evidence adduced by both the sides, it is revealed that second party was appointed on temporary basis on consolidated salary in Syndromic Approach Project. In fact employment of second party was co-terminus with the Syndromic Project. As per the terms and conditions mentioned in appointment letter of second party, it is revealed that he was not entitled for G.P.F. or C.P.F. contribution and he was not having any right of claim for regular appointment in NARI and Pensionary benefits were also not made admissible to him. It was made clear by the first party that the appointment in the project was purely temporary and it was only for the duration of the project. It is revealed from the record that different project activities carried out by research institute are funded by different agencies. Once object of research activities in a particular project is achieved or completed, such project comes to an end and funds are not provided thereafter to such project by the funding agency. It is further revealed from the evidence on record that Syndromic Approach Project was already completed and funding agency stopped providing fund to said project. Once research activities carried out by Syndromic Approach Project were stopped and funds were not further provided for such project, it can be easily said that the said project has come to an end. Moreover, employment of an employee in such project being co-terminus with duration of the project also come to an end automatically. Employment of second party Sanjay Jamble accordingly comes to an end as duration of Syndromic Approach Project was over and the work of activities of the said project was stopped and the said project was completed. Once Syndromic Approach Project was over and activities were stopped, employment of second party employee automatically comes to an end as revealed from appointment order. In such circumstances, there is no question of giving notice of one month or making payment for one month to an employee. In fact second party cannot claim such relief as per Section 25-F of I.D. Act. Moreover, termination of services of second party employee is governed by Section 2(oo)(bb) of Industrial Disputes Act. In such circumstances, it cannot be said that the services of the second party employee were illegally terminated by not following due process of law. I reiterate that the employment of the second party was co-terminus with the Syndromic Approach Project and it automatically comes to an end as the duration of the project was over and research activities in such project were stopped.

9. The learned Advocate for second party employee relied on case laws reported in 2007-II-CLR-564, 2000-II-CLR-603, 1993-II-CLR-809, 2000(87)-FLR-532. I have carefully perused the case laws. Ratios laid down in 2007-II-CLR-564 and 1993-II-CLR-809 are in respect of compliance of Section 25-F of I.D. Act. I have already held that the employment of second party employee was temporary and was co-terminus with duration of the project and it automatically comes to an end once the project was over. So, ratios laid down in said case laws are not helpful to the second party employee. Similarly principle laid down in 2000-II-CLR-603 pertain to non-applicability of Section 2(oo)(bb) of I.D. Act. Whereas principle laid down in 2000(87)-FLR-532 pertains to termination on account of non-renewal of appointment whether amounts to retrenchment. I have read both case laws. I reiterate that second party employee is a project based worker and his employment comes to an end once the project is over. In such circumstances, principle laid down in both supra case laws do not attract to the present matter and are not helpful to the second party employee.

10. The learned Advocate for second party employee invited my attention to some advertisements published in newspapers pertaining to the point of recruitment on the part of first party Research Institute. According to him, work is available with first party Research Institute and it can be offered to second party employee. He strongly submitted that in spite of availability of the work with first party Research Institute, services of second party employee were illegally terminated. On the other hand, the learned Advocate for first party Institute pointed out that the advertisements published in the newspapers, are in respect of different projects and different work. According to him, second party employee may apply for such recruitment, if he is otherwise eligible for the same. He denied that second party employee was illegally terminated in spite of availability of work with first party Research Institute. It cannot be ignored that first party Research Institute undertakes different projects or different issues pertaining to disease of aid. Moreover, research activities in different projects are carried out by making recruitment of various eligible employees in such projects. It is revealed from the different advertisements published in the newspapers that various projects are undertaken for various objects by Research Institute and employees of different eligibility and competency are to be recruited in such projects as per the nature of the work and as per competency of such employees. It cannot be said from such advertisement in newspaper that the services of second party employee were illegally terminated in spite of availability of the work with first party Research Institute. In fact second party employee is at liberty to apply for work in any other project, if he is otherwise eligible and competent for such work in other project.

11. Taking into consideration the above discussion, I am of the opinion that employment of second party employee, Sanjay Jamble comes to an end as Syndromic Approach Project was over and his employment was co-terminus with the said project. In such circumstances, termination of his services was just and legal. In fact he cannot claim any relief pertaining to termination of his services. So, I answer Issue Nos. 2 to 4 accordingly.

12. In the result, I pass the following Award.

AWARD

1. Reference (IT) No. 50 of 2004 is answered in negative.
2. Demand of second party employee Sanjay R. Jamble for reinstatement with continuity of service and full back wages is not substantiated and proved.
3. Action of first party Research Institute in terminating the services of Sanjay R. Jamble is legal and justified. He is not entitled for any of the reliefs.
4. Award be prepared accordingly,

APPEARANCES

Date : 27-8-2007

1. Statement of claim is filed by an employee Mrs. Shilpa M. Joshi (second party). It is contended that she was appointed as Lower Division Clerk in NARI/ Syndromic Approach Project on consolidated salary of Rs. 3270 p.m. on temporary basis, subject to terms and conditions mentioned in her appointment order. It is contended that on 28-6-2002 her services were dispensed with and termination letter was issued to her. It is further contended that statutory notice of one month was not given to her. It is contended that one month salary was not paid to her at the time of issuing termination letter. According to an employee—Mrs. Shilpa M. Joshi, her services were illegally terminated without following due process of law. It is further contended that Syndromic Approach Project was not completed and was closed for want of funds and she is entitled to continue her employment till the project would over. It is also contended that she was given appointment for short period from 8-7-2002 to 14-8-2002 on daily wages of Rs. 152 per diem. It is contended that the nature of the work carried out by her, is permanently available with the management i.e. first party Research Institute. It is also contended that research institute published advertisements in various newspapers for recruitment and employment is available with the Research Institute. So, she has prayed for relief of reinstatement on the original post with continuity of service and full back wages.

2. National Aids Research Institute is employer (first party). Written statement is filed at Exh. C-16 by the Research Institute. It is mainly contended that Research Institute is not Industry. It is further contended that research activities are contended in order to control deadly disease of aids. It is also contended that Research Institute provides treatment to unfortunate victims of HIV. It is contended that the entire research work is owned by Government of India. It is also contended that short duration projects are carried out and are funded by agencies or sponsors. It is further contended that Syndromic Approach was one of such project. It is also contended that once research activities of the project are over, agencies do not provide funds. It is further contended that activities carried out by various projects are not core activities, but those are extra mural activities.

3. It is further contended that employee—Mrs. Shilpa Joshi was appointed on temporary basis for temporary period in Syndromic Approach Project on consolidated salary. It is further contended that the employment of an employee automatically comes to an end once activities of Syndromic Approach Project are over and funding agencies stop giving funds for such activities. It is denied that the services of an employee—Mrs. Shilpa Joshi were terminated without following due process of law. It is contended that she is not entitled either for notice of one month or for wages of one month. It is contended that appointment of an employee—Mrs. Shilpa Joshi is not covered v/s 2(oo)(bb) of Industrial Disputes Act. It is also contended that the employment of an employee is co-terminus with that of project and such employment cannot be continued once project is over. It is further contended that Mrs. Shilpa Joshi is project based worker and she is not entitled for further employment once the project is over. It is also contended that she is at liberty to apply for fresh appointment in another project, if the nature of the work which she carried, is available in such another project. So, Research Institute has prayed to reject the claim of an employee—Mrs. Shilpa Joshi.

4. After considering rival contentions of both sides, I have framed following issues at Exh. O-6.

Issues :

1. Whether the first party is in industry?
2. Whether the termination of the services of the second party is legal and just?
3. Whether the second party is entitled for the relief of reinstatement with continuity of service and full back wages?
4. What order?
5. My findings on the above issues for the reasons stated below, are as under :

Findings :

1. Affirmative
2. Affirmative
3. Negative
4. As per final order.

REASONSIssue No. 1 :

6. Admittedly National Aids Research Institute (NARI) is working under I.C.M.R., Ministry of Labour and Family Welfare, Government of India. This Research Institute works on the basis of 'no profit no loss' principle. Research activities are conducted in NARI to control deadly disease of aids. Institute also provides treatment to unfortunate victims of HIV. Short term projects are undertaken for such research work by the Institute. Those are funded by different funding agencies which are sponsors. Once research activities are over, sponsors or funding agencies stop to provide funds for such project. Once objects pertaining to research activities carried out in a project are achieved, no funds are provided to such project by sponsors.

7. The learned Advocate for first party Institute strongly submitted that Research Institute does not come within the ambit of definition of industry as per Section 2(j) of I.D. Act. According to him, it does not carry out commercial activities and is not an industry. On the other hand, the learned Advocate for second party employee strongly argued that research activities carried out by the institute, are sufficient to show that the institute is an industry. He relied on case law Bangalore Water Supply and Sewerage Board case. According to him, ratio of this case law is quite clear on the point that research institute is an industry.

8. I have carefully gone through supra case law. This is a landmark judgment on the point of definition of industry as contemplated V/s 2(j) of I.D. Act. Their Lordships have discussed the research activities on page 308 of the said case law. After considering the research activities of the institute as revealed from pleadings of both parties as well as documentary evidence on record, I am of the opinion that the research institute is duly covered by definition of industry as per Section 2(j) of I.D. Act, 1947 as per the ratio laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in above referred case. I would like to mention the observations made by their Lordships on the point of research activities. Those are as under :

"Research involves collaboration between employer and employee where employer is the institution and employees are the scientists, para-scientists, and other personnel and scientific research is the service. Discoveries of such research are valuable contribution to the wealth of the nation and such discoveries may be sold for a heavy price in an industrial or other markets. Technology has to be paid for and technological inventions and innovation may be patented and sold. In our scientific and technological age nothing has more cash value as intangible goods and invaluable services than discoveries. Research benefits industry. Even though a research institute may be a separate entity disconnected from the many industries which founded the institute itself, it can be regarded as an organisation, propelled by systematic activity, modelled on co-operation between employer and employee and calculated to throw up discoveries and inventions and useful solution which benefit to individual industries and the nation in terms of goods and services and wealth. Thus the research institute run without profit-motive, are also the industries."

Considering the ratio laid down in Bangalore Water Supply and Sewerage Board case by Hon'ble Apex Court, I am of the opinion that first party research institute is an industry as per Section 2(j) of I.D. Act, 1947. So, I answer Issue No. 1 in the affirmative.

Issue Nos. 2 to 4

9. Both parties have adduced oral evidence. Both parties have also filed documentary evidence. After carefully considering the evidence adduced by both the sides, it is revealed that second party was appointed on temporary basis on consolidated salary in Syndromic Approach Project. In fact employment of second party was co-terminus with the Syndromic Project. As per the terms and conditions mentioned in appointment letter of second party, it is revealed that she was not entitled for G.P.F. or C.P.F. contribution and she was not having any right of claim for regular appointment in NARI and Pensionary benefits were also not made admissible to her. It was made clear by the first party that the appointment in the project was purely temporary and it was only for the duration of the project. It is revealed from the record that different project activities carried out by research institute are funded by different agencies. Once object of research activities in a particular project is achieved or completed, such project comes to an end and funds are not provided thereafter to such project by the funding agency. It is further revealed from the evidence on record that Syndromic Approach Project was already completed and funding agency stopped providing fund to said project. Once research activities carried out by Syndromic Approach Project, were stopped and funds were not further provided for such project, it can be easily said that the said project has come to an end. Moreover, employment of an employee in such project being co-terminus with duration of the project also come to an end automatically. Employment of second party Mrs. Shilpa Joshi accordingly comes to an end as duration of Syndromic Approach

Project was over and the work of activities of the said project was stopped and the said project was completed. Once Syndromic Approach Project was over and activities were stopped, employment of second party employee automatically comes to an end as revealed from appointment order. In such circumstances, there is no question of giving notice of one month or making payment for one month to an employee. In fact second party cannot claim such relief as per Section 25-F of I.D. Act. Moreover, termination of services of second party employee is governed by Section 2(oo)(bb) of Industrial Disputes Act. In such circumstances, it cannot be said that the services of the second party employee were illegally terminated by not following due process of law. I reiterate that the employment of the second party was co-terminus with the Syndromic Approach Project and it automatically comes to an end as the duration of the project was over and research activities in such project were stopped.

10. The learned Advocate for second party employee relied on case laws reported in 2007-II-CLR-564, 2000-II-CLR-603, 1993-II-CLR-809, 2000(87)-FLR-532. I have carefully perused the case laws. Ratios laid down in 2007-II-CLR-564 and 1993-II-CLR-809 are in respect of compliance of Section 25-F of I.D. Act. I have already held that the employment of second party employee was temporary and was co-terminus with duration of the project and it automatically comes to an end once the project was over. So, ratios laid down in said case laws are not helpful to the second party employee. Similarly principle laid down in 2000-II-CLR-603 pertains to non-applicability of Section 2(oo)(bb) of I.D. Act. Whereas principle laid down in 2000(87) FLR-532 pertains to termination on account of non-renewal of appointment whether amounts to retrenchment. I have read both case laws. I reiterate that second party employee is project based worker and her employment comes to an end once the project is over. In such circumstances, principles laid down in both supra case laws do not attract to the present matter and are not helpful to the second party employee.

11. The learned Advocate for second party employee invited my attention to some advertisements published in newspapers pertaining to the point of recruitment on the part of first party Research Institute. According to him, work is available with first party Research Institute and it can be offered to second party employee. He strongly submitted that in spite of availability of the work with first party Research Institute, services of second party employee were illegally terminated. On the other hand, the learned Advocate for first party Institute pointed out that the advertisements published in the newspapers, are in respect of different projects and different work. According to him, second party employee may apply for such recruitment, if she is otherwise eligible for the same. He denied that second party employee was illegally terminated in spite of availability of work with first party Research Institute. It cannot be ignored that first party Research Institute undertakes different projects or different issues pertaining to disease of AIDS. Moreover, research activities in different projects are carried out by making recruitment of various eligible employees in such projects. It is revealed from the different advertisements published in the newspapers that various projects are undertaken for various objects by Research Institute and employees of different eligibility and competency are to be recruited in such projects as per the nature of the work and as per competency of such employees. It cannot be said from such advertisement in newspaper that the services of second party employee were illegally terminated in spite of availability of the work with first party Research Institute. In fact second party employee is at liberty to apply for work in any other project, if she is otherwise eligible and competent for such work in other project.

12. Taking into consideration the above discussion, I am of the opinion that employment of second party employee Mrs. Shilpa Joshi comes to an end as Syndromic Approach Project was over and her employment was co-terminus with the said project. In such circumstances, termination of her services was just and legal. In fact she cannot claim any relief pertaining to termination of her services. So, I answer Issue No. 2 to 4 accordingly.

In the result, I pass the following Award.

AWARD

1. Reference (IT) No. 47 of 2004 is answered in negative.
2. Demand of second party employee Shilpa M. Joshi for reinstatement with continuity of service and full back wages is not substantiated and proved.
3. Action of first party Research Institute in terminating the services of Mrs. Shilpa M. Joshi is legal and justified. She is not entitled for any of the reliefs.
4. Award be prepared accordingly.

AWARD-PART-II

The reference is sent to this Tribunal by the Under Secretary of the Central Government, the Government of India Ministry of Labour by its Order No. L-12011/93/2000-IR(B-II) dated 24th August, 2000 in exercise of the powers conferred by Clause (d) of Sub-section (1) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 to decide :

"Whether the action of the management of M/s. Syndicate Bank is justified to dismiss Shri Rajesh V. Merchant from the services of the Bank? If not, then what relief the workman is entitled to?"

14. Workman Merchant had joined as a Clerk in the Syndicate Bank on 23rd July, 1976. Vide Statement of Claim (Exhibit 6) workman contended that he had passed CAIB Examination and therefore he was given increments as incentive and in spite of that he was suspended by the order dated 15th July, 1997 when he was functioning as a cashier in Kandivali (W) Branch and pending his suspension he was issued charge sheet dated 19th February, 1998 alleging that on 31st May, 1997 he had received cash of Rs. 1,16,207 from M/s Bombay Suburban Electric Supply Limited and accounted the same on 3rd June, 1997 and further alleged that he had received Rs. 95,326/- on 3rd June, 1997 from the said company but did not account for the same till 30th June, 1997 thereby he had temporarily misappropriated both the amounts. Workman pleaded that he had denied the same by reply dated 6th March, 1998 but without considering the same domestic inquiry was conducted against him. He further averred that he was not given fair and proper opportunity and the inquiry officer dealt with incomplete evidence favourable to the bank thereby the findings recorded by him are perverse. It is pleaded that the Bank did not examine the material witnesses and that based on the incomplete evidence he was held guilty by the inquiry officer by report dated 30th September, 1998. It is the contention of the workman that the Disciplinary Authority based on the report by the order dated 30th September, 1998 dismissed him from the service w.e.f. 6-1-1999 which he had assailed by the Appeal dated 25th January, 1999. However, the Appellate Authority turned down the same illegally on 10th March, 1999. According to workman inquiry being against the principles of natural justice and finding perverse be set aside.

3. Management Syndicate bank resisted the claim of workman by filing Written Statement (Exhibit 9) contending that the workman while working as Clerk in Kandivali Branch was entrusted with duties of cashier 1-2-1997 onwards. On 31-5-97 he accepted cash of Rs. 1,16,207 from M/s. Bombay Suburban Electric Supply Limited (VSES Ltd.) to credit to their Current Account No. 796 maintained at the Branch and he issued a counterfoil to them affixing the "cash received" seal bearing the date 31st May, 1997 and initialing on it. Further it is revealed that he had not accounted the said cash in the books of the Bank on the same date, however, on 3rd June, 1997 i.e. after three days of handing over the said sum, he accounted for receipt of the same by entering it under Serial No. 107 in cashier's scroll and further contended that on 3rd June, 1997 said company remitted Rs. 675 and Rs. 95,326 by preparing two separate cash challans for credit of their current Account No. 796. Workman received the same cash and issued counter foils by affixing "cash received" seal Bearing dated 3rd June, 1997. The record revealed workman accounted for receipt of cash Rs. 675/- only under Sr. No. 108 in the cashiers scroll on 3rd June, 1997, however after receiving the statement of account for the period 1-5-1997 to 21-6-97 the B.S.E.S. Ltd. vide their letter dated 30th June, 1997 complained about the details of credit of Rs. 1,16,207 on 3rd June, 1997 though deposited by them on 31st May, 1997 and non-crediting of Rs. 95,326/ deposited by them on 3rd June, 1997 towards their current account, and after coming to know the complaint workman accounted for cash receipt of Rs. 95,326 in the books of the bank by recording relevant cash received entry in Serial No. 19 of the cashiers scroll i.e. after a lapse of 27 days i.e. on 30th June, 1997. It is pleaded by the Bank that the workman with dishonest intention of deriving undue pecuniary benefit misappropriated the money received from the customer of the branch and repaid the same after they lodged a complaint. He was having two O.D. account Nos. 33/95 and 26/96 in his name, S.B. Account No. 5537 jointly with his wife, S.B. Account No. 7634 jointly with his parents and wife and has S.B. Account No. 6708 jointly with his sister Mrs. J.P. Jalati and on verification of his O.D. Account during the period February, 1996 to July, 1997 there were credits of 50 in number over and above Rs. 5000/- and during March, 1996 to July, 1997 huge credits were received by the cash/transfer/clearing in joint S.B. Account No. 5537 with his wife. It is further the case of Bank that during the period from January, 1996 to July, 1997, he got outstation/ local cheques frequently discounted at the Branch. Two cheques of Rs. 25,000/- each discounted on 11th May, 1996 under CDD 6/96 and 10/96 were presented in the clearing on 14th May, 1996 and the entries in the CDD ledger were rounded off on 14th May, 1996 by noting the date of realization on 14th May, 1996. These cheques were returned in the clearing on 15th May, 1996 and the amount of the cheques were debited to the CDD head of account but not to his and his wife's account on the same day for recovery. The debit made to CCD amount was allowed to continue. The said returned cheques were presented once again in outward clearing on 21st May, 1996 and credits were released to CDD Head of Accounts. These cheques were returned on 21st May, 1996 and debited again to CDD Head of Account. The relevant debit slips do not bear the signatures of the manager or any supervisory staff, and finally these two cheques were presented again on 31st May, 1996 and were released thereby these two cheques were dishonoured twice and the delayed realization were Suppressed/concealed and not recorded in the CDD Ledger. It is pleaded that the workman was a clerk in the advancess section during that period, he had prepared relevant debit/credit slips. It is averred by the management that a cheque of Rs. 25,000/- was discounted under CDD 51/96 on 28-6-1996 to his father Shri U.K. Merchant for credit of S.B. Account No. 7634 held jointly with the workman. When the said cheque was returned workman operating the same modus operandi recovered the amount from SB Account No. 7634 on 9th July, 1996 and similarly the cheque for Rs. 25,000/- discounted on 10th July, 1997 to Mrs. Rita Merchant, his wife for credit of joint S.B. Account No. 5537 was held by him and returned unpaid and the CDD amount was recovered on 16th July, 1997. It is further contended that, during the period April, 1996, there were transfer of funds from the accounts of different clients to SB/OD accounts standing in the name of workman. The transfer vouchers pertaining to all the transactions were prepared by him fraudulently without the authorization of the customers amounting to indulging in business activities outside the scope of his employment. For all these events he was charged for gross misconduct of doing acts prejudicial to the interests of the bank and indulging in trade/business outside the scope of his duties vide clause 19.5 (j) and 19.5 (a) of the Bipartite Settlement vide charge sheet dated 19th February, 1998 and Corrigendum dated 16th March, 1998. It is averred by the Management that say of the workman was sought however the same being not satisfactory domestic enquiry was held against him and that the inquiry officer giving sufficient opportunity recorded his findings and based on the findings since workman found guilty he was dismissed. It is pleaded that the findings of the inquiry officer are based on the documents and the evidence on record consequently not perverse. Consequently workman's claim being devoid of substance be dismissed with costs.

5. On the basis of the above pleadings my Ld. Predecessor framed the Issues at Exhibit 11 out of which Issue Nos. 1 and 2 were on the point whether the principles of natural justice were followed in the conduct of the enquiry and on the point of perversity of the findings of the enquiry committee which were decided as preliminary Issues vide Part I Award dated 5th March, 2003 and there both the parties were directed to appear in the reference on the point of the quantum of punishment i. e. on the following Issues which I answer as follows :

ISSUES

FINDINGS

3. Whether the action of the Management of M/s. Syndicate Bank to dismiss Shri Rajesh V. Merchant from the services of the Bank, is justified ?

Yes

4. What relief workman is entitled to ?

Does not arise.

REASONS:

ISSUES NOS. 3 & 4 :

6. In this second round of the litigation i.e. while deciding the point of quantum of punishment 2nd Party lead evidence by filing an affidavit in lieu of examination-in-chief at Exhibit 24 and submit that, the order of dismissal if compared to the charges proved is too harsh and prayed to show leniency. In the cross, he admits that, charge of misconduct was levelled against him which was proved. He admits that, appeal was preferred by him but it was turned down by the Department. He admits that, he did not try for reemployment. He admits that, he has not led any evidence to show that, he borrowed money from relatives and credited in his S.B. account. Against that, nothing is led by the 1st party. Written submission are given by the 1st Party at Exhibit 26 with number of citations and by 2nd Party at Exhibit 27 with two citations.

7. The charge of (i) opening/marinating sever SB/OD accounts in his own name and in the names of his family members, (ii) discounting local/outstanding cheques for huge amount and crediting the proceeds thereof to the said accounts; (iii) transferring huge amounts from the accounts of the customers of the branch towards credit of his/his family members account without their authorities including of business were the activities outside the scope of his employment and fraudulently transferred fund from the accounts of the customers of the branch to his/his family members accounts, committing various irregularities were levelled against the 2nd Party Workman. It is to be noted that the 2nd Party was working as a Cashier and after passing CAIB he was granted increment as an incentive and after completing CAIB Part II, he was granted 2 additional increments as an incentive. It is to be noted that the 2nd Party worked with the Bank where number of customers are depositing the amounts with a trust that they are depositing with the hope that, it will give them some benefits as well as security. It is to be noted that the 2nd Party worked for 21 years with the first party at different places.

8. The allegations against the 2nd Party were that of temporarily misappropriation of the customers funds as he was Cashier when he was working at Kandivali (West) Branch. After giving explanation he was suspended and enquiry initiated. After recording the evidence the Enquiry Officer concluded 2nd Party guilty of the charges levelled against him. It is to be noted that, findings given are on the basis of evidence lead and it is not challenged by the 2nd Party. It means that 2nd Party accepts the charges levelled against him and admits these were proved.

9. In this scenario and in the premises and one has to see work place of 2nd Party as he was working in Bank and that too as a Cashier. We have to see whether such type of proved charge can be taken lightly just to help the 2nd Party Workman and how much that is reasonable ?

10. As stated above 2nd Party worked with the Bank as a Cashier. Bank is a public body where amount is deposited by the account holders and it is the duty of the Bank to safeguard and make it available to the account holders as and when they will be in need of it. When the 2nd Party was working as a Cashier, he received a portion of cash, transferred number of funds of customers in the account of his family members. In some cases he did not deposit the amount in Bank in respective accounts. In some cases he transferred the funds of the customers to others with intention to gain. All these allegations are proved against him. Even when enquiry conducted 2nd Party states that, the charges are of a serious nature and when those are proved and if anyone takes it very lightly definitely will give very wrong signal in the Society as well as in the staff of the first Party. So in my considered view, the charges levelled against the 2nd Party which are proved and are not disturbed by any authority till this moment and are of very serious nature as well as related with the bank activities one has to safely rely on it and conclude that, charges levelled against 2nd Party when are proved it cannot be ignored.

11. When charges are proved against him and when that finding still subsists, question arises what type of punishment can be given to such an employee ?

12. In that light, if we peruse number of citations referred by both we find that, when charges are proved by the Bank and in support thereof 1st Party produced Xerox copies of the citations published in 1999 II LLJ page 514 (State Bank of India & ors. Vs T.J. Paul) where it was observed that, there is difference between major misconduct and minor misconduct. If there is likelihood of serious loss coupled with negligence would amount to gross misconduct. Simple negligence also will come under gross misconduct if on account of such negligence Bank is likely to get involved in serious financial loss. In that case, Apex Court observed that, it is a major misconduct and severe punishment is to be inflicted. Another citation published in 1998 (4) SSC page 310 (Union of India vs. Vishva Mohan) where Apex Court observed that, in the case of Bank employee, very good conduct is expected from them as employee of the Corporate Body is expected to do Banking business with absolute devotion, diligence, integrity and honesty. If all these things are not observed, the confidence of the public/depositors would be impaired. If all these things are not observed, by an employee in the employment of the Bank, then it would be treated as misconduct for which severe punishment must be invited. The third citation referred by the 1st Party published in 1987 (4) SCC page 691 (Christian Medical College Hospital Employees Union & Anr. Vs Christian Medical College Vellore Association and ors.) where Apex Court observed that, Section 11 (A) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 does not confer an arbitrary power on the Industrial Tribunal to interfere in the punishment awarded by the Disciplinary Authority. However, I am not in agreement with it, since number of tests are to be applied while examining power given under Section 11(A) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. But in the instant case that ratio does not apply any more as charges levelled against the concerned workman are of very serious nature and were proved. Another citation referred by 1st Party published in 2006 II CLR page 400 (Maharashtra State Seeds Corporation Ltd. Vs Haridas & anr.) where the Apex Court observed that, when an employee holds post of trust and charge sheeted with falsification and misappropriation of funds in that case it would be treated as grave misconduct for which punishment of severe nature is a must. Another citation published in 2005 I CLR page 1074 (Madhya Pradesh Electricity Board vs. Jagdish Chandra Sharma) wherein Apex Court laid down that there must be discipline at the work place in an organization like the Bank and also in any other field. In another citation published in 2003 III CLR page 109 (N.R.C. Employees' Union vs. N.R.C. Ltd.) our Hon'ble High Court observed that when the misconduct is proved against the concerned Workman, in that case, it is not necessary to consider past record while awarding punishment. Citation published in 1994 I CLR page 820 (Kerala Solvent Extractions Ltd. Vs Unnikrishnan) laid some guidelines while granting relief and there it is observed that, if the relief which is to be granted by the court, must be seen to be logical and should not incur and justify the criticism that the jurisdiction of the Court tends to degenerate into misplaced sympathy, generosity and private benevolence while interfering in such a punishment. Besides it is observed that relief granted by the Court must be seen to be logical and tenable within the framework of the law and should not incur and justify the criticism that the jurisdiction of the courts tends to degenerate into misplaced sympathy, generosity and private benevolence and it is essential to maintain the integrity of legal reasoning and the legitimacy of the conclusions. Against those citations Advocate for the 2nd Party placed reliance on the Xerox copies of citation published in 2006 II LLJ page 62 (Punjab State Civil Supplies Corporation Ltd. Vs Sikander Singh) where it is observed that misconduct like causing loss of stocks (of wheat bags) that too 2/3 bags cannot be treated as serious and for that, termination, is not necessary. However, in our case huge amount has been misappropriated and misused by the employee involved in the reference. The facts in that case (supra) are different than facts of the referred case. Same view can be expressed about another citation published in 1979 II LLJ page 14 (Union of India and ors. Vs. J. Ahmed).

If we consider all this coupled with the evidence of 1st Party which proved charges against the 2nd Party Workman and considering his work place I am of the view that the 2nd Party is not entitled for any relief. So I answer those issues to that effect and proceed to pass the following order:
